1 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, the way we draw
2 a jury in a criminal case is that the Court personnel
3 will now enter into the computer those who are
4 remaining on the jury panel. It will give us a random
5 selection, therefore if your name is called randomly
6 you will please come forward, stand right here before
7 the lawyers.

8 In the trial of this case, the State of South
9 Carolina has five strikes; the Defendant has 10. They 10 can strike you for most any reason at all or no reason
11 at all within certain bounds that the lawyers know what 12 they are, so if you get struck don't let your -- don't 13 get offended. But we'll go through that process until 14 we get 12 jurors and two alternates.

15 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

16 THE COURT: As your name is called please come
17 forward.

11 with the selection of the jury by the State?

12 MR. HAMMACK: None from the State, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: By the defense?

14 MR. PRICE: None, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, those of you who 16 were not selected, as represented I am now going to 17 release you for the balance of the week. A check will 18 be mailed to you by Mr. Hiers some time this week or 19 the first of next week. I thank you for coming.
20 Obviously we cannot run the judicial system without 21 having citizens ready, willing and able to serve as 22 jurors to resolve disputes.

23 I'm happy to report that Bamberg County, compared 24 with other counties throughout the State, we are in 25 really good shape on our civil and criminal dockets.

1 Our jail census is down which saves the taxpayers
2 money. When we come we give everyone in the jail an 3 opportunity to come over and resolve their cases, but 4 we are in as good a shape as you can be. Unfortunately 5 the more we move through here, we get that many more on 6 the other side coming in, new ones, but we have a
7 hardworking public defender's office, solicitor's
8 office, sheriff's office, all law enforcement and I'm 9 happy to report that Bamberg County ranks up near the 10 top in having their cases up to date.

11 So we can't do that without you and I thank you.
12 I'm going to release you now for the balance of the 13 week. I enjoyed being here with you. Everyone else
14 please remain seated and the jurors are free to go.

15 (Whereupon, the jury panel exits the courtroom.)

16 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, those who were 17 selected, I'm going to let you step back to the jury
18 room right now. I've got about 10 minutes worth of 19 work I've got to do with the lawyers. Stretch your 20 legs, bathroom break, whatever. We'll come back in 21 about 10 minutes and that will be 11:30. We'll
22 probably go to somewhere around close to one. So go
23 back and I'll call you out in just a few minutes and 24 we'll get started.

25 (Whereupon, the jury exits the courtroom.)

1 THE COURT: Any motions by the defendant?

2 MR. PRICE: Yes, Your Honor, we do have a motion.

3 THE COURT: Be glad to hear from you.

4 MR. PRICE: I am moving to continue the case of 5 the trial (sic) until my client can be located. I have 6 only met with my client once at first appearance and 7 have not spoken to her about a proper defense in her
8 case.

9 In addition, the bonding company that stood before
10 you yesterday said they could possibly locate her
11 within a week.

12 THE COURT: That's not what they said. They asked
13 me to give them a week to try to find her. Go ahead.

14 MR. PRICE: In addition, I've attempted to notice
15 my client the right to be present at trial, but I have 16 not actually made contact with her, and for those 17 reasons I would like to continue.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Price, when were you appointed to 19 represent Ms. Bacon?

20 MR. PRICE: I was appointed in late 2013. The 21 exact date ---

22 THE COURT: That's all right. Late 2013.

23 MR. PRICE: Yes.

24 MR. HAMMACK: Your Honor, I've got October 28th, 25 2013.

1 THE COURT: Does that sound about right?

2 MR. PRICE: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: And immediately being appointed, did
4 you make attempts to contact her to tell her that you
5 were her lawyer?

6 MR. PRICE: I did.

7 THE COURT: And how many -- where did you try to 8 contact her?

9 MR. PRICE: I've tried to contact her through her
10 mother. I've mailed letters to her mother. I've 11 mailed letter to her address around Surfside Beach.
12 I've emailed her. I've called her on three various 13 numbers and I've had no success.

14 THE COURT: And you've been doing that pretty
15 regular since October 28?

16 MR. PRICE: Yes.

17 THE COURT: And this case was set for trial. This 18 is a 545-day case. When we had our initial 545-day
19 roll call, this case was one of the cases scheduled for 20 trial this week; is that correct, Mr. Solicitor?

21 MR. HAMMACK: Yes, sir, on June 4th.

22 THE COURT: And since June 4th of 2014, have you
23 made a number of efforts to locate her?

24 MR. PRICE: I have.

25 THE COURT: And also her mother who lives in

1 Columbia? You've directly spoken with her, have you
2 not?

3 MR. PRICE: I've spoken with her twice.

4 THE COURT: And each time everyone has been
5 notified that the case was set for today?

6 MR. PRICE: Yes.

7 THE COURT: And yesterday I did all I could. I
8 got the bonding company, made them come from Myrtle
9 Beach, and obviously told them. They have a $75,000
10 bond which the State is moving to estreat, and they 11 were making every effort. But have you -- do you think 12 you have made every effort that you know how to contact
13 her?

14 MR. PRICE: I have, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: But to no avail?

16 MR. PRICE: To no avail.

17 THE COURT: Well, for the record I even met with 18 the lawyers, all of you, yesterday afternoon in 19 chambers, told y'all my concerns that the if lady would 20 just simply show up, I could probably get the State to 21 reduce the charges and the penalty would be 22 substantially less and I asked you last night, or 23 yesterday afternoon, Mr. Price, to contact her mom to 24 give her that information. I assume you did that.

25 MR. PRICE: I did.

1 THE COURT: Do you know of anything else you could
2 do to locate her?

3 MR. PRICE: I know of nothing else.

4 THE COURT: And as an officer of this Court,
5 you've made every effort that you know how to do to 6 locate her?

7 MR. PRICE: I have, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Well, I'm going to 9 respectfully deny your motion to continue. I don't 10 know what else we could do to have her appear.

11 MR. PRICE: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Thank you. All right. Obviously I
13 have to make a finding based on the case of the City of 14 Aiken versus Koontz, K-O-O-N-T-Z. That's sort of the 15 case to be looked at where we try someone in their 16 absence and obviously a criminal defendant has a
17 Constitutional right guaranteed by the confrontation
18 clause to be present at trial.

19 However, a person indicted for misdemeanors or 20 felonies may voluntarily waive their right to be 21 present and may be tried in their absence upon the 22 finding by this Court that such person has received
23 notice of his right to be present and that a warning
24 was given that the trial would proceed in his absence,
25 or her absence, upon a failure to attend.

1 And Mr. Price, did you advise by letter and to her
2 mom and to her by email that the case would proceed
3 even though she did not appear? Mr. Price?

4 MR. PRICE: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Thank you. I find based on the 6 mandates of the Koontz case that the defendant has 7 voluntarily waived her rights to be present, be tried 8 in absentia. She has either constructively or actually 9 received notice of her right to be present and was 10 warned by her lawyers -- he has warned her family; he 11 sent letters to her, emails -- that the trial would 12 proceed in her absence should she fail to attend.

13 I might note for the record that it's been told to 14 me for a week, 10 days or two weeks, that they were 15 having trouble locating this lady and I asked the 16 solicitor and Mr. Price to make every effort they knew
17 to have her located, including getting the bonding
18 company involved. I might add that she was bench-
19 warranted for failing to appear -- when, Mr. Solicitor?

20 MR. HAMMACK: January 27th, 2014.

21 THE COURT: So she's been on a bench warrant list
22 for over six months and that bench warrant was given to 23 her bonding company. Do you have the date on that?

24 MR. HAMMACK: Your Honor, I know Mr. Bryan was 25 notified shortly thereafter. He notified the surety

1 company, which in turn was supposed to notify Beach
2 Bail Bonding and failed to do so. When I spoke with 3 Cory from the surety company last night she told me she 4 dropped the ball, that Mr. Bryan did what he was 5 supposed to do, notified them, and they just did not
6 notify Beach Bail Bonding until a much later date.

7 THE COURT: But it's undisputed that initially
8 when the bench warrant was issued for Ms. Bacon for 9 failing to appear back in January, that the bonding
10 company that we have, notwithstanding the fact they may 11 have contracted with another bonding company, the 12 bonding company of record was notified and given notice
13 of the bench warrant immediately; is that not correct?

14 MR. HAMMACK: Yes, sir, absolutely, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And that's been some six months ago.

16 MR. HAMMACK: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: And the State is moving to estreat the 18 $75,000 bond. We'll have the proper paperwork here
19 shortly; is that not correct?

20 MR. HAMMACK: Yes, sir, Your Honor. And, Your 21 Honor, if I may, in City of Aiken versus Koontz, in 22 accordance with that I would like to enter a copy of 23 the bonding documents that show Ms. Bacon's signature, 24 along with the admonitions about failing to appear and 25 about her right to be present. If I may approach, Your

1 Honor, that's a copy of the bonding form with her
2 signature and those admonitions.

3 THE COURT: Let's mark that as a Court exhibit and 4 make it part of the record. Mr. Price, anything you
5 need to add in connection with your client not being 6 here?

7 MR. PRICE: No, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: As I said, and I will put on the 9 record, number one, I commend Mr. Price for his 10 numerous efforts to try to locate his client, probably 11 going beyond the call of duty to have her mom involved, 12 emailing, calling different telephone numbers and 13 mailing to all addresses that he had.

14 I don't know anything else that any of us could 15 have done to get her here, other than the bonding
16 company picking her up, which I assume they're still 17 attempting to do. If I were them, I certainly would 18 be.

19 Anything else for the record before we commence
20 the trial of the case by the State?

21 MR. HAMMACK: No, sir.

22 THE COURT: By the defense?

23 MR. PRICE: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: I will instruct the jury that 25 notwithstanding the fact that she is not present, they

1 should not use that in any manner against her to infer
2 any evidence of guilt or anything else. She's to be
3 tried like she was sitting right here. Any other
4 instruction you wish for me to give?

5 MR. PRICE: Nothing else.

6 THE COURT: Let's take a quick bathroom break.
7 We'll start back in about 10 minutes. If you will tell
8 the jury in 10 minutes we'll be ready to go.

9 (Off the record)

10 THE COURT: Thank you. Please be seated. Is the 11 State ready to proceed?

12 MR. HAMMACK: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: The Defendant ready to proceed?

14 MR. PRICE: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Bring the jury in please.

16 (Whereupon, the jury came into open court.)

17 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury
18 panel, the first thing we have to do to get started in 19 the trial of the case is that you have to be sworn in 20 for this particular case, so please stand and raise 21 your right hand. Mr. Hiers will administer the oath.

22 (The jury was sworn by the Clerk.)

23 THE COURT: Thank you. Ladies and gentlemen of 24 the jury, let me make a couple of comments to start off
25 the trial of the case and then we'll get right into

1 taking testimony.

2 First of all, as you can see the Defendant is not
3 present. She has chosen not to be here. Now, please -
4 - she has the right not to be here -- do not infer
5 anything from the fact that she's not here, do not
6 discuss it in the jury room, the fact that she's not 7 here, do not comment on it, and do not consider the 8 fact that she was not here when, at the end of the 9 case, you deliberate her guilt or innocence. She has 10 the right not to show, so try the case just as if she 11 were here. Please do not infer anything from the fact
12 that she's not here. Fair enough?

13 Now, to the indictment of burglary in the first 14 degree, obviously she has pled not guilty and a plea of 15 not guilty obviously means she is afforded the 16 Constitutional right to be presumed innocent unless the 17 State of South Carolina is able to prove her guilt to 18 you beyond a reasonable doubt. That is the burden of 19 proof in a criminal case.

