Trial Court Case No. 2013-002659

Rule 59 E

Appellant petitions this Court to alter judgment, to allow a petition for certiorari to be filed in the above matter since issuance of this Court's order dated August 12, 2015, Case No. 2013-002659. Rules 221(A) and 260(A) address a Petition for reinstatement which must be received no later than (15) days after the filing of the order or a remittitur will be issued by the clerk's office.

The basis of request is Attorney William Runyan, who was hired by my family has been informing Appellant that no Ruling had been issued by this Court.

Appellant only became aware of Court's order on September 17, 2015, by viewing case on the prison Law Library Computer. When my father would contact Attorney William Runyan, he would inform him the Court has not Ruled yet.

Conclusion

Appellant is requesting this Honorable Court alter judgment to allow a Petition for Certiorari be filed in the South Carolina Supreme Court, to exhaust all his procedure remedy's in the above matter since issuance of this Court's order dated August 12, 2015.
