(WHEREUPON, the proceedings begin on the 19th day of November, 2013 at approximately 10:05 a.m.)

THE COURT: All right. Our first matter for today is the State versus Shane Young, is that right?

MR. WILKINS: That's correct, Your Honor.

THE CLERK: Your Honor, this is case number 2013-GS-23-6424, Shane Kelly Young indictment for Murder and Possession of a Weapon during the Commission of a Violent Crime pleading to Murder. It is a true bill.

2013-GS-23-6411, 6413, 6414, 6416, 6420, 6423, 6425 and 6426, all indictments for Attempted Murder. 2013-GS-23-6419 indictment for Burglary first degree. They are all true billed, Your Honor.

(WHEREUPON, the defendant is first duly sworn.)

THE COURT: All right, Mr. Young. You are here today to plead to burglary first degree. That carries a minimum of 15 years up to life. You are also here to plead to eight counts of Attempted Murder. That carries up to 30 years. And you are also here today to plead to Murder. That carries a minimum of 30 years up to a life

1 sentence. Is that your understanding?

2 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

3 THE COURT: Have you discussed these
4 charges with your attorney?

5 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

6 THE COURT: Well, your attorneys. Are you
7 satisfied with the services of both of your
8 attorneys?

9 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

10 THE COURT: Do you have any complaint to 11 make against your attorneys, law enforcement or 12 the solicitors office as a result of these 13 charges whatsoever?

14 MR. YOUNG: No, ma'am.

15 THE COURT: Are you under the influence of 16 drugs or alcohol here today?

17 MR. YOUNG: No, ma'am.

18 THE COURT: Uh, how old are you?

19 MR. YOUNG: 31.

20 THE COURT: How far have you gone in 21 school?

22 MR. YOUNG: 11th grade.

23 THE COURT: Before you were incarcerated,
24 did you work?

25 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

1 THE COURT: What kind of work did you do?

2 MR. YOUNG: I worked at a glass company.

3 THE COURT: What kind of work did you do
4 there?

5 MR. YOUNG: I was what they call a shooter
6 in the glass.

7 THE COURT: So it sounds like you had a
8 job that had some skill to it, is that right?

9 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

10 THE COURT: And you feel like you've 11 understood your conversations with your
12 attorneys?

13 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

14 THE COURT: Has anybody forced you to
15 plead guilty?

16 MR. YOUNG: No, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: Has anybody promised you
18 anything to get you to plead guilty other than 19 the plea negotiations in this case?

20 MR. YOUNG: No, ma'am.

21 THE COURT: Those plea negotiations are,
22 Solicitor?

23 MR. WILKINS: Your Honor, he's agreeing to 24 plead guilty to the burglary first that you
25 said, the two murders, as well as eight

1 attempted murders in return for a sentence of
2 two life sentences plus 240 years.

3 THE COURT: Plus how much?

4 MR. WILKINS: 240 years.

5 THE COURT: 240 years.

6 MR. WILKINS: So it would be a maximum
7 sentence of 30 years on each Attempted Murder
8 and life for the Burg first and life on the 9 Murder.

10 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Mauldin,
11 that's your understanding of the negotiations?

12 MR. MAULDIN: The remaining charges --
13 there were eight additional charges -- will be
14 dismissed. We do understand that the court
15 will follow the recommendation for a life
16 sentence. As to whether or not other sentences
17 run concurrent or consecutive has never been a
18 discussion but we anticipate a life sentence in 19 court today.

20 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Young, is that 21 your understanding of the negotiations?

22 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

23 THE COURT: Other than that, anything else
24 been promised to you to get you to plead guilty
25 here today?

1 MR. YOUNG: No, ma'am.

2 THE COURT: When you plead guilty, you
3 give up certain constitutional rights. One is 4 your right to remain silent about these
5 charges, do you understand that?

6 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

7 THE COURT: You also give up your right to
8 a jury trial on these charges. At that trial,
9 your attorneys could call witnesses for you,
10 could cross-examine witnesses against you. You
11 would not be compelled to testify against 12 yourself. The State would have to prove your
13 guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. But when you
14 plead guilty, you give up your right to a jury
15 trial. Do you know that?

16 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: Is that what you want to do
18 here today, plead guilty and give up your right
19 to a trial in this matter?

20 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

21 THE COURT: And how do you plead to each
22 of these charges, guilty or not guilty?

23 MR. YOUNG: Guilty.

24 THE COURT: You have 10 days from today's 25 date to appeal this plea if you so choose, but

1 you must do so in writing to this court. All
2 right. I want you to listen to the facts that
3 are read by the Solicitor.

4 Yes, sir.

5 MR. WILKINS: Your Honor, may it please
6 the Court.

7 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

8 MR. WILKINS: The defendant, Shane Young
9 had previously been dating an individual named
10 Kayla Atkinson and they had recently broken up.
11 After the break up, the defendant would 12 continuously follow the victim and anyone that 13 she was with. On October 15th, 2012, which is 14 the date of the incident, the victim was at a
15 mom and pop's store outside of Greenville
16 county when she and her friends were approached
17 by the defendant who threatened to kill her.
18 Kayla was able to speed off and avoid
19 confrontation with the defendant at that time.

20 She later went to her grandmother's home on 21 Skyland Drive in Greer, which is located in 22 Greenville county. Also present at this
23 location was her grandmother, Sandra Hand, her
24 mother Cheryl Mann, her sister, Summer Mann,
25 who was 10 years old at the time, and a friend,

1 Kenneth Horton.

2 The defendant was seen in his truck parked
3 outside of the residence and was told to leave
4 by at least two separate individuals. The 5 defendant then left.

6 Fearing that the defendant would return,
7 Kenneth Horton went outside to a shed to locate
8 a flashlight or anything with which he could
9 protect himself and others. He was returning
10 to the residence. As he was returning to the 11 residence, the defendant returned and had a
12 long gun according to at least two witnesses.
13 This was shortly after 9 p.m.

14 A shot was fired and Kenneth Horton came 15 running into the house yelling that Shane was 16 back. He and Ms. Hand shut and locked the 17 front door. The defendant approached the front
18 door firing his weapon. One of the shots hit
19 Kenneth Horton in the chest. Kenneth was able 20 to stumble back to one of the bedrooms where he 21 collapsed and ultimately died.

22 During this time, Kayla Atkinson went into 23 the bathroom to hide. Ms. Hand was in her
24 bedroom on her phone with 911. The defendant
25 then entered the house and began asking for

1 Kayla. He is told that she ran out of the back
2 door. He goes looking in parts of the house
3 for Kayla and sees Ms. Hand on the phone and
4 forces her and others to get into the hallway
5 and into the bathroom. He is unaware that
6 Kayla, the person whom he's looking for, is 7 hiding behind the shower curtain in the very
8 bathroom where he made everyone go.

9 Since 911 had been called by Ms. Hand,
10 members of the Greenville County Sheriff's 11 Office responded as did members of the 12 Greenville County SWAT team. The SWAT members
13 positioned themselves in various locations
14 around the residence and negotiations were 15 attempted with the defendant. They started at 16 approximately 10:30 and continued until the 17 SWAT team made entry into the house at 18 approximately 12:30.

19 During the negotiations, law enforcement
20 was attempting to learn how many people were 21 being held, if there were any injuries to
22 anyone inside and was told by the defendant
23 that an individual, Kenneth Horton, was dead
24 and he was threatening to kill the rest of the 25 individuals remaining in the house.

1 At one point during the standoff, the
2 defendant called his father and told him that
3 he was in trouble. The father called his
4 stepson who had been in law enforcement and
5 asked the stepson to help. The stepson called 6 the defendant and talked to him. At which
7 time, the defendant admitted to killing Kenneth
8 Horton and that he was holding three other
9 people hostage. At that time, the stepson
10 called the police and subsequently talked to 11 negotiators via phone about what had been said.

