SC Court of Appeals

NOTE FROM PRESTON:

Dear Brett:

Thank you for the copy of the motions that were filed although the copy I received was unsigned nor was there an Affidavit of Service. I would appreciate it if you would send me those just for my record as soon as you can.

However, the purpose of this email after review is just to confirm my understanding and some errors I noted. Our Final Briefs were due on October 20th and per our discussion you were requesting a 14-day extension and that would make those due on or about November 4th. The motion has them due on October 29th. I would appreciate it if you would address this. Either one is fine with me but I just simply need to work it into my schedule so I can get these finalized and to the printer.

By copy of this email, I am notifying Ms. Allen of this communication just so she will know what to look for in looking at the motion and the actual request being made. I believe a simple letter requesting that that letter be made in addendum to the motion would suffice for correcting the date and request. I would simply suggest that.

Sincerely yours,
Preston

Here are the motions that were filed. I noticed a typo (dealing instead of deadline...).

NOTE FROM PRESTON:

Dear Brett:

I am sorry but that was the whole purpose of the email was that we have not received anything in writing from you. Since according to your email you have sent a letter to the Court, would you please send me a copy. By copy of this email, I am notifying Claire Allen of this communication.

Sincerely yours,
Preston

Claire,

What Mr. McDaniel put in the letter is correct about a mutual request for extension. I thought my letter was clear it was for both but if it was not, I did not mean for my letter to imply it was just for me/Respondents.

Thanks Brett.

While I just got hit with a bunch of stuff, either date is fine with me.

I will get the signed and stamped ones to you. They are being scanned. There was an AOS with them too.

I did Oct 29 because I showed them due Oct 15. I am good with either date (Oct 29 or Nov 4) but I was basing it off 14 days from the due date which I marked as Oct 15.
