

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Matthew B. Fullbright, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2014-001684

ORDER

Appellant has filed a petition for rehearing from the dismissal of this appeal. After careful consideration, the petition for rehearing is granted and this appeal is reinstated. However, because it does not appear the Administrative Law Court (ALC) has issued a final order, this case is remanded to the ALC for the purpose of allowing the ALC to hold any hearings it deems necessary and to issue a final order.¹ Counsel for Respondent is ordered to contact the ALC within ten days of this order to schedule such hearings as the ALC judge deems appropriate. Counsel for Respondent shall provide an update to the clerk of this court no later than fifteen days from the date of this order, with a copy to Appellant.

Daniel John Crooks, III, Esquire

¹ We note the Honorable Carolyn C. Matthews sent a letter on July 7, 2014, indicating the Department had complied with the order of remand and noting the ALC no longer had jurisdiction; however, no final order was ever filed.
