CERTIFICATE OF APPELLANT	1797

1 fact about the work being performed, the owner
2 should be notified of that through, in this case,
3 the project manager or the bank lender in the case,
4 and I couldn't show, looking into the files, that
5 that in fact was done.

6 What you want to happen is the advances
7 to be made, truthfully, your Honor, and the 8 borrower always sign off on them, but sometimes 9 it's not practical for a lot of reasons, just as we
10 heard in testimony in terms of travel time. So
11 it's done this way so long as there is 12 authorization, although not written, to advance
13 those funds.

14 You would hope that the borrower -- and 15 yes; Benjie in this case, Mr. Lanier, should 16 probably have in fact contacted the borrower, Linda
17 Gibson, just to ensure that she was absolutely
18 completely aware of those funds.

19 Q. Have you ever taken another client of 20 Ameris Bank to Larry Richter's office or 21 recommended Larry Richter to represent any other
22 client of the bank?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. When you were at Ameris?

25 A. Your Honor, I've referred people to

1 Larry Richter for a number of years. Was it during
2 my time at Ameris? Your Honor, I can't recall.

3 Q. And do you then follow up and go to the
4 office with them -- go with your client to Larry
5 Richter's office?

6 A. The only time I did is with
7 Miss Gibson. Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: Any other questions as a
9 result of mine?

10 MR. JORDAN: Nothing from us, your
11 Honor.

12 MR. KEFALOS: Nothing, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: You may step down.

14 This is probably a good time for a
15 lunch break, or do you have something right quick
16 you want to do?

17 MR. KEFALOS: We have one witness left,
18 and that's Mr. Lanier.

19 MR. STEPP: I would like to excuse
20 Mr. Zerbst.

21 THE COURT: You're free to go. Let's
22 take a lunch break.

23 (Lunch recess taken.)

24 MR. KEFALOS: The next witness will be 25 Ben Lanier.

1 THE COURT: Good afternoon. Your full
2 name?

3 THE WITNESS: Benjamin Robert Lanier,
4 Jr.

5 THE COURT: You may be seated.

6 BENJAMIN R. LANIER, JR.
7 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. KEFALOS:

10 Q. Mr. Lanier, you are a banker presently?

11 A. I'm a credit analyst, yes, sir.

12 Q. With Wells Fargo?

13 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

14 Q. And before joining Wells Fargo you were 15 previously working with Ameris Bank?

16 A. That is correct.

17 Q. And then before Ameris Bank you were 18 working with First Reliance Bank?

19 A. That is correct.

20 Q. And you were the loan officer for 21 Ameris that was for a while at least responsible
22 for Linda Gibson's loan --

23 A. That is correct.

24 Q. -- on the apartments?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. There was a question earlier that came
2 up about how the loan -- there was an application
3 to First Reliance and a question about how did that 4 loan come to you at Ameris. I want to refer your 5 attention to that.

6 A. Okay.

7 Q. You joined Ameris about October 11th,
8 2007?

9 A. That is correct, yes, sir.

10 Q. And shortly after you joined Ameris you
11 got a call from Karl Zerbst?

12 A. That is correct.

13 Q. And this was sometime --

14 MR. JORDAN: Your Honor, I'm sorry to 15 interrupt, but I want to preserve for the record
16 our objection as to the leading questions.

17 THE COURT: My ruling would be the same
18 as earlier. Mr. Lanier was an employee at Ameris
19 and --

20 MR. JORDAN: Thank you, your Honor.

21 Q. (Continued) So this conversation was 22 after October 11 and maybe before -- certainly
23 before the 25th of October.

24 A. Yes, sir. That would be correct.

25 Q. At the time you knew that Mr. Zerbst

1 was no longer with Reliance --

2 A. That is correct.

3 Q. -- at the time of this telephone call.

4 There was still a question in your mind
5 about whether he was going to join Ameris or not,
6 but at this time it was after he had left Reliance?

7 A. Correct. He was not employed at that
8 time.

9 Q. And in this conversation Mr. Zerbst
10 told you he was sending Mrs. Gibson to you to 11 process the loan application for the apartments
12 through Ameris?

13 A. Yes, sir. He called me and told me
14 that Rolando had called him and wanted to know
15 where I was at. Because he wasn't getting service
16 at First Reliance and he wanted to know who could
17 help him out. Karl said he couldn't, so he said
18 give Benjie a call.

19 Q. I got you.

20 After this call -- I tell you what.
21 Let's look at your deposition here for a minute.

22 MR. KEFALOS: I'm going to hand it up
23 to the judge.

24 Q. (Continued) After that call you met
25 with Karl?

1 A. I called Rolando to set up a meeting to
2 come meet him out at the project.

3 Q. Well, you met with Karl after the 4 telephone call?

5 A. Before the meeting with Rolando, yes.
6 I met with Karl and we went out to the project.

7 Q. And it was an odd meeting because Karl
8 called you up and then made arrangements to travel
9 with you to go meet with Rolando?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And he picked you up at the Publix on 12 Daniel Island and you guys rode out to the 13 apartments together?

14 A. No, sir. I picked him up.

15 Q. And at this time Karl was still not 16 formally with Ameris.

17 Do you know whether he had interviewed
18 with Ameris at this time?

19 A. I do not know.

20 Q. Now, Karl had a package with him as you
21 rode to meet Rolando.

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And this turned out to be the package
24 from First Reliance, the loan package.

25 A. The documents in that package contained

1 documents that a customer would have a right to,
2 such as the appraisals.

3 Q. But there were the documents from First
4 Reliance?

5 A. I don't know for a fact.

6 Q. Well, they were part --

7 A. But they would be used for a loan
8 decision.

9 Q. And Mr. Zerbst had these documents?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. But he didn't give these documents to 12 you while you guys were in the car riding out?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. Nor did he say anything to you about 15 these documents while you were riding out?

16 A. No, sir.

17 Q. And then when you got to the apartment
18 complex and you met with Rolando he still didn't 19 say anything to you about the package that he had?

20 A. No, he didn't.

21 Q. Instead he made an elaborate show of 22 delivering the package to Rolando?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. In fact, he said: I'm now handing this
25 package to Rolando.

1 A. That is correct.

2 Q. And then Rolando, after he received the
3 package, turns to you and says: I want Ameris to 4 do this deal.

5 A. Essentially, yes. He said he wanted
6 Ameris to help him out on the loan request.

7 Q. Now, this whole charade appeared fishy
8 to you at the time, didn't it?

9 A. It looked a little staged. You know,
10 if he wanted to give me the package, he could have 11 easily done so beforehand. He could have given it
12 to Rolando without me seeing it.

13 You know, it did. It looked a little 14 staged.

15 Q. Sure. He made a big deal about handing 16 not the package directly to you as represented by 17 Ameris, but handing it to Rolando so Rolando could 18 then give it to you?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. Now, you prepared a loan committee
21 application for this loan for Ameris dated
22 October 22, 2007.

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Turn to Exhibit 27 in your package.

25 A. Mr. Kefalos, what number was that

1 again?

2 Q. 27. And this is the loan committee
3 application?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. And the loan committee application
6 included an Apartment Economic Analysis Form.

7 A. That is correct.

8 Q. Do you see it as part of 27?

9 A. Yes, sir. It would be that second page
10 down at the bottom. That would be a rental cash
11 flow analysis.

12 Q. Is it true that you used the package
13 that Karl Zerbst gave you to help prepare this loan
14 committee application and the Apartment Economic
15 Analysis Form that you submitted to Ameris?

16 A. I did use the information that was a
17 part of that package as a guide for the 18 application.

19 Q. And the $2.8 million loan that was
20 structured so that Linda Gibson put $700,000 down
21 and got a construction loan for $700,000, that was 22 the way Karl Zerbst had arranged the loan?

23 A. I did not know that at the time, no.

24 Q. But you testified that Karl Zerbst had 25 arranged that.

1 A. No, sir.

2 Q. Well, do you have a copy of your
3 deposition there?

4 A. No, sir, I do not.

5 Q. Well, let me hand you this then. This 6 is Page 33 at Line 12. Did I ask you who 7 structured the loan with the $700,000 down, the 8 construction loan?

9 A. Yes, sir. The 2.8 million with the 10 $700,000 down, that was the original structure;
11 however, going and getting the funds for that 12 700,000, I did not know at that time where those 13 funds came from.

14 Q. I'm not asking about where those funds
15 came from. I'm just wanting to know whether you
16 told us that Karl Zerbst had structured that loan
17 in that fashion.

18 A. That is correct. Our loan request was 19 very similar to the loan request that he had put 20 together at First Reliance in terms of the dollar
21 amount and the amount to be put down and the amount
22 to be drawn for the construction loan.

23 Q. Turn your attention to Exhibit 29, a
24 memo dated October 23, 2007 from John Hipp.

25 A. I'm there.

1 Q. Now, your loan committee application
2 was dated October 22, 2007.

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And the next day you get an email from 5 John Hipp. Who is John Hipp?

6 A. At this time John Hipp was the state
7 president for Ameris Bank.

8 Q. So the day after you submit an 9 application for a new $2.8 million loan for a new
10 customer you had an email back from the president
11 of the bank saying: Thanks. I think we can draw a
12 circle around this one.

13 A. That is correct. That's what it says.

14 Q. That's pretty quick approval, isn't it?

15 A. Given the circumstances of the package,
16 everything was already in place, so that made the 17 underwriting piece pretty expedient.

18 Also, being a community bank, that's 19 one thing community banks prides itself on, is 20 being able to react quickly to a loan request.

21 Q. Certainly. But even with being a
22 community bank and even with all of the information
23 that you had gathered from Mr. Zerbst, that's 24 pretty quick approval for a large loan in the world
25 of commercial lending.

1 A. That is a fast turnaround, but it's not
2 completely unheard of.

3 Q. And that's a pretty quick approval for 4 a new customer?

5 A. I would agree. At that time, though,
6 the bank was in a growth strategy, so there was a
7 need to grow the bank.

8 Q. They were looking for new business?

9 A. Absolutely.

10 Q. And let me ask you: At the time that
11 you submitted this loan application, the loan
12 committee application and the apartment economic
13 analysis on the 22nd of October -- is it true at 14 the time that you submitted this to the upper 15 management at Ameris Bank that Linda Gibson had not 16 even signed a loan application?

17 A. No; she had not signed a loan
18 application.

19 Q. So that's a pretty quick turnaround for 20 a $2.8 million loan for a new customer who has 21 never even signed a loan application.

22 A. We had -- through Karl and through
23 Rolando, they had mentioned that Linda -- you know,
24 that they wanted us to process the loan. So we 25 took that as a loan request.

1 Q. Through Karl?

2 A. And Rolando.

3 Q. Sure. But it is a pretty quick
4 turnaround?

5 A. It's fast, but not unheard of.

6 Q. Did you get the impression that your
7 supervisors at the bank knew about this loan before
8 you brought it to them?

9 A. I can't say for sure.

10 Q. But that's the impression that you got?

11 A. Like I said, the loan got approved
12 quickly.

13 Q. You didn't get much resistance from 14 these supervisors at the bank on this loan, did
15 you?

16 A. There wasn't a lot of questions asked
17 in terms of rebuttals; but again, the bank was in a
18 growth mode. When you're in a growth mode and 19 times are good, loans do get approved.

20 Q. Even with the growth mode you normally
21 would have expected more questions on a loan of 22 this size with a new customer who hadn't even filed
23 an application?

24 A. I can't say that for sure, but if I was 25 the approver I would ask some questions.

1 Q. This was a pretty smooth transaction
2 once you put it on the books?

3 A. The transaction was smooth, yes, sir.

4 MR. KEFALOS: I would like to move 27
5 and 29 into evidence.

6 MR. JORDAN: No objection.

7 (Plaintiff's Exhibits 27 and 29 in
8 evidence.)

9 BY MR. KEFALOS:

10 Q. Will you turn your attention to Exhibit
11 33. Do you recognize Exhibit 33?

12 A. Yes, sir, I do.

13 Q. This is the construction loan agreement
14 that was ultimately signed by Ameris Bank and 15 Miss Gibson on November the 2nd, 2007?

16 A. This is signed by the borrower. You're
17 correct.

18 Q. Now if you'll turn your attention to 19 Paragraph 7(j) of this construction loan agreement.
20 I think it's on the third page. It talks about 21 plans and specifications.

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. You understood that Miss Gibson was 24 supposed to have plans and specifications in place
25 before any advances were made on this loan?

1 A. This was a rehab of an apartment
2 complex, so we were given an estimate by the
3 contractor of what rehabs were going to be made to 4 the units.

5 Q. My question was: Did you understand
6 that she was supposed to have plans and 7 specifications in place?

8 A. Plans and specs will be more towards
9 vertical construction, new construction, where you
10 would have drawings and then the like to go by.
11 They would be submitted to an appraiser or whoever.

12 Q. Well, did you understand that this
13 contract required plans and specifications?

14 A. That is a part of the construction loan
15 agreement, yes, but it was not specific to this
16 loan.

17 If you're redoing your kitchen in your
18 house, you don't submit plans and specs to a bank
19 to get a loan for the rehab of your kitchen.

20 Q. This wasn't a rehab of a kitchen, was 21 it?

22 A. Correct. Those are small terms. But
23 what I'm saying is if you're replacing carpets,
24 painting walls, putting a new roof on, those would 25 not require plans and specs. You're not moving the

1 building outwards. You're not changing the
2 footprints of the building. So in my opinion that
3 would not be a necessary document.

4 Q. And is that why you never obtained
5 plans and specifications for the $700,000
6 renovation?

7 A. That's correct. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Now, look at Paragraph 6(e) in the
9 construction loan agreement.

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. 6(e) requires a construction contract
12 before Ameris will advance any monies under the 13 construction loan agreement.

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. And is it true that Linda Gibson never 16 had a construction contract?

17 A. There was a contract on file, but it
18 was never signed.

19 Q. So there was never a signed contract;
20 and in fact, you know that the contractor that was 21 originally supposed to work on this actually quit
22 because the contract wasn't signed?

23 A. I found that out much later, yes, sir.

24 Q. Now, look at 7(i) of this construction
25 loan agreement. That's the project budget.

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Did you understand that this
3 construction loan agreement required that there be 4 a budget for the project before Ameris made the
5 disbursements?

6 A. Yes, sir, and that was included in the 7 contract.

8 Q. There was never a budget submitted, was 9 there?

10 A. A budget was submitted, but there was 11 never a signed contract.

12 Q. And Ameris disbursed on this project
13 this $700,000 renovation without a budget?

14 A. That is correct.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Kefalos, is this the
16 $700,000 loan?

17 MR. KEFALOS: Well, it was $2.8
18 million, but the 700,000 was for the renovation.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 BY MR. KEFALOS:

21 Q. Now look at G(1). I think it's on the 22 fourth page. There is something that talks about
23 applications for disbursements.

