Re: Derek S. Carter v. SC Dept. of Probation
Appellate Case No. 2015-001162

Dear Mr. Carter:

The Court has received your letter of August 12, 2015, regarding copies of your appellant's initial brief previously filed with this Court. We have enclosed a copy of your brief as you have requested. However, the Court requires not only the copies, but also a self-addressed, stamped envelope to be returned to you. If you fail to provide the copies and the envelope with the correct postage, your documents will not be returned to you.

Also be advised that the Court requires that you serve and file the original record on appeal and the original appellant's final brief. You will not be required to provide the fifteen bound copies as described in Rule 267, SCACR.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