12 Once it determined that negotiations were
13 not going to be successful, a decision to enter
14 the residence was made. It was determined that 15 they would enter simultaneously through the 16 front and the back doors. According to Ms.
17 Hand, the defendant was in the threshold of the 18 bathroom when he began firing towards the 19 kitchen. Then he turned and began firing into 20 the bathroom towards the victims and then
21 turned and started firing at the officers who
22 had entered the residence. The defendant
23 continued to fire at officers until he was 24 finally subdued.

25 According to SWAT officers, Officers

1 McConnell, Maxwell, Ward and Grice, who entered
2 through the back door, they were immediately
3 confronted by gunfire from the defendant as
4 soon as they entered the residence. Officer
5 Grice and Maxwell were hit multiple times.
6 Specifically, Grice was shot through his bicep
7 and Officer Maxwell was shot in the leg in
8 addition to being shot in their Kevlar vests.
9 They both required extensive medical treatment
10 for their wounds.

11 Officers Ward and McConnell described 12 hearing and feeling bullets firing past them as 13 they pushed down the wall towards where they
14 believed the defendant to be. They quickly
15 located the defendant in the bathroom and the 16 defendant continued to fire at the officers.
17 The officers returned fire and, ultimately,
18 subdued him in the bathroom. At that point,
19 they were able to get the victims to safety.

20 It was determined that Kayla Atkinson was 21 not injured although she was in the bathroom at 22 the time the defendant was firing his weapon
23 into the bathroom. Sandra Hand had been shot
24 through the hip by the defendant requiring
25 multiple surgeries. Cheryl Mann received

1 shrapnel in knees and her leg. And Summer Mann
2 who was only 10 years old at the time was shot
3 through the leg. The bullet went through her
4 growth plate and she's had to have multiple
5 surgeries to date. She may need future
6 surgeries as she grows. Kenneth Horton died
7 from a single gunshot wound to the chest.

8 The investigation by the Greenville county
9 Sheriff's Office revealed the defendant was
10 shooting a 30/30 rifle using hollow point
11 bullets he had just purchased from Walmart at 12 approximately five o'clock that day.
13 Throughout the three-hour ordeal, the defendant
14 certainly had threatened to kill everyone in 15 the house.

16 Your Honor, we have all the victims here in 17 the back of the courtroom and a large number of 18 the Greenville County Sheriff's Office are here
19 along with Officers Maxwell and Grice who were 20 injured in the takedown of the defendant.

21 THE COURT: All right. All right. Thank
22 you.

23 Mr. Young, you've heard the facts as 24 recounted by the Solicitor. Is that what

MR. YOUNG: Sure.

THE COURT: I need you to say yes or no.

MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: And once again, how do you plead to each of these charges ---

MR. YOUNG: Guilty.

THE COURT: --- eight counts of Attempted Murder, one count of Burglary first degree and one count of Murder, how do you plead?

MR. YOUNG: Guilty.

THE COURT: I'll accept the plea as being freely and voluntarily made with the advice of extremely competent counsel with whom the defendant says he's well satisfied and the plea has a substantial factual basis. You say that there's some --

MR. WILKINS: There's some individuals who would like to address the court, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Certainly. Very well.

MR. WILKINS: Would you like to do that now?

THE COURT: Certainly.

MR. WILKINS: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Tell me your name, ma'am, and
2 take your time.

3 SPEAKER: Judge, my name is Sandy Hand.

4 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

5 SPEAKER: I can't judge anybody but my
6 lord and savior. I can not completely put into
7 words all that I want to say. I can not convey
8 with words the deep feelings I have towards
9 this man and what he has done, but I will try.
10 To say that he affected my family would be an 11 understatement. He has destroyed us all in one
12 night.

13 He took away my 10-year-old granddaughter's
14 innocence. She will never look at the world
15 the same again. He almost took my life. I've 16 had to have four surgeries because of that 17 night. I'm going to have to let her speak,
18 ma'am.

19 THE COURT: I understand. I understand.
20 I admire you for trying to be here.

21 SPEAKER: I can't go to sleep for two
22 hours at a time. The nightmares are endless.
23 My oldest granddaughter will not speak to any 24 of us now. I pray every night for God to give 25 me the ability to forgive him, but that

1 forgiveness will not come.

2 I have no words to give to Kenny's parents.
3 All Kenny was trying to do was protect my
4 family and he was shot and killed for that.

5 The grief that he has caused is real. The
6 destruction he has caused I hope will be a
7 daily reminder of what he did to us. No one is
8 to blame for this except Shane Young. Prison
9 is too good for him but death is too quick. I
10 hope that every night he thinks about what he
11 has done to us. Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am. I'm so
13 sorry for what's happened to you and what's 14 happened to your family.

15 Yes, ma'am. Tell me your name please.

16 SPEAKER: My name is Cheryl Mann.

17 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

18 SPEAKER: This horrible night has
19 affected me more than I can say. I feel as 20 though my whole family has been destroyed. I
21 cry all the time. I cry for myself. I cry for 22 my mother who has endured numerous surgeries,
23 has horrible nightmares and constantly reminded 24 of the events of the horrible night. I cry for 25 my youngest daughter, Summer, who has forever

1 changed because of this. Not just physically
2 but emotionally too. Her innocence has been
3 taken away by him. I'm afraid that she'll
4 never look at the world in the same way again.
5 He has destroyed her and, for that, I do not
6 think I will ever be able to forgive him for 7 that.

8 I cry for my oldest daughter Kayla who has
9 completely shut us out after what he did. I
10 believe that she may even feel responsible in 11 some way or thinks that we feel she is 12 responsible for what happened. Shane Young is 13 the only one who is responsible for what 14 happened. Kayla moved to try to get away from 15 the memories and would not talk to me or her
16 grandmother at all.

17 I cry for Kenny and the lost of Kenny. He 18 was a good man who died protecting me and my 19 family. I also cry for Shane's son who will 20 now have to grow up and know that his father is 21 a murderer. His innocence has been taken away
22 too because of Shane's actions. No amount of 23 punishment will ever be good enough for him.
24 But I do hope that everyday he remembers why he 25 is there at prison. I hope that every day, he

1 remembers each and every one of us and
2 remembers Kenny, the man he shot down. I hope
3 that Shane Young could feel a small amount of 4 the pain that he has caused my family and
5 Kenny's family.

6 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am, for being
7 here. Again, I'm so sorry for what this man
8 has done to you and your family.

9 MR. WILKINS: And Your Honor, Sheriff
10 Loftis would like to speak to the court.

11 THE COURT: Certainly.

12 Yes, sir, Sheriff.

13 SPEAKER: Good morning.

14 THE COURT: Good morning. Yes, sir.

15 SPEAKER: How are you this morning,
16 Judge?

17 THE COURT: Fine. How are you?

18 SPEAKER: I would like to say that on the 19 night in question, the defendant showed a total
20 disregard for human life. Not only did he kill
21 one individual before law enforcement arrived,
22 he shot a little 10-year-old girl. As my SWAT
23 team members attempted to enter the back door,
24 he ambushed two of them with the intent to
25 kill. Thank God both of them have recovered

1 and are back to normal duty. I would like to
2 see the most severe punishment that you could
3 possibly hand out so this defendant will never
4 be allowed to be in a situation like that 5 again.

6 THE COURT: I thank you for being here.
7 Let me just take a moment to thank your men for 8 what they did to bravely confront this
9 situation and to bring it to an end. I'm
10 sorry, so sorry for what this man did to them,
11 but I commend them on their bravery and what
12 they've done to help protect the community.

