Re: Clyde Morris v. Joseph V. Johnson, III
Appellate Case No. 2014-002580

Dear Mr. Heyward:

We are returning the two, sealed copies of the transcripts to you. If you intended for this material to be presented to the Court on appeal, you should have included them in your designation of matter and record on appeal.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jenny A. Kitchings". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

CLERK

cc: Clyde Morris
