Re: Mother Doe A v. The Citadel, No. 2011-CP-10-9200

Dear Ms. Garrison:

The South Carolina Supreme Court has you listed as the reporter for the proceedings before Judge Dennis that began on Monday, January 26 in this case, and their listing fits with my recollection. We spent that Monday picking a jury and Tuesday morning, when we expected to begin the trial, Judge Dennis reversed himself and issued a ruling granting summary judgment for the Defendants.

I am told that the transcript has already been ordered by my co-counsel at Pierce, Hems, Sloan & Wilson, in Charleston. So this may be duplicative, and of course we need only one copy of the transcript. I write, though, to clarify that we may need the entire proceedings of that week for this case, meaning the proceedings of both Monday and Tuesday, not only the ruling portion on Tuesday. So this is to confirm that we are requesting the transcript of the proceedings from their beginning on Monday until Judge Dennis gave us his ruling.

Of course I will be responsible for the fees associated with that transcript. Please consider this my order for the transcript.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Gregg Meyers
