Re: Overland v. Lara Nance
Appellate Case No.: 2015-000523

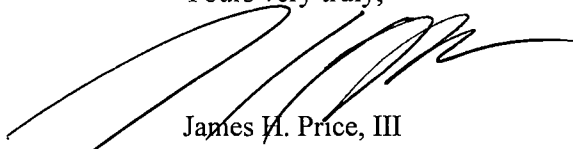

Dear Ms. Allen:

I am responding to your letter of August 25, 2015, pertaining to my client, Ms. Lara Nance, concerning the above referenced appellate case. I did not file an initial brief and designation of matter on behalf of Ms. Nance for the following reasons:

1. Ms. Nance, once again, sent a duly executed confession of judgment to the Plaintiff in which she agreed that she owed Plaintiff the sum of $1,282,749.90. As far as Ms. Nance is concerned that should end the matter as far as it affects her.
2. We have no dog in the appellate fight. We agree with any designated matter that someone suggests.
3. My contract specifically excluded an appeal.

Please let me know if this letter will suffice.

Yours very truly,

James H. Price, III
