Re: David E. Gregg v. State
Appellate Case No. 2015-001797
Lower Court Case No. 2011CP423521

Dear Mr. Gregg:

This Court has received your petition for a belated appeal. Since a notice of appeal was filed in the circuit court, this petition is being construed as a motion to allow the late filing of this notice of appeal with this Court.

Prior to ruling on the motion, it will be necessary for you to provide this Court with a proof of service showing the notice of appeal has been served on opposing counsel. This proof of service should be filed within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter.¹ See Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(i) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (notice of appeal to be filed with proof of service showing that the notice of appeal has been served on all respondents); Form 7, Proof of Service of a Notice of Appeal, Appendix C, to Part II of the SCACR.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of several loops and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

CLERK
