Re: State v. Lamar Sequan Brown, App. Case No. 2013-000725

Dear Ms. Allen:

Pursuant to your request, I am writing this letter to confirm my conversation this morning with your office about the above-pending case. On October 8, 2015, I filed a petition for rehearing. In this morning's Advance Sheets, it notes the petition for rehearing was denied on October 8, 2015. I checked C-Track and it did not show an order denying rehearing.

I called your office this morning regarding the discrepancy. Within minutes of my call, Christina called me back and quickly let me know that the Advance Sheets are incorrect and the petition for rehearing is still pending. I greatly appreciate the Court's quick attention and efficient response to my question.

If you need any further information or have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

David Alexander
Appellate Defender
