RE: State v. Erick E. Hewins
Appellate Case No: 2015-00595

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

On September 14, 2015, our office received Petitioner's Reply Motion To Reply Out of Time, in which Petitioner refers to his earlier request for the Court to dismiss the Respondent's Return to Petition for Writ of Certiorari as frivolous. To the extent that request required a response from Respondent, please accept this letter from the State respectfully requesting the Court deny Petitioner's Motion to Dismiss the Respondent's Return to Petition for Writ of Certiorari, as the Petitioner improperly sets forth arguments not in accordance with the rules of Appellate practice

I understand this may be a bit confusing. If further explanation or additional information is needed please let me know.

Sincerely,

Susannah Cole
Assistant Attorney General