24 A. Mr. Kefalos, you said G(1). I don't
25 see a G(1).

1 Q. G(1), I think, is on the fourth page of
2 the documents furnished. Page 4.

3 A. I'm there, yes, sir.

4 Q. 8(g)(1). 8 is conditions precedent to
5 all loan disbursements, and (g)(1) is documents
6 furnished. (G) is documents furnished and (1) is 7 the application for disbursements.

8 Did you understand this construction
9 loan agreement to require an AIA payment request
10 form before Ameris was permitted to disburse any 11 money on the construction loan?

12 A. This construction loan agreement is a
13 boilerplate document, and with all boilerplate
14 documents it contains language that would 15 encapsulate lots of different types of loans.

16 This was a residential project, just
17 like a home construction project. You would not 18 receive an AIA draw. You would receive that more
19 in a commercial building, if you're building a
20 church or a bank building where an architect would 21 actually go out and make the draws.

22 Q. Didn't the contract also require an 23 architect?

24 A. An architect developed, to my
25 knowledge, the drawings or what have you for the

1 green component of the project, not to make AIA
2 draws.

3 Q. So you say this was boilerplate. That
4 means it's a form that is used?

5 A. No, sir. These are -- I don't know
6 what company this is. This is Banker Systems.doc.
7 So no matter what kind of construction loan you do
8 this language is contained in all construction
9 loans. So it may or may not be applicable to that 10 -- pertinent to that particular loan. It varies
11 from case to case.

12 Q. Well, how do we tell what provisions in 13 this contract are applicable if they're --

14 A. The way I read the construction loan
15 agreement is the borrower is agreeing to -- so if 16 the bank requests these documents they have to 17 provide them. So if the bank deems that fit, then 18 they would need to provide the bank with those 19 documents for those draws.

20 Q. The question is: If it's all in the 21 written document, how is a borrower supposed to 22 know which are the ones the bank is going to report
23 or insist on complying with and which ones are they 24 going to waive?

25 A. It would be at the banker's request.

1 Q. Well, in any event, is it true that you
2 never saw any AIA requests forms before making
3 disbursements?

4 A. That is correct.

5 Q. And Ameris disbursed on this $700,000
6 construction loan without any AIA request forms; is 7 that right?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Ameris disbursed money at the request
10 of Rolando Villavicencio?

11 A. Disbursements were made upon Rolando's
12 request with submitted invoices for work that had 13 been performed.

14 Q. And is it true that Linda Gibson was 15 never aware of the advances that were being made?

16 A. Linda Gibson called me at the beginning
17 of the project and told me that Rolando was going 18 to be the project manager on this, and he would be 19 handling the project.

20 Q. Is it true that she was never aware of 21 the advances that were being made?

22 A. I do not know that for a fact.

23 Q. Look at your deposition on Page 30.
24 Did you tell me on Page 30 of your deposition that 25 Linda Gibson was never aware of the advances that

1 were being made?

2 A. What line would that be?

3 Q. I have the wrong citation. I
4 apologize. It was Exhibit 30.

5 Let me ask you this: You've been in 6 the banking business for a long time.

7 A. Nine years.

8 Q. And you were here, I think, when we
9 talked with Mr. Zerbst about a bank officer's
10 duties?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And you are familiar with what a loan
13 officer's duties are?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Will you agree that if a loan officer
16 knows or has reason to know that one of its 17 customers is being taken advantage of by one of 18 their employees, the loan officer has the 19 responsibility to alert the customer of that 20 problem?

21 A. Absolutely.

22 MR. KEFALOS: That's all the questions
23 I have.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Jordan?

25

1 CROSS-EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. JORDAN:

3 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Lanier. I want to 4 ask you about something that Mr. Kefalos was
5 bringing up, and if you'll turn to Exhibit 33,
6 which was that construction loan agreement.

7 A. Sure.

8 Q. Now, Mr. Kefalos pointed out a bunch of 9 different provisions about the borrower will
10 provide A, B and C to the bank, and you testified
11 that it is your understanding that those were 12 obligations that the bank imposes on the borrower,
13 and it can waive those obligations; right?

14 A. That is correct.

15 Q. And in fact, if you'll look, for 16 example, on Page 3, Section M. See where it says
17 "soil test?"

18 A. I'm there.

19 Q. Is a soil test required on every 20 construction project that the bank does?

21 A. No. That would be -- for example, if 22 you were financing a gas station you would want an 23 environmental study. If you're financing a home in 24 a residential market or apartment complex, a soil
25 test wouldn't necessarily be needed. We could

1 perform one for due diligence just to be on the
2 safe side for the bank; but no, we would not
3 require that.

4 Q. Is it fair to say, then, in a lot of
5 construction projects obligations like the soil
6 test are waived?

7 A. That is correct.

8 Q. And in fact, look over at the next
9 page, which is Page 4 at Section F. Can you read
10 that paragraph for us.

11 A. This would be the no waiver?

12 Q. That's right.

13 A. "Your acquiescence to my failure to 14 comply with any condition of any loan disbursement
15 does not waive my need to comply with this 16 condition, so you may require my compliance with 17 this condition at any time after your 18 acquiescence."

19 Q. So that pretty expressly says even if 20 we are not requiring something, we're not waiving
21 any of our rights; right?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. Now, you were an employee -- when did
24 you begin your employment at First Reliance?

25 A. I believe my start date was October 11

1 of 2007.

2 THE COURT: Was that First Reliance or
3 was that Ameris?

4 MR. JORDAN: I asked about First
5 Reliance.

6 THE WITNESS: I apologize, your Honor.
7 My employment with First Reliance, January of 2003.

8 BY MR. JORDAN:

9 Q. While you were at First Reliance you
10 had an occasion to assist Heritage Seven through 11 Miss Gibson on the financing of the first shopping
12 center; correct?

13 A. That is correct.

14 Q. And while assisting Heritage Seven with 15 that purchase you had an occasion to meet Rolando;
16 correct?

17 A. That is correct.

18 Q. Explain for the Court what role Rolando
19 played in Heritage Seven's and Miss Gibson's
20 purchase of the shopping center.

21 A. From my perspective Rolando seemed to 22 be the point person, the person driving the deal.
23 He put the package together. If you needed
24 financials or whatever questions, he was the guy to 25 go to and he would retrieve information as needed.

1 Q. And following the purchase of the
2 shopping center Rolando in fact was managing the
3 shopping center for Miss Gibson; correct?

4 A. That is correct.

5 Q. And did Rolando frequently deal with 6 First Reliance on Miss Gibson's behalf?

7 A. Yes, sir; from time to time.

8 Q. While you were at First Reliance did
9 you assist Heritage Seven and Ms. Gibson with any 10 other matters?

11 A. No, sir, I did not.

12 Q. At First Reliance did you learn that 13 Miss Gibson and Heritage Seven were seeking 14 financing for the potential purchase of an 15 apartment complex on Otranto Road?

16 A. I heard rumblings around the office.
17 We were in a small office on that side of State
18 Street and Cumberland. You know, Karl's office was 19 down the hall from mine. So be it we talked about
20 pipeline reports or whatever, I knew there was a
21 loan in process for the purchase of an apartment
22 complex.

23 Q. But you didn't really have any
24 involvement at First Reliance with respect to that?

25 A. No, sir, not like my involvement on the

1 shopping center.

2 Q. Did you know anything about the
3 apartment complex at that time?

4 A. Other than it was an apartment complex
5 and Miss Gibson and Heritage Seven was going to be 6 the borrower.

7 Q. And while you were at First Reliance
8 you never took her out there or told her anything
9 about the apartment complex?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. You testified that you joined Ameris in 12 October of 2007; right?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And what was your position once you
15 joined Ameris?

16 A. I was a business banker.

17 Q. Can you explain a little bit the 18 difference between a credit analyst at First
19 Reliance and a business banker at Ameris.

20 A. Certainly. A credit analyst has the 21 responsibility of taking the financials that are 22 submitted underwriting those financials, typically 23 writing out the financial analysis section of the 24 memo, and times doing even more depending on their 25 knowledge of the customer and the request.

1 A business banker, depending on the
2 structure of the bank, would be the lender on the
3 deal dealing directly with customers, gathering
4 information, and making input to the recommendation
5 of the credit.

6 Just to clarify, at the time I was at
7 First Reliance when the apartment deal was being
8 worked on by Karl I was a business banker at that
9 point. I had been promoted that fall before to a
10 business banker. When I came to Ameris as business
11 bankers initially we did all our own underwriting.

12 Q. You testified a few minutes ago about a
13 telephone call that you received from Mr. Zerbst
14 saying that Rolando would be calling you about the 15 apartment complex loan; is that correct?

16 A. That is correct.

17 Q. Where was Karl working at that time?

18 A. He was unemployed.

19 Q. And you then received a call from 20 Rolando; correct?

21 A. Either Rolando called me or I reached
22 out to Rolando.

23 Q. What do you remember, if anything,
24 about that conversation?

25 A. We discussed the deal and I told him I

1 would like to set up a meeting. I would like to go
2 see the project and see what we can do for him.

3 Q. And ultimately at that meeting did
4 Rolando make the request for Ameris to consider
5 making this loan to Heritage Seven and Miss Gibson?

6 A. That is correct.

7 Q. From that point on did the loan
8 application process for this loan at Ameris proceed
9 as any other loan application would?

10 A. No. It went through all the normal
11 channels. It went through in an expedient fashion
12 from the way it looks. But no; it went through all 13 the normal approval channels just like any other 14 loan would.

15 Q. Is it unusual for a borrower to apply
16 to multiple banks when it's considering purchasing
17 some property or renovating property?

18 A. Unfortunately for bankers, no. It's 19 very common.

20 Q. You testified that some documents that
21 you received from Rolando at the apartment complex
22 contained the appraisal.

23 Is that a document that the borrower,
24 potential borrower, is entitled to have?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Did Karl say anything to you at the
2 meeting at the apartment complex or in a prior
3 telephone conversation that would lead you to
4 believe that he was acting on Ameris's behalf?

5 A. No.

6 Q. And in fact, as late as December of
7 2007 you understood that Karl had not yet decided
8 whether he was even going to stay in banking;
9 right?

10 A. That is correct. I went to Karl's
11 house around the holiday time -- I know because a
12 football game was on -- to help him with a computer
13 problem he had. So I'm pretty good with computers.
14 And I straight up asked him: Are you coming to 15 work for Ameris? So he said: Honestly, I don't 16 know.

17 So at that point, at least telling me,
18 he was indecisive about what his future was going 19 to be.

20 Q. And Karl didn't come to work for Ameris
21 until January of 2008; correct?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. Do you have any information that would
24 lead you to believe that he was working for Ameris
25 any time prior to January of 2008?

1 A. No, not that I know of.

2 Q. When you were in your office at Ameris
3 and there were emails going around about customers
4 and potential loans, was Karl ever copied on any of 5 that stuff?

6 A. Not to my knowledge, no. Are you
7 speaking before January of 2008 or after?

8 Q. Before January of 2008.

9 A. No.

10 Q. If you'll look in the bigger notebook
11 at Exhibit 18.

12 A. I'm there.

13 Q. Do you recognize that document?

14 A. Yes, sir, I do.

15 Q. Is that the loan committee memo that 16 you prepared --

17 A. That is correct.

18 Q. -- at Ameris?

19 A. At Ameris, yes, sir.

20 Q. This loan committee memorandum
21 references net worth of over $53 million from the 22 borrower; is that correct?

23 A. That is correct.

24 Q. Did Rolando provide you with a personal
25 financial statement concerning Miss Gibson?

1 A. He did, yes, sir.

2 Q. And if you'll look at Exhibit 11, does
3 that appear to be a copy of a financial statement
4 that Rolando gave you concerning Miss Gibson?

5 A. Yes, sir. That does appear to be the
6 financial statement.

7 Q. If you flip over to the third page, it
8 shows the net worth of 53 million and some change.
9 Do you see that?

10 A. That is correct. I do.

11 Q. Did you rely on this document in 12 preparing your loan committee application?

13 A. I relied on the fact that this net
14 worth was an accurate depiction, but the loan
15 decision was not made upon that net worth.

16 Q. Back on the loan committee memo on Tab
17 18 it also references the appraisal --

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. -- that Paul Moore & Associates did
20 that showed an as-is value of 2.8 million and an 21 as-complete value of 3.7.

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. And did you review and rely on that
24 appraisal in submitting your loan application?

25 A. I did.

1 Q. Did you have any reason to believe at 2 this time that anything contained on that personal
3 financial statement or any conclusions reached in 4 the appraisal was anything but accurate?

5 A. No. I believed everything that was
6 submitted to us was true and accurate.

7 Q. Let's look over at Exhibit 20.

8 A. I'm there.

9 Q. The first page is an email from you to 10 yourself, but the attachment is a number of 11 documents which comprise the loan committee
12 application; is that right?

13 THE COURT: Is that email from him to 14 himself? Is it supposed to have something on it,
15 or is it just the attachment?

16 MR. JORDAN: Just the attachment.

17 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I believe
18 this was probably pulled off the server after my 19 departure.

20 Q. (Continued) The document that is
21 attached to this email, is that a document you
22 prepared?

23 A. Yes, sir, it is.

24 Q. If you'll look on the page that is
25 Bates stamped 000291, the first page of the loan

1 committee application.

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Down toward the bottom it talks about
4 collateral recap. Do you see that?

5 A. I do.

6 Q. It discusses the value of the apartment
7 complex as stated in the appraisal; correct?

8 A. That is correct.

9 Q. And below that it talks about the 10 borrower/guarantor and describes the financial 11 status from the personal financial statement;
12 correct?

13 A. That is correct.

14 Q. And did you submit this loan committee
15 application on to Ameris?

16 A. I did, yes, sir.

17 Q. And it contained the information that 18 had been provided to you by Rolando in the personal
19 financial statement?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Who did you submit this application to?

22 A. This would have been first submitted to
23 Marc Bogan. He would have vetted this application
24 and it would have went to John Hipp, who at that 25 time had the approval authority to approve this

1 loan.

2 Q. What was Mr. Bogan's position at the
3 time?

4 A. Mr. Bogan was coastal executive.

5 Q. And are the remaining documents that
6 are contained in Exhibit No. 20 additional
7 documents that were submitted along with the loan
8 committee application?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. And as you see in this stack you
11 prepared a Global Cash Flow Analysis and you
12 prepared an Apartment Economic Analysis Form?

13 A. That is correct.

14 Q. And you considered the tax returns that 15 Mrs. Gibson had provided to you; correct?

16 A. I did, yes, sir.

17 Q. Mr. Kefalos raised questions about why
18 Mr. Bogan or Mr. Hipp didn't raise more questions
19 about this when it was submitted and how quickly it
20 was turned around.

