

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Derrick Antron Young, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2014-002709

---

ORDER

---

The appendix filed in this matter does not contain page numbers, nor does it contain the State's return to petitioner's application for post-conviction relief (PCR), the indictments for all charges, the sentencing sheets for all charges or the order of dismissal. The appendix does contain unredacted personal data identifiers.

The State has filed a motion to compel petitioner to either reformat and resubmit the appendix or include the missing documents, which it states were before the PCR judge and are relevant and pertinent to this matter, in a supplemental appendix. Petitioner has not filed a return to the motion.

We hereby strike the appendix. Petitioner shall, within twenty days of the date of this order, serve and file an amended appendix that includes the material required by Rule 243(f), SCACR, includes consecutive page numbers beginning with the index, see Rule 243(f)(3) and Rule 210(c) and (e), SCACR, and complies with this Court's order in In re Revised Order Concerning Personal Identifying Information and Other Sensitive Information in Appellate Court Filings, 407 S.C. 607, 757 S.E.2d 421 (2014). The time limits for the State's return to the petition for a writ of certiorari are held in abeyance pending service of the amended appendix.
