SC Court of Appeals

Appellate Case No. 015-00696

Motion To Reverse:

I, Mamie Jackson, in answer to the order of the Court signed by Justice Paul E. Short, filed September 9, 2015, postmarked September 18, 2015 and received on or about September 24, 2015 that the portion of the order being appealed, is not the continuance but that the Appellant is ordered to provide a portion of the Magistrate's Return. The Appellant requested of the Court that he order the Magistrate to provide the transcript and the Court refused. This is a substantial right as the Court and the trial judge are putting on the Appellant a duty that the statute puts on the trial judge.

Mamie Jackson, Appellant,

v.

Richland County Sheriff Deputy P. Wilkes and Richland
County Magistrate Central Court.

ORDER

The appellant filed a notice of appeal from an order of the circuit court granting a continuance. This appeal is dismissed as not immediately appealable. See Bridwell v. Bridwell, 279 S.C. 111, 112, 302 S.E.2d 856, 858 (1983) ("Motions for continuance are discretionary with the trial judge, and we will not disturb his ruling on appeal absent an abuse of that discretion."); Townsend v. Townsend, 323 S.C. 309, 313, 474 S.E.2d 424, 427 (1996) (finding an appellate court will not set aside a court's ruling on a motion for a continuance unless it clearly appears there was an abuse of discretion to the prejudice of the movant); Latimer v. Latimer, 42 S.C. 205, 20 S.E. 159, 160 (1894) (dismissing an appeal from an order for a continuance and finding the order did not affect a substantial right); Walker v. Springs Industries, Inc., 298 S.C. 249, 251, 379 S.E.2d 729, 730 (Ct. App. 1989) ("Orders granting continuances are not directly appealable."). The remittitur will be sent pursuant to Rule 221(b), SCACR.