21 When you provided this loan information
22 to Mr. Bogan and to Mr. Hipp, in fact they did
23 raise some questions about it back to you, didn't 24 they?

25 A. They had a question about the personal

1 financial statement and the ownership of those
2 assets listed on the personal financial statement.

3 Q. And they asked you to obtain some
4 additional information about the personal financial 5 statement; correct?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And in response to that request you
8 called Miss Gibson; right?

9 A. I did put a call in to her, yes, sir.

10 Q. Do you remember if you actually spoke 11 with her?

12 A. I do not believe I spoke with her.

13 Q. Did you leave her a telephone message?

14 A. I cannot remember.

15 Q. Look over at Exhibit 21.

16 After you weren't able to reach
17 Miss Gibson did you send a request to Rolando
18 regarding that same information?

19 A. It appears so, yes, sir.

20 Q. And is this the email that you sent to 21 Rolando?

22 A. That does look like the email.

23 Q. And did Rolando respond? To your 24 recollection.

25 A. He did respond.

1 Q. If you look over at Exhibit 24, the
2 email that starts in the middle -- where it says
3 "Rolando," is this Rolando's response to your
4 questions that you had raised?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And he typed his answers into the body
7 of your email and sent it back to you; correct?

8 A. That is correct.

9 Q. And this shows that when you received
10 it from Rolando you sent this information about the 11 personal financial statement on to Mr. Hipp and 12 Mr. Bogan; correct?

13 A. That is correct.

14 THE COURT: Which exhibit is that?

15 MR. JORDAN: Exhibit 24, your Honor.

16 BY MR. JORDAN:

17 Q. Before this loan was approved did you
18 suggest to Mr. Hipp or to Mr. Bogan that you would 19 like to take them out and show them the property?

20 A. I did, yes, sir.

21 Q. Who did you make that suggestion to?

22 A. I went out with Marc Bogan and met at
23 the project.

24 Q. You and Marc went out there and looked 25 around to make sure everything looked good; is that

1 correct?

2 A. We looked at the collateral and met
3 with Rolando and Marc, and I discussed the project
4 with Rolando about what it was and what it was 5 going to become.

6 Q. At the time that this loan application
7 came in to Ameris there was already an appraisal
8 done; right?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And is the appraisal something that
11 would typically take some time and would slow down
12 the loan application process?

13 A. Typically commercial appraisals take
14 anywhere from two weeks to a month.

15 Q. So was that a big reason for it to be
16 so quick, as Mr. Kefalos said?

17 A. That would definitely help move the 18 process along.

19 Q. Now, the loan in the amount of $2.8
20 million was ultimately approved; correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. At the time that it was approved what 23 authorization within the bank was necessary to 24 approve the $2.8 million?

25 A. At that time John Hipp would approve up

1 to $3 million.

2 Q. And I think you referred before to Hipp
3 having $3 million on his pen. So if Hipp signed 4 off on it and it was under $3 million, then it was
5 approved through the bank?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. Did this loan application receive
8 Mr. Hipp's approval?

9 A. It did, yes, sir.

10 Q. There was a grand opening party for the 11 Ameris Bank Archdale Street location in Charleston
12 on October 25, 2007; right?

13 A. That is correct.

14 Q. Did you attend that party?

15 A. I was in attendance.

16 Q. That same day did you have a meeting
17 with Mr. Bogan and with Mr. Rolando?

18 A. That's correct. We went out and met
19 with Rolando at the project that morning. It was 20 part of a call blitz. We were leading up to the 21 grand opening night.

22 Q. Now, Miss Gibson and Rolando and
23 Rolando's wife, Portia, were all at the grand
24 opening party; correct?

25 A. That is correct.

1 Q. And after you went out to the project
2 you went back to your office and you prepared a
3 commitment letter; correct?

4 A. That is correct.

5 Q. And we have seen that was dated, if you
6 look at Exhibit 26, October 25, 2007.

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And Miss Gibson and Rolando and Portia
9 were at the grand opening party; correct?

10 A. That is correct.

11 Q. Do you recall handing her a copy of 12 this letter at that party?

13 A. I do, yes, sir.

14 Q. Was the party over when you gave her
15 this document?

16 A. No. It was not over.

17 Q. And you didn't take her back into a
18 back office in the bank and have her sit down and 19 sign any documents with you?

20 A. No, sir.

21 Q. Do you even remember her signing this
22 document at the grand opening party?

23 A. To my knowledge, I don't even know that 24 this document got signed at the grand opening. If 25 it would have been, I would imagine it probably

1 would have been an exhibit.

2 Q. Was the party still ongoing when you
3 gave her this document?

4 A. It was, and the party was still ongoing
5 when I left.

6 Q. Did Miss Gibson appear to be under the 7 influence of alcohol?

8 A. I could not say.

9 Q. Did you give her any alcohol that 10 evening?

11 A. I would not serve any alcohol, no, sir.

12 Q. If you look in this document, the 13 commitment letter on the first page, it talks about 14 the Klister Lane property being included as 15 collateral; is that correct?

16 A. That is correct.

17 Q. Did Miss Gibson ever say anything to 18 you along the lines of she didn't understand that 19 that was going to be part of the collateral or that 20 wasn't part of the deal?

21 A. Not that I remember, no.

22 Q. In fact, did you discuss the fact that 23 that would be included as collateral with 24 Miss Gibson and with Rolando?

25 A. I did when I presented the commitment

1 letter.

2 Q. Did she do anything or say anything
3 that led you to believe that that wasn't perfectly
4 fine with her?

5 A. Not to my knowledge.

6 Q. The loan closed on November the 2nd,
7 2007; right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. If you'll look at Exhibits 29 through 10 34, and it's all the loan documents. Just 11 reference them. And these documents consist of the 12 construction loan agreement, the apartment
13 mortgage, the Klister Lane mortgage, the promissory
14 note and personal guarantee from Miss Gibson and a
15 personal guarantee from the trust; correct?

16 A. That is correct.

17 Q. Is there anything unusual about any of 18 these documents?

19 A. No, sir. Standard bank form documents.

20 Q. After the closing in November of 2007
21 you received a phone call from Mrs. Gibson; right?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. And she told you that she was going to 24 be having some surgery and that she was going to be
25 out of commission and that she wanted you to know

1 that Rolando was going to be in charge of this
2 project; correct?

3 A. That is correct.

4 Q. And was that completely consistent with 5 the way that Rolando and Mrs. Gibson had always
6 dealt with both First Reliance and with Ameris?

7 A. Yes, it was.

8 Q. Was there anything suspect about that?

9 A. No.

10 Q. After that point did Rolando at some 11 point approach you about the first request for 12 money to be used to be paid to contractors?

13 A. Yes, he did.

14 Q. And at that time it was clear that he
15 was acting on Mrs. Gibson's behalf?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Did you consider the information that 18 Rolando provided to you in connection with that 19 draw request to be sufficient to satisfy yourself
20 to make that disbursement?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. We have heard testimony that from the 23 beginning of the project until sometime in March
24 Miss Gibson wasn't at the project.

25 During that period did you go out and

1 inspect the property?

2 A. Yes, I did.

3 Q. Tell the Court about how often you went
4 out there over that three- or four-month period.

5 A. Maybe two or three times.

6 Q. When you went out there could you tell
7 that work was being done?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. So you never went out there and just 10 saw a dead construction site?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Were you able to go out there and look
13 and see what percentage of the completion of the 14 project had been done?

15 A. Given the nature of this project, that 16 would be impossible to do.

17 Q. And that's because this wasn't
18 ground-up construction; this was a rehab, so you
19 can't say the foundation has been poured. There is 20 framing. It's a more difficult assessment;
21 correct?

22 A. That's exactly right. The buildings
23 were in different stages. They were also being
24 gutted and redone, so to get an accurate percentage
25 complete would be very difficult to do.

1 Q. But you were able to go out there and
2 see that, for example, some of the supplies that
3 had been ordered and paid for were indeed on the 4 site; correct?

5 A. Yes. Correct.

6 Q. Can you give an example of --

7 A. The roofing.

8 Q. When was the next time that you heard
9 from Linda Gibson?

10 A. I spoke with Linda in, I would say,
11 late March of '08. I believe she called me or she 12 came by the bank.

13 Q. But during that time period when she 14 told you Rolando was in charge and then she 15 contacted you again did she ever call you and say:
16 Hey, how is progress on the construction going?

17 A. No, sir.

18 Q. Did she ever indicate to you during
19 that time that: Benjie, look. I'm relying on you
20 to make sure that this project is moving along as 21 it should be?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. You said that at some point you thought
24 in March or so of '08 Miss Gibson contacted you
25 again; is that right?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. What do you recall about that contact?

3 A. She came to the bank, and it was good
4 to see her. She said that she was better now from
5 her surgery. She had some complications. She said
6 now that she is well she wanted to take over the
7 project.

8 Q. At some point did she then -- when was 9 the next time that you heard from her?

10 A. It was either that meeting or the next
11 when we opened up the checking account for her.

12 Q. At the first meeting that you just 13 discussed did she make requests for copies of the 14 invoices and the disbursements that had been made
15 on the project?

16 A. That is correct.

17 Q. And did you provide that information?

18 A. I did, out of my file.

19 Q. Did she say anything to you along the 20 lines of that she was concerned about where the 21 money had gone at that point?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. Did she make any complaints at that
24 point about anything Ameris had done in disbursing
25 the funds?

1 A. No, sir.

2 Q. You said that shortly thereafter she
3 returned to the bank and said that she wanted to
4 open up a checking account; correct?

5 A. Correct. We discussed if she was going
6 to take over the project, if she had a draw
7 request, given the fact that she -- if she mailed
8 in an invoice, we either have to mail her a check
9 or she would have to come all way downtown
10 Charleston to pick the check up.

11 I said what we can do is open up a
12 checking account. If you have an invoice, you send 13 it in. We can fund your checking account and we 14 can write the checks out of that account based on 15 those invoices.

16 Q. When she returned to the bank to open
17 up the checking account, that was a number of days
18 after she had obtained a copy of the invoices and
19 disbursements?

20 A. It would have been very shortly
21 thereafter.

22 Q. But still at this point when she opened
23 the checking account there was no complaint about 24 anything about the disbursements?

25 A. No, sir.

1 Q. Did she ever make any kind of complaint
2 that Ameris should not have been dealing with
3 Rolando in this matter?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. Tell the Court from the time that
6 Miss Gibson called and said I'm going to have 7 surgery, Rolando is in charge, until when
8 Miss Gibson came back what was the procedure
9 between you and Rolando for submission of draw
10 requests and disbursements from the construction
11 loan.

12 A. Rolando would typically call me or 13 email me and pose the draw request. Usually it was 14 an invoice by invoice request, not unlike if you
15 were doing a residential construction. You would 16 go out and look at the project and say they are so
17 far along on these different items and they have a
18 funding amount. These were specific invoices to 19 specific contractors or subcontractors.

20 Q. Flip over to Exhibit 42. Again, I
21 don't need you to go through every one of these 22 pages, but does this appear to be a copy of all the 23 checks that were paid from the Ameris account to 24 the contractors and suppliers on the project?

25 A. Yes, sir. These are the checks that

1 were issued.

2 Q. And these are the checks that were
3 issued prior to the time Miss Gibson came in and
4 set up the Heritage Seven checking account?

5 A. That would probably be the case, only
6 the fact that when she did open up her checking
7 account I believe she had some initial draw
8 requests. Those would have been probably funded by 9 cashier checks because she had not received her
10 physical checks.

11 Q. Cashier checks directly to Linda Gibson
12 or Heritage Seven?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Flip over to Exhibit 44. Is this an 15 email that you got from Rolando?

16 A. Yes. That is correct.

17 Q. And it says Rolando is attaching a
18 couple of invoices and sending them to you in 19 November of 2007; correct?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. If you flip back on the third and
22 fourth pages, these appear to be copies of invoices
23 from Triton Construction that you received?

24 A. That is correct.

25 Q. For example, the last page is a Triton

1 Construction invoice for $49,200.

2 If you look back at Exhibit 42, the
3 check -- this is Bates No. 00055.

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Is that a check made out to Triton
6 Construction?

7 A. Yes, sir, it is.

8 Q. In the amount of $49,200?

9 A. Yes. That's correct.

10 Q. So is this indicative of the procedure
11 that you and Rolando followed during the time that 12 he was in charge of the disbursements?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. Was there ever a check made payable to 15 Rolando?

16 A. Not to my knowledge, no.

17 Q. To your knowledge, during that time
18 period were there any disbursements made without a
19 supporting invoice?

20 A. Not to my knowledge.

21 Q. Did you receive some additional -- did
22 you receive some reports from Rolando about how the 23 project was going?

24 A. I believe I received emails or phone
25 conversations.

1 Q. And did he always indicate that
2 everything was going as planned?

3 A. Everything was always positive.

4 Q. Now, when Mrs. Gibson came back into
5 the picture and set up a checking account, did
6 anyone else have check writing authority to that
7 Heritage Seven account?

8 A. To my knowledge, I believe either one
9 of her daughters or both of her daughters may have 10 access to the checks.

11 Q. Tell the Court how the disbursements
12 were to be handled once Miss Gibson was back.

13 A. Like I said before, Miss Gibson over 14 the project -- through discussion we found it would 15 be easier if, instead of her mailing an invoice and 16 us mailing a check out to her, she could call us up
17 and say I need a draw and send us the invoice in 18 either email or fax or regular mail. We would then 19 deposit the money in her account, and that way she 20 would have access to the funds, or we could cut
21 cashier's checks like we did in the past and send 22 those directly to the contractors and
23 subcontractors.

24 Q. And that was in fact an arrangement
25 that Miss Gibson herself requested; right?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Look over at Exhibit 66. This is an
3 email. The bottom is from you to Tifton Loan
4 Booking, which I assume is your office in Tifton.

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. In this email you request some money be 7 transferred from the construction loan account into
8 the Heritage Seven checking account; correct?

9 A. That is correct.

10 Q. And this is, as just discussed, the 11 procedure where Miss Gibson would make a request
12 and you would ask the bank to transfer the money
13 into a checking account; is that correct?

14 A. That's correct. We request the account
15 be funded.

16 Q. So in overview of the project, from the 17 time the project started and you were told by 18 Miss Gibson that Rolando was in charge until the 19 time Miss Gibson stepped back into the picture to 20 your knowledge every payment disbursed was made out
21 directly to the contractor or supplier and was 22 supported by an invoice and was requested by 23 Heritage Seven through Rolando; correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. And once Miss Gibson stepped back in

1 every fund from that point on that was disbursed
2 was disbursed straight to Miss Gibson; correct?

3 A. That is correct.

4 Q. Now, did Miss Gibson follow the
5 procedure that you had discussed about how she
6 would obtain money from the construction loan
7 account when she set up the checking account?

