RE: Dedric L. Isreal v. State of South Carolina; 2015-001654

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

The PCR hearing transcript in this matter is due to be ordered by October 16, 2015. I was retained to handle the PCR, but not the appeal from the denial of the PCR. I have contacted Appellate Defense and provided their office with my client's affidavit of indigency; however, they are requesting more information from my client regarding his employment history before they will determine if they will represent him on appeal. I obtained a second affidavit from my client regarding his employment history earlier today, and I am providing that affidavit to Appellate Defense today. Consequently, I am requesting a thirty-day extension of time in which to order the PCR hearing transcript in this matter. I expect that Appellate Defense will make a final decision regarding representation prior to the expiration of the extension of time. With my thanks for your assistance in this matter and my best regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,