20 If we were trying a car wreck where somebody got 21 hurt in a car wreck, or we were trying someone for 22 breach of contract between two parties, or medical 23 malpractice or legal malpractice in a civil case where 24 someone is seeking monetary damages, those parties come 25 into the courtroom on an equal footing and for the

1 plaintiff, the person bringing the case, to prove their 2 case in a civil case, they have to prove it by what we 3 call the preponderance or greater weight of the 4 evidence. They simply have to move -- if these were 5 the scales of justice coming in on an equal basis, they 6 have to move the scales of justice ever so slightly in 7 their favor to prevail.

8 In a criminal case such as this where the person
9 is accused with burglary in the first degree, because 10 that accused has the Constitutional presumption of 11 innocence, they come into the courtroom and the scales
12 are tipped heavily in their favor and for the State to 13 prove the case beyond a reasonable doubt they have to 14 offer evidence. The burden of proof is beyond a 15 reasonable doubt and the scales have to tip in this 16 manner.

17 So the burden of proof in a criminal case is 18 different than that in a civil case. It is beyond a 19 reasonable doubt and I'll instruct you at the close of 20 the case what our courts have defined beyond a 21 reasonable doubt as. So that is the burden on the 22 State to prove the case beyond a reasonable doubt.

23 Because they have the burden of proof, they will
24 go first and the way the trial is this: I will make a 25 few remarks and then that will be followed by an

1 opening statement by the Solicitor representing the
2 State, followed by an opening statement by the 3 Defendant's lawyer. Please bear in mind that the 4 opening statement is not evidence in the case. It is,
5 sort of, a road map that the lawyers will give you to 6 tell you what to look for during the trial of the case,
7 where they're going from point A to point B, and what 8 they're trying to prove, what the case is about. But 9 that is not evidence in the case.

10 The evidence comes from sworn testimony here on 11 the witness stand. They will call various witnesses to 12 attempt to prove the case beyond a reasonable doubt.
13 So the State will present their case first. At the 14 conclusion of the State's case, the Defendant has the 15 right to present any defense they may choose to put up.

16 At the conclusion of that, then we will be in a 17 position to listen to closing arguments by both the 18 State and the Defendant, and at the conclusion of that 19 I will charge or instruct you on the law in the case
20 and then at that time you will start your 21 deliberations. So that's, sort of, how the process
22 will work.

23 As I told you when we selected the jury, you are 24 12 people collectively acting as one. You are the 25 judges of the facts in the case, so you will judge the

1 people who testify to determine what the true facts
2 are. Once you determine what those true facts are, you
3 apply it to the law and you will be in a position to 4 render a true and just verdict.

5 Now, couple of other matters. I try to run an
6 efficient courtroom. We try to move on time. We'll go
7 until about 12:30 today; start back about two, maybe a
8 little bit off of that, and if we finish this 9 afternoon, fine. If not, we'll decide what time we 10 want to start back in the morning, but we should be 11 through no later than lunchtime tomorrow. That's at 12 the outside, maybe even before that.

13 Even though we're trying to be efficient with 14 everyone's time I'm not trying to run a race, so if at 15 any time during the trial of the case any of you become 16 uncomfortable, if you need a bathroom break, you want
17 something to drink, just get tired of listening to me,
18 raise your hand and I will make sure that your needs
19 are met and we'll take a break at that time. If you
20 get cold, if you get hot, just tell me. We can cut the 21 air conditioner up or down, however you wish for it to 22 be. Don't get uncomfortable.

23 I will further tell you that each time we take a
24 break until the very end when we finish with everything
25 and I've instructed you on the law, up until that time

1 please do not discuss the case. Do not start any
2 deliberations until all the evidence is in, the lawyers
3 have made their final arguments and I've charged you on 4 the law. I will ask you also at the first break, the 5 lunch break today, I need a spokesperson from the 12 of 6 you who are on the regular jury, excluding the 7 alternates. The spokesperson is simply the foreperson
8 for the jury. That's someone who heads up the 9 deliberation, brings to my attention any comments or 10 any concerns you may have, so try to select one from 11 the 12 of you. If you can't I'll just randomly pick 12 one out.

13 I'll ask that you pay close attention. Like I
14 said, if you get uncomfortable raise your hand and let 15 me know. In just a few seconds I'm going to sit down.
16 The State will start by their opening statements,
17 followed by the Defendant's opening statements,
18 followed by the testimony in the case, and we'll move
19 right along in a very efficient manner.

20 So having said that, State, any objections to my 21 opening remarks?

22 MR. HAMMACK: No, sir, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Price?

24 MR. PRICE: None, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: You may make your opening remarks.

1 OPENING STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF THE STATE

2 MR. HAMMACK: Mr. Price, Mr. Clerk, Your Honor, good
3 morning. It's still morning for a few more minutes.
4 Glad to have you here today. We're here today to try
5 the case of Jacqueline Bacon. She's charged with 6 burglary first degree. The Judge is going to tell you
7 the law a little bit later, but basically I'll give you
8 an idea of what to look for.

9 A burglary is when the Defendant enters the 10 dwelling of another, somebody else's house or dwelling
11 or residence where they live, without permission, with 12 the intent to commit a crime therein, in this case
13 stealing, and either is armed with a weapon or becomes 14 armed with a weapon during the course of the burglary.
15 In this case guns were taken, are the allegations.

16 You'll hear all that from the stand here in just a 17 few minutes but I just want to, kind of, give you an 18 idea of where we're going. What you're going to hear,
19 the evidence you'll hear is that back on or about 20 September 9th of 2012, Wayne Bacon was out of town. He 21 went to Columbia to visit his parents.

22 He came back into town about 8:15, 8:30 that 23 night, and when he gets to his house -- he lives over
24 in Denmark on Carolina Highway, [REDACTED].
25 He'll go through all that with you.

1 He sees his kitchen cabinets opened. It strikes
2 him as odd because he doesn't remember leaving them
3 open and he realizes the back door is broken, so he 4 backs out of the house and calls the police. When they 5 get there, cleared the house to make sure nobody was 6 there, they have a chance to walk around.

7 So they walk around the house. They see the 8 kitchen where things have been tampered with, the 9 bedroom area where things have been tampered with, and 10 they see certain drawers that are opened and Chief Ben
11 Hay will tell you, it just appeared odd.

12 When they started looking around the places, the 13 house was immaculate. The place was clean. Things
14 just weren't disturbed except for certain areas,
15 certain drawers, certain cabinets, and it just appeared 16 odd to them.

17 So they talked to Mr. Bacon. They asked Mr. Bacon
18 what -- who knows you were out of town today. And Mr.
19 Bacon says well, my parents know because I was at their 20 house. My neighbors know because I told them I was 21 going out of town, but my ex-wife knows. Jacqueline
22 Bacon, she texted me earlier today around lunchtime and 23 asked if I was home today.

24 He says that she texted again around 4:15 or so in 25 the afternoon and asked him if he was still in Columbia

1 and that got law enforcement thinking. Well, it
2 appears it was somebody that knows where things are.
3 You got these texts from Ms. Bacon, so they start
4 looking at her. That draws their attention to 5 Jacqueline Bacon.

6 They start looking at some phone records and that
7 puts Ms. Bacon -- her phone records put her in Denmark
8 around the time of this burglary with a gentleman named
9 Silas Roland. Mr. Roland will be testifying for you.
10 You'll be able to hear from Mr. Roland. Mr. Roland is 11 going to tell you that around four o'clock or so that 12 day, on September 9th, he drove Ms. Bacon down to 13 Denmark to a church right outside of town where she got 14 in the car with somebody else.

15 He ran up to the store to get a drink. He gets a 16 text on his phone that says hey, come back. He comes 17 back to get her and she's got a bag full of guns and 18 liquor and different things that are consistent with 19 what was taken from the house. The officers recovered
20 several of the items that were taken in Mr. Silas
21 Roland's truck and at a home where Ms. Bacon had been 22 staying. Mr. Roland actually brought the items to law
23 enforcement when he saw them there.

24 It's a circumstantial evidence case, ladies and 25 gentlemen, and the Judge is going to explain

1 circumstantial evidence to you. We don't have 2 fingerprints putting her there. We don't have video of 3 her there. We don't have DNA of her there. Wish we
4 did, but we don't. It's all circumstantial evidence.
5 Once we've had a chance to present it all to you, I'm 6 confident you'll understand where we're going and 7 you'll understand the case. Thank you.

8 OPENING STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF THE DEFENDANT

9 MR. PRICE: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.
10 My name is attorney Jason Price. Sitting with me is 11 Laura McCann and obviously my client is not here. But 12 don't let the fact that my client is not here be a 13 determining factor as to whether or not she's guilty or 14 not guilty.

15 One of the great things about our nation is you
16 are presumed innocent beyond a reasonable doubt. As 17 the Solicitor mentioned you are going to hear testimony
18 from various people. Testimony will be more than 19 likely against my client, but the testimony that you'll 20 hear will not -- will not show that my client is guilty
21 beyond a reasonable doubt of burglary.

22 Please listen to the testimony very carefully.
23 Please weigh each piece of testimony equally and I'm 24 confident that you'll find and return a verdict of not 25 guilty. Thank you.

(WAYNE BACON-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HAMMACK)

1 THE COURT: Call your first witness.

2 MR. HAMMACK: The State calls Wayne Bacon.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Bacon.

4 (Witness sworn)

5 THE COURT: You can be seated at the witness
6 stand. Please give us your full name for the record,
7 spelling your last name for the court reporter.

8 THE WITNESS: Wayne Steven Bacon -- B-A-C-O-N.

9 WAYNE BACON, after being duly sworn, testified as 10 follows:

12 BY MR. HAMMACK:

13 Q Good morning, Mr. Bacon.

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q Mr. Bacon, can you pull the microphone a little 16 bit closer?

17 A Sure.

18 Q Thank you. Mr. Bacon, where do you live?

19 A I live in Denmark.

20 Q Where in Denmark?

21 A On the outskirts of town. It's [REDACTED]

22 H [REDACTED].

23 Q That's here in Bamberg County?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q All right. How long have you lived there?

(WAYNE BACON-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HAMMACK)

1 A I've been at that residence for eight years.

2 Q And do you know Jacqueline Bacon?

3 A I do. She is my ex-wife.

4 Q How long were y'all married?

5 A For seven years.

6 Q When did you get divorced?

7 A We've been divorced for about two and a half,

8 three years.

9 Q And this address on Carolina highway, how long

10 have you lived there?

11 A I'm going on eight years.

12 Q I assume she lived there with you?

13 A She did.

14 Q And how long has she been gone from that 15 residence?

16 A At least three years.

17 Q Does she have any property at that residence?

18 A No, she has nothing.

19 Q Did the Family Court give her any kind of interest

20 in that residence?

21 A No, sir.

22 Q That's your home?

23 A My home.

24 Q Let me take you back to September 9th, 2012. Do

25 you recall that day?

(WAYNE BACON-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HAMMACK)

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q Tell me what you remember from that day. What was
3 going on that day? Where were you?

4 A I remember I was at my home. We left that 5 morning, me and my daughter, to go to Columbia to have
6 dinner with my parents. That was the day that Phoebe -
7 - or Jacqueline -- she actually, kind of, texted me out
8 of the blue that day, said she wanted to talk, wanted
9 to know where I was at. I told her I was on the way to 10 Columbia to have dinner with my parents and I couldn't 11 talk.

