Re: The State v. Jeffrey Lynn Chronister
Appellate Case No. 2014-002630

Dear Mr. Chronister and Counsel:

The Court is in receipt of the appellant's motion in opposition which is being construed as the appellant's initial reply brief. Therefore, the appellant is instructed that when it comes time to file final briefs, the final reply brief's cover should be grey and the final brief of appellant's cover should be blue. Please see Rules 208 and 211, SCACR. The record on appeal is due to be served upon the respondent no later than thirty (30) days from the date of this letter and a proof of service must be filed with the Court. All final briefs and bound copies of the record on appeal shall be due twenty (20) days after the record on appeal has been served upon the respondent.

All parties are advised that the originals of all records on appeal and final briefs filed with the appellate courts are scanned. Therefore, in accordance with the May 1, 2008 Amendments to the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, DO NOT staple, spiral bind, velobind, or otherwise permanently bind the ORIGINALS of these documents. The original brief(s) and record on appeal should still have front and back covers in compliance with Rule 267(e) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, but should not be bound. You may secure the originals with paper clips, binder clips, rubber bands, by placing them in large envelopes, or by any other similar means that will keep the pages together without binding or hole-punching. All COPIES of the record on appeal and final briefs should be bound as specified in the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

We suggest that large parcels such as copies of final briefs and the record on appeal be sent directly to the Court via the street address: 1220 Senate Street, Columbia, S.C. 29201. Thank you for your attention to this.

According to our records, the correct caption for this appeal should read as follows on the record on appeal and all final briefs:

The State, Respondent,

v.

Jeffrey Lynn Chronister, Appellant.

Furthermore, the Court anticipates that the attorney information for all attorneys receiving a copy of this letter will appear on the cover of the record on appeal. The attorney information for the party submitting the brief should appear on the final briefs.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact this office.

Very truly yours,
