In Re: Enoch Lemon v. Richland County Sheriff's Department
Case Tracking No.: 2015-000-518

Dear Ms. Miles:

This is in response to your letter dated July 28, 2015, advising that you have not received the transcript in the above-reference matter from the court reporter. I tried to call your office this afternoon and no one answered. If you will provide a copy of your request to the court reporter, I will be in a position to follow up on this request.

Our records reflect only email exchanges between Brittany Washington in your office and Karen Ambroziak who indicated that she was not the court reporter. I have attached a copy of that exchange.

If you have not yet determined who the court reporter was, you may call my office with the date of the hearing and the judge who presided. Ms. Owens in my office will provide the name and contact number of the court reporter so that you may request the transcript from the court reporter who recorded the proceedings. I am sorry for the delay, as it appears this exchange was in March of this year. I have copied the parties listed in your letter to Court Administration so that they may be kept abreast of this situation

Sincerely,

Desifree R. Allen

I looked at the filing dates on richlandonline.com but didn't see a date close to the date on your letter. It's possible that was the date he signed the order. I checked my records for the entire week.

Ms. Miles,

I received a letter requesting the above-referenced transcript. I was assigned to a term of General Sessions during this particular week, and my records do not reflect a hearing with this case name heard before Judge Hood. The court docket shows Debbie McCurdy was assigned to record a term of Common Pleas Non Jury on September 12, 2014 with Judge Benjamin. Judge Hood did not have a hearing captioned with this name placed on the record during the week of September 8-12, 2014

Thank you.

Karen Ambroziak, RPR