12 Q About what time did you leave to go to Columbia?

13 A I left around 9:30, 10, I believe.

14 Q AM or PM?

15 A AM.

16 Q I think you mentioned -- who was with you?

17 A My daughter.

18 Q Okay. And about what time did you get a text from 19 Jacqueline?

20 A We hadn't been gone very long. I hadn't made it
21 to Columbia yet. I don't remember the exact time but 22 we had probably been gone 25, 30 minutes.

23 Q So probably a little before lunch time?

24 A Right.

25 Q Okay. All right. And how long did you stay up in

(WAYNE BACON-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HAMMACK)

1 Columbia that day?

2 A We spent the day in Columbia at my parents'.

3 Q Did you hear from Ms. Bacon again, or from 4 Jacqueline again?

5 A I think I might have got one or two more texts,
6 but that was it, and I didn't hear from her anymore
7 that day.

8 Q Did you ever text her back?

9 A I did.

10 Q What did you tell her in your text?

11 A I told her I -- we were on the way to my parents
12 and I didn't have time to talk to her.

13 Q Do you recall whether one of those texts was in 14 the afternoon?

15 A Be honest with you, I'm not sure. It's been so
16 long.

17 Q All right. So what time did you arrive home that 18 evening?

19 A We arrived probably around a little after nine
20 o'clock.

21 Q And what happened when you got to your house?

22 A We pulled up and I opened the garage, went in 23 through the kitchen entrance and I had my daughter with 24 me, like I said. We walked in and when I turned the 25 corner to my kitchen, I seen that one of the cabinet

(WAYNE BACON-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HAMMACK)

1 doors was open and it was one that I kept liquor in and
2 a pistol, and I seen that all the liquor was gone and
3 my pistol, so I grabbed my daughter, took her back out
4 to my truck, put her in the truck and locked it. I
5 called the police and I called my neighbor to come get
6 my daughter.

7 Q About how long was it before the police got there?

8 A Fifteen minutes, 10 minutes, you know, it wasn't 9 long at all.

10 Q What happened when the police arrived?

11 A I had already been in the house to look and they
12 walked in the house with me and the guest room where I
13 had a gun cabinet, they had took all the pistols out of 14 it. And then in the bedroom I had -- we walked in the 15 master bedroom. There was a hidden jewelry box in the 16 dresser that was locked. If you didn't know it you
17 would never seen it. It had been opened and wiped out
18 and there was one drawer in my room, out of all the 19 dressers, they opened up and threw everything on the 20 floor and that was one that I used to keep cash in the 21 drawer when we were married.

22 Q When you started walking through the house with 23 the officers, did things just seem a little odd to you?

24 A Yeah, I mean, they had busted the back glass off
25 my house, come in through the back door. It's, like, a

(WAYNE BACON-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HAMMACK)

1 playroom for my daughter where she kept all the toys.
2 They busted the glass out of that door and just covered
3 the room with glass. You know, we went in, like I
4 said, the guest room where I kept my gun cabinet. They 5 had opened one door with a key and pried one open with 6 a knife, it looked like.

7 They had went into my daughter's bedroom and took 8 a duffel bag, I guess to -- there was nothing in it and 9 they took a pillow case off my bed, off of one of the 10 pillows, you know. I noticed that the only drawer that 11 was went through was the one that I kept cash. That,
12 kind of, threw up a red flag because they didn't mess
13 with any other drawers.

14 Q You mentioned the gun cabinet earlier. Were all
15 the guns taken?

16 A No, sir. They only took -- they took nine pistols
17 and one assault rifle.

18 Q Left other weapons?

19 A They left all the long guns, the rifles and 20 shotguns.

21 Q And where was the key to the gun cabinet?

22 A It was behind the TV in the guest room.

23 Q And you stated the key was used to open it?

24 A They pried one lock open and they took the key and 25 used it on the other one.

(WAYNE BACON-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HAMMACK)

1 Q Okay. And you mentioned a minute ago this hidden
2 drawer. What was this drawer?

3 A It's a clothes dresser, probably four foot wide,
4 six feet tall or something. In the middle of it, it's 5 got -- it looks like just a piece of wood but it's 6 actually a hidden jewelry box. The only way you would 7 know that it was a jewelry box is if somebody told you
8 or you bought the furniture.

9 Q Does it lock with a key or how is it secured?

10 A It has a key lock.

11 Q This box when you looked at it, had it been -- did
12 they use a key to open it or pry it open?

13 A Well, the key was actually on the floor. They had 14 -- they had took a knife or something and pried it
15 because it chipped some of the wood on it too, so I
16 don't know if they used a knife to get in or the key.

17 Q And what was taken out of this drawer?

18 A Out of the jewelry box numerous diamond necklaces,
19 rings, diamond earrings, diamond rings, things that we 20 had acquired over the years. And I had -- if I'm not 21 mistaken -- it was five brand new Bravado watches still 22 in the box. They took them, left the boxes there.

23 Q Did they leave other items in the drawer?

24 A They left the fake jewelry and some baby jewelry.
25 My daughter had some baby necklaces that my parents had

(WAYNE BACON-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HAMMACK)

1 given her when she was born and little things that were
2 not a lot of value. They left that. She had a gold
3 bangle bracelet. They took that. Anything with value
4 was gone.

5 Q You mentioned a drawer that you had kept money in 6 at some point had been gone through. Talk to me a
7 little bit more about that.

8 A When we were married I would keep cash on hand, a
9 couple thousand dollars, and I hid it in a black bag in 10 my underwear drawer and I had kept it there for years.
11 Well, after our divorce I just felt the need to move it
12 and I did.

13 Q I should probably ask you this because the jury's
14 probably wondering: What type of business do you work
15 in?

16 A I own the lumber company in Denmark.

17 Q And it's probably not unusual for you to bring 18 deposits and stuff home?

19 A I keep cash most of the time.

20 Q You also mentioned, I guess, the liquor cabinet.
21 Where was the liquor?

22 A If you walk in my kitchen, it was -- I actually
23 use -- it's a corner cabinet in the kitchen and we use
24 that as the liquor cabinet and I've always kept a
25 pistol in there. You know, I keep a pistol in there.

(WAYNE BACON-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HAMMACK)

1 I keep one in my closet in my room and one by my
2 nightstand because -- for the reason I know most of the 3 town, they know that I have a business and I bring 4 money home, so when I walked in and seen that they had
5 just opened that one cabinet and took all the liquor
6 and took that pistol, I knew that I had been broken
7 into that night before I noticed the door was broken in 8 in the back.

9 Q So we're talking about one cabinet, one pistol out
10 of the liquor cabinet.

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q Eight or nine out of the gun cabinet.

13 A Right. There was seven pistols out of the gun
14 cabinet, I believe, one out of the liquor. I had one
15 in my closet and I had the assault rifle in the closet.

16 Q That's where I was going next. I wanted to ask
17 you about the assault rifle. Where was that?

18 A It was in my closet on the top shelf in a closed-
19 in duffle bag.

20 Q Were there other guns or other weapons in there
21 with it?

22 A Yes, I've always kept a pistol in there on the 23 shelf where you could get to.

24 Q And so that pistol and the assault rifle were both
25 missing from that location?

(WAYNE BACON-CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. PRICE)

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q Okay. You mentioned earlier you got a text out of 3 the blue. How long had it been since you'd heard from 4 Jacqueline at that point?

5 A I had talked with her probably three weeks before
6 that because she actually texted me and told me that 7 Silas had some guns. She knew I collected guns. That 8 he had a couple of rifles and a pistol he wanted to 9 sell and I actually met them in Lexington one day and 10 bought the pistol from him at his residence.

11 Q So you talked to her a few weeks ---

12 A Right.

13 Q --- three weeks beforehand. Did she text often or 14 did you speak to her often?

15 A It was, kind of -- she's been one of those where I
16 would hear from her out of the blue, not hear from her
17 for a couple of weeks.

18 Q You mentioned earlier your daughter. Is she your 19 daughter with Jacqueline or from a previous ---

20 A With Jacqueline.

21 MR. HAMMACK: Nothing further.

22 THE COURT: Cross examination?

23 CROSS-EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. PRICE:

25 Q Hello, Mr. Bacon. How are you?

(WAYNE BACON-CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. PRICE)

1 A Pretty good. You?

2 Q Doing well. You mentioned that most of the 3 population in Denmark knows that you bring money home;
4 right?

5 A I mean, they know I have a business.

6 Q And do you have many visitors at your home?

7 A No, I don't. I'm very private. I have -- my 8 whole property in fenced in with two gates to get in.

9 Q How many people knew that you were going to be out
10 of town that day?

11 A My parents.

12 Q Your parents. Anyone else?

13 A That's it.

14 Q Okay. And you mentioned about where you had 15 money, you moved it after you got a divorce from 16 Jacqueline; correct?

17 A Right.

18 Q And where did you move it to again?

19 A I moved it into my kitchen into a kitchen drawer.

20 Q Okay. Had Jacqueline ever been in the house since 21 the divorce?

22 A She had.

23 Q How often?

24 A She had been in there one time.

25 Q And what purpose was that for?

(WAYNE BACON-REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HAMMACK)

1 A She had -- we talked and spent some time together.

2 Q Did she ever see anything ---

3 A No.

4 Q Okay. Had anyone else been in the house since the 5 divorce to see that box being placed in that other ---

6 A No, I mean, the only one who knew about that was
7 my daughter

8 Q How well did you know Silas Roland?

9 A I have met him once or twice years ago through
10 her. He was a family friend when we were married.

11 Q Did you ever have -- you never had any type of 12 close connection or anything like that with him?

13 A No.

14 MR. PRICE: Beg your indulgence, Your Honor.

15 Q Does Jacqueline ever have any visitation or is 16 there a visitation order with ---

17 A No, we had a quick 90-day divorce and her parental 18 rights were terminated.

19 MR. PRICE: Okay. That's all the questions I
20 have, Your Honor.

21 MR. HAMMACK: Just real quickly.

22 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

23 BY MR. HAMMACK:

24 Q Most people know you have a business?

25 A Yes, sir.

(WAYNE BACON-REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HAMMACK)

1 Q Most people familiar with where things are kept in 2 the house?

3 A No, sir, like I said, I'm very private with myself
4 and my daughter. I don't allow a whole lot of people
5 in my residence.

6 Q They asked briefly about the money drawer. You
7 said you moved the money to a different drawer?

8 A Yes, sir, it was still there. They did not find 9 it.

10 Q That's what I was about to ask.

11 MR. HAMMACK: Thank you. Nothing further.

12 THE COURT: You may step down. Next witness
13 please.

14 MR. HAMMACK: Your Honor, the State would call
15 Franklin Bamberg.

16 THE COURT: Sir, you can stay in the courtroom.

17 (Witness sworn)

18 FRANKLIN BAMBERG, JR., after being duly sworn,
19 testified as follows:

21 BY MR. HAMMACK:

22 Q Deputy Bamberg, if you haven't already can you
23 please state your name for the record?

24 A Franklin Bamberg, Jr.

25 Q Thank you, deputy. Sergeant, excuse me. I just

1 noticed your collar. Sergeant, how long have you been
2 with the sheriff's department up here?

3 A I've been with the sheriff's department for about
4 five years, but I have over 20 years experience in law
5 enforcement.

