May 21, 2012 Site Visit Notes
BULE002
Columbia, SC

FIRST VISIT FEB 2011
(OTHER CASE)

BULE002

On May 21, 2012, I visited the location of the crime. I was conducting a joint visit with BULE001, which concerns a rape that occurred in 401. This particular incident is an armed robbery and kidnapping that occurred outside of 2210. An individual coming back from church during the hours of darkness was kidnapped and forced to withdraw money from her ATM account. She advised that as she approached her apartment from the parking lot, there were two black males that were seated on the ramp that led up to her door. They are the individuals who kidnapped. As was noted in the other case, the vegetation is very overgrown. It is particularly overgrown in some of these areas around here. As can be seen in my photos, the view of the bottom of the ramp can be blocked by vegetation, even in the daytime. The vegetation around the ramp appears to have been significantly cut back. Given the lighting conditions that I discovered later, it would have been possible to approach the ramp without seeing the individuals who were sitting at the bottom of the ramp. The way the ramp is designed, when the ramp touches the sidewalk, it is about seven or eight inches high. The second step is another seven or eight inches high. It provides a seating arrangement where an individual could sit on the ramp with their feet on the step in a comfortable position. There was no additional lighting for the ramp at all. The area was lit by a single mercury vapor parking lot light some distance from the bottom of the ramp. The only other light that would have been available would have come from the small bulbs that are at each of the doors. We really do not know if those lights were on or not at the time of the incident, since we discovered on this visit that lights could be turned out with a single switch that is available to anyone, even outside the apartment. In addition, even though the apartment complex was aware that we were visiting at night on this particular occasion and that we would be conducting a light study, we also saw lights that were out. I did not see as many mercury vapor lights on this visit as I had on previous visits. The location of this particular kidnapping is very close to the walking path that goes throughout this whole complex and is connected to other walking paths. It is totally uncontrolled. There are no signs and no fencing. There is nothing there to control the walking path in the rear. In the first photo I took of the ramp, you can see the walking path and how close it is. When I returned at night to measure the lighting in this particular area, I determined that at that initial beginning of the ramp, the light measures 0.1 fc. As I moved out toward the parking lot light, which was a mercury vapor light that was operating, it continued to measure 0.1 fc when I got to the steps. Even underneath the light in the parking lot, it never reached 0.5 fc, which is the minimum standard. Even some time after this event, the lighting has not been corrected. As far as I could tell, I was measuring lighting in conditions as close as possible to the conditions on the night of this event. This particular area has a very unrestricted access from anyone walking or driving in. It is close to Harbison and is close the walking path. The two individuals who were waiting appeared to have companions in a vehicle, although we cannot be certain of that.

After viewing the Wellspring Apartments, I then began to reviewing the neighborhood to determine other apartment complexes that were close enough to be comparable to this complex. This area is known as the Harbison area. It appears to have been developed as a planned area with a number of multi-family homes as well as a number of single-family homes in the area all centered around the Harbison recreation area and the trails and lake that are there. I reviewed six apartment complexes (including the subject complex) in five different areas. I reviewed access control (including number of points of entry into a complex), maintenance of vegetation and concealment points offered by the vegetation, building physical security and issues, sight lines within a complex, and signage. There was some senior housing in the area and close to Wellspring which I elected not to survey since I did not feel it was relevant. There were also some newer gated communities that were not surveyed for the same reason.

I started with Timberlake. It is my opinion that the access control is just average. The vegetation as far as maintenance and offering concealment points is much better than average. The physical security of the units themselves is about average. They do have storm doors on the units themselves which does offer a slight impediment. The sight lines are very open. The signage includes signs advising of the cameras that they have, signs prohibiting soliciting, signs advising that they have given police the authority to enforce issues on the property, parking signs, and towing signs. They have a large number of signs. This complex had the most of any that I saw.

The next complex that I reviewed was Forest Hills. It was not exactly an apartment complex. It appears to be a PUD (planned urban development) of single-family homes. It is located in very close proximity to Wellspring. The access control is good. The patios are private patios that are fenced. The property is fenced and is fenced off from the walking trail. Vegetation maintenance was excellent. Building security was good. They have storm doors and vertical vinyl windows instead of sliding horizontal aluminum windows. The sight lines are good to very good. The signage includes signs advising that it is private property, "no trespassing" signs, police authority signs, and parking and towing signs.