13 SPEAKER: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 Solicitor, anything else from the State?

16 MR. WILKINS: That's all from the state,
17 Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Mauldin?

19 MR. MAULDIN: Your Honor, uh, the, uh, --
20 it goes without further saying that this is an 21 extraordinarily tragic complete breakdown. I
22 guess we can each thank God that it wasn't
23 worse. We had the lost of an innocent life
24 and, fortunately, only one person was killed.
25 We can't go back and change what happened. We

1 got to hope that we can learn something from
2 what happened but also, uh, we have to try to
3 move forward.

4 It's not my intention at this time or under
5 any circumstances to offer any excuses on 6 behalf of Shane. We've talked at length about
7 this case. No excuses are available, possible
8 or will be offered or suggested. I would like
9 to tell the Court a little bit so that you
10 could see how such a horrible incident could 11 have occurred.

12 During the time we had been representing
13 Shane -- he was put in jail in October of 2012
14 at the time this incident occurred. As we 15 started working with him on the case, there was 16 a tremendous level of depression and remorse,
17 total remorse by what he had done. He couldn't 18 go back and change it. But it was 19 extraordinarily difficult for us to work with 20 and all because of the level of depression and 21 remorse that he was in at the time that we were 22 seeing him.

23 Under those circumstances, we began the 24 process of trying to connect, what I will call,
25 the dots in the case. We, uh, obtained the

1 services of a forensic psychologist and a
2 forensic psychiatrist to try to give us some
3 information about our client. The forensic
4 psychologist evaluation discovered that on two
5 occasions prior to this incident, Shane had 6 been involved in automobile accidents where he
7 had related-head injuries. Analysis of that
8 lead to an irregularity of his frontal lobe
9 that is directly correlated with mood disorders
10 relating to anger management, anxiety and 11 blackouts.

12 As a result of this analysis, we then had a 13 forensic psychiatrist evaluation. And for the 14 last eight months, Shane has been under that 15 psychiatrist treatment for mood disorders and 16 panic disorders.

17 He mentioned that he is not on medication.
18 He is on medication. The medication that he 19 takes or is given because of these psychiatric 20 conditions does not affect his understanding of 21 what we're doing here today. We've had lengthy 22 conversations with Shane. He's given us every 23 impression that he understands what we're 24 doing.

25 Joey Maxwell who has been working

1 extensively with me, in fact, doing the
2 majority of the work, we don't have any
3 question about Shane's competency, his
4 competency to be before the court this morning.
5 I'm not offering this information to raise any
6 such question.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 MR. MAULDIN: Or I don't offer this to 9 offer any excuse. Law enforcement acted
10 appropriately and we're all proud to have them
11 protect us in this county. But we can't change
12 what happened but I did want to offer this
13 information to you so that you can understand
14 how a person who is essentially a good person
15 just explodes and just go completely out of 16 control during that night.

17 The folks that are here with him, Your
18 Honor, we've got his father, his stepmother,
19 his sister. We've got friends of the family.
20 Jack Howard is here with that family. They are 21 here in support. They've been supportive of 22 Shane ever since he was incarcerated and, of 23 course, before that and will continue to 24 maintain a relationship with him.

25 Finally, Your Honor, I do appreciate the,

1 uh, state's willingness to, over the last
2 several months, try to work out a resolution to
3 this case without a trial. This case was very
4 difficult. There's a lot of pain and suffering
5 that people go through. We have attempted to 6 try to resolve the case.

7 A life sentence is forever for Shane Young,
8 but we believe that it could have been worse.
9 We believe that what happened out there could 10 have been worse. We wanted to try to get some 11 finality to this case and end this case so that 12 everybody involved on both sides can start
13 rebuilding and trying to restore their lives.
14 I appreciate the opportunity to speak to the 15 court on that behalf.

16 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Young, let me
17 ask you just one or two questions. I
18 understand you are taking some medication for 19 psychiatric condition, is that correct?

20 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

21 THE COURT: Do those medications leave you
22 feeling clearheaded?

23 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

24 THE COURT: Do you have any questions
25 about what we're doing here today?

1 MR. YOUNG: No, ma'am.

2 THE COURT: Who is this man here?

3 MR. YOUNG: John Mauldin.

4 THE COURT: And what is his job?

5 MR. YOUNG: My attorney.

6 THE COURT: All right. And what does your 7 attorney do?

8 MR. YOUNG: Defend me in court.

9 THE COURT: All right. Well said. Do you
10 know what my job is?

11 MR. YOUNG: Yes, ma'am.

12 THE COURT: What is that?

13 MR. YOUNG: The judge.

14 THE COURT: And what do I do?

15 MR. YOUNG: Inflict the punishment.

16 THE COURT: All right. Well, I don't have
17 any concerns about his competency. Is there
18 anything you would like to say, Mr. Young?

19 MR. YOUNG: No, ma'am.

20 THE COURT: All right. Anything else from 21 the State?

22 MR. WILKINS: Nothing from the State, Your 23 Honor.

24 THE COURT: Anything else from the 25 defense?

1 MR. MAULDIN: No, ma'am.

2 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Young, on

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
C.A. No. 2014-CP-23-3381

RETURN

In response to the post-conviction relief application filed June 17, 2014, the Respondent would show this Court:

I.

The Applicant is incarcerated with the South Carolina Department of Corrections pursuant to the Greenville County Clerk of Court's orders of commitment. The Greenville County Grand Jury indicted the Applicant at the July 2013 term of General Sessions for 8 counts of attempted murder (2013-GS-23-6411, -6413, -6414, -6416, -6420, -6423, -6425, -6426), first-degree burglary (2013-GS-23-6419), murder (2013-GS-23-6424, count 1), and possession of a weapon during commission of a violent crime (2013-GS-23-6424, count 2). John I. Mauldin, Esquire represented the Applicant.

On November 19, 2013, the Applicant pled guilty to 8 counts of attempted murder, first-degree burglary, and murder. The Honorable Letitia H. Verdin sentenced the Applicant to consecutive sentences of 30 years for each count of attempted murder, life imprisonment for first-degree burglary, and life imprisonment for murder. The Applicant did not appeal.

Attached herewith and incorporated herein by reference are the records of the Greenville

County Clerk of Court regarding the subject convictions, the Applicant's records from the South Carolina Department of Corrections, and the guilty plea transcript.

II.

In his application for post-conviction relief, the Applicant alleges he is being held in custody unlawfully for the following reason:

1. Ineffective assistance of counsel:
 - a. Failed to file a notice of appeal as requested.

III.

The Respondent asserts the Applicant's allegation that his attorney was ineffective is without merit. The Respondent asserts the Applicant's attorney rendered effective assistance well within the standard of "reasonableness within professional norms" for a defense attorney.

Where ineffective assistance of counsel is alleged as a ground for relief, the Applicant must prove that "counsel's conduct so undermined the proper functioning of the adversarial process that the trial cannot be relied on as having produced a just result." Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 686, 104 S. Ct. 2052, 2064 (1984); Butler v. State, 286 S.C. 441, 442, 334 S.E.2d 813, 814 (1985).

The proper measure of performance is whether the attorney provided representation within the range of competence required in criminal cases. The courts presume counsel "rendered adequate assistance and made all significant decisions in the exercise of reasonable professional judgment." Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690, 104 S. Ct. at 2066. The Applicant must overcome this presumption in order to receive relief. See Cherry v. State, 300 S.C. 115, 118, 386 S.E.2d 624, 625 (1989).

A two-pronged test is used in evaluating allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel.

First, the applicant must prove counsel's performance was deficient. Under this prong, attorney performance is measured by its "reasonableness under prevailing professional norms." Cherry v. State, 300 S.C. at 117, 386 S.E.2d at 625 (quoting Strickland, 466 U.S. at 688, 104 S. Ct. at 2065). Second, counsel's deficient performance must have prejudiced the Applicant such that "there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's unprofessional errors, the result of the proceeding would have been different." Cherry, 300 S.C. at 117-18, 386 S.E.2d at 625. "A reasonable probability is a probability sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome of trial." Johnson v. State, 325 S.C. 182, 186, 480 S.E.2d 733, 735 (1997) (citing Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 104 S. Ct. 2052 (1984)).

