Re: The State v. Marcus Dwain Wright
Appellate Case No. 2013-001406

Dear Counsel:

Upon review of your final brief in this appeal, we request an explanation as to whether this brief complies with Chief Judge Few's October 2, 2014 order. Specifically, it appears that rather than editing and condensing your ninety-four page proposed brief as required by the order, you simply reformatted your brief by adding large portions of the argument into single-spaced footnotes. You must reply within ten days of the date of this letter or the Court may strike your brief.

Very truly yours,
