Re: Robert Schivera, Executor of the Estate of Fred J. Hughes, III
Versus
C. Russell Keep, III, Esquire and Rhonda Mitchell, Jasper County Tax Collector
Appellate Case No. 2015-UP-384 (SC Ct. App. Filed August 20, 2015)

Dear Mr. Shearouse,

I am about to file an Appendix. Reference is craved to Rule 242(e) Appendix, "if the appendix contains any of the documents specified in (2) above, a copy of the appendix must be served on opposing counsel." (2) above states; "If the matter was dismissed by the Court of Appeals for procedural or other reasons, the Appendix shall include any documents relevant to the dismissal including any motion to dismiss and any return or reply that may have been filed." This case was not dismissed by the Court of Appeals for procedural or other reasons, so I don't think I have to serve the Appendix on opposing counsel.

Does each page of the Appendix need to be numbered or can each document be tabbed instead? I see that one copy must be bound, does it need to be in any particular color? Is there any rule as to how it is bound?

Sincerely,

RECEIVED