The Respondent submits the Applicant cannot satisfy either requirement of the Strickland v. Washington test. However, the allegation of ineffective assistance of counsel probably raises questions of fact that cannot be conclusively refuted by the record. The Respondent requests an evidentiary hearing to fully resolve this issue. See Sharper v. State, 279 S.C. 264, 265, 305 S.E.2d 247, 248 (1983) (citing Norman v. State, 276 S.C. 278, 277 S.E.2d 707 (1981)).

IV.

The Respondent denies each allegation not expressly admitted, qualified or explained.

V.

WHEREFORE, having made its Return, the Respondent requests that a hearing be held and counsel appointed to represent the Applicant.

Respectfully submitted,

2 MS. RATIGAN: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please
3 the Court. This is the case of Shane Young vs. The State
4 of South Carolina. Docket number is 2014-CP-23-3381

5 Mr. Young was indicted for eight counts of attempted
6 murder and one count of first-degree burglary, one count of 7 murder and one count of possession of a weapon during the 8 commission of a violent crime. He was represented on these 9 charges by Mr. Mauldin and Mr. Maxwell.

10 On November 19th of 2013, he pled guilty to eight
11 counts of attempted murder, first-degree burglary and 12 murder. Judge Verdin sentenced him to consecutive terms of 13 30 years for each count of attempted murder, life for the 14 first-degree burglary, and life for murder. Mr. Young did
15 not file an appeal.

16 The State is ready to proceed; however, I've been 17 advised there is a motion at this time.

18 THE COURT: Who did you say the judge was?

19 MS. RATIGAN: Judge Verdin.

20 THE COURT: Verdin? Okay. All right.

21 Yes, ma'am.

22 MS. THWAITES: Good afternoon, Your Honor. May it
23 please the Court. My name is Whitney Thwaites, and I was 24 approached on Monday by Mr. Young's father to retain me as 25 counsel in this case. I was then later made aware that

1 there was a hearing today, and I have not had an
2 opportunity to prepare. And I believe that it would be
3 extremely prejudicial to my client to move forward with 4 this hearing today with the counsel that he has chosen to 5 represent him.

6 THE COURT: Okay. The State's position?

7 MS. RATIGAN: Your Honor, we'd object at this point.
8 We've got members -- actually, two victims are here today,
9 the ladies in the back. We've got a representative from 10 the sheriff's department here. This case was scheduled for 11 the February term of court, but at that point it was 12 continued at Mr. Johnson's request. At that point, I
13 advised him that I would be rescheduling for the April term
14 of court. I routinely send the rosters out for these cases
15 one month in advance, so there should have been adequate
16 notice that this case was going to be called today. And 17 due to -- and also, it's very difficult to get Mr. Mauldin
18 here. He has a very difficult schedule. The State is not
19 willing to consent to any kind of continuance and, in fact,
20 we would like to go forward today.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Well, Ms. Thwaites, I'm going to 22 deny your motion for a continuance. He's had adequate
23 notice. He can't wait to the last minute to try and get 24 new counsel. So I guess I'll ask him. I'm just going to 25 require Mr. Johnson to continue representation in this

1 matter, okay?

2 MS. THWAITES: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Anything you want to say, Mr. Young?

4 PETITIONER YOUNG: No, sir.

5 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Mr. Johnson?

6 MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please
7 the Court. Before we go forward, I think it might assist
8 the Court if I can tell you the issues that Mr. Young and I
9 have narrowed to this proceeding.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MR. JOHNSON: First of all, Mr. Young states that he 12 did not waive or knowingly and voluntarily waive the right
13 to a directed appeal of a guilty plea. He wishes to 14 present testimony concerning that.

15 Furthermore, Judge, he also wishes to express that the 16 guilty plea wasn't knowingly and voluntarily given, that he 17 had suffered from head-related injuries in the past, and he 18 would have liked to expand upon that before -- instead of 19 pleading guilty, Judge.

20 And I will call just one witness, and that will be 21 Shane Young.

22 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Come on around.

23 THE CLERK: Mr. Young, step around to the witness
24 stand, please.

25 ///

1 WHEREUPON,

2 SHANE KELLY YOUNG,

3 after first having been duly sworn, testified as follows:

4 THE CLERK: Please state your name for the record.

5 THE WITNESS: Shane Kelly Young.

6 THE CLERK: Thank you. You may be seated.

8 BY MR. JOHNSON:

9 Q Shane, how old are you?

10 A 32.

11 Q Where are you currently housed?

12 A At Perry Correctional Institution.

13 Q Do you know why you're there?

14 A Yeah.

15 Q And was this as a result of a guilty plea?

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q Do you recall what you pled guilty to?

18 A 10 counts.

19 Q Of what?

20 A One murder, eight attempted murders, and I believe it
21 was a first-degree burglary.

22 Q And you're testifying from memory currently, correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q So you're just having the time to think about it; is 25 that also correct?

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q Now, with regards to the charges themselves, after you
3 pled guilty, what was your sentence?

4 A Two life sentences with 240 years.

5 Q And were those consecutive or concurrent sentences?

6 A I'm not sure the terminology, but you have to do one
7 and -- before you start the other.

8 Q Now, with regards to the guilty plea and the 9 sentencing, who was your representation?

10 A Mr. Mauldin and Mr. Maxwell.

11 Q Do you know their first names?

12 A Joey Maxwell and John Mauldin.

13 Q And that was through the Public Defender's Office?

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q And after you pled guilty, did you have any 16 conversations with either Mr. Mauldin or Mr. Maxwell?

17 A In the courtroom after the judge told me about the 18 ten-day deadline to file the appeal, I turned to 19 Mr. Maxwell to ask him to file the appeal. He told me he 20 would come see me in the morning.

21 Q Okay. Did you have a conversation with Mr. Maxwell
22 after the guilty plea?

23 A No, sir.

24 Q Are you stating to the Court now that when you told
25 Mr. Maxwell that you wanted to file the appeal, that's what

1 you indeed wanted him to do?

2 A I was in the process of that, yes, sir. And he told
3 me he would come see me in the morning.

4 Q But you never had those conversations?

5 A No, sir.

6 Q Would you have liked for him to file an appeal ---

7 A Yes, sir.

8 Q --- to the guilty plea itself?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q Okay. Because he did not file the appeal, do you
11 believe you were prejudiced by not having the right to an 12 appeal?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q And at this time, are you asking the Court to grant
15 you a belated appeal on the guilty plea?

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q Now, Mr. Young, I believe also there was some allusion
18 to a head injury from a car accident during the guilty
19 plea; is that correct?

20 A Yes, sir.

21 Q Do you have the transcript before you?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q And the transcript is part of the record.

24 I'm going to ask you some questions. During the 25 guilty plea, was there any reference made to a head injury

1 that you may have had?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q Can you please portray to the Court what your 4 understanding of that issue is.

5 A What do you mean, my understanding of it?

6 Q Well, what happened?

7 A My lawyer at the time, Mr. Mauldin, was speaking to 8 the Court, and the transcript, page 22, lines 1 through 25,
9 he was telling the Court about how I had frontal lobe
10 damage due to a car accident which was, I guess, related to 11 him by the psychologist that was working with me.

12 Q Do you recall the name of the psychologist?

13 A No, sir.

14 Q Now, with regards to the head injury, do you think
15 that affected your ability to voluntarily plead guilty?

16 A No, sir.

17 Q Do you wish to retract your guilty plea at this time?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q When having a discussion with Mr. Maxwell and 20 Mr. Mauldin, were you able to go over the discovery with 21 regard to the charges?

