Re: The State v. James C. Williams
Appellate Case No. 2013-001849

Dear Mr. Williams:

Upon reviewing your documents received October 16, 2015 which are being construed as documents to be included in your record on appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). We are returning your documents with this letter. You must file your record on appeal with the following corrections within thirty days or your appeal may be dismissed:

- If these documents are to be a part of the record on appeal, please submit the full record on appeal containing everything listed on your designation of matter and the respondent's designation of matter. Please see Rule 210, SCACR, and Form 15 for what the format of the record on appeal should be, including the front cover.
- You must provide a proof of service showing the full record on appeal in its entirety has been served upon the respondent.

Very truly yours,
