Mr. Shermanhouse,

This in response to correspondence of July 29th, 2015. I find it quite disturbing that after I've complied w/ SCACR, that this court is claiming that it didn't receive the notice of appeal w/ contemporaneous filing of explanation required by said rules. I think it would prove futile to provide another notice of appeal w/ proof of service, that I've already filed w/ this Court. So am I expected to do my due diligence in complying w/ the rules only to be told by this Court it didn't receive the papers? I assume this Court also didn't receive the Motion for Trans. at Cost, Expense/Motion for Counsel that was mailed on 7-2-15 to this Court as well? It appears to be an elaborate conspiracy by the State of South Carolina & its Agencies & courts to deny myself access to the courts & other rights allotted by the Const. I am ashamed to be a South Carolinian, & if this Court is complicit in the referenced malfeasance, it should be ashamed as well.

For this Court, this State, to tangle over a persons rights due to circumstance, status & other is abhorrent.

I find it interesting that the simple proof of service was an omission in the mail that I received from this Court. I mailed all of the requisite papers to this Court before deadline filing date, & this is the most egregious act by a State & its arms to date. In kind, return this correspondence w/ S. Ct stamp. I will seek justice in another venue. It is unreasonable to ask my appellant to re-do all of the work I've done w/ filing the papers w/ this Court, as all parties were served & put on notice.

Dated:
8-4-15

Sincerely,
Dion O. Taylor
