Re: Anita Bacchi v. America's Source
Appellate Case No.: 2015-000670

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Our office received a letter dated September 1, 2015, asking that we serve and file our final brief in this case, within 20 days of receipt. However, please be advised that on August 14, 2015 we received an email from Ryan Siden, an attorney licensed to practice in the state of Massachusetts, asking for a 30 day extension for the respondents' initial brief. James R. Snell, the attorney of record in this case, consented to the extension. The reason requested for the extension was due to Marshall Biddle's inability to represent the respondents and therefore, respondents must seek successor counsel licensed to practice in South Carolina to assist them in this appeal. Therefore, the 30 day extension as currently in place extends the respondents' time to file the initial brief until September 22, 2015 (30 days from the August 22, 2015 initial deadline).

I apologize for any confusion this may have caused, as I was just informed about the extension. Please do not hesitate to contact me with questions or concerns you may have. Additionally, please note that I still do not have any record of successor South Carolina counsel for the respondents, but I have notified their counsel in Massachusetts about this correspondence. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Vicki Koutsogiannis
Attorney for the Appellant