8 A. Not exactly.

9 Q. What happened?

10 A. Typically what would happen, we found
11 out later, is she would call in to make requests
12 for a draw and then she would cut a check off the 13 account. There would not be a supporting invoice
14 to be sent to the file.

15 Q. Let's look over at Exhibit 70. Is this
16 an email that you got from Seven Oaks Apartment's
17 email address in August of 2008?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. And it says: From Elizabeth. Who is 20 Elizabeth?

21 A. Elizabeth Gibson. Miss Gibson's
22 daughter.

23 Q. Do you recall why Elizabeth was sending 24 you this information?

25 A. I'm pretty sure I probably requested a

1 list of updated expenses, monthly expenses.

2 Q. This is August. At this point had
3 Mrs. Gibson or Elizabeth or anyone made any 4 complaints about the way that Ameris had been
5 handling the disbursements?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. In fact, they were continuing to work
8 with you and --

9 A. Absolutely.

10 Q. Look over at 71. The bottom email is 11 from you to Joli Donnelly. She's a branch manager
12 or was a branch manager for Ameris at the time?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And in your email you say you met with 15 Linda and you're going to be able to help her with 16 some additional accounts; is that correct?

17 A. That is correct.

18 Q. So this is August of '08 and
19 Miss Gibson is continuing to do business and hadn't
20 made any complaints about how Ameris has treated
21 her?

22 A. Everything at this point was still
23 going fine and smooth.

24 Q. Look over at Exhibit 72. It's an email
25 that you sent to Mr. Snipes and Mr. Sturm at Ameris

1 in September of '08; correct?

2 A. That is correct.

3 Q. And this is in regards to Heritage
4 Seven and Mrs. Gibson having come and requested
5 potentially obtaining some more funding from Ameris
6 to complete the renovation project; correct?

7 A. That is correct.

8 Q. And did Miss Gibson in fact request
9 additional financing for the apartment complex?

10 A. Through our conversation, yes, she did
11 make a request.

12 Q. At this point Miss Gibson is still in 13 charge of managing this construction project;
14 right?

15 A. That is correct.

16 Q. If you look at the last paragraph, you
17 reference a meeting with Linda where you walk
18 through and review the repairs that needed to be 19 made; correct?

20 A. That is correct.

21 Q. During that meeting did she ever say
22 anything to you about not being satisfied with the 23 way Ameris had handled the disbursements for the 24 project?

25 A. No, sir.

1 Q. Flip over to Exhibit 91. Is this a
2 memo that you prepared?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And it relates to a June 2nd, 2009
5 meeting that you and Karl had with Miss Gibson;
6 correct?

7 A. That is correct.

8 Q. If you look at the second paragraph,
9 the third sentence, it talks about Linda has had 10 many challenges as of late due to the fact that 11 several of her tenants have either lost their 12 income or not had the money to pay their rent.

13 A. I see what you're saying.

14 Q. So at least part of the problem at this
15 point is that the tenants that she had in place
16 weren't paying her; right?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. This is middle of 2009 at this point.
19 Did Miss Gibson make any complaints
20 about the way Ameris had been handling this?

21 A. Not about the bank, no, sir.

22 Q. Benjie, to your knowledge was any money
23 ever withdrawn from that Heritage Seven checking
24 account without Miss Gibson's knowledge?

25 A. No, not to my knowledge.

1 Q. In fact, she was in complete control of
2 that account; right?

3 A. Her and the signers, which were her
4 daughters, to my knowledge.

5 Q. Benjie, if you'll flip over to Exhibit
6 87. Are you there?

7 A. I am.

8 Q. This is a little bit hard to read.
9 This is a promissory note dated January 9th, 2009.
10 Do you see that?

11 A. I'm there, yes.

12 Q. And this is a renewal note that
13 Miss Gibson signed in early 2009; correct?

14 A. That is correct.

15 Q. When she executed this note, did she
16 ever make any complaint about the way that Ameris
17 had handled the disbursements in this case --

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. -- or any way that Ameris had handled
20 the project in general?

21 A. No, sir.

22 MR. JORDAN: Nothing further, your
23 Honor.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Kefalos, any follow-up
25 questions?

1 MR. KEFALOS: Yes, sir. A couple.

2 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. KEFALOS:

4 Q. Mr. Lanier, you were talking about at
5 the time when Rolando was taking the advances on 6 the construction loan and you were talking about
7 how every check Ameris issued were for contractors
8 or materials.

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. That didn't solve the problem, did it?
11 Do you remember Ameris cutting a check to the 12 contractor at Triton Construction?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. And Triton took the money and left?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. It didn't do any work and just kept it?

17 A. They did not have an executed contract.

18 Q. So they kept $30,000 that y'all had cut
19 to them.

20 Do you remember the problem with the 21 windows?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. Don't you remember there was a check
24 issued for purchase of replacement windows?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. And do you remember somebody ordered
2 the windows, but they were the wrong windows?

3 A. I do remember you mentioning that one,
4 yes, sir.

5 Q. And so instead of returning them or 6 fixing them, they tried to cut the windows to make
7 them fit.

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. These windows were $35,000?

10 A. Yes, sir. I would have to check the 11 invoice, but that sounds correct.

12 Q. Cutting the windows to try to make them
13 fit then voided the warranty on the windows?

14 A. If you say so.

15 Q. When you did your apartment cash flow
16 analysis, the thing that you submitted to the loan
17 committee --

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. -- did you take the repayment of the 20 $700,000 second mortgage into account when you did
21 that cash flow analysis?

22 A. No, sir, I did not.

23 Q. If you had taken that repayment of the 24 700,000, it would have made a big difference in the 25 landscape of the loan, wouldn't it?

1 A. In the overall picture specific to the
2 apartment complex, yes, sir.

3 MR. KEFALOS: At this point I would
4 like to make sure that we have exhibits that are
5 associated with Mr. Lanier. I want to go over
6 them.

7 MR. STEPP: Do we need to do this
8 before this witness is done? I think we've got 9 maybe a couple more questions.

10 EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. JORDAN:

12 Q. Mr. Lanier, at any time when Rolando
13 was involved in this project did you have any 14 reason at all to believe that he was mismanaging
15 any of the funds that were being disbursed to the 16 contractors?

17 A. No, I did not.

18 Q. Did you have any reason to believe that 19 he was doing anything improper in terms of his 20 relationship to Miss Gibson?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Did you in any way intend to aid
23 Rolando in violating the duties that he owed to 24 Mrs. Gibson or Heritage Seven?

25 A. Absolutely not.

1 MR. JORDAN: No further questions.

2 THE COURT: I'm going to take a break.

3 I may want to ask Mr. Lanier some questions.

4 (Short recess taken.)

5 MR. KEFALOS: I want to admit

6 Plaintiff's 27, 28, 29, 43, 45, 47, 49, 50 and

7 Mr. Zerbst's deposition as a court exhibit which we 8 used for additional purposes.

9 MR. JORDAN: No objection.

10 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

11 (Plaintiff's Exhibits 27, 28, 29, 43, 12 45, 47, 49 and 50 in evidence.)

13 THE COURT: Any more questions before
14 -- I have a few questions for Mr. Lanier.

15 EXAMINATION

16 BY THE COURT:

17 Q. Mr. Lanier, for your benefit and for 18 the others -- you guys have been with this case a
19 long time and I have not, so I'm just trying to 20 figure out some things that you folks are very 21 familiar with. I don't want you to think I'm 22 targeting you or any other witness. You just have 23 some information that I haven't heard before.
24 Okay?

25 A. Okay.

1 Q. I'm interested, Mr. Lanier, in you
2 telling me about your relationship with Miss Gibson
3 at First Reliance. I understand that you helped
4 with some loan for the shopping center in Moncks
5 Corner.

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Tell me about that involvement. How
8 much involved -- what did you do generally and were 9 you working with Mr. Zerbst, or did you do it on 10 your own?

11 A. At that point in time -- that was 2005.
12 I was a credit analyst for First Reliance Bank, so 13 at that time that that loan request came in I was 14 responsible for underwriting the financial part and 15 relaying that information to Karl. So I would 16 analyze the rent rolls. I would analyze her
17 personal statement, tax returns, and relay that 18 information to Karl.

19 We put that in the form of a credit
20 memo, and that is what would get sent to be
21 approved.

22 Q. And in that process did you have any
23 personal interaction with Miss Gibson?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. And please help me with some of these

1 timelines. I think I have the dates correct. They
2 may not be correct.

3 Tell me when you left Reliance.

4 A. I left First Reliance October 9th -
5 10th, might be my last day.

6 Q. And that would be 2007?

7 A. 2007, yes, sir. I apologize.

8 Q. And then you were employed by Ameris on
9 October 11, 2007?

10 A. That's correct. That was my start
11 date.

12 Q. When you left Reliance, were you aware
13 of Mr. Zerbst and Mrs. Gibson having worked on this 14 loan application prior to hearing about it today?

15 A. Yes, sir. I was aware that that loan
16 request was in motion, but I did not know the 17 details.

18 Q. I understood you to tell me that after 19 October the 11th but before October the 25th that 20 you received a call from Mr. Zerbst.

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. Was that shortly after you were
23 employed with Ameris or -- it was a short window
24 anyway, but was that immediately afterwards or a
25 week or so? If you have any idea.

1 A. I would say it was probably the
2 following week. I got married that following
3 weekend.

4 Q. You got married.

5 A. The 14th. So I remember that one.

6 Q. And you didn't get off of work after 7 you got married?

8 A. I didn't get a break, your Honor.

9 Q. And after you received that call from 10 Mr. Zerbst how long before you and Rolando and 11 Mr. Zerbst went to the project?

12 A. It would have probably been that day,
13 your Honor, or that next day. It was very shortly
14 after the call.

15 Q. Now, when you received the call from 16 Mr. Zerbst about this loan from Ameris Bank to help
17 Miss Gibson -- after you received that call did you
18 converse with anyone else at Ameris Bank before you
19 went to the project?

20 A. I cannot recall, your Honor. I may 21 have or I may not have.

22 Q. So you went and had the meeting. Was 23 that in the morning or afternoon, or do you recall?

24 A. That would have been in the afternoon,
25 your Honor.

1 Q. And my understanding is that you picked
2 up Mr. Zerbst in Mount Pleasant somewhere.

3 A. Daniel Island.

4 Q. Daniel Island?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And was Rolando there at that time?

7 A. He was on site at the apartment
8 complex.

9 Q. You didn't pick up Rolando?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. It's my understanding that Mr. Zerbst
12 had some package and that he didn't talk with you
13 about it on the ride from Daniel Island to --

14 A. Correct. It was in a brown envelope.

15 Q. Did you have any conversation during 16 that time that you think I should be aware of 17 relating to this project during the ride?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. And what did you and Mr. Zerbst do when 20 you first arrived at the project?

21 A. After we parked the car we got out and 22 walked around, looked at the buildings.

23 Q. Rolando was already there?

24 A. He was already inside the clubhouse.
25 I guess you could call it the office.

1 Q. Help me out. In my understanding,
2 Rolando was managing that property before all this
3 happened. Is that your understanding, too?

4 A. To my knowledge, yes, sir.

5 Q. Tell me what happened about the 6 exchange of the package.

7 A. We were all sitting around the table,
8 your Honor, and Karl takes the package and he hands
9 it to Rolando and says: I want to give you this
10 package of information. This is yours to do
11 whatever you want to with, basically. And Rolando
12 says: I want Benjie to have it. I want Ameris to 13 work on the loan.

14 Q. And he gave you that package then?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. And you hadn't seen that package prior 17 to that?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. I don't want to put words in your
20 mouth, but you were kind of surprised by that? Or 21 explain how you reacted, how you thought of that
22 transaction.

23 A. It did seem kind of odd. Like I said,
24 if he wanted to give me the information to work on 25 the deal for Rolando and Miss Gibson, he could have

1 just gave it to me. I don't know why we had to go
2 through that exchange. It just didn't . . .

3 Q. You've been in banking for a good
4 while. Have you ever had any initial exchange with 5 loan documents in that kind of environment before?

6 A. No, sir, but these weren't necessarily 7 loan documents.

8 Q. I want to talk about that in a minute.

9 Have you ever been on the site with
10 somebody that didn't own -- that wasn't the buyer
11 and another banker, a former banker, and somebody
12 was with him that was not the buyer and they sit
13 you down and say: I want you to handle this loan?

14 Have you ever been involved in anything
15 like that before?

16 A. No, sir.

17 Q. And after you received the package and 18 Rolando said he wanted you to handle it what 19 happened next?

20 A. I took it and ran with it. I went back
21 to the bank.

22 Q. So you left then? Did you take
23 Mr. Zerbst back the way you picked him up?

24 A. Correct. Yes, sir. I was referring to 25 probably the next day. I got to the bank the next

1 day and took the package and ran with it.

2 Q. So you left the complex, the project is
3 what I would call it, and took Mr. Zerbst back to 4 Daniel Island?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And where was that on Daniel Island?

7 A. At Publix.

8 Q. And did the two of you have any 9 conversation during that ride relating to this
10 project?

11 A. Not that I can recall specifically.

12 Q. If I understand what you just told me,
13 that you did not go back to the bank at that time.
14 You went the next morning.

15 A. Yes, sir. Probably late afternoon when 16 we got finished.

17 Q. And did you first look at the package
18 when you got back to the bank, or did you look at 19 it before you got to the bank?

20 A. I probably would have looked at the 21 complete package when I got to the bank.

22 Q. Do you recall what was in the package?

23 A. From memory, I know the appraisal was 24 in there. Maybe the folder with who the architect
25 was. Maybe the construction budget.

1 Q. The construction budget?

2 A. Yes, sir. The contract and the budget
3 that was attached to that.

4 Q. So in that package that you received
5 were there any terms of any loans in that package?

6 A. No, sir. I do not recall.

7 Q. Nothing about 2.8 million at this
8 percent? Nothing like that?

9 A. No.

10 Q. And after you looked at the package in 11 the bank did you talk to anyone else in the bank
12 about that package?

13 A. Probably at that point I would have 14 discussed it with Marc Bogan who was there to let 15 him know that a request was going to follow shortly
16 for that project.

17 Q. When you went to work at Ameris, did
18 you begin on a Monday?

19 A. No, sir. It was -- I believe that was 20 a Wednesday or a Thursday.

21 Q. So when you come back -- but you
22 believe that October the 11th, 2007 was a Wednesday
23 or a Thursday?

24 A. Yes, sir. I believe it was a Thursday.

25 Q. But you told me you got married on the

1 14th. Was that on a Thursday?

2 A. That was a Sunday.

3 Q. October 14th?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. I can't figure that out. You have to
6 help me. October the 7th was a Thursday and you
7 got married October 14th. Why would it not be on a
8 Thursday?