22 A Parts of it, yes, sir.

23 Q So you didn't go over the whole discovery?

24 A No, sir.

25 Q Okay. When we say "discovery," what are you referring

1 to? Are you talking about the paperwork of the evidence
2 presented by the solicitor? Is that correct?

3 A I believe so, yes, sir.

4 Q Okay. Now, you stated that you didn't get a chance to 5 go over all of it initially?

6 A No, sir.

7 Q Did you later?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q When?

10 A After my father received it from the Public Defender's
11 Office and sent it to me via the mail.

12 Q And then were you able to go through it at that time?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q Do you believe that if you would have had it before
15 you pled guilty, it would have helped you make a voluntary
16 decision on whether to plead guilty or not, things of that 17 nature?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q And do you wish to have the opportunity to be 20 subjected to the trial process again after going through 21 the discovery --

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q -- in full?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q And you believe after you going through it, you would

1 be able to assist the attorneys in maybe your defense or
2 otherwise?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 MR. JOHNSON: Mr. Young, please answer any questions
5 that Ms. Ratigan has at this time, okay?

7 CROSS EXAMINATION

8 BY MS. RATIGAN:

9 Q When you testified that you reviewed parts of the 10 discovery, what did you actually look at with your 11 attorneys?

12 A It wasn't anything looked in. They gave me a packet
13 to take to my cell and read after the visits with them.
14 But it was a SLED report, victim witness statements, and, I
15 guess, some reports from other people that were called out
16 there.

17 Q SLED report, do you mean like the ballistics?

18 A No.

19 Q What SLED report then?

20 A Like the SLED, the officer-involved shooting
21 investigation.

22 Q And your testimony is that you never discussed any of 23 this information with your lawyers? They just gave it to 24 you?

25 A Well, I discussed some, yes.

1 Q Did you tell them your version of what had happened
2 that day?

3 A No. When I would try to tell Joey, he told me he
4 didn't need to get into that right now.

5 Q So you never told either Mr. Maxwell or Mr. Mauldin
6 your version of what happened at the residence that day?

7 A No.

8 Q Didn't you think that was weird?

9 A Yeah.

10 Q Why didn't you push the matter with them?

11 A I don't know. I was under the impression that they 12 were there to defend me, to work for me, and they were 13 professionals. I wasn't sure about what all was going on.
14 I didn't know if it was just early in the phase, they
15 didn't need to know right now, or there were other things
16 they were trying to take care of first.

17 Q You stated you received your full discovery later. Is 18 that after you pled guilty?

19 A Yes, ma'am.

20 Q And I believe you said your father got it from the 21 Public Defender's Office?

22 A Yes, ma'am.

23 Q Now, what was in there that you had not seen before?

24 A The handwritten victim witness statements versus --
25 that were with the typed handwritten victim witness

1 statements, the sketches and drawings.

2 Q And your testimony today is if you had seen this
3 information before, it would have changed your decision to
4 plead guilty?

5 A Yes, ma'am.

6 Q Why is that?

7 A There was a lot of consistencies [sic]. I was already
8 wanting to go to trial, and then I was later convinced that
9 I would be better off pleading guilty.

10 Q What do you mean when you said there were lots of 11 inconsistencies? Can you give me some specifics?

12 A On the handwritten statements, they were -- they
13 didn't say that I turned a gun on them to where when you
14 get to the typed statements, they say that I turned the gun
15 on them.

16 Q So if you had had these handwritten statements to 17 compare with the typed statements, do you think you would 18 have gone to trial instead?

19 A Yes, ma'am. I think it would have been a factor.

20 Q Why did you decide to go ahead and plead guilty?

21 A For my family's sake.

22 Q But you're saying today that was an involuntary
23 decision?

24 A Yes, ma'am.

25 Q Did the judge ask you if you were feeling any kind of

1 pressure to plead guilty?

2 A No. She didn't ask me pressure. She asked if
3 anything was promised to me to plead guilty.

4 Q And you didn't feel like you could tell the judge that
5 you were feeling some pressure, that you were only pleading
6 guilty for your family?

7 A No.

8 Q Why did you want an appeal in this case?

9 A To go back.

10 Q Be more specific. Why --

11 A I wanted a trial.

12 Q But what basis? What did the judge do incorrectly
13 that would have given you a new trial?

14 A I'm not sure.

15 Q When you went to Court that day, did you know that you
16 were facing at least one life sentence?

17 A Yes, ma'am.

18 Q So why would you want an appeal if you knew you were 19 facing at least one life sentence and you received what 20 extends to be a life sentence? Why would you want an 21 appeal on that?

22 A I think things should have been done differently.

23 Q Be more specific.

24 A The psychologist, I think that he should have been
25 asked to testify there, that there should have been more

1 Testing done.

2 Q So there were no errors with the actual plea that
3 you're upset about. You're upset about your lawyers'
4 performance?

5 A Well, no.

6 Q At the end of the day, you just feel like you got too
7 much time? Is that it?

8 A No.

9 Q Well, then you really need to explain, this is your 10 one chance to explain it, why you think you needed an 11 appeal. If you're saying it has nothing to do with the 12 time and it has nothing to do with your lawyers'
13 performance, why did you think you needed an appeal?

15 MS. RATIGAN: Okay. That's all I have, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Anything else?

17 MR. JOHNSON: One redirect question, Judge.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. JOHNSON:

21 Q Mr. Young, she asked you why you thought you needed an 22 appeal. Did you understand the question completely?

23 A No. I mean, she's asking why I need to appeal. I
24 don't -- am I supposed to say some legal term as to why I
25 need to appeal?

1 Q I can't answer the question for you. I can ask you
2 questions, okay? And I'm asking you, you're here today
3 because you want to have the opportunity to start over and
4 have a trial, correct?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q And that was the same purpose for your appeal; is that
7 correct?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 MR. JOHNSON: All right. I have no further questions.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Young ---

11 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: --- I can't help but notice that the 13 sentence you received was a negotiated sentence. It's 14 different from a recommendation. A negotiated sentence is 15 where all the parties agree. So you knew before going into 16 court what the sentence was going to be; is that right?

17 THE WITNESS: A life sentence is what I was under the 18 impression it was going to be.

19 THE COURT: Eight life sentences.

20 THE WITNESS: A, single, yeah.

21 THE COURT: Well, it was related to you on the record
22 that it was going to be two life sentences plus 240 years,
23 okay? Is there some part of this sentence that is not 24 covered in the negotiations you had? Are you saying the 25 Court did not impose the same sentence that was negotiated?

1 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Well, did your lawyers explain to 3 you before the guilty plea what the sentence was going to 4 be?

5 THE WITNESS: A life sentence.

6 THE COURT: Okay. All right. That's all I've got.
7 Thank you very much.

8 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, the applicant has no further
9 witnesses.

10 THE COURT: All right. Anything from the State?

11 MS. RATIGAN: Your Honor, we call Mr. Mauldin.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 WHEREUPON,

14 JOHN INGLES MAULDIN,

15 after first having been duly sworn, testified as follows:

16 THE CLERK: Please state your full name for the
17 record.

18 THE WITNESS: John Ingles Mauldin.

19 THE CLERK: Thank you.

20 DIRECT EXAMINATION

21 BY MS. RATIGAN:

22 Q Mr. Mauldin, do you recall representing Mr. Young on 23 these charges?

24 A I do.

25 Q Were you appointed as the public defender?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Did you file the usual discovery motions in this case?

3 A I did.

4 Q Was Mr. Young at the detention center or had he bonded
5 out?

6 A He was very seriously injured the night of the event
7 and was in Greenville Memorial Hospital. He never made
8 bond. He was in the hospital, I'm thinking, maybe as much
9 as about a month or so. And then when he was released from 10 the hospital, he was brought to the Greenville County
11 Detention Center.

