To whom it may concern:

I am writing to express the reason why my appeal should not be dismissed. The reason I applied for an appeal is because my due process was not explained. I was not aware of the process and the procedure and my duty to prove my claim the first time by the magistrate court. I had all paperwork to support my claim and was not given the opportunity to present them. Whereas, I feel would have made a difference in the final decision. I also adhere to the ruling until the property owner refuses my rental payment. My rent is due on the 1st of the month that is considered late after the 5th with a 25 dollar charge. I went in on the 7th because the money order that I bought on the 1st went missing. I did communicate that to the property manager after she returned back from the 4th of July holiday but to no avail she refused payment on the 7th. Money for rent is taken up to the 10th of the month but, the property manager stated since it was me and I had an appeal in progress she will not take my rent when presented. Her actions reflect a personal rather than business decision. Therefore, when this appeal is heard all things should be considered.

With Kind Regards,

Laverne Skipper
