City of Columbia ---------- Respondent

Appellate Case No. 2015-001866

Motion To Order The Transcript Out of Time

The appellant filed the Notice of Appeal on Aug 31, 2015 and sent a letter to the SC Court of Administration on Sep. 10, 2015, concerning the court reporter for the case. The appellant has been out of town from Sept. 8, 2015 till Oct. 19, 2015 she was unable to obtain the information about the court reporter for the case, due to the clerk of the court, Richland County, was unable to locate the file folder for her case in 2015. The reason for was that the Order of the July 31, 2015 is about the two older cases of 2013. On Oct. 19, 2015 the appellant received the court letter of Sept. 28, 2015. After carefully investigating the issues, the appellant is finally able to obtain the correct information for the court reportor.

The letter for requesting the transcript was sent on Oct. 26, 2015. The appellant hereby requests this court to allow her to order the transcript out of the time line set by Rule 207 of SCACR, in order to preserve her due process right of appeal for the Equal Protection Under the Law.