9 A. I started on the 11th.

10 Q. 11th. I'm sorry. Thank you. And that 11 was on a Sunday?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And did you go back to work on that 14 Monday?

15 A. I went back to work I believe that
16 Tuesday. Tuesday or Wednesday.

17 Q. The earliest you would have been back
18 to work would be October the 16th or 17th, 2007?

19 A. That sounds correct, yes, sir.

20 Q. And up until that time you hadn't
21 gotten the package yet?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. Now I'm narrowing it down a little bit.
24 Between October the 16th and October
25 the 25th is when you had a call from Mr. Zerbst.

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. My understanding is the grand opening
3 of Ameris Bank was on October the 25th.

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Was that on a Friday?

6 A. That was also on a Thursday.

7 Q. That was on Thursday night. What did
8 you do -- you say you may have called Mr. Bogan.
9 Is that the name?

10 A. Correct. Yes, sir.

11 Q. You may have called him that same day
12 that you went in with the package; is that correct?

13 A. That's correct. He was down the hall,
14 your Honor.

15 Q. He was down the hall?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. And did you have some discussions with 18 Mr. Bogan about the package?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. What did y'all talk about?

21 A. I was letting him know there was going
22 to be a loan request coming his way. Kind of laid
23 out the particulars of the request itself and what
24 we were thinking about in terms of the loan amount,
25 structure. That type of thing.

1 Q. Did you mention to him how you got this
2 package and who you received it from?

3 A. No, sir, not to my knowledge.

4 Q. So at that time when you first spoke
5 with Mr. Bogan about this loan did you speak to him
6 about Mr. Zerbst or Rolando or anything like that?

7 A. I did tell him about Rolando and
8 Mrs. Gibson, my past experience with them,
9 underwriting them with my previous bank.

10 Q. On that occasion you told Mr. Bogan
11 about Rolando and Mrs. Gibson, but not about
12 Mr. Zerbst?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. You didn't mention Mr. Zerbst?

15 A. No, sir.

16 THE COURT: You folks have to bear with 17 me a minute now.

18 BY THE COURT:

19 Q. Plaintiff's Exhibit 28 is a loan
20 commitment memorandum.

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. And that's dated October the 22nd.

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Now, did you have any conversations
25 with anyone else at Ameris Bank regarding this loan

1 between your conversation with Mr. Bogan on the
2 16th or the 17th and you drawing up this loan
3 commitment memorandum?

4 A. I would have probably talked this
5 through with Charles Stroggins, who was a
6 counterpart at that time, a fellow business banker.
7 He was also aware of Miss Gibson from -- he was
8 previously employed at First Reliance as well.

9 Q. Where was he in your chain of command?

10 A. At that time he was a peer. His office
11 was next door, yes, sir.

12 Q. So when you did this loan commitment
13 memorandum, who does that go to?

14 A. That goes through the approval chain.
15 So this initially went to Marc Bogan and then it
16 would have went to John Hipp.

17 Q. So it would have gone to Mr. Bogan
18 first?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Do you have any information or anything
21 you can show me when you gave this to Mr. Bogan?

22 A. No, sir. It would have been between
23 the 22nd and the 25th when the commitment letter
24 was issued. So I would imagine it would either
25 have been the 22nd, your Honor, possibly the 23rd,

1 just knowing the timeline of the emails and the
2 exhibits.

3 Q. That's where all my confusion stems
4 from.

5 A. You kind of go back and look at the 6 email sent to Mr. Hipp, your Honor. I believe that
7 was dated the 23rd. So at that point Marc had seen
8 this, and possibly Mr. Hipp had looked over it.

9 Q. That helps me a lot.
10 So on October the 23rd at 3:40 p.m. you
11 sent an email to Mr. Hipp. That's Plaintiff's 12 Exhibit 29, if you want to look at that in the 13 small book.

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. And why would you send that the very 16 next day to Mr. Hipp and not to Mr. Bogan?

17 A. At that point, your Honor, Marc Bogan
18 had probably looked over the memo and was fine with 19 it to go on ahead to Mr. Hipp.

20 Q. So did Mr. Bogan -- after looking over 21 the loan commitment memo did he talk with you or 22 tell you to talk to Mr. Hipp, or how did you get to 23 Mr. Hipp all of a sudden?

24 A. He probably would have told me to 25 forward it on to Mr. Hipp or he may have forwarded

1 the memo himself.

2 Q. Does Mr. Bogan know Mr. Zerbst?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. How did he know Mr. Zerbst, do you
5 know?

6 A. At that time?

7 Q. Yes.

8 A. I believe Marc may have talked to Karl
9 at some point about Ameris.

10 Q. So Mr. Bogan didn't know Mr. Zerbst
11 from back from First Reliance? He wasn't working 12 with y'all at First Reliance?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. He was at Ameris.

15 So sometime, then, between the time you
16 brought that package back -- at least I know then
17 that Mr. Bogan knew Mr. Zerbst. Is that a fair
18 statement?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. In that Plaintiff's Exhibit 29 where
21 Mr. Hipp responded back to you he said: Thanks.
22 I think we can draw a circle around this one
23 quickly.

24 What did that mean to you?

25 A. I believe once we had the information

1 we needed on the financial statement he requested
2 -- I guess what you don't see is Mr. Hipp either
3 called me or there was another email that he wanted
4 some clarification on the financial statement of 5 what Mrs. Gibson's ownership -- the assets that she
6 listed on her financial statement.

7 Q. That was in another email, wasn't it?

8 A. Correct. That was the follow-up email
9 with Rolando.

10 MR. STEPP: That's a defendant exhibit,
11 your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 BY THE COURT:

14 Q. So on Plaintiff's Exhibit 29 Mr. Hipp
15 writes you back at 7:41 p.m. on 10/23. He says:
16 I think we can draw a circle around it. Is that
17 correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. You sent your email at 3:40 p.m. and
20 you think you had some discussions with Mr. Hipp
21 between 3:40 p.m. and 7:41 p.m.?

22 A. No, sir. That would have been a
23 request before 3:40. I believe Mr. Hipp had looked 24 at the memo package, the financial statement, had 25 questions, and asked me to reach out and get those

1 answers, and at 3:40 I was following up with him to
2 let him know I reached out. Waiting to hear back
3 something. I'll keep you posted.

4 Q. So from 20 minutes to 4:00 until 20
5 minutes to 8:00 you're telling me that Mr. Hipp
6 contacted you and told you to get more information?

7 A. No, sir. The request for information
8 would have taken place before this 3:40 email.

9 Q. Before?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Before your email?

12 A. Yes, sir. It might have been earlier
13 that day. He had some questions or clarifications.
14 I went out and did what he had asked, reached out.
15 And I sent him an email to kind of let him know
16 where we stood at 3:40, and his response was at 17 7:40, that email.

18 Q. So you had already asked for the 19 information --

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. -- that you tell me Mr. Hipp had
22 requested, and he gave this "I think we can circle
23 it" before he saw that information.

24 A. Yes, sir. I mean, that's what his 25 response was, sir.

1 Q. And Defendant's Exhibit 21, that's
2 where you sent Rolando and asked him some
3 questions. Defendant's Exhibit 21.

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And that was done at 10/23 at 6 6:47 p.m.; correct?

7 A. Correct. And at that point, your
8 Honor, I more than likely called Linda, left a
9 message or I didn't get an answer, and I composed
10 that email seeking Rolando to respond, seeking his 11 information.

12 Q. And when did you get your response from 13 Rolando? if you did get a response.

14 THE WITNESS: Do you have that 15 defendant's exhibit number?

16 MR. STEPP: 24.

17 BY THE COURT:

18 Q. So I've got Defendant's Exhibit 24.

19 A. That looks correct.

20 Q. And does that show Rolando's response?

21 A. It does. What he does is he went in 22 and filled in the body of my question of the second
23 -- I guess you call it the second paragraph. That 24 looks like my request that I was asking. This 25 statement that starts "all real estate assets" on

1 down, he went in and typed that into the bottom of
2 the email replying to me.

3 Q. But I can't tell from that when that
4 reply came to you. I see there where you then sent
5 it to Mr. Hipp 10/14 at 5:35

6 A. Yes, sir. I can't tell either. This
7 could have been a case where I copied and pasted
8 his responses into an email to Mr. Hipp and 9 Mr. Bogan.

10 Q. And 10/24 -- that would have been on 11 the next Wednesday.

12 A. Correct. That would have been the 13 following day from the initial request for 14 information.

15 Q. And what, if anything, did you hear
16 after you sent that to Mr. Hipp?

17 A. Once we got this information and --
18 Yeah. The real estate ownership -- the financial 19 statement was attached. It had all the percentages
20 on the assets.

21 Q. Did you get anything from Mr. Hipp to 22 say not only circle it, now you can seal the deal?
23 Did you get any information from him like that?

24 A. Mr. Hipp took this information on that 25 statement. This would have been the following day.

1 This was the day of the grand opening.

2 Q. On 10/24 you hadn't heard -- you think
3 you heard from him the following day?

4 A. Correct. Because this was at 5:27.
5 The following day, that morning, Marc Bogan and I
6 went out and called on Rolando as part of our call
7 blitz before the grand opening.

8 Q. So you and Mr. Bogan went to see
9 Mr. Rolando where?

10 A. At the apartment complex. I wanted to 11 show Marc the collateral and the vision for the 12 collateral.

13 Q. What time of day?

14 A. That would have been early in the 15 morning. Probably 10 o'clock, 10:30.

16 Q. Was anybody else there?

17 A. Rolando was there. His wife may have 18 been there. I can't say that for a fact.
19 I believe she was.

20 Q. And then after you went to visit the 21 complex with Mr. Bogan and Mr. Rolando what did you
22 do next on 10/25?

23 A. Marc and I -- Marc Bogan, that is -- 24 probably went on two, three, four more times to 25 various customers. Got back to the bank. I

1 relayed this information that Rolando. Sent in the
2 email with the financial statement to Mr. Hipp.

3 Q. How did you do that?

4 A. He was on the site. He was there for
5 the grand opening of the party.

6 Q. So you relayed this to him at the grand
7 opening party or before it started?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. What did you relay to him? Something
10 verbal?

11 A. We were sitting down meeting in my 12 office and he was looking over the memo and he was 13 looking over the financial statement, and that's 14 when he had the suggestion about taking the Klister
15 Lane property as collateral.

16 Q. The Klister Lane property, is that 17 something that I should be aware of?

18 MR. STEPP: The cell tower.

19 A. That was the cell tower. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And then from there you drew up -- what
21 was signed on 10/25 at the party? Do you recall
22 that exhibit number?

23 MR. JORDAN: No. 26, defendant's.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 Q. (Continued) How do you describe

1 Defendant's No. 26? What is that?

2 A. That's a commitment letter.

3 What transpired before that was
4 Mr. Hipp requested that we take Klister Lane
5 property as additional collateral, because that
6 property had cash flow coming in off the cell tower
7 lease. It would help supplement the apartments
8 during construction. Because there would be
9 vacancies, people would have to move out, and you
10 would have natural vacancies.

11 His thought process was if we take this 12 and we get an assignment of rent, we'll have 13 additional cash to help overcome the shortfall.

14 Q. And you then worked this up. And you
15 told me on the 25th at 10 o'clock you were at the 16 apartment complex, and then you and Mr. Bogan went 17 to some other customers and then you came and had a
18 meeting with Mr. Hipp. And so what time did the 19 party start?

20 A. I would say probably about 6 o'clock.

21 Q. 6 o'clock?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. So after doing all that sometime
24 between your meeting with Mr. Hipp -- and you don't 25 remember what time that was, do you?

1 A. It would have been probably shortly
2 after lunchtime. Because, your Honor, after the
3 meeting with Mr. Hipp I reached out to Rolando and
4 relayed to him that we would need to take Klister
5 Lane as additional collateral.

6 Q. Did you reach out to Miss Gibson during 7 that time to tell her that?

8 A. No, sir. He was to relay that to 9 Miss Gibson, and they were going to be in 10 attendance that night at the party.

11 Q. Prior to your going to the project with 12 Mr. Bogan on the morning of 10/25 did you have any 13 idea that you would be giving a commitment letter
14 that night at the party?

15 A. We had a good idea.

16 Q. You did. Tell me how you had that
17 idea.

18 A. At that point Marc had reviewed the 19 memo. Mr. Hipp had reviewed the memo. He wanted
20 some clarification on those questions which we got 21 the night before at 5:47 or whenever the email from 22 Rolando came in. After meeting with Rolando at the 23 project -- Marc seen the project. He was 24 comfortable with the deal -- we reported to 25 Mr. Hipp.

1 Q. Did they tell you to hurry up and get
2 it done? Is that the normal way you handle a
3 commitment letter?

4 A. No, sir. The pressure was coming from 5 the borrower's side because they were supposed to 6 close, and that's really how this supposedly came
7 to be. Because the previous bank was putting them
8 off and dragging their feet on getting it approved.

9 Q. So when were they supposed to close?
10 That's something I hadn't heard. And how did you
11 know when they were supposed to be closing?

12 A. From what we understood, they wanted to 13 close as soon as possible.

14 Q. Who is "we?"

15 A. Rolando and Miss Gibson. They were 16 getting pressure themselves.

17 Q. So Rolando was telling you he was 18 getting pressure and they wanted to close as soon
19 as possible.

20 Who is the "we?" You and who else
21 wanted to close as soon as possible?

22 A. Me and Marc and Mr. Hipp.

23 Q. In your experience have you ever seen a
24 process like this on a loan commitment? Have you
25 ever done anything like this before?

1 A. This was very unique in the fact that
2 we had a nearly complete package at the time, you
3 know, between the time we went out and met Rolando
4 and a few days later, and then the approval -- we 5 had everything in place in terms of appraisals and 6 that type of thing to get the approval done fairly
7 quickly.

8 The underwriting and such, your Honor
9 -- I had been in underwriting. That's how I
10 started my career in banking. Became a lender,
11 technical underwriter, and then a lender again. So
12 I was very versed in putting a credit memo --
13 I could put one of those together in two or three
14 hours if I had the information I need.

15 Q. Now we're at the party at 6 o'clock,
16 and did you take this with you? Did you have it in 17 an envelope?

18 A. Yes, sir. It was in an envelope in my 19 office.

20 Q. In your office?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. You didn't --

23 A. The party was on site. It was at the 24 bank building, in the bank parking lot.

25 Q. Do you have any idea what time of the

1 evening or afternoon -- where did you go to have
2 Miss Gibson sign this?

3 A. To my knowledge, I don't remember her
4 signing the commitment letter at the party. I
5 remember giving her the commitment letter and going
6 over it, but not to sign it.