6 Q Were you working in the sheriff's office back
7 September 9th, September 10th, 2012?

8 A Yes, I was.

9 Q What's your duties with the sheriff's department?

10 A I do investigations, a lot of training. I answer
11 calls, just about some of everything.

12 Q And Deputy Bamberg, are you familiar with an 13 incident that occurred over at [REDACTED] Highway in 14 Denmark on September 9th?

15 A Yes, I am.

16 Q Were you the investigating officer on that case?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q I think I've covered this but just to be sure, is 19 [REDACTED] Highway in Bamberg County?

20 A Yes, it is.

21 Q Over in Denmark?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q Now, you weren't at the scene the night this
24 occurred on September 9th; correct?

25 A Correct.

1 Q You picked up the investigation at what point?

2 A The next day the case was turned over to me.

3 Q All right. Well, talk to me a little bit about 4 your investigation. What did you start with?

5 A I first started with interviewing the victim and 6 the victim just thought things were out of the norm,
7 the way things were left in the residence. He provided
8 a phone number of his ex-wife and from that point on,
9 we subpoenaed the phone records.

10 Prior to subpoenaing the phone records during the 11 interview with the victim, he gave us a time frame that 12 he spoke with his ex-wife and once we received the 13 phone records back, the time coincided with everything
14 that the victim said. It left -- when we subpoenaed
15 the phone record it left a trail where the ex-wife -- 16 the phone calls had hit off of towers leading from 17 Lexington all the way here to the town in Denmark where 18 the victim stayed at and it gave a trail leading back
19 from the victim's residence back up to Columbia.

20 Q And I think the victim mentioned earlier text
21 messages. Is that what you're basing this on?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Tower locations from texts?

24 A Text messages, yes, sir.

25 Q Okay. And it puts Ms. Bacon's phone in Denmark

1 about what time of day?

2 A At 4:43. From 4:43 until 4:47 it was located here
3 in Denmark.

4 Q Okay. So it basically puts her phone here on the 5 afternoon of September 9th?

6 A Correct.

7 Q After you got that information, what did you do?

8 A We reviewed some of the information that were on 9 the text messages. We went to Mr. Roland's residence
10 and at Mr. Roland's residence, we found some of the 11 weapons there. We ended up getting a search warrant to 12 go inside the residence.

13 Q Real quick, Mr. Roland, is that Silas Roland?

14 A Silas Roland.

15 Q Okay.

16 A Yes. And we recovered some of the victim's 17 weapons at his residence. Mr. Roland was arrested. He 18 made bond. He went back and he later -- I met him in 19 the Country Store in Pelion where he turned in more of 20 the weapons that he said Ms. Bacon placed into his 21 vehicle at that time.

22 Q And you were able to trace these weapons back to 23 Mr. Bacon?

24 A Correct.

25 Q And they were weapons taken during this burglary?

1 A Yes, they were.

2 Q And probably speak to Chief Hay more about it
3 because he was more involved in the search warrant
4 part, but you state weapons were recovered from where?

5 A The weapons were recovered from Mr. Roland's
6 residence, from a vehicle that was in his yard which 7 belonged to Mr. Roland, and then there were some 8 weapons that he turned in to me where he met me at in 9 Pelion.

10 Q Do you recall when you met with Mr. Roland and he 11 gave you the weapons, do you recall if they were in 12 something?

13 A The weapons were in a black bag.

14 Q Okay. And the weapons that were recovered from 15 the vehicle, do you recall whether they were in some 16 kind of container?

17 A I can't remember whether they were in something at 18 this time.

19 Q That's fine. Sergeant Bamberg, how did y'all end
20 up getting to Silas? We made, kind of, a jump there
21 from these phone records to Silas. How did y'all end
22 up speaking to Silas Roland?

23 A Well, when I spoke to -- when I interviewed the 24 victim at that time, he mentioned a name of Stony and -

(FRANKLIN BAMBERG, JR.-CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. PRICE)

1 Q Mentioned a name what?

2 A Stony which was Silas Roland -- a nickname for him
3 and we found out through -- we had a phone number for 4 him and that led us to Silas Roland.

5 Q Say that -- he was identified by his phone number
6 and his nickname?

7 A Affirmative.

8 MR. HAMMACK: Nothing further.

10 BY MR. PRICE:

11 Q You mentioned that you came on to the scene the 12 day after the incident; correct?

13 A Right. I never went out to the incident location.
14 I interviewed the victim at the time the next day.

15 Q Okay. Who was the responding officer, by the way?

16 A The responding officer was Tammy Williams.

17 Q Do you know if any prints -- fingerprints were 18 picked up at this location?

19 A No, sir, I don't believe they were.

20 Q Or any DNA at all?

21 A No, sir.

22 Q Okay. And you mentioned that Ms. Bacon's phone
23 was pinged in Denmark from 4:43 to 4:47; is that
24 correct?

25 A Correct.

1 MR. PRICE: I have no further questions.

2 THE COURT: Anything?

3 MR. HAMMACK: Nothing further.

4 THE COURT: You may step down. Next witness.

5 MR. HAMMACK: Chief Ben Hay.

6 THE COURT: All right, Chief Hay.

7 (Witness sworn)

8 THOMAS BENJAMIN HAY, IV, after being duly sworn,
9 testified as follows:

11 BY MR. HAMMACK:

12 Q Chief Hay, would you please state your full name
13 for the record?

14 A Thomas Benjamin Hay, IV.

15 Q By whom are you employed?

16 A The Bamberg County Sheriff's Office.

17 Q How long have you been over there?

18 A Seventeen years between the sheriff's office and 19 the City of Denmark Police Department.

20 Q What are your duties with the sheriff's office?

21 A Like Sergeant Bamberg, I'm, kind of, the jack of 22 all trades. We do a little bit of everything.

23 Q Did you get involved in this burglary out at [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]?

25 A Yes, sir, I received a call from Tammy Williams

1 the night of the incident because of the -- the high
2 value of the jewelry and suspicions that were involved
3 in it.

4 Q So did you respond to that location?

5 A I did

6 Q What time did you get out there?

7 A It was just getting dark. It was just -- just at 8 the edge of darkness.

9 Q Tell me what you did when you got out there.

10 A Well, I talked to everybody that was there and 11 even Wayne's parents and every person there really all 12 pointed the same direction. Everything there pointed 13 us exactly to Phoebe.

14 Q Explain that. Why?

15 A It's a very nice house, a very big house. It's a 16 very clean house. I've been doing burglaries for 17 years. That's, kind of, my major thing, has been 18 burglaries, investigations. Every one I go to, the 19 house is ransacked, every drawer is pulled out, every 20 cabinet is opened, every -- the house is ransacked.
21 That wasn't the case in this one. It was obvious that 22 whoever was doing this knew exactly where to go, not 23 close to where to go. Not the gun cabinet but specific 24 locations in the house.

25 Q Did you ever attempt to lift fingerprints?

1 A Tammy did with no avail. Fingerprints are far and 2 few between. Also knew the Defendant had recently been 3 in the residence, but she did attempt to but did not
4 obtain anything.

5 Q Is that unusual?

6 A It's unusual to find any.

7 Q So why is that?

8 A A, most people watch enough TV they know if 9 they're going to commit a crime to take gloves. The 10 guys that I interview after catching them in 11 burglaries, the ones that just stumble up on something 12 and decide to do it, they take their shoes off. They 13 put their socks on their hands. Everybody knows you
14 don't commit a burglary without covering your hands.

15 Q Did you attempt to find any DNA?

16 A She processed the scene. Everything that we could 17 take, we did. I don't know the status of any of that.

18 Q Well, after you were out at the scene and you see
19 everything that's going on, what do you do next?

20 A Well, like I say, I go through the house in a 21 little more detail with Wayne. He takes me into the 22 kitchen. He says, you know, he's got this huge kitchen
23 that's got cabinets all the way around the top and 24 drawers all the way around the bottom. You know, right
25 by the door he says this is the cabinet that we always

1 kept our money bag in from work. I don't keep it there
2 anymore but this is the cabinet that she went to -- or 3 that the person went to. I shouldn't say she. That 4 the person went to.

5 Went through all the house, showed me the -- the -
6 - I guess you call it an armoire. It's a huge cabinet,
7 very nice, decorative cabinet that has drawers
8 everywhere and a little bit down from the top there's a 9 gap. I would have never known it. Nobody would have 10 never known it but that gap is actually a hidden
11 jewelry box, is what it is. Pointed that out to me.
12 Pointed out that the keys were in a sock drawer, that 13 the sock drawer is obviously rummaged through.

14 After talking to him, talking to his parents, we 15 really were leaning towards looking at Phoebe on this 16 case. Tammy finished processing the scene. We all 17 cleared the area. First thing in the morning I got 18 with Sergeant Bamberg and really started trying to dig 19 in and find some evidence to lead to recovering some of 20 Mr. Bacon's property.

21 Q During the course of the investigation, did you
22 have an opportunity to go to the residence of Silas
23 Roland?

24 A We did.

25 Q How did you end up there?

1 A Our first -- well, also talking to Wayne that
2 night he pointed out that he'd recently bought a gun
3 from Silas Roland through Phoebe. Phoebe arranged
4 everything. It was all through him (sic) and he told
5 me about Silas, that he was a disabled individual that,
6 kind of, was buying and selling guns for profit.

7 And so he thought that that would be her
8 connection to get rid of all of these guns, because 9 things they targeted was guns and jewelry. So he felt
10 like he may have been involved in it, so we did a
11 search warrant or subpoena for Phoebe's cell phone
12 records. Those cell phone records put her and him
13 communicating before and after the incident.

14 It also puts them both leaving the Lexington area
15 of Columbia at the same time; both arriving in Norway
16 at the same time. Phoebe's cell phone tower -- I mean,
17 cell phone hits off the Denmark tower which is right by 18 his house at 4:45 when she sends him a text that is 19 apparently quizzing him on where he's at, making sure
20 he wasn't back in the area.

21 There's continued text where she mentions I'm not
22 home right now, I'm at her mother's house but she uses
23 a nickname that only she would use. So we used all
24 that information to go to Columbia looking for Phoebe.
25 At this time Phoebe had some arrest warrants for her

1 for some petty charges unrelated to the case. We go to 2 the house that we know she is living in, a relative of 3 Silas Roland.

4 We approach the house that the known boyfriend of 5 her at this time, his vehicle is there. It's a very
6 unique vehicle. Knock on the door, beat on the door,
7 feel like they're there but they're not there. We have 8 a Lexington County investigator with us during this
9 process. So when we don't get an answer to the door,
10 we decide to go to Silas Roland's house.

11 We get to Silas's house. He's there. He's on the 12 phone. He's obviously communicating back and forth
13 with somebody. We assume it's Phoebe but that's not 14 our goal right now. Our goal is now on ---

15 Q Real quick. Let me stop you. Jacqueline Bacon -- 16 Phoebe, is that her name she goes by?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay. Sorry. Go ahead

19 A I know her as Phoebe.

20 Q Yes, sir.

21 A So anyway, we get to Silas Roland's house. Very 22 easy to talk to. He's willing to cooperate with us.
23 We talk to him. I explained what's going on, why we're 24 there, telling him about the phone records, this, that 25 and the other. He gives us consent to search the

1 house. We search his house. We search multiple
2 vehicles. We get to one vehicle, he stop us. Talked
3 to him some more, he doesn't want us to search this 4 vehicle.

