

To whom it may concern;

I received a document of the Court of Appeals decision on my appeal which was filed on July 15, 2015. I understand that my appeal was dismissed. I don't understand why, because there was no explanation concerning neither of the four issues my counsel and I argued. Court of Appeals stated that they decided this case without oral argument and dismissed it after consideration of Appellant's pro se brief and Anders brief. My counsel was relieved as my defender. After receiving the court's decision the Division of Appellate Defense sent me a PCR application and said filing it is solely my responsibility to file the PCR application with a year.

My questions are:

1. May I be appointed an indigent defense attorney?
2. Will I receive any explanation ext. of the literature in law on the court's dismissal of my appeal?