12 Q Did you meet with him at the detention center?

13 A At that point, I believe Joey Maxwell would have met
14 with him. Joey, I think, probably met with him countless 15 times. I had assigned the case. As long as it was 16 noncapital, the case was being handled by Joey, and I was 17 working with him in consultation on preparation for the 18 case.

19 Q Did you review the discovery materials with Mr. Young?

20 A I did along with Mr. Maxwell. Wait. Let me make sure
21 my answer is correct. I reviewed the discovery material
22 with Mr. Maxwell. If I'm not mistaken, Mr. Maxwell then
23 reviewed the discovery material with Shane. I don't think 24 I actually went through the discovery material with the 25 client.

1 Q Okay. Do you recall there being inconsistencies
2 between the handwritten victim witness statements and the 3 typed victim witness statements?

4 A Without actually looking at the two statements, I
5 cannot say that I have a specific recollection of an
6 inconsistency. I will tell you that the -- the -- just
7 briefly, the incident involved the shooting of the murder
8 victim and the taking of a number of hostages in a
9 residence leading to a number of hours of negotiation. And 10 then the sheriff's office apparently deciding that the 11 negotiations were not going to be successful. They stormed
12 the house. The SWAT team stormed the house. So it was -- 13 there was a very, very chaotic matter of minutes there to 14 end the incident, and so there was some confusion about
15 exactly who shot who and when and so forth. There was a 16 lot of confusion. I recall that.

17 Q Were you at the point where you were preparing this
18 case for trial or had it not reached that point yet?

19 A I'm not -- I do not recall the case being actually set
20 for a trial date. We were concentrating very -- in a very
21 focused way to prevent the case from resulting in a death
22 penalty notice. There was a -- there was a murder and a
23 burglary first degree along with the numerous attempted
24 murders and kidnappings. But those two charges, the murder
25 and the burglary, made this case death penalty eligible.

1 And so my focus, with Joey Maxwell's help, was to attempt
2 to prevent the State from serving the notice. And they
3 never served it, but there were months of very, very 4 serious negotiation in an attempt to prevent that from 5 happening.

6 Q But ultimately, an agreement was reached such that
7 Mr. Young would plead guilty?

8 A That's right.

9 Q Did you explain to him the potential sentences on each
10 of these charges, what he could receive?

11 A The negotiation was a negotiated life-without-parole
12 sentence. There is some -- and this is just the best of my 13 recollection. I don't recall whether or not the 14 negotiations included consecutive sentences for the 15 attempted murder charges. Whether they were consecutive or 16 concurrent, I just cannot recall whether or not there was 17 actually an agreed-upon consecutive 240 years. There was 18 no question everyone, the client, Mr. Maxwell, me, the 19 solicitor, the judge, everyone knew that the negotiation
20 was for a life-without-parole sentence on the murder and 21 the burglary charges.

22 Q Did Mr. Young ever tell you the basis for his decision
23 to go ahead and enter a plea instead of going to trial?

24 A I don't think Shane really wanted to go to trial. I
25 mean, he -- in fact, the first several months of our

1 representation, he was deeply depressed, extraordinarily
2 remorseful. We went to the Court and asked for funding for
3 a forensic psychiatrist to treat Shane while he was in the 4 jail, and that was granted. And for several months leading
5 up to the plea, he was under the care of a private 6 psychiatrist that we were paying for.

7 But I simply -- and I will say Mr. Maxwell had more
8 direct contact with Shane than I did, but I will tell you
9 that I never got the impression that Shane Young was 10 demanding a trial in these cases. Never had that 11 impression. He was extremely sorry for what he did to the 12 point where we actually had a psychiatrist treating him.

13 Q You mentioned he had some prior head injuries. You
14 mentioned that during the mitigation portion of the plea.

15 A We were aware -- we were made aware of that by the 16 psychiatrist and also by a forensic psychologist who did an
17 original screening at our request. Both the psychiatrist
18 and the psychologist were aware of and advising us of 19 evidence of injuries.

20 Q In your opinion, do you think it would have changed
21 the outcome of the plea if either of these doctors had 22 spoken at the mitigation portion of the plea?

23 A No, no. I mean, it was a negotiated life sentence.
24 So I tried to explain during my presentation the existence
25 of these conditions and the treatment by the psychiatrist,

1 but I really cannot say that I -- it would not have changed
2 the imposition of the sentence, in my view.

3 MS. RATIGAN: That's all I have, Your Honor.

6 BY MR. JOHNSON:

7 Q Mr. Mauldin, did you ever question whether or not
8 Shane should be evaluated for competency to stand trial?

9 A We had him privately evaluated, so we -- we were -- we 10 were professionally informed that he was competent.

11 Q That he was competent?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Did you ever have any questions in your mind going up,
14 say, for instance the day of the guilty plea whether or not
15 he was going through any sort of depression or mental issue
16 that would have affected his competency?

17 A As to his competency?

18 Q Yes, sir.

19 A I had no question about it, personally. I felt that 20 the professionals -- the mental health professionals that 21 we had hired had given us a clear impression that Shane had
22 anger management problems, very serious mood disorder
23 problems. But he was on medication the day of the plea to 24 treat those conditions, and we were assured that those 25 medications did not affect his understanding of what was

1 going on nor that he was not competent.

2 Q Do you recall whether or not Shane wanted you to
3 appeal the guilty plea?

4 A I'm sorry, Mr. Johnson. I ---

5 Q Do you recall whether or not Shane asked you or 6 Mr. Maxwell to appeal the guilty plea?

7 A He did not say anything of that nature to me. I don't
8 know what he may or may not have said to somebody else.

9 MR. JOHNSON: I have no further questions, Judge.

10 MS. RATIGAN: I have nothing further, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

12 MS. RATIGAN: The State would call Mr. Maxwell.

13 WHEREUPON,

14 JOSEPH BRANTLEY MAXWELL,

15 after first having been duly sworn, testified as follows:

16 THE CLERK: Please state your full name for the
17 record.

18 THE WITNESS: Joseph Brantley Maxwell.

19 THE CLERK: Thank you.

20 DIRECT EXAMINATION

21 BY MS. RATIGAN:

22 Q Mr. Maxwell, do you recall representing Mr. Young on 23 these charges?

24 A I do.

25 Q And Mr. Mauldin said you kind of had primary contact

1 with Mr. Young; would that be fair to say?

2 A Very fair to say.

3 Q Did you meet with him at the jail?

4 A I did. I tried to do a brief accounting real quick at 5 least 30 times over the course of our representation.

6 Q And did you review the State's discovery with him?

7 A We had a kind of system. The discovery was 8 voluminous. It was a large amount.

9 So what we would do is I would make a packet for him,
10 say I would get about 100 pieces of discovery, give it to 11 him, and then I'd come back a week later, I would ask him
12 if he had any questions about it, and then I would take
13 that packet back, and then I would give him a new packet.
14 We did that until we were through -- until we had gone
15 through the entire discovery.

16 Q Did he ever tell you his version of what happened that 17 day?

18 A We talked about it. Most of the time when we 19 discussed it, he said that he couldn't remember. He didn't
20 remember this or that. And through all the evaluations
21 that we had done, there was a reoccurring issue kept coming
22 up, this dissociation, you know, that this didn't happen or 23 that didn't happen, I didn't remember this. So that was --
24 the focus of our discussions were do you remember this or 25 that, not so much of how did it exactly happen.

1 Q Did you look at both the handwritten victim witness
2 statements and the typed versions?

3 A The way that I remember it, and I haven't looked at 4 this in a long time, was that the victims had initially
5 given a written statement in close proximity to the actual
6 incident. They were later called in to the police
7 department and given a thorough interview there. That 8 interview was audiotaped, and we received a copy of that.
9 And then the secondary typed statements, I believe, were as
10 a result of that audiotaped interview.

11 Q If the case had gone to trial, would you have 12 attempted to contrast the handwritten versus the eventual
13 typed, or is that a path you would not have gone down?