7 Q. Was anybody else with you when you gave
8 her the commitment letter?

9 A. Rolando would have been present.
10 Rolando and Linda and Portia, Rolando's wife, as my 11 memory recalls, they were in the lobby of the bank.
12 I went to my office, got the commitment letter,
13 brought it in the lobby and gave it to them. This 14 would have probably been about 9:30 in the evening.

15 Q. No one else from the bank was at this 16 exchange?

17 A. Not at that particular moment. There
18 were people coming in and out, but there wasn't
19 someone right there by my side, no, sir. There
20 wasn't anybody right there by my side.

21 Q. Did that exchange take place in your 22 office or out there --

23 A. In the lobby.

24 Q. In the lobby?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. If and when did you ever get a signed
2 copy from Miss Gibson?

3 A. I'm still not sure if I ever got a
4 signed copy.

5 Q. Would that be unusual?

6 A. Not completely. A commitment letter
7 typically lays out the structure and all the parts
8 and particulars of the loan. Sometimes commitment
9 letters aren't signed before they go to final loan
10 docs and closing.

11 Q. And the actual closing happened
12 November 7th?

13 MR. STEPP: That's a 2.

14 Q. (Continued) To your knowledge had 15 Mr. Bogan ever met Rolando prior to going on the 16 site with him?

17 A. No, sir.

18 Q. But you told me you had talked to 19 Mr. Bogan about Miss Gibson and Rolando; is that
20 correct?

21 A. That's correct. Before that meeting,
22 yes, sir.

23 Q. And you talked with them about your 24 experience that you had with him with the shopping
25 center?

1 A. Right.

2 Q. Have you handled any loan package of
3 this magnitude with this much money -- have you
4 ever handled one like this before in that such
5 short of a time?

6 A. Again, this is a unique situation. The 7 way the package was -- so much of the work was 8 already complete.

9 In terms of the loan approval for that
10 dollar amount, it's not unheard of. No, sir.

11 Q. I get that from Mr. Zerbst. I'm asking
12 you if you've ever done one like that.

13 A. Outside of this, your Honor, no, sir.
14 This was a unique case.

15 Q. That's all I want to know. I get all
16 this inference. I understand the caveat that 17 everybody wants to throw in there, but I want to 18 know about you.

19 A. Not for this size dollar amount, no,
20 sir.

21 Q. So most of your commitment letters and
22 based on the package that Rolando -- that Zerbst
23 handed to Rolando and Rolando gave to you --

24 A. No, sir. Not necessarily.

25 Q. Where did you get any other information

1 aside from that package? Where did that come from?

2 A. We knew the purchase price was going to
3 be 2.8. When we were talking to Rolando we knew it
4 was going to be a rehab. They were going to put
5 700 of their own cash into it, Miss Gibson, that
6 is. So initially the loan amount was going to be
7 2.1, but the draw-up was 2.8.

8 A typical construction loan is going to 9 have a 12-month interest on the period for a rehab.
10 The rate at that time, five plus a quarter, was 11 really the going rate for construction. It's 12 actually a really good rate. 10,000 origination
13 fee, that's fairly arbitrary. It could have been 14 1%; it could have been nothing.

15 Q. All that came from Rolando?

16 A. No. The purchase price we knew from 17 Rolando, the contract and all that good stuff.

18 Q. What I'm trying to determine: Did you
19 sit down with Miss Gibson or anyone else in the 20 bank and say these are the terms. This is how 21 we're going to do this loan?

22 A. That's what is laid out in the 23 commitment letter.

24 Q. I'm asking where did that information
25 come from? Did you gather that from somebody other

1 than Rolando?

2 A. No, sir. I structured that myself just
3 from -- a construction loan is typically 12 months.
4 That is usually the going term on construction
5 loans. The going rate at that time, prime plus a
6 quarter for construction, that was -- I said that 7 was a fair rate. That's probably why the 8 origination rate is tacked on, because it's a
9 fairly low rate for a construction loan. A
10 construction loan is typically five plus one, five 11 plus two.

12 The idea was 12 months to complete the 13 project and then a five year term, which would be
14 12 months interest only and then four years
15 principal and interest. A five year term is very 16 standard in commercial banking. A five year
17 balloon period.

18 Q. What happened to this package that you
19 got from Zerbst to Rolando to you? Does it exist
20 now in the package, or what happened to it?

21 A. I can't say where it exists now. At 22 the time when I closed the loan and during my
23 tenure at Ameris it was in my loan file.

24 THE COURT: Thank you. Do you have any
25 questions from the plaintiff or the defendant?

1 MR. EPTING: Your Honor, I am reading
2 from what is now moved into evidence Exhibit 41,
3 Page 3. The section is entitled "Concluding
4 Observations."

5 A: Ameris operates as the bank holding
6 company for Ameris Bank which has offices in 7 Georgia, Alabama, Florida and South Carolina.

8 B, at the end of March 2002 Ameris Bank
9 had three --

10 MR. STEPP: 12.

11 MR. EPTING: 2012. Ameris Bank had $3
12 billion in assets and 297.7 million in stockholders
13 equity.

14 C: In fiscal year end 2011 Ameris had
15 113 million in net interest income and 31.6 million
16 in income before income taxes.

17 D: In fiscal year end 2011 Ameris had 18 46.2 million in net cash provided by operating 19 activities. This was an average of $887,808 per 20 week and $126,482 per day. At the close of 2011
21 Ameris had 65.5 million in cash and due from banks.

22 F: Based on this preliminary
23 evaluation of Ameris's financial information and 24 data Ameris has a financial ability to pay punitive
25 damages for --

1 twice. That would make a little more sense to me.

2 Okay?

3 MR. JORDAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 MR. WEST: At this time, the plaintiff
5 would call Mr. Geoffrey Southard.

6 THE COURT: Please give me your full
7 name.

8 MR. Southard: Geoffrey Laurence,
9 L-A-U-R-E-N-C-E, Geoffrey with a G, Southard,
10 S-O-U-T-H-A-R-D.

11 GEOFFREY LAURENCE SOUTHARD
12 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

13 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be
14 seated.

15 DIRECT EXAMINATION (QUALIFICATIONS)

16 BY MR. WEST:

17 Q. Good morning, Mr. Southard.

18 A. Good morning, Mr. West.

19 Q. How old are you, sir?

20 A. I am 53 years old.

21 Q. And what is your educational 22 background?

23 A. I was raised in Charleston, went to 24 First Baptist from -- First Baptist Church School
25 from kindergarten all the way through graduation,

1 went to Furman University, did not finish at
2 Furman University, and have been in the real
3 estate business for the last 26 years.

4 Q. Let's talk about your work experience
5 starting from the time you left Furman University.
6 If you will, please, sir, just walk us through
7 your work history.

8 A. Left school, went to work in the hotel
9 business as front desk and that sort of thing for 10 three years, went through that, decided that I
11 wanted to be in the real estate business, went to 12 work for Read & Read in, I believe it was, 1986,
13 worked for Read & Read for approximately two and a
14 half years.

15 Q. Let me stop you right there. What is 16 Read & Read?

17 A. Read & Read is a real estate brokerage
18 firm. It's located at 37 Broad Street, Downtown
19 Charleston.

20 Q. What was your position at Read & Read?

21 A. I started out selling residential
22 properties, and six months from that point, I
23 started on the commercial side of the business.

24 Q. All right, sir. Continue.

25 A. Worked for Read & Read, left their

1 employ, went to work for a company called The
2 Linpro Company. That was a development company.
3 They were in the process of building the
4 Quarterdeck Apartments which was a 230-unit,
5 first-phase-construction apartment complex on
6 James Island. I was in their employ as director
7 of operations for the Charleston office. My 8 position was to find other projects and to 9 complete that project.

10 THE COURT: Could I have the name of 11 that company again?

12 THE WITNESS: Linpro, L-I-N-P-R-O.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 BY MR. WEST:

15 Q. Did you leave the employ of Linpro at 16 some point?

17 A. I did. In -- sometime in 1989, I want
18 to say mid-1989, went to work with another
19 brokerage firm, Batten & Tarrant. Subsequently 20 went to work -- in a commercial capacity once
21 again. Subsequently went to work with Tommy Baker
22 and Gene Reed selling luxury cars.

23 Got back in the real estate business
24 in, I want to say it was, about late '91, '92, and 25 at that point went to work for Atlantic

1 International which became Atlantic International
2 Caldwell Banker Commercial. I was with them for
3 15 years selling commercial real estate, managing
4 commercial real estate and leasing commercial real
5 estate and investment properties.

6 After that, I went to work with Jesco
7 Homes as their land acquisitions manager.

8 Q. And after your employment with Jesco
9 Homes?

10 A. After Jesco Homes, Carolina One, as 11 they were going to build a commercial division,
12 which they did not do, and after that, Agent Owned
13 right here in Moncks Corner.

14 Q. And is that where you're currently 15 employed?

16 A. That is.

17 Q. And what kind of work are you doing
18 with Agent Owned?

19 A. I am doing commercial real estate.

20 Q. So it's fair to say --

21 A. Investment real estate.

22 Q. It's fair to say that the majority of 23 your career, you have been involved in commercial
24 real estate sales?

25 A. Yes, it is.

1 Q. All right, sir. And over the course
2 of your career, have you had occasion to be
3 involved in the purchase and sale of apartment
4 complexes?

5 A. I have.

6 Q. All right, sir. Do you hold any 7 licenses?

8 A. I do.

9 Q. What licenses do you hold?

10 A. South Carolina real estate license.

11 Q. How long have you had that license?

12 A. For 26 years.

13 Q. Have you had any continuing education
14 courses related to real estate sales?

15 A. I have. I've done the continuing 16 education that's necessary for the state to keep 17 up your license. I've done a program called the 18 CCIM program. I've done the first class of that 19 which is CCIM-101 which is all about the financial 20 functions of a real estate -- of investment in 21 real estate property.

22 Q. What does CCIM stand for?

23 A. Certified commercial investment
24 member.

25 Q. All right. Have you testified as an

1 expert before in this court?

2 A. Yes, sir, I have.

3 Q. Do you remember the context and
4 occasion that you testified as an expert in this 5 court?

6 A. Yes, sir. I've testified with Galt
7 Valley after -- in conjunction with this very same
8 property.

9 Q. Okay, sir.

10 MR. WEST: Your Honor, at this time,
11 we would offer Mr. Southard as an expert in 12 commercial real estate sales.

13 THE COURT: Go ahead.

14 MR. JORDAN: Let me ask a few
15 questions.

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION (QUALIFICATIONS)

17 BY MR. JORDAN:

18 Q. Mr. Southard, do you hold a -- you
19 mentioned that you had some of the training for 20 the CCIM. You do not hold that designation, 21 though, do you?

22 A. I do not.

23 Q. And you are not a licensed real estate
24 broker, are you?

25 A. I am not a broker, no.

1 Q. Have you ever been a licensed real
2 estate broker?

3 A. No, I have not.

4 Q. Are you a licensed real estate
5 appraiser?

6 A. No, I'm not.

7 Q. Have you ever been a licensed real
8 estate appraiser?

9 A. No, I've not.

10 MR. JORDAN: Your Honor, we don't
11 object to Mr. Southard's qualifications as a real 12 estate agent. Our concern, which we've noted in 13 our motion in limine, is that they intend for 14 Mr. Southard to testify regarding his opinions of 15 the problems with Mr. Moore's appraisal of this 16 property, and to the extent that he's being 17 offered for that purpose, we don't believe that
18 he's qualified to critique an appraiser's
19 appraisal when he himself is not licensed as an
20 appraiser or a broker.

21 MR. WEST: Your Honor, if I may, he
22 really doesn't know what we're going to offer him
23 to testify concerning because he hasn't testified
24 yet, and I would represent to the Court that by 25 the time Mr. Southard finishes today, that will be

1 become a moot question.

2 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to
3 qualify him as an expert in commercial real estate
4 sales, is what I've been asked to qualify him as.
5 I'm going to do that and let's see where the 6 testimony takes us.

7 MR. WEST: Indulge me just a minute,
8 Your Honor. I'm fighting some allergies.

9 DIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. WEST:

11 Q. Mr. Southard, have you been 12 compensated for your time in this matter?

13 A. I have been.

14 Q. And do you anticipate that you will be 15 compensated for your time in connection with your 16 participation in this case today?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Are you familiar with the Northwoods
19 Garden Apartments?

20 A. Yes, sir, I am.

21 Q. Tell the Court, if you will, when you
22 first became familiar with the Northwoods Garden
23 Apartments.

24 A. The very first time was when the 25 owners before the people that owned the property,

1 Lenny Silverman and Tom Finnegan, owned the
2 property. They lost it in 2003 and -- to the 3 people that sold the property to Miss Gibson.

4 Q. All right. Well, let's take it
5 chronologically, if we can. After your
6 familiarity that you just described, did you have
7 occasion while employed with Jesco Homes to become 8 professionally connected in any way with 9 Northwoods Garden Apartments?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Tell the Court about that, please.

12 A. Miss Gibson's daughter, Elizabeth, was 13 at one time an employee of Jesco Homes. She had 14 left Jesco Homes, and she called us in, I believe 15 it was, late 2007, early 2008 to see if we would 16 be interested in coming and buying -- and looking 17 at the apartments and buying them from 18 Miss Gibson.

19 Q. When you say we, you're talking about 20 Jesco Homes?

21 A. Jesco Homes, correct.

22 Q. Go ahead.

23 A. I went over there, went over to the 24 apartments, met with Elizabeth. I had seen the 25 income and expense statements for the property.

1 She told me what they would need to sell the
2 property for, and I said we wouldn't have any
3 interest because we felt like -- I felt like it
4 was too expensive and was not a property that we
5 would be interested in; we wanted to make money.
6 We didn't feel it would make money.

7 Q. And so Jesco Homes declined to 8 purchase the property?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. Do you remember approximately when it
11 was that that conversation took place with 12 Miss Gibson's daughter?

13 A. Late 2008.

14 Q. All right, sir. And did you do
15 anything other than examine the income and expense
16 statements? Did you physically inspect the 17 property then?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And what did you -- generally
20 speaking, what did you find when you were 21 inquiring for Jesco Homes about the viability of a
22 potential sale?

23 A. I found the property that for the 24 amount of debt that they had on it, we couldn't 25 buy, rehabilitate, invest more money in it and

1 sell and make money.

2 Q. All right, sir. And did you have a
3 subsequent occasion to become professionally
4 associated with the apartment complex properties?

5 A. I did.

6 Q. When and under what circumstances did
7 you have that occasion?

8 A. Miss Gibson or her daughter contacted
9 us, Carolina One, Christina Ellis and myself,
10 asked us to come look at the property and see what
11 we felt the value would be and put a value on it
12 and then market the property for sale.

