This matter is before the South Carolina Administrative Law Court ("the ALC" or "the Court") pursuant to the Notice of Appeal filed May 22, 2015, by Calvin Gaddy ("Appellant"), an inmate incarcerated with the South Carolina Department of Corrections ("Department"). Appellant appeals the Department's decision finding that Appellant was afforded ample law library access. NO CONTROLLING PRECEDENT

The ALC has subject matter jurisdiction when the Department disciplines an inmate and imposes a punishment that deprives the inmate of a constitutionally protected liberty or property interest. Sullivan v. S.C. Dep't of Corr., 355 S.C. 437, 441-42, 586 S.E.2d 124, 126 (2003); (Al-Shabazz v. State), 338 S.C. 354, 369, 527 S.E.2d 742, 750 (2000); Skipper v. S.C. Dep't of Corr., 370 S.E. 267, 273-74, 633 S.E.2d 910, 914 (Ct. App. 2006). Slezak v. South Carolina Department of Corrections, 361 S.C. 327, 605 S.E.2d 506 (2004), provided further clarification that this Court has jurisdiction of all inmate grievance appeals that have been properly filed. However, when the grievance appeal does not implicate a state-created liberty or property interest, the ALC may summarily dismiss the appeal at its discretion. (Furtick v. South Carolina Department of Corrections), 374 S.C. 334, 649 S.E.2d 35 (2007). DOUBLE JEOPARDY. LIFE & LIMB'S

For the purpose of establishing jurisdiction, a state-created liberty or property interest exists when (1) an inmate is disciplined and punishment is imposed, or (2) when an inmate alleges prison officials have erroneously calculated his sentence, sentence-related credits, or custody status. Sullivan, 355 S.C. at 441, 586 S.E.2d at 126. Additionally, this Court has jurisdiction when an inmate contests the Department's decision to permanently deny the inmate's parole eligibility. Id. Finally, under certain circumstances, an inmate may have a state-created liberty interest in "freedom from restraint which, while not exceeding the sentence in such an unexpected manner as to give rise to protection by the Due Process Clause of its own force . . . nonetheless imposes atypical and significant hardship on the inmate in relation to the ordinary incidents of prison life.” Sandin v. Conner, 515 U.S. 472, 483-84 (1995); see Sullivan, 355 S.C. at 443, 586 S.E.2d at 127 (applying Sandin to resolve a “condition of confinement claim”).

Pending x double-Jeopardy Page 1 of 2 RISK, LIFE, DANGERMENT
$ H. NEVER (CONVICTED) FELONY STATE LAWS

Here, Appellant complains that the Department failed to provide him with adequate time in the law library, ultimately, depriving him access to the courts. This complaint does not arise from punishment administered for a disciplinary conviction, nor does it relate to Appellant’s sentence, sentence-related credits, or custody. Moreover, this is not an “atypical” condition of restraint. Accordingly, Appellant has not alleged deprivation of a state-created liberty or property interest in this matter. Therefore, the Court finds Furtick to be controlling, and the case is dismissed for lack of jurisdiction.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this appeal is DISMISSED, with prejudice.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

RESPONSIBLE OFFICIAL'S DECISION AND REASON:

I have reviewed your complaint. You were provided access to the law library from August 5, 2014 through October 16, 2014. According to SCDC policy GA-01.03, Access to the Courts, Inmates who can demonstrate a pending court deadline will be given priority to use the law library over inmates with no such deadlines. NOTE: Priority access permits access to accommodate legitimate deadlines. However, inmates should manage their deadlines such that there is ample time for access to be scheduled. Scheduling should afford all inmates an opportunity for access. You utilized the law library 17 days in August 2014; 10 days in September 2014 and eight days in October 2014. Therefore, you were afforded ample law library access. The common living area is not the appropriate place for preparing a pending court case. The common area is used for watching television or participation in a scheduled program. You were able to prepare for your pending court case in your room which allowed for you to continue to prepare your case.

Therefore, your grievance is denied.

You may appeal this decision under the Administrative Procedures Act. In order to appeal, you must fill out the attached Notice of Appeal Form and submit it as instructed on the form within 30 days of receipt.

WARDEN'S DECISION AND REASON:

Inmate Gaddy, Calvin 323551

To Whom it May Concern:

This office is in receipt of your document. It is unclear what issues you are attempting to raise in your letter or what relief you are attempting to seek. Civil rights forms are enclosed.

Under Article III of the Constitution of the United States, federal district courts, such as the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina, have jurisdiction over cases or controversies. As a result, a case must be filed before a federal district court can act on or consider a matter. Also, a federal district court can not issue an advisory opinion, nor can its employees render legal advice.

