Bond Revocation Hearing

Dear Mr. Moseley:

I am in receipt of a letter dated September 18, 2014 to you from South Carolina Court Administration wherein it has been determined that the date of your hearing was actually held on January 29, 2013. Mr. Moseley, it appears that I was the court reporter for Williamsburg County for that week. I will be glad to place your bond revocation hearing in line to be typed upon receipt of a deposit. I understand from your letter that you have already forwarded a money order to the Clerk of Court of Williamsburg County, Ms. Sharon Staggers, and I will be glad to accept the same amount of $33.15, which is what you are indicating is the amount of the money order.

Upon receipt of a money order made payable to Melissa R. Singletary, I will place your request in line to be transcribed. If, upon completion of your transcript you have overpaid me, I will send you a refund; however, if the transcript is more, I will advise in writing and will forward the transcript to you upon receipt of the balance of monies due.

Sincerely,
