

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Ray Long and Mary Long, Appellants,

v.

Tuck and Howell, Inc., Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2013-002439

---

ORDER

---

Respondent has filed a motion to dismiss, asserting Appellants have failed to properly prepare and serve a record on appeal. In the alternative Respondent moves to strike the record on appeal filed by Appellants. Because the documents filed by Appellants on August 10, 2015, do not comply with the Appellate Court Rules for a record on appeal, they are stricken. Within twenty days, Appellants shall serve and file a record on appeal that complies with Rule 210, SCACR. Specifically, the record on appeal shall (1) be bound and arranged in the following order: the title page, index, orders, judgments, decrees, decisions, pleadings, transcript, charges, exhibits and other materials or documents, and a certificate by Appellants certifying the record contains all material proposed to be included by any of the parties and not any other material; (2) be numbered consecutively, beginning with the index; (3) contain all matter designated to be included by any party; and (4) not include matter that was not presented to the circuit court. Rule 210(c), (g), SCACR. Upon receipt of the record on appeal or within twenty days of the date of this order, this court will consider Respondent's motion to dismiss.

FOR THE COURT

Columbia, South Carolina

FILED

October 30, 2015

cc: Ray Long
Mary Long
James P. Walsh, Esquire