The next one I reviewed was West Winds. Access control is good. Vegetation control is excellent. Building security is just average. Sight lines are good for the most part and very good in some places. They have signs controlling parking, "no trespassing" signs, and signs prohibiting soliciting.

The next one I reviewed was The Lakes. Access control was just average. Vegetation was good. Building security was just average. Sight lines were good to very good in most places. The signage includes signs controlling parking, signs prohibiting soliciting, "no trespassing" signs, and signs that give police the authority to enforce on the property.

The next one I reviewed was Creekside. Access control was good with private patios and fencing. Vegetation was good. Building security was just average. The sight lines were good. The only signage they had was "no soliciting" signs.

The last one was the subject property to be compared. Access control is very poor. There are numerous points of access onto the property. The walking trail from Harbison continues all around the property and you can see people from outside the property walking. There is an access point under the main boulevard that comes from Harbison. It is a pedestrian tunnel that is almost large enough to drive a car through. There is just no real access control I witnessed persons coming from the church property onto their property, persons coming from the walking trail, and persons leaving the walking trail to enter the woods and then coming back out. The vegetation is very poorly maintained. Both times when I have come the vegetation has been high enough to conceal people in many areas. It appeared that there has been some drastic cutback of vegetation in a very few areas. Some of those cutbacks have been in areas near where these incidents occurred. Building security is average, although the building security at the time on unit 401 was very poor. It continues to be below average in that there is no peephole on the door at unit 401, even given everything that has happened at that unit. Sight lines on the property are very poor, mainly due to the excessive vegetation and the overgrown condition of the vegetation. The only signage that is apparent anywhere on the property are two "no soliciting" signs, one at each of the entrances. Overall, Wellspring is far below the standard that is set by the other properties in the area.

Deputies release sketches of suspects in robbery, kidnapping to see what your friends recommend.

Posted: Sep 24, 2009 7:25 PM EDT Updated: Sep 29, 2009 10:24 AM EDT

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) - A 59-year-old woman kidnapped and robbed at gunpoint. Now deputies want your help to find the men they think did it.

Richland County deputies say two men robbed and kidnapped a woman at gunpoint.

"They were just thugs out trying to get easy money," says Sgt. Kim Myers.

Deputies say last Thursday around 11:30pm, two men approached a woman at the WelSpring Apartments on Hartison Boulevard, pulled out guns and demanded money.

"She stated she did not have any money. At that point, they looked through her purse, rummaged through her purse, and realized that she had a BBAT card," says Myers.

Deputies say the men then forced the woman to drive her car to a BB&T Bank ATM on Hartison and another one on Bush Nine Road.

Surveillance pictures show the suspects taking money from the victim. Another surveillance photo shows another car which deputies say was the getaway car.

"We're hoping that somebody can take a look at that and see if they know the person," says Myers.

According to deputies, once the robbers got the money, they made the woman drive to the Crossroads Apartments on Zimacrest Drive.

They got out of the victim's car and took off in the car that had been following them the whole time.

"She couldn't have stopped something like this. These guys were out to get money and they were going to do it at no cost," says Myers.

Deputies think the men are responsible for this robbery and kidnapping, and they may even be involved in other crimes.

If you have any information, call 1-888-CRIME-SC.

Men Robbed Woman as She Came Home from Church

Sketch of the suspects.
Suspects' car.

Richland County (WLTx) - Richland County deputies are searching for two suspects who they say robbed a 69-year-old woman at her home.

Deputies say the incident took place at the Wellspring Apartments on Harbison Boulevard September 16 at 11:30 p.m.

Officers say the woman had just returned home from church when she was approached by two men. Deputies say the woman tried to walk around the suspects, who were standing in the way of the entrance to her home, but as she did, the men pulled a gun and demanded money from her purse.

