RE: Terry Lamar Whitfield v. North Pointe Assisted Living

Dear Ms. Miller:

I am in receipt of your letter requesting the above-referenced transcript. I have reviewed my records and estimate that your transcript for the hearing before the Honorable R. Scott Sprouse on July 28, 2015, will be 20 pages. Based on the current rate of $3.25 per page, the cost will be $65.00 plus $5.75 for postage.

Under our rules, I have 60 days in which to complete a transcript. Upon receipt of a certified check or money order (no personal checks, please) for $70.75, the 60 days begin. If I have underestimated the number of pages, you will be notified prior to delivery of the transcript of the balance due. If I have overestimated the number of pages, you will be refunded the overpayment.

The length of time it takes to prepare a transcript depends on my current typing load and number of days in court. In the event I need an extension of time to complete the transcript, I will request an extension from Court Administration. You will be notified if the extension is granted. If you need to have the transcript expedited, please add $15 for 10-day production or $30 for overnight production. If overnight mailing is requested, please add $18.50. In certain circumstances, I cannot expedite a transcript. Should that be the case, I will refund any monies overpaid.

Sincerely,

Renee H. Tollison

RE: Terry Lamar Whitfield v. North Pointe Assisted Living

Dear Ms. Kellner:

I am in receipt of your letter requesting a copy of the above-referenced transcript. I have reviewed my records and determined that Ms. Sandra Miller requested the original transcript on September 11, 2015. I have sent Ms. Miller a letter requesting an up-front payment of the estimated cost plus postage. Assuming Ms. Miller follows through with payment, based on the current copy rate of $.75 per page, the estimated cost for a copy would be $15.00 plus $5.75 for postage.

Under our rules, I have 60 days in which to complete a transcript. The length of time it takes to prepare a transcript depends on my current typing load and number of days in court. In the event I need an extension of time to complete the transcript, I will request an extension from Court Administration.

Upon completion of the transcript, I will notify you of the exact cost of the copy. If you are still interested in obtaining the copy, I will require payment in advance of my mailing it to you. Should Ms. Miller not follow through with payment within 30 days, the cost of the original to you would be approximately $65.00 plus $5.75 for postage.

Sincerely,

Renee H. Tollison

Appellate Case No. 2015-001950

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

In connection with your October 8, 2015 letter, enclosed for filing are copies of Defendants' September 11, 2015 Request for Transcript of the July 28, 2015 proceedings, as well as September 30, 2015 correspondence from Renee H. Tollison, Circuit Court Reporter.

By copy of this letter to the SC Court Administrator and Jennifer Spragins Burnett, Esq., we are notifying them of this communication.

Thank you for your assistance, and please let us know if you need anything else from Defendants in regard to the ordering of the transcript.

Sincerely,

Catherine F. Wrenn