13 Q. All right. Let's put this in a little
14 context now, if we can. Your earlier testimony
15 was at some point, you left Jesco Homes and went 16 to work for Carolina One --

17 A. That's right.

18 Q. -- is that correct?

19 So the second contact you had with the 20 property was in your capacity as an agent for 21 Carolina One; is that correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. All right, sir. And tell us what you
24 did insofar as any due diligence was concerned in 25 regard to a potential listing of the property

1 while you were employed with Carolina One.

2 A. We -- once again, we got the income
3 and expense, we got a rent roll, we inspected the 4 property, physically inspected the property,
5 learned about the property and its components and 6 the nature of the property. We then came back to 7 Miss Gibson with a value that we felt like the 8 property could sell for.

9 Q. And did you, in fact, take a listing
10 on the property?

11 A. We did.

12 Q. Do you remember when that was?

13 A. It was in December of 2009. I believe
14 that's correct.

15 Q. All right, sir. And what did you
16 recommend to -- if you did, make a recommendation
17 to Miss Gibson on behalf of Heritage Seven to list
18 the property for in December/January time frame?

19 A. We made a -- we suggested a price of a 20 million 5, $1,500,000. I believe that's correct.

21 Q. Excuse me?

22 A. $1,500,000.

23 Q. All right, sir. And is that what the 24 property was listed for?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And did you market the property?

2 A. We did.

3 Q. Describe, if you will, in your own
4 words whether it was an aggressive marketing or
5 some other form, passive marketing. You tell us
6 what kind of marketing took place.

7 A. We felt like it was aggressive. We
8 actively called people, looked for -- we called 9 apartment owners that were right there in the 10 neighborhood, Todd Abedon from -- that owns a
11 property right down the street. We called MCS.
12 We brought all three -- and we called -- oh, gosh
13 -- Anita Zucker's company. We brought all of them
14 out to the property. They inspected the property
15 and none of them made offers.

16 Q. Did anyone ever make an offer during 17 the period of your listing agreement?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. All right. Now, let me backtrack just 20 a little bit to the practice of making a 21 recommendation to your client with regard to 22 value. Is that normal?

23 A. Yes, it is.

24 Q. In your world, clients rely on you to 25 make recommendations with respect to an asking

1 price?

2 A. They don't always listen, but, yes, it
3 is.

4 Q. All right. So it wouldn't be uncommon
5 for you in your professional capacity to make a
6 recommendation to a client?

7 A. No, sir, it would not be.

8 Q. And, in fact, in this case, you made a
9 recommendation?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And tell us, if you will, just by way
12 of reminder, how it is that you arrived at a
13 recommendation of $1.5 million to Heritage Seven
14 when you listed the property.

15 A. We received from Miss Gibson a rent
16 roll. That rent roll has who's in the property,
17 what they pay and the terms of their lease. We 18 also received an income and expense statement,
19 that being how much money is coming in, what
20 they're paying out, and at the bottom, there is a
21 bottom line number which is called the net
22 operating income we arrive at.

23 That net operating income is then
24 given an application to a capitalization rate.
25 That capitalization rate is divided -- the net

1 income is divided by the capitalization rate and a
2 value is arrived -- arrived.

3 Q. And that was the primary basis upon
4 which you recommended the 1.5 million?

5 A. That's correct. And that's because
6 practice -- the practice is that if you're selling
7 an income property, then you analyze the income.

8 Q. Did you --

9 A. That's the heaviest -- for an
10 investor, that's the heaviest qualifier.

11 Q. All right, sir. And that's your
12 standard practice in regard to recommendations
13 with regard to an asking price --

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. -- on an income-producing property?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. All right, sir. Now, let me ask you
18 if you recall what Miss Gibson paid for the 19 property.

20 A. Miss Gibson paid 2.8 million for the 21 property.

22 Q. All right. Now, what is a short sale?

23 A. A short sale is when a property has
24 lost enough value that it no longer meets the debt
25 requirement of the sale.

1 Q. And did you on behalf of Carolina One
2 and Heritage Seven market the property for a
3 potential short sale?

4 A. Yes, we did.

5 Q. And did you get any inquiries in
6 regard to a short sale?

7 A. We received no offers.

8 Q. Did you have regular contact with 9 Miss Gibson during the period that you had the 10 property listed?

11 A. Yes, we did.

12 Q. Generally, if you will, describe your
13 interaction with Miss Gibson during the listing
14 period.

15 A. Miss Gibson was under a lot of stress
16 and really needed to sell the property. She was 17 -- she had health issues. Our interchanges were 18 pleasant, but you could tell, you could see that 19 Miss Gibson was very, very desirous of not being
20 obligated to this property any longer.

21 Q. All right, sir. Did she express that 22 to you?

23 A. Absolutely.

24 Q. Did the listing agreement ultimately
25 expire with Carolina One?

1 A. Yes, sir, it did.

2 Q. Was there any discussion or effort to
3 renew or extend that?

4 A. No, sir, there wasn't.

5 Q. Do you understand why?

6 A. Yes, sir, I do.

7 Q. Why?

8 A. We didn't -- on Carolina One side of 9 it, we didn't feel that we were in a position to 10 sell the property or that the property was in a
11 position to sell. The market wasn't coming to the 12 property nor was the property going to the market.

13 Q. All right, sir. And did that 14 effectively end your relationship with 15 Miss Gibson and Heritage Seven?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. All right. Now, let's move forward in 18 time. Did you have any other professional
19 connection with respect to the apartment complex?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Tell the Court about that.

22 A. In August/September of '10, a
23 gentleman named Michael Danhour contacted us.
24 Michael Danhour was the COO, I believe it is, of a
25 company called Griffin Capital. They were in the

1 process -- which is Galt Valley, and they were in
2 the process of acquiring the note from the bank,
3 whoever that bank may be. I believe it's Ameris.

4 So they asked me to go do a broker --

5 MR. JORDAN: Objection. Hearsay.

6 THE COURT: Tell me what you did as a
7 result of your conversation with this man from 8 Galt Valley.

9 THE WITNESS: I went out and did a
10 broker price opinion, sir.

11 BY MR. WEST:

12 Q. All right. And why did you do a
13 broker price opinion as far as you understand it?

14 A. To help him value the property as he
15 was going through his negotiations with the bank.

16 Q. Do you recall approximately when you
17 were asked to do a broker price opinion for Galt
18 Valley?

19 A. I think it was late August/September.
20 That's the date on the -- that's the date on the 21 BPO.

22 Q. Do you recall the value that you
23 opined to your client?

24 A. I gave them a value of $750,000 as is,
25 1,800,000 renovated.

1 Q. All right, sir. Now, is that the
2 context in which you later testified in court?

3 A. Yes, it is.

4 Q. And you testified essentially to the
5 same opinions that you just shared with the Court?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. All right. And did you have any other
8 involvement in connection with the apartment
9 complex other than the three that you've testified
10 to: the Jesco Homes' situation, Carolina One and 11 then lastly the BPO?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. All right. Now, you indicated in your
14 earlier testimony, Mr. Southard, that you
15 regularly offer recommendations to clients with 16 respect to asking prices and that sort of thing;
17 is that right?

18 A. Correct. Yes, sir.

19 Q. If Linda Gibson had come to you in the 20 fall of 2007 and asked you whether or not it was a
21 good buy to buy the apartment complex for $2.8
22 million, what would you have said?

23 A. I would have said no.

24 Q. And why would you have said that?

25 A. The property -- based on the

1 information that I've seen and been given, the
2 property would not support -- wouldn't support a
3 debt of 2.8 million if that was with 100 percent
4 financing.

5 Q. Have you ever shared in writing as far
6 as you recall to anyone your opinions about what
7 you just testified to regarding the $2.8 million
8 purchase price in any E-mail transmissions?

9 A. Yes, sir, I have.

10 MR. STEPP: Is this something new?

11 MR. WEST: No. This was 10 and 11 to 12 his deposition.

13 MR. JORDAN: Your Honor, we have an
14 objection for the record. This is an E-mail dated
15 August 27th of 2009. The time frame that we're 16 talking about is in the fall of 2007, so we would 17 object to this document as not being relevant.

18 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. West.

19 MR. WEST: If Your Honor please, we,
20 of course, would like to have Mr. Southard
21 identify the document and explain the context in 22 which he wrote these and its relation back to the 23 very question that he has been asked to offer an 24 opinion concerning; so I think it's highly 25 relevant and confirmatory of what his testimony

1 is.

2 THE COURT: Well, was that document
3 admitted earlier in the case?

4 MR. WEST: Yes, sir. I believe it's
5 Plaintiffs' 37.

6 MR. JORDAN: We don't believe it's
7 been admitted, Your Honor.

8 MR. WEST: It's Plaintiffs' 37. If 9 it's not admitted, we are getting ready to offer
10 it.

11 It has not yet been admitted.

12 THE COURT: All right. I'm allowing 13 -- I'll allow it to come in.

14 BY MR. WEST:

15 Q. Mr. Southard, I'm going to hand you a
16 couple of E-mails and ask you if -- starting with 17 the first one in time, a 4:05 p.m. E-mail on 18 Thursday, August 27, 2009. That's been premarked
19 Plaintiffs' Exhibit 37 (tendering) and ask you if 20 you can identify that document, please, sir.

21 A. Yes, sir. That is --

22 Q. Can you tell the Court under what
23 circumstances you authored that document, if that
24 is, in fact, your E-mail?

25 A. William Lewis had asked me my opinion

1 of -- he was -- I believe he was working for Galt
2 Valley. No, no, no. No, no, no. I'm sorry. He
3 was -- he's a counselor here in Charleston at The 4 Richter Firm. They were working for Linda at the 5 time, I believe. And he asked me what my opinion
6 of that particular transaction was, and this is my
7 opinion of that transaction.

8 Q. Summarize what you say in that
9 document, and then if it will help you to read any 10 portions of it, if you would, tell the Court what 11 you said to Mr. Lewis.

12 A. The first statement that I made was it
13 was -- it seemed incredible that Linda paid almost 14 -- well, paid exactly two times the price that the 15 people she bought it from paid in 2003 and the 16 price doubled, but the rents didn't. That was the 17 first observation I made.

18 Q. Well, let's just read -- it's very 19 brief. Read the second --

20 A. Okay. I'm --

21 Q. Please. Excuse me. Just read the 22 second full paragraph. It's just two lines.

23 A. Again, there is no way that this
24 property in this location in its condition at any 25 time was worth anything near the price paid. A

1 look at the income and expense statements will
2 reveal this.

3 MR. WEST: All right. At this time, I
4 would offer Page 1 of Plaintiffs' Exhibit 37 into
5 evidence.

6 THE COURT: All right. Over
7 objection, it's admitted.

8 (PLF. EX. 37, Page 1, was admitted
9 into evidence.)

10 BY MR. WEST:

11 Q. All right, sir. There is a second
12 page to Plaintiffs' Exhibit 11 (tendering) and I'm 13 going to hand you -- excuse me -- 37, and I'm 14 going to hand you that and ask you if you can 15 identify that document. And did you author that 16 document?

17 A. I did.

18 Q. And what was the purpose of that
19 second E-mail which appears to be just a few
20 minutes later that same day?

21 A. As I recall, I wanted to verify what I
22 had said in the earlier E-mail, so I went back and 23 double-checked the rent numbers and looked at 24 those -- looked at those issues again.

25 I'll read: Just looked at the rent

1 numbers Elizabeth sent to me in September of 2008.
2 I ran them assuming that the maximum rents were
3 obtained, $750 for a two-bedroom and $650 for a
4 one-bedroom -- that's per month -- as shown on the
5 September spread sheet for all units. I took a 10
6 percent vacancy factor, 35 percent for expenses,
7 yielding a 9.3 cap rate if at $2.8 million. In 8 other words, no renovations which would prohibit 9 the high rents projected.

10 Q. All right. And then the document, of 11 course, will speak for itself as to the next two 12 paragraphs. But if you will, go to the final full
13 paragraph starting with the words: My opinion.

14 A. My opinion, a 100 percent bad buy at 15 the price paid. No recovery would help this 16 property. The only thing that would sustain it is 17 throwing more money -- more equity at it given it
18 -- and giving it value over time/years
19 (tendering).

20 MR. WEST: Your Honor, at this time, I
21 would offer this second page of Plaintiffs'
22 Exhibit 37 into evidence (tendering).

23 THE COURT: It's admitted over
24 objection.

1 (PLF. EX. 37, Page 2, was admitted
2 into evidence.)

3 MR. WEST: Indulge me just a moment,
4 Judge.

5 No further questions, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: You may cross-examine.

7 MR. JORDAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 CROSS-EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. JORDAN:

10 Q. Good morning, Mr. Southard.

11 A. Good morning.

12 Q. I want to make sure, first of all,
13 that we have our time frame down. I understood
14 you to say that sometime prior to or around 2003,
15 you had seen this property when someone else owned
16 it; is that correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Now, the first time that you
19 went out to this property in connection with 20 Heritage Seven or Miss Gibson was when Jesco, your 21 company, was considering purchasing it, correct?

22 A. It's when we were asked to look at it,
23 yes.

24 Q. Okay. And that, in fact, was late
25 2008 or early 2009, correct?

1 A. That's what I recall, yes.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. I remember it being cold.

4 Q. The next time that you went out to the
5 property, that would have been early 2009 when you
6 were asked to consider listing it for Heritage
7 Seven and Miss Gibson; is that correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And in your opinion, when you went out
10 there in connection with considering listing it
11 for Miss Gibson and Heritage Seven, it's your 12 opinion that the property was in worse condition
13 then than when you went out to look at it in 14 connection to whether Jesco wanted to purchase it;
15 is that correct?

16 A. It was going -- yes, it was getting 17 less serviceable.

18 Q. All right. So from the end of 2008
19 into early 2009, in your opinion, the property was 20 in worse condition?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And then it was the fall of 2010 that
23 you completed your broker's price opinion,
24 correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And when you went to do your broker's
2 price opinion, in your opinion at that point, the 3 value of the property had gone down from what it
4 would have been when you went out and looked at it
5 in late 2008 and early 2009, correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. So from late '08 into the fall of 8 2010, in your opinion, the property's value
9 continued to decline?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. You talked about when Carolina One,
12 your company, listed the property, it listed it
13 for one year; is that correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And Mr. West asked you some questions
16 about why Carolina One didn't renew that listing.
17 Do you remember that question?

18 A. Yes, I do.

19 Q. Now, in fact, when the listing
20 expired, you were no longer with Carolina One,
21 were you?

22 A. No, I was not.

23 Q. Okay. So it wasn't -- you weren't
24 even working for the company that would decide
25 whether or not it wanted to renew the listing,

1 correct?

2 A. I was still -- to explain it, I was
3 still a licensed agent, and Christina Ellis and I
4 were still working together to sell the property
5 even though we were at different companies.