The woman told the suspects she didn't have any money, but they found out that she had an ATM card. The woman was then forced by the suspects to drive to an ATM at 201 Harbison Boulevard and 420 Bush River Road.

Once she complied with their demands, she was forced to drive to the Crossroads Apartments on Zimalest Drive, where a car that followed them took the suspects away.

Pictures of the car at the ATM, and a sketch of the suspects, are attached to this story. Anyone who may have seen any part of this crime at any of these locations is asked to call Crimestoppers at 1-888-CRIME-SC.

Two remain at large in connection with robbery at apartment

Posted: Sep 30, 2008 3:50 PM EDT
Updated: Oct 05, 2008 5:54 PM EDT

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) - The search continues for two men Richland County deputies say robbed a woman as she was coming home from church.

Authorities say the two men forced the woman to drive them to ATMs and withdraw money.

A week later, there is still fear at Wellspring Apartments where it all started. One woman, who has a child who lives at the complex, says she's "outraged" about the robbery.

"Their lives are being put in jeopardy," the woman said.

She doesn't want to be identified for fear of retaliation against her child, but the woman says managers at the complex should do more to protect their tenants from crime.

Deputies say a 59-year-old woman was coming home from church and heading into her apartment when two armed men approached her and demanded money.

According to deputies, when the woman said she didn't have money, they went through her purse, found a bank card and forced her to drive to two ATMs, taking out money at both.

The woman we interviewed isn't surprised about the robbery because she says it's easy for someone to hide near the buildings.

"Trees are overgrown, lights are out, dark areas. Dark areas where people have to walk into their homes," the woman said.

Her child has lived at the complex just under a year, but plans to move soon. Until then, the woman will be hoping her child doesn't become a victim.

"It just frightens me to know that my child lives in that complex," the woman said.

CIVIL ACTION NO.: 2011-CP-40-4068

DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

COMES NOW Defendants PRG Real Estate Management, Inc., Franklin Pineridge Associates, Karen Campbell, Individually and in her Representative Capacity as an Agent of PRG Real Estate Management (hereinafter, collectively, "Defendants"), and move the Court for an Order granting summary judgment in favor of Defendants with regard to all claims asserted by Plaintiff Denise Wright (hereinafter, "Plaintiff"). The grounds for this motion are as follows:

1. Plaintiff was a tenant of an apartment complex owned and/or managed by Defendants. As she was exiting her car and going to her apartment, she was abducted by third-party criminals who forced her to drive them to an ATM machine and withdraw money. She was later released by the criminals. Based on this incident, she filed a lawsuit against Defendants in which she alleged claims for negligence, breach of implied warranty, and violation of the South Carolina Unfair Trade Practices Act ("SCUTPA").

2. With regard to Plaintiff's negligence claim, neither common law nor the South Carolina Residential Landlord-Tenant Act impose a duty on a landlord to provide protection to tenants against criminal activity of third parties. Even if there was such a duty, which Defendants dispute, Plaintiff cannot prove that any breach proximately caused her alleged injuries.

3. With regard to Plaintiff's breach of implied warranty claim, South Carolina does not recognize an implied warranty of fitness or habitability in leases. The South Carolina Residential Landlord Tenant Act also does not impose a duty on a landlord to provide protection to tenants against criminal activity by third parties. Any "fit and habitable" provisions in the Act impose a duty on the landlord only with regard to the physical state of the premises, i.e., with regard to structural defects. It does not impose a duty on a landlord to provide protection to tenants against criminal activity.

4. Finally, with regard to Plaintiff's SCUTPA claim, Plaintiff cannot satisfy any of the requirements for this action. She cannot prove (1) Defendants engaged in unfair or deceptive acts in the conduct of trade or commerce; (2) the unfair or deceptive acts affected public interest; and (3) Plaintiff suffered monetary or property loss as a result of the Defendants' unfair or deceptive act(s).

For all of these reasons, Defendants request an Order by this Court granting summary judgment in favor of Defendants with regard to all of Plaintiff's claims. This motion is supported by the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, applicable case law, such supporting memoranda or affidavits that may be submitted prior to the hearing of this matter, and the arguments at a hearing on this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

COLLINS & LACY, P.C.