14 A I don't remember it thoroughly enough to say "yes" or 15 "no," but I do remember that there was -- and this -- I
16 don't believe it would have made much of a difference, but
17 we did have some concerns of whether or not the police
18 officers had possibly shot some of the victims or not.
19 Now, as far as the outcome of whether or not he ultimately 20 would have been found guilty, I don't think that would have 21 had a large effect.

22 Q In your dealings with Mr. Young, did he discuss a
23 preference for a trial versus a plea?

24 A Initially, as Mr. Mauldin stated, he was very 25 depressed, and depressed to the point where he wanted to

1 die. He said, you know, "I want the death penalty. I want
2 to die. I want to die." And, of course, he inferred he
3 wanted a trial. As we kind of progressed through the 4 representation after he had met with Dr. Richards, he
5 started kind of coming around.

6 He was talking to his father. His father was saying,
7 you know, "This isn't the end of everything, you know. You
8 still have some life to live." That was the message that I
9 was promoting to him as well. And so he ultimately kind of 10 came around and said that he was satisfied with life --
11 life in prison.

12 Q And did you explain to him the sentence ranges on each
13 of these charges?

14 A I did. I actually made a little chart with him. I
15 listed all the charges, I listed the sentence ranges,
16 whether or not parole eligible. All those types of things.

17 Q What were the terms of the negotiated agreement with 18 the State; do you recall?

19 A Their terms, we initially submitted an offer to the 20 Solicitor's Office for life without parole. They included
21 several charges. I don't remember exactly, but the murder,
22 the burglary and then one or two of the attempted murders.
23 They came back and said, "We will accept your offer, but we 24 want to have more of the attempted murders in this part of 25 the plea."

1 Of course, with the mindset that a life sentence is a
2 life sentence, we discussed it with Shane and said that,
3 you know, practically speaking, it doesn't have any effect.
4 And he agreed to go forward with the plea on that.

5 So when we discussed a sentence, we were discussing
6 life without parole. I don't remember a conversation with 7 him as to whether or not the attempted murders would be
8 consecutive or concurrent. Again, we were just talking
9 about life without parole.

10 Q Is there any doubt in your mind that he understood
11 when he pled guilty that basically he was never getting out
12 of prison?

13 A Yeah. He understood that.

14 Q At the end of the plea hearing, did you tell Mr. Young
15 that you would meet with him in the morning?

16 A I did tell him that I would meet with him in the 17 morning. And I called over to professional visitation that 18 next day, and he had already been transported out. But he 19 did not ask me for an appeal.

20 Q In your opinion, did you see any appealable issues
21 from the plea hearing?

22 A No.

23 MS. RATIGAN: That's all I have, Your Honor.

24 MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

Q Mr. Maxwell, with regards to going down to see Shane the day after the plea, after he was transported, did y'all exchange any letters or any sort of correspondence of any sort?

A I don't remember. I don't think so. I don't remember.

Q So you don't remember speaking to him again after that?

A No. I -- no.

MR. JOHNSON: I have no further questions.

THE COURT: Mr. Maxwell, could you or would you have certified to an appellate court that there was a viable appellate issue had you filed a notice of appeal?

THE WITNESS: No. I could not have.

THE COURT: Okay. So you followed your ethical duties in the procedure that you -- in the path you took; is that fair to say?

THE WITNESS: Yes. I believe so. And if he would have asked for an appeal, I would have attempted to do one. I've, in the past, attempted to do that when I feel like there's no issue to raise on appeal and make that aware to the Court that it's my belief that there isn't but the client wishes to have the appeal.

THE COURT: Okay. Well, Mr. Young, I have to tell you this is a pretty easy decision for me to make. I am going to deny your petition. I don't think that you presented any evidence to show that your attorneys' representation has fallen below an objective standard of reasonableness and that you were not prejudiced in a negative way by anything that they did, and I'll ask the attorney general to prepare an order reflecting that.

MS. RATIGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Best of luck to you.

MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, Judge.

ENTERED COMPUTER

FILED-CLERK OF COURT
 GREENVILLE CO. S.C.
 PAUL R. WICKENS/SMER
 2015 JUN 8 PM 2 15

This matter comes before the Court by way of an application for post-conviction relief (PCR) filed June 17, 2014. The Respondent made its return on October 30, 2014. An evidentiary hearing was held on April 23, 2015 at the Greenville County Courthouse. The Applicant was present and represented by Brian P. Johnson, Esquire. Karen C. Ratigan, Esquire of the South Carolina Office of the Attorney General represented the Respondent.

The Applicant testified on his own behalf at the PCR hearing. Also testifying were the Applicant's plea attorneys: Joseph B. Maxwell, Esquire and John I. Mauldin, Esquire. The Court had before it the transcript of the guilty plea hearing, the Greenville County Clerk of Court records, the South Carolina Department of Corrections records, the PCR application, and the return.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Applicant is confined in the South Carolina Department of Corrections pursuant to orders of commitment from the Greenville County Clerk of Court. The Applicant was indicted at the July 2013 term of the Greenville County Grand Jury for 8 counts of attempted murder (2013-GS-23-6411, -6413, -6414, -6416, -6420, -6423, -6425, -6426), first-degree burglary

(2013-GS-23-6419), murder (2013-GS-23-6424, count 1), and possession of a weapon during commission of a violent crime (2013-GS-23-6424, count 2). He was represented by Joseph B. Maxwell, Esquire and John I. Mauldin, Esquire.

On November 19, 2013, the Applicant pled guilty – pursuant to a negotiated plea agreement – to 8 counts of attempted murder, first-degree burglary, and murder. The Honorable Letitia H. Verdin sentenced the Applicant to consecutive sentences of 30 years for each count of attempted murder, life imprisonment for first-degree burglary, and life imprisonment for murder. The Applicant did not appeal.

ALLEGATIONS

In his application, the Applicant alleges he is being held in custody unlawfully for the following reasons:

1. Ineffective assistance of counsel:
 - a. Failed to file a notice of appeal as requested.

At the beginning of the PCR hearing, counsel for the Applicant stated they were proceeding upon only two grounds: (1) that the Applicant did not waive his right to an appeal and (2) the Applicant's guilty plea was involuntary because he had prior "head-related injuries." This Court finds the Applicant has abandoned any and all other issues.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

This Court has had the opportunity to review the record in its entirety and has heard the testimony and arguments presented at the PCR hearing. This Court has further had the opportunity to observe each witness who testified at the hearing, and to closely pass upon their credibility. This Court has weighed the testimony accordingly. Set forth below are the relevant findings of fact and conclusions of law as required by S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-80 (2003).

Involuntary Guilty Plea

The Applicant alleges his guilty plea was involuntary. In a PCR action, “[t]he burden of proof is on the applicant to prove his allegations by a preponderance of the evidence.” Frasier v. State, 351 S.C. 385, 389, 570 S.E.2d 172, 174 (2002).

To find a guilty plea is voluntarily and knowingly entered into, the record must establish the applicant had a full understanding of the consequences of his plea and the charges against him. See Boykin v. Alabama, 395 U.S. 238, 243-44, 89 S. Ct. 1709, 1712 (1969). In Boykin, the United States Supreme Court held that before a court can accept a guilty plea, a criminal defendant must be advised of the constitutional rights he is waiving. Id. at 243, 89 S. Ct. at 1712. Specifically, the accused must be aware of the privilege against self-incrimination, the right to a jury trial, and the right to confront one’s accusers. Id. Moreover, a criminal defendant entering a guilty plea “must be aware of the nature and crucial elements of the offense, the maximum and any mandatory minimum penalty, and the nature of the constitutional rights being waived.” Pittman v. State, 337 S.C. 597, 599, 524 S.E.2d 623, 624 (1999) (citation omitted). A criminal defendant’s knowing and voluntary waiver of statutory or constitutional rights in a guilty plea “must be established by a complete record, and may be accomplished by colloquy between court and defendant, between court and defendant’s counsel, or both.” Roddy v. State, 339 S.C. 29, 34, 528 S.E.2d 418, 421 (2000) (citation omitted). When determining issues relating to guilty pleas, the court will consider the entire record, including the transcript of the guilty plea, and the evidence presented at the post-conviction relief hearing. Anderson v. State, 342 S.C. 54, 57, 535 S.E.2d 649, 657 (2000) (citing Harres v. Leeke, 282 S.C. 131, 318 S.E.2d 360 (1984)).

