Re: James Robertson v. South Carolina

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

It is my understanding that the Court wishes to hold argument in this case during the October term on either October 6-8 or October 20-21. Thank you for providing me with this information. Unfortunately, I have several pre-existing commitments during these dates in October, including teaching obligations and an oral argument in another case in Rochester, NY on October 21st. Thus, the only date on which I am available is October 8th. However, if the Court prefers, I am more widely available during the November term, and I could be in South Carolina on any date after November 2nd.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Keir M. Weyble
