Re: Charles Jordan v. The State
Appellate Case No. 2015-001479
Lower Court Case No. 2013CP1600678

Dear Petitioner:

This Court has received the notice of appeal in the above post-conviction relief action.

Since the order of the circuit court determined that this action is barred as being successive and as being untimely under the statute of limitations, Rule 243(c) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules requires you to provide a written explanation as to why this determination was improper. This explanation must contain sufficient facts, argument and citation to legal authority to show that there is an arguable basis for asserting that the determination by the lower court was improper. The failure to make a sufficient showing may result in the dismissal of this matter.

Please provide the explanation required by Rule 243(c) within twenty (20) days of the date of this letter. If you want this Court to consider the document you entitled "[initial] brief of appellant" to be your explanation under Rule 243(c), you can simply advise this Court that it should consider this document as your explanation.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of several loops and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

CLERK
