

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

William W. Ritter, Respondent,

v.

William Hurst, Alma L. Monroe, John Doe, a fictitious name constituting an representing all unknown heirs-at-law, legatees, devisees, grantees, assignees and lien creditors of William Reed, deceased; and Richard Roe, a fictitious name representing any and all persons and entities unknown who may be minors or suffering under any legal disability or persons in the armed services of the United States and all persons unknown claiming any right, title, interest or estate in or lien upon that certain parcel or lot of land designated as Aiken County Tax Parcel Number 174-00-01-008, of whom William Hurst is, Petitioner.

Appellate Case No: 2011-195826

ORDER

Petitioner seeks a writ of certiorari to review the Court of Appeals' opinion in Ritter v. Hurst, Op. No. 2011-UP-152 (S.C. Ct. App. filed April 12, 2011). The petition is denied.

 C.J.
FOR THE COURT

Columbia, South Carolina

September 6, 2012

cc:

The Honorable Jenny Abbott Kitchings

Brian Austin Katonak
Marsha M. Banks