You are being sent a set of forms. If you intend to file a case in this Court, please complete the appropriate forms and briefly state your cause of action, the relief you are seeking, and name the defendants or respondents from whom you seek the relief.

Sincerely,

(ROBIN L. BLUME, Clerk of Court)

WARDEN'S DECISION AND REASON:

Inmate Gaddy, Calvin 323551

This is in response to LCI-1511-13. All pertinent information and documentation has been reviewed. Health Care Authority (HCA) Mauney was contacted and as stated on 09/04/13 you arrived at Sick Call requesting to have your eyes checked. A Snellen Eye Exam was performed and the results were forwarded for review. After review by Dr. J McRee and in accordance with SCDC Policy HS-300.16 "Eye Exams and Treatment" it was determined you did not qualify for further optometry. HCA Mauney has further stated you are not being treated for cataracts nor have you been diagnosed with cataracts. After speaking with HCA Mauney I have determined you are receiving the proper medical attention. I must rely on the professionalism of the medical staff to provide care to you as needed. Your records indicate you have been seen and treated by staff in accordance with policy.

On occasion medical does receive donated reading glasses which are distributed by the medical staff. You will be required to request a sick call visit for the purpose of reading glasses and if the medical staff feels it is necessary a pair will be distributed to you. You may also visit the Canteen and purchase a pair of reading glasses on your own.

Based on this information, your grievance is denied.

If not satisfied with my response, see Step 5 below.

- ☐ I accept the Warden's decision and consider the matter closed.
☒ I do not accept the Warden's decision and wish to appeal.

WARDEN'S DECISION AND REASON:

Inmate Gaddy, Calvin 323551

This is in response to LCI-0198-14. All pertinent information and documentation has been reviewed. Per PS-10.08 "Inmate Correspondence Privileges" legal mail refers to mail sent out to, or received from officials of federal, state, and local courts, attorneys, court clerks, judges, legal aid societies, attorney's authorized representatives, the S.C. Attorney General, the U.S. Attorney General, and SCDC Office of General Counsel. PS-10.08 further defines privileged mail as mail sent to, or received from, law enforcement officials; federal officials; state officials; officials of the SCDC at the level of Warden or higher; South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon; and correspondence addressed to/from diplomatic representatives of an inmate's country if the inmate is a foreign national. Per your grievance, you are attempting to send correspondence to South Carolina Governor Nikki Haley which falls under the definition of privileged. Policy allows inmates to send unlimited amounts of privileged correspondence provided he has the funds to pay for it or, if he is indigent, use the general mail supplies provided to him. The mail room staff is following policy by stating you cannot use your legal envelopes for this correspondence and allowing you to place it in the correct envelope for outgoing mail services.

Based on this information, your grievance is denied.

If not satisfied with my response, see Step 5 below.

- ☒ I accept the Warden's decision and consider the matter closed.
☐ I do not accept the Warden's decision and wish to appeal.

RESPONSIBLE OFFICIAL'S DECISION AND REASON:

It is my finding that he warden addressed your concerns appropriately in compliance with SCDC policy PS-10.08 "Inmate Correspondence Privileges". While you can represent yourself in court as a pro se litigant, you may not represent or hold yourself out as an "attorney" if you are not licensed. Prison inmates retain only those First Amendment rights that are not inconsistent with his status as a prisoner or with the legitimate penological objectives of the corrections system. (Pell v. Procunier, 417 U.S. 817, 822 (1974) Procunier v. Martinez, 416 U.S. 396, 412 (1974)). Also, Courts have determined that deference, with regards to inmate's 14th amendment rights, is given to Institutional officials in the adoption and execution of policies and practices that in their judgment are needed to preserve discipline and to maintain internal security. SCDC policy PS-10.08 defines "Privileged Mail" as "Refers to mail sent to, or received from, law enforcement officials; federal officials (President, Vice-President, members of Congress, etc.); state officials (Governor, Lieutenant Governor, members of the General Assembly, etc.)..." Moreover, you have not provided any evidence and none has been found that this policy should be changed. Additionally, SCDC Policies are studied and approved by the Office of General Counsel and is reviewed annually. If the General Counsel deems a change is needed they will update the policy accordingly.

Therefore, your grievance is denied.

You may appeal this decision under the Administrative Procedures Act to the Administrative Law Court. In order to appeal, you must fill out the attached Notice of Appeal Form and submit it as instructed on the form within 30 days of receipt.