5 We review the case. We go in front of a
6 magistrate. We get a search warrant for that vehicle.
7 During the process of that search warrant, serving the 8 search warrant on the vehicle, we end up getting three 9 of the guns that were stolen from Wayne Bacon's house.
10 Finish getting the additional evidence that we get from 11 the house; bring Silas back; charge him; and he 12 confesses to everything -- every part of it that he
13 had, that included him and Phoebe coming here, knowing
14 what they were coming to do, and Phoebe actually coming
15 back to his vehicle with the guns in the bag.

16 Q Now, do you recall -- the guns in the car, do you
17 recall if they were in any kind of container or do you
18 recall what they were in?

19 A They were in a black bag. There was, I think,
20 three guns in there and Wayne didn't have the serial
21 number for the gun, but Wayne had purchased the gun
22 from a mutual friend so I was able to obtain the serial
23 number for that gun from Wayne and confirm that it was 24 the guns that were stolen from Wayne Bacon's house.

25 MR. HAMMACK: No further questions right now.

1
2 BY MR. PRICE:

3 Q Chief Hay, you mentioned that you obtained the 4 guns from Silas's vehicle; is that correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Is there anything else that you obtained from 7 Silas thereafter?

8 A He turned some additional stuff over to Franklin.
9 There was also a very particular kind of gun. It's a
10 Kel-Tec that had the -- the internal chamber is 11 removable and you can make it, like, a .22, a .40 or a
12 .45. We also recovered an exact duplicate of that gun
13 but couldn't match it with serial numbers from inside
14 Silas's residence.

15 Q That was directly from Silas's residence; is that 16 correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Were there any gloves that you found in Silas's
19 residence, by any chance?

20 A I don't want to say that I recall. It seems like
21 there was, but I can't say for sure.

22 Q Any jewelry recovered from Silas?

23 A There was one piece of jewelry that we sent Wayne 24 a picture of that he did not identify.

25 Q But all of the evidence that you recovered were

(SILAS LEON ROLAND, III-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HAMMACK)

1 from Silas, were a direct result from Silas; is that
2 correct?

3 A Correct

4 MR. PRICE: I have no further questions, Your 5 Honor.

6 MR. HAMMACK: Nothing further.

7 THE COURT: You may step down. One more witness?

8 MR. HAMMACK: Your Honor, I'm not sure if he's 9 here yet because I told him it would probably be lunch.
10 We can check.

11 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

12 MR. HAMMACK: Silas Roland.

13 (Witness sworn)

14 SILAS LEON ROLAND, III, after being duly sworn,
15 testified as follows:

17 BY MR. HAMMACK:

18 Q If you would please state your full name for the 19 record.

20 A Silas Leon Roland, III.

21 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Roland. Mr. Roland, where are 22 you from?

23 A Lexington, South Carolina.

24 Q How long have you lived up there?

25 A Pretty much all my life.

1 Q Do you happen to know Jacqueline Bacon?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q What name do you call her?

4 A Phoebe.

5 Q How long have you known Phoebe?

6 A Me and her ex-brother-in-law has been friends
7 since probably '89, so '89

8 Q Mr. Roland, back on September 9th, 2012, were you
9 with Phoebe?

10 A Yes.

11 Q What were y'all doing?

12 A She needed a ride and I gave her a ride.

13 Q Let's start a little bit before that. What were 14 y'all doing earlier that day? Where were you?

15 A I was at home and she texted me about, you know,
16 wanting a ride and I'm, like, okay

17 Q About what time was that?

18 A I don't remember. Probably 10 o'clock maybe.

19 Q Once you got the text, what did you do?

20 A I told my wife that I was going to clean some deer
21 stands.

22 Q So you weren't quite truthful with your wife?

23 A No, sir.

24 Q Where did you go from there?

25 A I went over to my friend's house, Frankie, which

1 is where she was staying at.

2 Q About what time did you get to Frankie's? Do you
3 recall?

4 A Probably 11.

5 Q What did you do at Frankie's?

6 A We just sat around. I was talking to Frankie and 7 she was getting dressed, just waiting.

8 Q At some point did you leave Frankie's?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Let me ask you right quick: Where does Frankie
11 live?

12 A He used to have a house on McCalla Drive in West 13 Columbia.

14 Q Is that where y'all were?

15 A Yeah.

16 Q Go ahead. What did y'all do after that when you
17 left there?

18 A Well, we left. We stopped by the store. I got a
19 Pepsi and I can't remember if she got anything to drink
20 or not. And she needed a ride down -- I don't know if 21 it was North, Denmark, or wherever it was, but it's 22 where a white church with a red roof is.

23 Q Do you remember what road that was off of?

24 A It's the one coming out of Swansea.

25 Q So you drove ---

1 A 321.

2 Q You drove down this way, I guess, toward Denmark?

3 A Yeah. Yeah.

4 Q And you get to this church you were talking about.
5 Can you describe it for me again?

6 A It's white and it's got a red roof now. I don't 7 know if it did then or not.

8 Q What happened when you got to the church?

9 A I pulled up and the way I was sitting, I was 10 facing back toward Norway, I think it was. I was 11 facing back toward that way and we had a couple beers.
12 I drank one, she drank one, and then we -- I got out
13 and I crushed the cans down on the ground.

14 This either black or dark blue car pulls up. It
15 had bad tinting, scratched up window on the back and 16 somebody said you ready, girl, or ready -- excuse the 17 language -- bitch, and she got in the car with them
18 and left.

19 And I went -- then I went down to the first store
20 on the right. I think it's called the Red Sign. And I
21 got another Pepsi and I spent a few minutes there, not 22 long, and I get a text, said where you at. And I went 23 back and she was standing right there with a black
24 duffel bag, at the church.

25 Q About how long from the time you dropped her off

1 to the time you came back?

2 A Twenty, thirty minutes maybe. I mean, it wasn't
3 long. I mean, because I didn't know -- I come down
4 this way but I don't come all the way down this way. I
5 mean, this is new part -- area for me.

6 Q Okay. So it wasn't long?

7 A No, it wasn't long.

8 Q So you get back to the church. Tell me again what 9 you saw.

10 A She was standing there, had a black bag and had a 11 drink in her hand. I don't remember what it was. And 12 I popped the back hatch on my wife's car, threw the bag
13 in and we left.

14 Q Where did you go?

15 A Back to Frankie's house.

16 Q Did you ever see what was in that bag?

17 A Not until the next day.

18 Q So what happened the rest of that day? Let's stay
19 on the 9th.

20 A It was still daylight because Frankie was home
21 packing to leave and we sat there and talked, and me
22 and Frankie talked. He was folding his clothes,
23 putting it in a bag, and he went to leave and then I
24 left shortly after. I mean, we wasn't doing nothing.

25 Q Well, let's move on to the next day. You stated

1 you looked in the bag the next day. Tell me about
2 that.

3 A She told me about she had a couple of guns she
4 wanted to sell and that's when I started piecing
5 everything together. I'm, like, okay. And I knew some 6 people that would buy them, just like other people.
7 But she was going to pay me a little bit out of it and 8 she had, like, five or six guns in there.

9 Q Do you recall what kind of bag it was?

10 A It was a black duffel bag. I turned it in to 11 Officer Denmark.

12 Q We'll get to that here in just a little bit.

13 A Okay.

14 Q So you saw these guns.

15 A Yeah.

16 Q What did you do then?

17 A I asked her if they were stolen and she said no,
18 they're not stolen. Well, okay. And I looked at one
19 or two of them. I didn't touch them. I mean, I looked 20 at them and I said okay, I'll make some calls. So it
21 was, like, the next day I called her and said well,
22 I've got somebody that might be interested in a couple
23 and that person was me.

24 And so she brought three over, four over, and she 25 put them in the Blazer, in my Blazer, and I told her

1 I'd lock them up and I locked the doors and left them
2 there. Never looked at them. And that's pretty much
3 all we talked about.

4 Q Short time after that law enforcement came to your 5 house, didn't they?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q Do you remember when that was?

8 A I don't remember the day.

9 Q Just a short time after?

10 A It was a short time. It was, like, the 9th maybe.
11 I don't . . .

12 Q Okay. What was going on that day when law
13 enforcement came to your house?

14 A I was getting ready to go to a doctor's 15 appointment.

16 Q All right. About what time of day did they come
17 over?

18 A It was in the morning, because I was in the 19 shower.

20 Q Did they explain to you what was going on?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Did you get a chance to talk to them a little bit
23 that day?

24 A Yes.

25 Q At some point did you give them consent to search

1 ---

2 A Yes, I did.

3 Q --- your house?

4 A Yes, I did.

5 Q Tell me a little bit about that. What did they 6 do?

7 A They went through the house. They looked, didn't
8 see nothing. Went out looking in the vehicles and then
9 the detective from Lexington County was adamant about
10 smelling marijuana and I'm, like, you don't smell no
11 marijuana. He's, like, yeah, I smell marijuana. And 12 I'm, like, I don't think so. And he -- I said well, 13 the doors are locked and he's, like, well, I can get 14 in.

15 He slid the window open, reached in, unlocked the 16 door. He opened the door. He said man, this thing
17 reeks of marijuana and there's never been marijuana in 18 my Blazer. And so I locked the door and said I guess
19 your search is over. You can call a drug dog.

20 Q Okay. I guess they came back after that with a 21 search warrant ---

22 A Oh, yeah.

23 Q --- correct?

24 A Oh, yeah.

25 Q What happened when they came back with a search

1 warrant?

2 A They found the guns that was in the black bag.

3 Q After they found these guns, what did you do?

4 A I was sitting there going I should have went ahead
5 and gave it to them. I don't think I'd be sitting
6 where I am right now.

7 Q All right. You mentioned earlier that you gave 8 some guns to Sergeant Bamberg. When was that?

9 A I gave one the day after I got out of jail, or the 10 next day maybe.

11 Q How did that occur? Tell me a little bit about 12 that.

13 A I called Frankie to see if he was home and he's,
14 like, no. I said can I go to your house, can I go in 15 your house because I know where she stashed stuff, and 16 so I went in the house, looked, didn't see nothing.
17 Went outside to the little storage building, the 18 storage part connected to the house, and behind the 19 refrigerator or the freezer was the black bag. And I
20 got on the phone with -- it was either Ben Hay or 21 Detective Bamberg, it was one of them, and my 22 fingerprint wasn't nowhere on that gun.

23 Q You met up with them somewhere?

24 A In Pelion.

25 Q Handed it over ---

1 A And turned it over to him.

2 Q Okay. You mentioned earlier you don't know
3 Denmark very well. You're just not that familiar with 4 the area?

5 A No, sir.

6 Q Do you know Mr. Bacon?

7 A Yes, sir.

8 Q How do you know Mr. Bacon?

9 A Through Phoebe and going down to his doublewide
10 back when he had the shop where the store is and just 11 going there, went hunting with him.

12 Q Had you ever been over to his house? Did you ever
13 go over to [REDACTED] Highway?

14 A I didn't even know he had a house until I looked 15 it up, Googled it.

16 Q You'd never been over there?

17 A No, sir.

18 Q Had you talked to him recently, not long before
19 this happened?

20 A Yeah, I sold him a pistol

21 Q Okay. When was that?

22 A I don't know. It was maybe a month before, a
23 couple weeks before.

24 Q So you had seen him recently.

25 A Yeah.

(SILAS LEON ROLAND, III-CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. PRICE)

1 Q Familiar with him?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q Okay. I think you mentioned it earlier, but
4 what's your relationship again with Phoebe? How did
5 you come to be involved with her?

6 A Just as friends. I mean, she was at the time a
7 likeable person. Not now.

8 Q But you met her through a family member; correct?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Known her for a good while?

