RE: State of South Carolina v. Willie Jackson
Appellate Case No. 2015-000706

Dear Mr. Shealy:

As you may recall, I represent the State in the Willie Jackson appeal. It has come to my attention that the Record on Appeal has not been filed in this case. According to my calculations, the Record was due to be served on August 30, 2015, so as of today it is two months late.

In these situations, my office would typically file a motion to dismiss the appeal due to failure to comply with the Appellate Court Rules. However, I wanted to contact you first to make you aware of the problem.

Today is my last day with this Office, so someone else will be assigned to handle this case in the future. However, if you have questions or concerns, you can contact my supervisor, Salley W. Elliott, at 734-3727.

Sincerely,

Christina Catoe Bigelow
Assistant Attorney General
