my Goldie Reeves Affidavit

When I first decided to do an appeal, I contacted and met with a Greenville Attorney and a former attorney and felt since we had been friends over forty years, I felt I would not have to spend too much time in appointment.

My former attorney sent him very important documents from my case on appeal and have remained with the new Attorney.

He reviewed those items and we met. He said the case was good and while I was meeting I noticed he had pain walking. He said he had a hip replacement. I asked if he was well enough to help me. He said I was like one of the family. He was aware I was working pro se and was going to let me work a lot of the kinks out and organization.

But he had worked also as a judge. Our kids were friends also. I contacted him multiple times to meet. He appeared to be very busy.

About six weeks ago I became sick with a second type of cancer and have been taking a great deal of time for my health.

I have tried to go by his office but the door is locked and no one is there. I tried his phone and no one answered and his email account is closed. I became very concerned and called all our mutual friends, trying to get my items and see what was going on. I heard from another one of my attorneys who is a bit senile our mutual friend had a stroke. I have diligently tried to find him.

Since I have had two strokes myself I felt he may be staying with his former wife, being nursed alone. But her number is also disconnected. I can not find him or have my papers, in tact.

I called David Wilkins for help and he was going to ask a partner to help me but he was too busy.

I have talked with about four firms and everyone is too busy at this time.

This case has many disciplines and a seasoned court officer would be of greatest help.

This case is based on fraud, bias and a new element I have discovered called fraud in the inducement. I'm over my head and must continue with an attorney and feel I can locate my first choice for a counselor, or at least time to find another selection.

I did speak with the clerk of court and she believed I could possibly be granted an extension in the furtherance of the law.

Please excuse my typing. I can not type or write any longer because of my health.

But contrary to my opponent my mind is strong and good. Be weary.

Of negative input. The appeal is based on fraud, deceit, and bias.
It is a real snake pit.

Much appreciation for your time and consideration.

Sincerely yours.

Goldie Reeves