11 A Yeah.

12 Q Kind of did things together?

13 A Not a lot of things.

14 Q Hung out some?

15 A Oh, yeah, we hung out.

16 Q Take her places from time to time?

17 A Yeah, as friends would do.

18 MR. HAMMACK: Nothing further.

19 CROSS-EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. PRICE:

21 Q Mr. Roland, you mentioned that when y'all got to a
22 certain location near Denmark, a black car came; right?

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q You never questioned Phoebe, as you call her,
25 about where she was going at all?

1 A As far as I know, she had talked to her friend
2 Clarence, which I've never met, and he had some stuff
3 for her to get. I guess I was thinking clothes and 4 stuff.

5 Q You didn't find it odd that she would just get
6 into a black car, go somewhere, and then -- and then
7 allegedly suddenly come back?

8 A Not if they were friends.

9 Q But you mentioned later too that you asked her
10 whether the guns were stolen. You didn't think 11 anything about allegedly the black bag that she came 12 back with, that they were stolen, that something was 13 stolen in there?

14 A It, kind of, dawned on me but ---

15 Q Why didn't you ask her then?

16 A I did. She said they wasn't.

17 Q In addition, you mentioned that you and Mr. Bacon
18 had known each other; is that correct?

19 A Yeah.

20 Q And y'all had gone hunting?

21 A Yeah.

22 Q But you never went to his house?

23 A Not his house. I went to his doublewide. That's 24 the only place I've ever known him to live.

25 Q And you said afterwards that you didn't know where

(SILAS LEON ROLAND, III-CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. PRICE)

1 he lived until you Googled it; right?

2 A I Googled it on map search.

3 Q When did you do that?

4 A After I got out of jail because I wanted to know
5 where he lived.

6 Q Okay. If she was going to get clothes why did she 7 have to get into another car and why did you go to the 8 store?

9 A I just went to get a drink. I don't know.

10 Q So you had no -- she -- you had no earthly idea
11 about anything whatsoever?

12 A I did not really have an inkling that she was 13 going to go do what she done.

14 Q So you never went to his house?

15 A No.

16 MR. PRICE: No further questions.

17 MR. HAMMACK: Nothing from the State.

18 THE COURT: You may step down. Next witness.

19 MR. HAMMACK: The State rests.

20 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, we 21 have reached the conclusion of the State's testimony.
22 I need to speak to the lawyers a little bit. It's a
23 quarter to one. Let's break until two o'clock. That 24 gives you an hour and 15 minutes. Is that okay for 25 lunch? Be back at two o'clock.

1 Please do not discuss the case. Do not start
2 deliberating. When you get back, select a foreperson
3 please. We'll finish it up this afternoon. Thank you.
4 Everybody else remain seated.

5 (Whereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

6 THE COURT: Anything by the State?

7 MR. HAMMACK: No, sir.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Price?

9 MR. PRICE: Yes, Your Honor, I move for -- I move
10 for summary judgment based on the testimony given 11 today.

12 THE COURT: You move for a directed verdict?

13 MR. PRICE: Directed verdict rather. There hasn't 14 been any testimony that has shown that my client, Ms.
15 Jacqueline Bacon, was actually at the residence, no
16 DNA, no fingerprints were located. It's based solely 17 on the testimony of Mr. Silas Roland. Mr. Roland said
18 he got various text messages and no text messages were 19 presented as evidence today, and for that reason I move
20 for a directed verdict.

21 MR. HAMMACK: Your Honor, taking the evidence in 22 the light most favorable to the State, it's absolutely
23 circumstantial evidence, but there's enough there for a 24 jury to make a decision on whether -- based on the 25 testimony of Detective Hay, based on the testimony of

1 Mr. Bacon and then based on the testimony of Silas
2 Roland. There's enough there to put the case together.

3 THE COURT: I respectfully deny your motion.
4 Obviously I'm -- at this stage of the game I'm 5 concerned about the existence of evidence, not the 6 weight, and there is substantial circumstantial
7 evidence that if a jury believes it would support a
8 verdict, so I respectfully deny your motion for a
9 directed verdict. Anything else by the Defendant?

10 MR. PRICE: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Do you intend to put up any testimony?

12 MR. PRICE: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: So when we get back we'll move right
14 into the final arguments. The State goes first,
15 followed by you, and then I will charge -- Ms. Ringler,
16 I don't have a law clerk today. Please get me a
17 verdict form for guilty or not guilty of burglary
18 first. Put not guilty first and guilty second. Any 19 particular jury charge that y'all want?

20 MR. PRICE: Just the standard, Your Honor.

21 MR. HAMMACK: Circumstantial evidence and the 22 normal stuff you do.

23 THE COURT: Well, normal stuff I do is burglary
24 first and circumstantial and direct evidence,
25 credibility of witnesses, presumption of innocence,

1 reasonable doubt. Once again, remind them of the fact
2 she's not here, do not hold that against her in any
3 manner whatsoever. That's basically it. All right.
4 We'll stand at ease until two o'clock.

5 (Off the record for lunch.)

6 THE COURT: Is the State ready to proceed?

7 MR. HAMMACK: Yes, sir, Your Honor. My deputy is 8 not quite back yet. Should be here any minute now.

9 THE COURT: Who?

10 MR. HAMMACK: My deputy, Franklin Bamberg. He 11 should be here in just a minute. We can go on if we 12 need to. He's just running a couple minutes behind.

13 THE COURT: Supposed to start at two o'clock. Is 14 the Defendant ready?

15 MR. PRICE: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Can you find out where he is?

17 MR. HAMMACK: He should be walking in.

18 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

19 (Whereupon, the jury came into open court.)

20 THE COURT: First question: Did y'all get me a 21 foreperson? Did y'all get me a foreperson? You've got 22 to do it. Everybody gets $10 taken off their pay.
23 I'll select somebody. We'll do that in a minute.

24 Here's where we are. We have concluded all of the 25 testimony, so that will be it for the testimony. So

1 where we are now, the State will present their final
2 argument, followed by Mr. Price on behalf of the 3 Defendant and then I'll instruct you on the law and 4 then y'all can go back to your jury room and start your 5 deliberations, so we will finish it up today.

6 CLOSING ARGUMENT ON BEHALF OF THE STATE

7 MR. HAMMACK: Mr. Price, Mr. Clerk, Your Honor.
8 Welcome back. The case moved pretty fast but we'll 9 probably get done today, I'm hoping. Appreciate all 10 your attention during the testimony. I know I said we 11 moved pretty quick, but I appreciate y'all paying 12 attention to everything that was said.

13 Guys, like I said before, you've realized by now
14 this isn't CSI. We're not going to have somebody
15 coming in with this special piece of fiber that only
16 one person in the world has and that's how we link
17 Phoebe or Jacqueline Bacon to this thing. It's a
18 circumstantial evidence case.

19 Chief Deputy Hay told you they didn't get any 20 fingerprints. That's not unusual. It's actually more
21 unusual to get fingerprints. DNA evidence, they 22 swabbed for it but Ms. Bacon had been in the house
23 recently. If it showed anything -- if they even found
24 it, she might have been in the house at some point.
25 It's already been testified to she had been there

1 recently. It's a circumstantial evidence case.

2 What we have to prove beyond a reasonable doubt --
3 and the Judge is going to define that for you here in a
4 few minutes -- a couple of different definitions in 5 South Carolina. There's a firmly convinced. That's 6 evidence that leaves you firmly convinced of the 7 Defendant's guilt is enough to convict, or the other
8 definition of reasonable doubt is doubt which would 9 cause a reasonable person to hesitate to act.

10 I know that's hard to understand. I've been doing
11 this 13 years. I'm not quite sure I understand
12 completely what reasonable doubt is. That's why we ask
13 you to use your common sense; what makes sense to you.
14 Think about what you heard from the stand.

15 The Judge will tell you, if he hasn't already,
16 what we're saying is not evidence in the case. This is 17 me telling you my opinion, my version, what I see,
18 trying to give you a roadmap of what to look for and 19 what to talk about, but what I'm saying is not evidence
20 in the case. The only evidence is what comes from that 21 stand right there.

22 I have to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that 23 Jacqueline Bacon entered Wayne Bacon's residence, his 24 house, the place where he lives, with the intent to 25 commit a crime therein, to take stuff, to steal guns,

1 steal liquor, steal jewelry, and that she did it
2 without his consent. One of the elements of burglary
3 first is that she became armed during the course of the 4 burglary. She took guns.

5 Again, like I said, it's circumstantial evidence.
6 You heard testimony from the stand that Wayne Bacon
7 left his house that morning to go to Columbia to have
8 some time with his parents; took his daughter up there
9 and they went and spent the day with his parents. He 10 gets a text around lunchtime, maybe a little earlier,
11 from Jacqueline who he hears from periodically. It's 12 his ex-wife. They've been divorced for about three 13 years. And a little bit unusual because it's just,
14 kind of, out of the blue. He tells her he's headed to 15 Columbia to see his parents.

16 Gets a text again later on in the day. Chief
17 Deputy Hay told you, looking at the records, somewhere
18 around 4:45 or so, again asking where he is. Gets home
19 later that night and walks in and notices his kitchen
20 cabinet is open. That's a little bit unusual; didn't 21 leave them that way, so draws his attention. He 22 notices the back door has been broken into, so he does 23 what pretty much any parent would do. He's going to 24 get his daughter and get out of the house, so that's 25 what he does.

1 Law enforcement gets there, they get a chance to
2 look around and see what's going on and it's just 3 something not quite right. It's just odd that, as 4 Chief Deputy Hay told you, usually in a burglary the 5 house is a mess, things moved around but it's not in 6 this case. Only certain areas have been gone into and 7 it becomes real obvious, real fast, that whoever did it
8 knew where stuff was, to go to these specific places,
9 not other places.

10 There weren't other places in the house, as Chief
11 Deputy Hay told you. The house was clean. It was -- I
12 think he used the word immaculate or something along
13 those lines. The house was just very well maintained
14 and it was obvious the places that they had been to and 15 it again became obvious real fast that whoever had been 16 in there knew where to go, knew what to look for.

17 There's only a couple of different people that 18 know where all those places are, Mr. Bacon told you.
19 His parents, and they were with him so they weren't 20 down here breaking into his house, and Phoebe, or 21 Jacqueline, his ex-wife.

22 She's been out of the house for some time. He's 23 made some changes since she's been gone, putting places
24 -- putting money in different places, kind of, moving
25 things around a little bit but mostly things are still

1 the same; jewelry drawer is still there; still keeps
2 the gun in the liquor cabinet with the liquor; still
3 keeps the gun in the top of the closet with things that
4 were taken; and because of all that law enforcement,
5 they know. They know where to start looking. They 6 have a pretty good idea.

7 So they start looking at Jacqueline because they 8 know she's familiar with the house, she's familiar with 9 where things are. They pull her phone records and find
10 out that she was down around the Denmark area around
11 the time of this burglary and that she was with Silas
12 Roland. So they say well, let's go look for Jacqueline 13 and see what we can find out. Get to where she was 14 staying, she's not there, so they ride over to Silas's.
15 Maybe she's there. Maybe it's a good chance to talk to 16 Silas.

17 Once they get to Silas's house, talk to him a
18 little bit, start searching, looking around, and when 19 they get to his Blazer they talked about, Silas
20 withdraws his consent to search, and that certainly 21 piqued their interest and made them wonder if 22 something's going on. He's let us search everything
23 else, why not this?

