It's been over a month since you said you were unable to check your mail and i'm trying to figure out what is so difficult to work this out for about a five minute Transcript? I have to keep reporting this to Columbia and i would appreciate another response about why you are unable to fulfill this request for the South Carolina Court of Appeals. Pro se, Jack Powell

I don't know what your problem is because i have already sent you two form letters and multiple E-mails and the next letter i send will be a formal complaint about what you have done and told Miss Desiree when you told her you sent me info on April 2nd about this which you know is not true. So if you want to keep playing this game , well i'm ready!