The Applicant stated he did not review all of the discovery materials with plea counsel.

The Applicant admitted plea counsel gave him a packet of discovery materials to read and that they reviewed some of this. The Applicant stated he never saw the handwritten victim/witness statements or sketches before the plea hearing. The Applicant stated these documents had inconsistencies and would have been a factor in deciding whether to go to trial. The Applicant acknowledged attorney Mauldin mentioned his prior head injury during the plea hearing but that a doctor should have spoken at the plea. The Applicant stated he pled guilty for his family's sake but admitted he did not say this at the plea hearing.

Attorney Mauldin testified this case was primarily handled by Attorney Maxwell. Mauldin testified they engaged in serious negotiations with the State to prevent the service of a notice of intent to seek the death penalty. Mauldin testified he received the discovery materials and reviewed them with Maxwell and that Maxwell reviewed them with the Applicant. Mauldin testified he never had the impression the Applicant wanted to go to trial. Mauldin testified the Applicant was evaluated for competency. Mauldin testified two mental health professionals (a psychologist and a psychiatrist) spoke with the Applicant, so he was aware of the Applicant's prior head injuries. Mauldin testified that having doctors testify at the plea hearing would not have changed the outcome because it was a negotiated plea.

Attorney Maxwell confirmed he was the primary contact person in this case and met with the Applicant at the jail at least thirty times. Maxwell testified the discovery materials in this case were voluminous and that he would make a packet of documents and give it to the Applicant to review. Maxwell testified he would later return to discuss the information in that packet and also give a new packet of discovery to the Applicant. Maxwell testified he reviewed the initial, handwritten victim/witness statements and the subsequent typed statements. Maxwell testified any differences between the two would not have affected the case. Maxwell testified the Applicant knew he was receiving a negotiated life sentence.

This Court finds the Applicant entered a knowing and voluntary guilty plea. See Boykin v. Alabama, 395 U.S. at 243-44, 89 S. Ct. at 1712. The Applicant admitted to the plea judge that the facts recited by the solicitor were true. (Plea transcript, p.15). The Applicant also told the plea judge that he understood the trial rights he was waiving in pleading guilty, was satisfied with counsel, and had not been coerced in any way. (Plea transcript, pp.5-6; p.8). This Court finds there is no evidence in the guilty plea transcript to support the Applicant's assertion that he was pressured into entering a guilty plea; therefore the transcript has refuted this allegation. See Stalk v. State, 375 S.C. 289, 300, 652 S.E.2d 402, 407 (Ct. App. 2007); see also Rayford v. State, 314 S.C. 46, 48-49, 443 S.E.2d 805, 806 (1994) (where transcript of guilty plea proceeding refuted applicant's claim that he did not understand the terms of a plea bargain, grant of PCR was inappropriate notwithstanding applicant's claim lawyer misadvised him).¹

This Court finds the Applicant failed to meet his burden of proving an expert should have testified at his guilty plea hearing about his prior head injuries. Mauldin testified he was aware of the prior injuries through the two mental health experts he retained to examine the Applicant. Mauldin also testified such testimony at the plea would not have changed the outcome because it was a negotiated guilty plea. This Court agrees. This Court also notes Mauldin mentioned the

Applicant's prior head injuries during his mitigation argument at the plea hearing. (Plea transcript, p.22). The Applicant failed to demonstrate that expert testimony at the guilty plea hearing would have changed the outcome of this negotiated guilty plea. See Lorenzen v. State, 376 S.C. 521, 530, 657 S.E.2d 771, 777 (2008) (finding that, as the applicant failed to present any expert testimony at the PCR hearing, "it is merely speculative that these allegedly favorable expert witnesses would have aided in his defense").

Accordingly, this Court finds the Applicant has failed to meet his burden of proving his guilty pleas were not entered knowingly and voluntarily. See Frasier v. State, 351 S.C. at 389, 570 S.E.2d at 174.

Right to Appeal

The Applicant acknowledged the plea judge advised him that he could file an appeal within ten days. The Applicant stated he asked Maxwell about this and Maxwell stated he would come to see him the next day but he did not do so. The Applicant stated he was "not sure" why he wanted an appeal – and did not articulate any errors made by the plea judge – but stated he wanted "to go back."

Mauldin indicated the Applicant wanted to plead guilty and never wanted to go to trial. Maxwell confirmed he told the Applicant after the plea hearing that he would go see him the following day but explained the Applicant had already been transported out of the jail. Maxwell testified the Applicant never asked him to file an appeal. Maxwell testified there were no appealable issues from the guilty plea hearing and he would have stated as much to the South Carolina Court of Appeals if he had filed a notice of appeal.

This Court finds the Applicant has failed to meet his burden of proving he is entitled to an appeal of his direct appeal issues from his guilty plea hearing. This Court finds credible Maxwell's testimony that the Applicant never asked him to file an appeal. This Court finds it is not believable the Applicant – or any reasonable defendant – would have wanted to file an appeal from a negotiated guilty plea on these charges. This Court further finds the Applicant has failed to articulate what legal errors or omissions should have been appealed.

All Other Allegations

As to any and all allegations that were raised in the application or at the hearing in this matter and not specifically addressed in this Order, this Court finds the Applicant failed to present any testimony, argument, or evidence at the hearing regarding such allegations. Accordingly, this Court finds the Applicant has abandoned any such allegations.

CONCLUSION

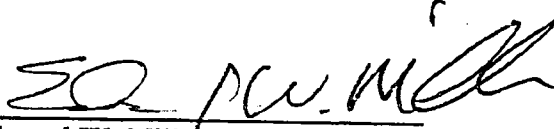

Based on all the foregoing, this Court finds and concludes the Applicant has not established any constitutional violations or deprivations before or during his guilty plea and sentencing proceedings. Counsel was not deficient in any manner and the Applicant was not prejudiced by counsel's representation. Furthermore, the Applicant's guilty plea was entered knowingly and voluntarily within the mandates of Boykin. Therefore, this PCR application must be denied and dismissed with prejudice.

This Court advises the Applicant that he must file a notice of intent to appeal within thirty (30) days from the receipt of this Order if he wants to secure appropriate appellate review. His attention is also directed to Rules 203, 206, and 243 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules for the appropriate procedures to follow after notice of intent to appeal has been timely filed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That the application for post-conviction relief be denied and dismissed with prejudice; and
2. That the Applicant be remanded to the custody of the Respondent.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED this 4 day of June, 2015.

Personally appeared before me the affiant L Newman who being duly sworn, deposes and says that defendant Shane Kelly Young did within this county and state on or about 10/16/2012 violate the criminal laws of the State of South Carolina (or ordinance of County/ Municipality of Greenville)
in the following particulars:

DESCRIPTION OF OFFENSE: Murder / Attempted Murder

I further state that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant named above did commit the crime set forth and that probable cause is based on the following facts:

On or about October 14th 2012 while at Greenville, SC 29651 the defendant, Shane Kelly Young, did commit the offense of attempted murder in that he, with malice and aforethought, did directly attempt to cause the shooting death of Summer
Mann. The affiant has statements from victims to support the affiant's probable cause. This incident occurred within the jurisdiction of Greenville County South Carolina.