24 So they go get a search warrant and as soon as 25 they get there, they find guns that were stolen from

1 Wayne Bacon in that Blazer. That's when Mr. Roland
2 told you about being arrested and when he gets out, he
3 actually goes and retrieves some more of the firearms
4 that were left over at Frankie's house and he talks to 5 law enforcement.

6 He explains to them what happened that day and 7 what he can tell them; that on September 9th he had
8 brought Jacqueline down here to Denmark to a little 9 church where she got in the car with somebody else. He 10 stayed gone for a little bit. It wasn't a long lengthy 11 period. It wasn't a two or three-hour time period. It
12 was pretty quick.

13 I think phone records would show that, you know,
14 the text messages and stuff that were being sent were a
15 pretty quick time period here in Denmark, here in this 16 area. That's consistent with somebody knowing where 17 stuff is in the house. They don't have to rummage.
18 They know where to go and what to look for. Don't take 19 long if you know what you're looking for.

20 Go in, get what they want, get out. He'd done
21 picked her up and she's got a bag full of something.
22 He don't know what but she's got this bag. The next
23 day he finds out there's guns in the bag, because she's 24 asking him about trying to help sell them. Those are 25 the same guns that were found in the Blazer that were

1 traced back to Mr. Bacon.

2 Those are the same guns that were found in the 3 black bag that Mr. Roland brought to Sergeant Bamberg
4 that were stolen from Mr. Bacon. It's not a hard case.
5 I'm just asking you to use your common sense. Think
6 about what you've heard. Think about what you've been 7 told. Put it all together, what makes sense to you.

8 I understand that -- and I'm just guessing at this
9 point -- I'm assuming the defense is going to talk a
10 little more about Silas Roland and what his involvement
11 was in the case because he's the one with the guns.
12 They didn't find them on Jacqueline. They found them
13 with him. He's the one provided them back to them.

14 But as Mr. Roland told you, he didn't even know
15 the house was there. He'd been to a doublewide. He 16 didn't know he had a house. Does it make sense that 17 Silas Roland goes in that house, goes to those specific 18 areas, gets those specific items and gets out in 19 minutes and is headed back to Lexington? Does that 20 make sense?

21 Or does it make more sense that somebody knows
22 what they're doing, knows where they're going, knows
23 what they're looking for? You heard some testimony
24 about this jewelry drawer that you couldn't even tell
25 was there. It wasn't obvious. I think that Chief

1 Deputy Hay even said had he not been shown, he wouldn't
2 have known that the jewelry drawer was there.

3 Does it make sense that somebody that's never been
4 in the house and not familiar with it is going to know
5 where that drawer is, that the key is kept in the sock
6 drawer so the sock drawer was gone through looking for 7 it? Does that make sense? What makes sense in this
8 case is that Jacqueline Bacon went in that house, not 9 her house, Wayne Bacon's house. Her ex-husband's 10 house, not her house anymore.

11 We talked about that. Family Court didn't give 12 her any interest in that house. That's his house. She 13 goes in that house to the spots where she knows he 14 keeps stuff and she takes it. That's what makes sense
15 in this case. I'm going to finish up with a little 16 story. If you've got kids you'll understand it;
17 grandkids, you'll get it. Hopefully it'll help it make 18 a little more sense. Susie's heard this before so
19 she's going to probably laugh at me.

20 Little Johnny comes home from school Friday --
21 excuse me -- Thursday afternoon, looks at mama and says
22 mama, we have an end-of-school party tomorrow. I need
23 two dozen chocolate chip cookies and of course, you
24 know, mom is, like, wait until the last minute to tell
25 me, but they go do it because that's what moms do.

1 They go make those cookies.

2 So mom goes in the kitchen and she makes up a
3 batch of 24 beautiful chocolate chip cookies ready to 4 go to school the next day. She leaves them there on 5 the cooling rack so they can cool so she can pack them
6 up. She goes off to check on the laundry, do some 7 other things around the house, comes back, there's two 8 cookies missing.

9 Mom says wonder what happened to those two 10 cookies. So she yells at Little Johnny who's in the 11 living room watching TV, and she says Little Johnny,
12 what happened to my cookies and Little Johnny says
13 mama, I don't know what you're talking about. I
14 haven't seen any cookies. Mama is still looking 15 suspicious. Okay. So she asked him again, Little 16 Johnny, are you sure you haven't seen those cookies,
17 and again he denies it. I haven't seen those cookies.

18 So she decides to walk into the living room to 19 look for them. She gets in there and Little Johnny is 20 sitting there on the chair in front of the TV. He's 21 got cookie crumbs all over his shirt and chocolate all
22 over his face. Mama doesn't need to get law
23 enforcement to come out and take samples of those 24 crumbs to make sure they're chocolate chip cookies.

25 She doesn't need SLED to analyze the chocolate on

1 his face to know that it's Toll House Chocolate as 2 opposed to some other chocolate. Mama knows.

3 She knows exactly what went on even if she doesn't
4 have a video of it. She doesn't have an eyewitness.
5 She doesn't have a SLED analyst coming down and talking
6 about how this chocolate is special chocolate that only
7 these cookies had. She knows and in this case you
8 know.

9 You've got the evidence there. Go back, talk
10 about that evidence. I urge you to spend some time and 11 talk about it, think about it and come back with the 12 only verdict and that's guilty. Thank you.

13 CLOSING ARGUMENT ON BEHALF OF THE DEFENSE

14 MR. PRICE: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury,
15 thank you for your service. Thankfully it didn't take 16 us too long to get to this point.

17 You've heard the testimony today and all the 18 testimony seems to lead back to Silas Roland. When you
19 first heard Sergeant Bamberg -- yeah, Sergeant Bamberg
20 speak about this case, he said that he first talked to 21 Mr. Roland. You heard Ben Hay who spoke to Mr. Roland.
22 Mr. Roland is the only one that talks about Jacqueline
23 Bacon being linked with this case.

24 Mr. Roland is the one that said he lied to his 25 wife about going to see Jackie. If he lied to his

1 wife, how do you know he didn't lie to us? We don't 2 know if he lied to us at all. Mr. Roland said that he
3 drove down to see -- to take Jackie to a certain place
4 and a guy in a black car picked her up.

5 We have no description of more of this car. We 6 don't know if it was a Mercedes or a Chevrolet. We 7 don't know who this guy is, but he sure gave a
8 description of the church that was white with a red
9 roof. How come you don't know the description of the 10 car or description of the person who was inside that 11 car?

12 He's the only one that's linked to the guns.
13 Jackie's not linked to the guns whatsoever. Law
14 enforcement went to Mr. Roland. They retrieved guns
15 from him. Mr. Roland said that later on, a couple of 16 weeks later, he went up to Frankie's house to take the 17 guns and to give to law enforcement in Pelion.

18 Why would you take the guns from somebody's house
19 to give to law enforcement in Pelion? Why wouldn't you
20 just call law enforcement and say hey, there's 21 additional evidence here that you can pick up? It
22 doesn't make any sense. Why? Because Mr. Roland is 23 lying.

24 Mr. Roland is the one that likely did everything.
25 He probably did the whole thing all himself. He sent

1 law enforcement -- you've heard from law enforcement
2 and you've heard from Mr. Roland about Jackie texting.
3 How do we know that Mr. Roland didn't have the phone
4 all along? He testified earlier that he went to 5 Frankie's house and that Jacqueline was there and they
6 rode down to that area, the Denmark area.

7 Well, we don't know if he took that phone with him
8 the entire time, so all of this today, the testimony
9 from law enforcement, from Mr. Roland, is all linking 10 back to Silas; nothing necessarily to Jacqueline.

11 He also testified about Google. He Googled Mr.
12 Bacon's house. Why would you Google about Mr. Bacon's
13 house after you get out of jail? That doesn't make any 14 sense. Why would you -- what's the point of Googling
15 him?

16 Lastly, you heard the ex-husband, Mr. Wayne Bacon
17 who readily had his house broken into, speak about his 18 wife briefly -- or his ex-wife briefly, and that's 19 Jacqueline Bacon. You would think that someone -- an 20 ex-wife breaking into the home would have some type of 21 acrimonious relationship with the husband, or the ex-
22 husband. You didn't hear that whatsoever.

23 You did hear Mr. Bacon say that she had her
24 parental rights terminated, but he did say that she 25 came out to the house one time and they had a nice

1 evening. I would think there would be a little bit
2 more of a bad relationship between the two if she was
3 going to break into the house.

4 Silas, Mr. Roland, mentioned that he really didn't 5 know Mr. Bacon all that well. He'd never been in the 6 house. Well, Silas did testify that he had known
7 Jacqueline since 1989, known him since 1989, and he
8 testified that he had went hunting with Mr. Bacon a
9 couple of times and that he went to his doublewide. I
10 find it hard to believe that he wouldn't be in the 11 home, he didn't know anything about that home. So I
12 offer that really Silas Roland that did the burglary
13 all along.

14 Now, the Judge is going to instruct you about 15 reasonable doubt. As you heard from the Solicitor,
16 there's different versions about what reasonable doubt
17 is. After you hear the Judge give his instruction and 18 you go in the back to deliberate, I'm confident that 19 you'll return a verdict of not guilty for Jacqueline
20 Bacon. Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, what we normally
22 do at this stage of the trial is I instruct you or tell
23 you what the law is, and as I go around the State
24 trying cases, in criminal cases the first part of the 25 charge or the instructions deals with anybody charged

1 with anything criminal. They're general charges
2 dealing with people who have been indicted for certain
3 crimes.

4 Let me go through that first and then we'll turn
5 our attention to this indictment, which is for burglary
6 in the first degree. First of all let me remind you
7 the fact that the Defendant has been arrested and 8 charged and indicted in the case is not evidence in the 9 case and cannot be considered by you as evidence of 10 guilt in this case, nor does it create any presumption
11 of guilt in the case.

12 The indictment is simply the formal document by 13 way we come into the courtroom. To this indictment of 14 burglary in the first degree the Defendant has pled not 15 guilty, and a plea of not guilty puts the burden on the 16 State of South Carolina to prove the guilt beyond a
17 reasonable doubt. A person charged with committing a 18 criminal offense in our State is never required to 19 prove himself or herself innocent.

20 I instruct and charge you it is an important
21 Constitutional rule of law that a person in a criminal 22 case, no matter how serious the charges may be, will 23 always be presumed to be innocent of the charges for 24 which the indictment was issued unless guilt has been 25 proven by evidence to satisfy you of that guilt beyond

1 a reasonable doubt.

2 The presumption of innocence does not end when you
3 start your deliberations but it stays with a Defendant
4 throughout the trial, unless you reach a verdict of 5 guilt based on the evidence satisfying you of that 6 guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

7 The presumption of innocence is not a mere legal
8 theory or phrase. It is a substantial Constitutional
9 right to which every Defendant is entitled unless you
10 the jury are satisfied from the evidence of the 11 Defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

12 Our Appellate Courts have defined the term
13 reasonable doubt as the kind of doubt that would cause
14 a reasonable person to hesitate to act. It's the kind 15 of doubt that would cause a reasonable person to 16 hesitate to act. Obviously the State has the burden of 17 proving the Defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable
18 doubt. Proof beyond a reasonable doubt is proof that 19 leaves you firmly convinced of the Defendant's guilt.

20 Obviously there are very few things in the world
21 that we know with absolute certainty and in criminal
22 cases the law does not require proof that overcomes
23 every possible doubt, but if based on your 24 consideration of the evidence you are firmly convinced
25 of the Defendant's guilt of the crime, then you must

1 find the Defendant guilty.

