RE: Kevin D. Brown v. State 2015-001281

Dear Janet Johnson:

I am writing you concerning the Kevin Brown's case. Please let this Dennison letter represent my amended response.

After a thorough review of Mr. Brown's case, as an officer of the court I am unable to set forth an arguable basis for claiming that the Circuit Court erred in its dismissal of Petitioner's PCR Applications. Even if the Court disregards the timeliness of the applications, I am unaware of any arguable basis for appeal pursuant to Rule 203(d)(1)(B), SCACR.

I have copied Petitioner on this letter. By doing so, I am advising Petitioner that he should within twenty (20) days of the date of this letter to file a pro se explanation as to why Petitioner believes that the determination of the circuit court was improper.

Please contact me if you have any additional issues.

Sincerely

Tristan M. Shaffer