2 If on the other hand you think there is a real
3 possibility that the Defendant is not guilty, then you
4 must give the Defendant the benefit of the doubt and 5 find her not guilty.

6 As I told you when we selected the jury earlier
7 today that you and I have two distinct functions to 8 perform. You are obviously the judges of the facts.
9 You have to determine whether the facts in this case
10 are credible and believable and if so, whether it will 11 rise to the level of proving the Defendant guilty
12 beyond a reasonable doubt. So you are the finders of 13 the facts in the case.

14 I'm the Judge of the law in the case, so you have 15 to accept the law as I give it to you. If at any time
16 during the trial of the case you think I have some 17 opinion about the facts, the law does not allow me to 18 do so. So if I raised my eyebrows or rolled my eyes or 19 frowned or smiled, or did anything that you think I
20 have an opinion about the facts, set that aside. I
21 cannot. That is not my job nor my responsibility.
22 That is your responsibility. You determine true facts
23 that's been testified in this case.

24 And to do that obviously you have to determine the 25 believability or the credibility of the witnesses who

1 have testified in the case. Credibility simply means
2 believability. Who do you believe? It becomes your 3 duty as jurors to analyze and evaluate the evidence and 4 determine which evidence convinces you of its truth.

5 We all, in our everyday lives, we deal with wives
6 and husbands and children and friends and employees and 7 employers. You know how to judge when someone is 8 telling the truth or not telling the truth. Use that 9 everyday common sense in judging the credibility of 10 these witnesses and you will be in a position to 11 determine the true facts in the case.

12 In determining the believability or the 13 credibility of the witnesses, you can believe one
14 witness over several, several over one. You can 15 disbelieve everything a witness says. You can believe 16 everything he says. You can believe a little bit and 17 disbelieve the rest, but just use your good common
18 sense to judge the credibility and you'll be in a 19 position to determine what the true facts are in the 20 case.

21 Under our law when we try cases there are two
22 types of evidence which is generally presented during a
23 trial. They're called direct evidence and 24 circumstantial evidence, and the law makes no
25 distinction between the two, or the weight or value to

1 be given to either direct or circumstantial evidence,
2 nor is any greater degree of certainty required of
3 circumstantial evidence than of direct evidence.

4 You should weigh all the evidence in the case and 5 after weighing all the evidence, if you are not
6 convinced of the guilt of the Defendant beyond a
7 reasonable doubt, you must find the Defendant not 8 guilty. Direct evidence is testimony of a person who 9 claims to have actual knowledge of a fact such as an
10 eyewitness. Circumstantial evidence is proof of a 11 chain of facts and circumstances indicating the 12 existence of a fact.

13 If you go outside and it's raining, you get wet
14 and see the raindrops coming down, that's direct 15 evidence that it's raining. If you walk outside and 16 there's mud puddles and it's hot and humid and cloudy, 17 even though you don't see it's raining, mud puddles and 18 all that is circumstantial evidence that it has rained.
19 So that's basically the difference between the two.
20 The law does not distinguish between the two. You give 21 it whatever weight you deem is necessary.

22 Let me emphasize once again under the laws of our
23 State a Defendant may be tried even if the Defendant
24 does not attend the trial, but the fact that the 25 Defendant is not present may not be considered against

1 the Defendant in any manner whatsoever.

2 Now, that's sort of the general propositions of 3 law that we deal with in all cases. Let's turn to the 4 indictment in this case. The Defendant has been 5 indicted for the offense of burglary in the first 6 degree. There are three degrees of burglary in our 7 State. We're only dealing with burglary in the first
8 degree here today.

9 The Defendant is charged with first degree
10 burglary. The State must first prove beyond a
11 reasonable doubt that the Defendant entered a dwelling
12 without consent. Must prove that the Defendant entered
13 a dwelling without consent. A dwelling under our law
14 is defined as any building or portion of a building in 15 which a person ordinarily sleeps, so you have to prove 16 that they entered that place where a person ordinarily 17 sleeps, a building where someone ordinarily sleeps,
18 without consent.

19 Next the State must prove beyond a reasonable
20 doubt that the Defendant intended to commit a crime, 21 whether it be a felony or misdemeanor, at the time of 22 the entry, and finally the State must prove beyond a 23 reasonable doubt that while entering or while in the 24 dwelling, or when leaving the dwelling, the Defendant
25 was armed with a deadly weapon and a deadly weapon,

1 examples are pistols, shotguns, those sorts of things.

2 The State has to prove to you beyond a reasonable
3 doubt that the Defendant entered a dwelling -- a
4 dwelling is a building where a person normally sleeps -
5 - without consent and with intent to commit a crime
6 therein, and while entering or while in the dwelling or 7 when leaving was armed with a deadly weapon.

8 Now, ladies and gentlemen, your verdict must be 9 unanimous. That means all 12 of you must agree as to 10 what the verdict is. You will have a verdict form,
11 Madam Foreman, and it's simply we find the Defendant
12 not guilty or we find the Defendant guilty.

13 Obviously we have no enemies to punish, friends to 14 reward. What we have to do is ask you to consider the 15 evidence that has been presented to determine whether 16 or not the State has proven their case beyond a
17 reasonable doubt. If all 12 of you unanimously agree
18 that they have, your verdict would be we find the 19 Defendant guilty. If you find that they have failed to 20 prove the case to you beyond a reasonable doubt, it
21 would be not guilty.

22 Once you have reached a verdict, check the 23 appropriate spot, guilty or not guilty, sign your name,
24 knock on the door and we will receive you back in the 25 courtroom. If you have any questions while you're

1 deliberating, the protocol or the rule is to write that
2 question out on a piece of paper that you'll have back
3 there, give it to the bailiff who'll give it to me.

4 Sometimes I can answer the questions, sometimes I
5 can't, obviously depending on what the inquiry is. I'm 6 going to ask you now to step back into your jury room.
7 Do not start deliberating. I have to ask the lawyers
8 if I've left anything out or if I need to change
9 anything.

10 Once I make that inquiry I will send the verdict
11 form back to the jury room. At that time you can start
12 your deliberations. Separate my alternates out please.

13 (Whereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

14 THE COURT: Are there any exceptions, requested
15 additions or deletions to the charge by the State?

16 MR. HAMMACK: No, sir, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: By the Defendant?

18 MR. PRICE: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: I have a verdict form that simply says
20 we find not guilty or guilty. Any objection to that?
21 None by the State and none by the Defendant. Hand that 22 to the jury and tell them they may start their 23 deliberations. You have separated the alternates; is 24 that correct?

25 THE CLERK: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Thank you. We'll stand at ease for a
2 few minutes.

3 (Whereupon, the jury began deliberations.)

4 (Off the record)

5 THE COURT: Thank you. Please be seated. Is the
6 State ready to receive the verdict?

7 MR. HAMMACK: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Price?

9 MR. PRICE: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Bring the jury in please. Get the two 11 alternates. They can come in if they want to. That'll
12 be fine. Let them sit over here.

13 (Whereupon, the jury entered open court.)

14 THE COURT: Have y'all reached a verdict?

15 MS. FOREPERSON: Yes, we have.

16 THE COURT: Hand it to the bailiff.

17 THE CLERK: In the State of South Carolina versus 18 Jacqueline Bacon, we the jury find the Defendant
19 guilty. Madam Forelady, is that your verdict and is it
20 still your verdict?

21 MS. FOREPERSON: Yes, it is.

22 THE CLERK: Members of the jury, is that your 23 verdict and is it still your verdict?

24 (Members of the jury respond simultaneously in the 25 affirmative.)

1 THE COURT: Anything further for the jury before
2 we dismiss then by the Defendant?

3 MR. PRICE: No, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 MR. HAMMACK: No, sir.

6 THE COURT: Madam Forelady, ladies and gentlemen,
7 a quick trial and I agree with your verdict.
8 Interesting. I've been doing this 30 years as a lawyer
9 and 10 years now on the bench and I think this is maybe 10 the second or third case we've had to try where they 11 didn't show up.

12 I just wanted to let you know that every effort
13 has been made to locate her and to have her here.
14 She's out on bond. We had her bondsman here yesterday
15 and they were trying to find her. This case has been 16 set for trial for a while. Mr. Price has been 17 representing her all the way back last year and she -- 18 we just don't know where she is.

19 We've been in touch with her family and all, but 20 sometimes those things happen, but the case has to be 21 resolved. It can't just stay on the roster forever.
22 We gave her every means and effort to be here.

23 Anyway I appreciate y'all's time and effort and 24 you've now got exempted for three years so you get a
25 little something out of it. Mr. Hiers will send you a

1 check and that will be it for the week and I thank you.
2 Enjoyed being with you.

3 So unless you've got any questions we're going to 4 let you go. You can turn -- those badges are, I guess,
5 disposable. Anything else, Mr. Hiers?

6 THE CLERK: No, sir. If anybody needs an excuse
7 to take back to where you work, we can give you one
8 downstairs.

9 THE COURT: The Clerk's office is as you go out
10 the front door, that last office on the left. Go in 11 and tell them you're a juror and they'll be glad to 12 give you an excuse. Thank you very much. Enjoyed
13 being with each and every one of you.

14 Just let me tell you one other thing. What will 15 happen now is I will have to impose a sentence upon her
16 and they'll hand me a sentence sheet up in just a
17 minute and I will sentence her. Nobody will know what 18 it is. It'll be in a sealed envelope so it won't be 19 revealed until she has been found, and when she's found
20 they'll bring her in to be sentenced. Thank y'all.

21 (Whereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

22 (WHEREUPON, THE TRIAL WAS CONCLUDED.)

1 THE CLERK: Jacqueline Bacon.

2 (Defendant sworn)

3 THE COURT: Standing before me is Jacqueline
4 Phoebe Bacon. Ms. Bacon was charged with the offense
5 of burglary in the first degree. The case was called 6 in Bamberg at the last term of court. She was tried by 7 trial by jury on June 24th, 2014. She failed to 8 appear. She was tried in her absence. Sentence was 9 handed down and put in a sealed envelope, which I have 10 just opened.

11 She was found guilty by a jury of 12 people in 12 Bamberg County. Subsequent to that time obviously she 13 has been located and brought in and incarcerated in the 14 Bamberg County Jail awaiting sentence. Before me today
15 is Solicitor Hammack and her lawyer Jason Price.
16 Anything from the State that we need to put on the 17 record?

18 MR. HAMMACK: Your Honor, you heard all the facts
19 of the case when we were present. The victim, I think,
20 spoke after the trial; did not wish to be present
21 today. Just so the Court will know, her prior
22 convictions are breach of trust over 5,000 and 2,000
23 and are on the prior record.

24 THE COURT: I will note on the record I had Mr.
25 Price call Ms. Bacon's mother. We've made every effort

1 -- he made every effort as well as everyone else to
2 locate her. The bondsman was brought in, if I remember
3 correctly.

4 MR. HAMMACK: Yes, sir, Your Honor, the bonding
5 company and the surety both came in -- the insurance
6 surety company -- both came and you spoke with both of 7 them, and they made every effort they could to find
8 her.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Jason Price?

10 MR. PRICE: I have nothing to add, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Ms. Bacon, anything you want to say?

12 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Well, you were charged with burglary
14 in the first degree. It carries a minimum of 15 years
15 to life. It is the order of the Court that you be 16 committed to the State Department of Corrections for a
17 period of 15 years.

18 MR. HAMMACK: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 MR. PRICE: Thank you, Your Honor.