6 Q. Okay. Was there a joint listing with 7 your new company?

8 A. No. Nothing in writing.

9 Q. You talked about the information that
10 you obtained from Heritage Seven and Mrs. Gibson
11 in order to list the property. Everything that 12 you had concerning the rents and all of the 13 information about the property, you obtained that 14 from Miss Gibson, correct?

15 A. From Miss Gibson or her daughter, yes.

16 Q. You testified that if Miss Gibson had 17 asked you whether or not she should purchase this 18 property in the fall of 2007 for $2.8 million,
19 that you would not have recommended that, correct?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. But in the fall of 2007, you had never
22 gone out to the property and done any inspections
23 to determine its value, correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. Let me ask you, Mr. Southard, do you

1 know whether Miss Gibson asked for rent rolls when
2 she was purchasing the property?

3 A. I don't know that she did. May I?

4 I do know that there was a rent roll
5 in the appraisal. I don't know if Miss Gibson
6 ever viewed that rent roll.

7 Q. You don't know whether she did or not?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay. Do you know who set the 10 purchase price of $2.8 million?

11 A. No, I do not.

12 MR. JORDAN: Nothing further, Your
13 Honor.

14 MR. WEST: Nothing on redirect, Your
15 Honor.

16 THE COURT: You may step down.

17 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

18 MR. WEST: If Your Honor please, may 19 this witness be excused?

20 MR. STEPP: No objection.

21 THE COURT: You may be excused.

22 MR. KEFALOS: Your Honor, that
23 concludes the plaintiffs' case.

24 THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Stepp.
25 Yes?

1 sufficient to support a prima facie case for
2 punitive damages. To the extent there's any
3 liability that the Court may perceive here, which,
4 of course, we would deny, it's simply a case of 5 negligence at best, not gross negligence or 6 anything else, and so we would seek dismissal of 7 the claim for punitive damages at this point.

8 As I said, Your Honor, I'm happy to 9 talk about these some more. I'm sure you probably 10 want to hear the rest of the evidence. I just 11 want to protect my record.

12 THE COURT: Yeah. Okay. I'll deny
13 your motion at this time.

14 MR. STEPP: Thank you, Your Honor.
15 If we're ready for the defense case at this time?

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 MR. STEPP: Your Honor, Ameris Bank
18 would call Bill Barksdale, please.

19 THE COURT: State your full name.

20 MR. BARKSDALE: My name is William
21 Collyar, C-O-L-L-Y-A-R, Barksdale, Jr.

23 seated.

24 WILLIAM COLLYAR BARKSDALE, JR.,
25 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

1 DIRECT EXAMINATION (QUALIFICATIONS)

2 BY MR. STEPP:

3 Q. Good morning, Mr. Barksdale. You've
4 just given us your name. Tell me a little bit
5 about what you do, please. Where are you
6 currently employed?

7 A. Barksdale & Associates. I'm a
8 consultant with attorneys and commercial
9 transactions and litigation.

10 Q. Okay. Relating to banking issues?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Tell me a little bit about your 13 education, please.

14 A. Graduate of Laurens High School,
15 attended The Citadel briefly, went to the 16 University of South Carolina, received an AB
17 degree in English in 1964, went into banking,
18 decided I could read pretty well, but I needed to 19 learn how to count better, so I got a master's 20 degree in business administration.

21 Went to work for South Carolina
22 National Bank, took a number of American Institute
23 of Banking courses and have taken all four of 24 their certificates: basic, standard, advanced to 25 graduate. I got a certificate from the Stonier

1 Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University
2 and then primarily got into teaching in the 3 banking arena through trade associations.

4 Q. Okay. Let me get some exhibits in
5 front of you.

6 MR. STEPP: Excuse me, Your Honor.

7 BY MR. STEPP:

8 Q. You've got two notebooks of exhibits
9 in front of you. Sort of the thicker one are the 10 defendant's exhibits, and I'd ask you to turn to 11 Exhibit 19 in that notebook, please, which, I
12 believe, if I've got it right, is a copy of your 13 resume.

14 A. Yes. I see it.

15 Q. Okay. And is this -- is Exhibit 19 an 16 accurate depiction of your education and 17 experience in the world of banking and 18 banking-related issues?

19 A. It is.

20 MR. STEPP: We'd offer that into 21 evidence as Defendant's Exhibit 19, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Any objection?

23 MR. WEST: No objection, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: It's admitted.

25

1 (DFT. EX. 19 was admitted into
2 evidence.)

3 BY MR. STEPP:

4 Q. Now, I want to go back to your
5 education a little bit. You talked about, you got
6 an MBA in finance from USC; was that right?

7 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

8 Q. Now, what other banking education have
9 you received over the course of your career?

10 A. Well, as I said earlier, I took a
11 number of AIB courses, American Institute of 12 Banking.

13 Q. Okay. Tell me what that is. Tell the 14 Court what that is.

15 A. Okay. American Institute of Banking
16 is the education arm of the American Bankers
17 Association. It's evolved over time. When I was 18 an AIB instructor and was taking those courses,
19 they were taught locally in classrooms. Now, it's 20 an international on-line, instructor-led and some 21 self-paced-instruction educational organization.

22 Q. Okay. And have you attended the 23 Stonier Graduate School of Banking?

24 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

25 Q. Tell me what that is.

1 A. Stonier Graduate School of Banking is
2 one of a number of three-year, three-summer
3 banking schools, graduate -- at the graduate level
4 in the United States. This one is run by the
5 American Bankers Association and has been since
6 1935.

7 Q. Okay. What about, you've been at the 8 University of Wisconsin at Madison Graduate
9 School?

10 A. I've taught at GSB Madison for about
11 12 years previously.

12 Q. Well, I sort of jumped ahead. I was 13 trying to get your own educational experience.
14 You've been to --

15 A. I've taught there.

16 Q. Okay. Let's hold that for a moment.
17 Have you attended or received any formal education
18 in banking besides USC and the Stonier Graduate
19 School of Banking?

20 A. Other than the AIB certificates, yes.
21 That's correct.

22 Q. Now, over the course of your career,
23 have you taught courses in banking? And, if so,
24 tell me where and what you've done.

25 A. Yes, sir. I started teaching AIB

1 courses, the American Institute of Banking
2 courses, in the Columbia -- the Columbia Chapter,
3 and I did that for probably 15 or more years.

4 My next teaching experience was at the 5 South Carolina Bankers School. I taught there for 6 32 years in the commercial lending curriculum, and
7 then I was, of course, coordinator for them.

8 The next would have been Graduate
9 School -- excuse me -- the Stonier Graduate School
10 of Banking. I taught there for 19 years in 11 commercial lending and loan portfolio management.
12 I taught at the GSB Madison, University of 13 Wisconsin, for about 12 years.

14 Then I most recently taught at the
15 Barret School of Banking at Christian Brothers
16 University in Memphis problem loans and workouts
17 for three or four years. I've done work for the 18 Colorado Graduate School of Banking and support
19 work in reading papers on analyzing bank financial
20 performance and did the like work for the Pacific
21 Coast Banking School at University of Washington.

22 Q. Okay. I'm looking down here and I
23 see --

24 A. I've also taught at the Risk
25 Management Associates, RMA, Commercial Lending

1 Workshop at East Carolina University. I did that
2 for about 13 years.

3 Q. Over what period of time,
4 Mr. Barksdale, have you been teaching courses,
5 advanced courses in banking-related issues?

6 A. Probably I started in 1970 or so.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. Also, the Risk Management Association
9 and the International Association of Risk Managers
10 of which I was involved in chapter work and also a
11 national director. I taught for them for a number
12 of years UCA Cash Flow, problems and workouts and 13 analyzing financial statements around the country.

14 Q. Okay. Let's talk about your 15 employment in the banking industry. Where have 16 you been employed and what have you done, please?

17 A. I started with State Bank & Trust
18 Company in 1965. That was pre going back to 19 graduate school, but I got a good, strong
20 foundation in bank operations and understanding
21 how banks operate. Finished the MBA program, went 22 to work for South Carolina National Bank and moved
23 into their commercial lending area as a credit
24 analyst, worked in the credit analysis area, then 25 was named the manager of the credit department for

1 the Columbia operation of the bank at the time.

2 Then subsequent to that, I moved up as
3 a special executive assistant to the director of 4 banking for credit matters, then was subsequently
5 promoted to the manager of the central credit
6 department and then as the chief credit officer of 7 the South Carolina National Bank.

8 Q. Okay. And over what period of time
9 were you actively employed in the banking
10 industry?

11 A. Until 1997 when I got an early
12 retirement.

13 Q. Okay. And you've been employed as a
14 consultant with respect to banking issues since 15 1997?

16 A. In addition to the educational part,
17 yes. I have been doing consulting for three
18 years. I worked the Business Development
19 Corporation of South Carolina that specializes in 20 making small business administration guaranteed
21 loans and 504 debentures.

22 Q. Okay. Have you served as an expert
23 witness anywhere in South Carolina previously?

24 A. Yes, sir, I have.

25 Q. And have you been qualified as an

1 expert with respect to banking-related issues?

2 A. I have.

3 MR. STEPP: All right. Your Honor, at
4 this time, we would proffer Mr. Barksdale as an
5 expert in banking and lending.

6 THE COURT: Any objections?

7 MR. KEFALOS: No objection.

8 THE COURT: All right. He's 9 qualified.

10 MR. STEPP: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 DIRECT EXAMINATION

12 BY MR. STEPP:

13 Q. All right. Mr. Barksdale, what all
14 have you looked at in connection with your 15 engagement in this case?

16 A. I looked at the lending documents, the 17 note, mortgage, all the agreements that were 18 involved with this transaction. I looked at all
19 the internal correspondence among the parties,
20 looked at the appraisal that was involved in this 21 transaction. Of course, I've reviewed the 22 transcript to date of this action.

23 Q. From when we were here in May?

24 A. When you were here in May.

25 Also have reviewed, of course, my own

1 deposition transcript. I attended Mr. Hartnett's
2 deposition, did not get a transcript of his. Read
3 Mrs. Gibson's deposition, the depositions of 4 Mr. Zerbst and Mr. Lanier, the deposition of 5 Mr. Rolando Villavicencio and one deposition of 6 Mr. Finn who, I believe, was with Re/Max Realty.

7 Q. All right. Have you read the 8 pleadings, the --

9 A. I have read the pleadings and the 10 responses and the discovery documents and all of 11 that.

12 Q. Okay. Based upon the work that you
13 have done in this case, Mr. Barksdale, have you 14 formed any opinions about any of the issues in 15 this case?

16 A. I have.

17 Q. Can you tell Judge Watson what
18 opinions you formed, please, generally? And we'll 19 come back to them.

20 A. Generally, in 2007 when this loan was 21 approved and made, it was in my opinion made in 22 accordance with the general, standard banking
23 practices and procedures and they followed their 24 internal procedures as far as approving loans are 25 concerned. It was documented appropriately, funds

1 were dispersed appropriately and the loan was made
2 properly.

3 Q. All right. Have you had an
4 opportunity to form any opinion about whether this
5 loan as structured constituted 100 percent
6 financing for this project?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what opinion did you form about
9 that?

10 A. Not 100 percent financing.

11 Q. Okay. Have you formed an opinion --
12 and you may have just said this, but let me make 13 sure I understand -- whether anything concerning
14 the structure of this loan or the collateral or 15 repayment terms is in any way unusual or out of 16 the ordinary from normal banking standards?

17 A. Not out of the ordinary at all.

18 Q. Okay. Have you had an occasion to 19 examine the internal policies of Ameris Bank with 20 respect to commercial lending and real estate
21 lending specifically?

22 A. Yes, a limited -- limited information
23 about them.

24 Q. All right. And have you formed any 25 opinion and are prepared to offer any opinion

1 today about the reason that those policies exist
2 and for whose benefits they are put in place?

3 A. Well, banks have policies and
4 procedures because they are required by regulation
5 to have policies and procedures, but they're
6 required to have policies and procedures so that 7 they can operate in a proper way, and those
8 policies and procedures are designed to control
9 the lending of the bank. They're designed to be 10 established to protect the bank.

11 Q. Okay. We may come to a couple more as 12 we go through, but is that generally the opinions
13 that you formed and you want to talk about this 14 morning?

15 A. Generally, yes.

16 Q. All right. Let's talk about
17 commercial lending and the commercial loan process
18 generally first.

19 How does a commercial loan -- how does
20 it originate? How does it start? Who calls who?

21 A. Generally, the person who wants to 22 borrow the money comes to the bank with a
23 proposition.

24 Q. Okay. And is that person always the
25 borrower?

1 A. Not necessarily.

2 Q. Well, who else might it be?

3 A. It might be someone that they've hired
4 to find loans. There are brokers out there that
5 broker credits. There are also advisors to people
6 and that could vary from an attorney to an
7 accountant, to a realtor, to a real estate broker,
8 to any number of people that could be advising
9 people on investments.

10 Q. Is there anything wrong with the bank
11 dealing with somebody that they understand to be 12 the agent of a prospective borrower?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Okay. Now, is there such a thing as a
15 standard commercial loan application?

16 A. Not a standard loan application.
17 Banks may have various forms of checklists of 18 information that they ask for in order to 19 underwrite a loan.

20 Q. Well, what information does a bank
21 usually require the borrower to provide in order
22 to consider a loan request?

23 A. A description of the purpose of the 24 loan, what the money would be used for. Then they 25 would provide the typical financial information on

1 the project or on the guarantors which would
2 include financial statements. Also tax returns,
3 things of that nature.

4 Q. Okay. When a loan -- commercial loan
5 request is made, is it generally made for a
6 specific amount of money?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And if it's to finance the acquisition
9 of property, is the price of the property
10 generally already established?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Does the borrower generally come and 13 propose repayment terms as a part of the request?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And is generally certain collateral
16 offered to the bank?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Now, when the bank takes all that
19 information, what is the bank's job? What does
20 the bank then undertake to do in considering a
21 loan request?

22 A. To entertain the loan request, to
23 analyze it, determine that it would be within 24 their policies and procedures and normal
25 underwriting practices. They would analyze the

1 financial information. They'd analyze the
2 information relating to the project itself with
3 respect to income, because the bank is interested
4 in finding out if they lend the money, if they're
5 going to be repaid.

6 Q. Well, what sources of repayment does
7 the bank usually consider?

8 A. Well, there are three ways to repay a
9 loan. One is you can deposit more in your
10 checking account and write checks for it. That's 11 the operating cash flow of the entity. Another is 12 to borrow from another source, and the other would 13 be to sell an asset that you own.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. But the bank's not looking to recover
16 -- to be repaid back from the -- from the last 17 two, but they're looking to be repaid from the 18 cash flow of the project.

19 Q. And so to that extent, is the bank
20 interested in trying to determine if it thinks the 21 project's going to be a success?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. If the project's not a success,
24 though, does the bank have some other source of 25 repayment as well?

1 A. Well, it depends on how the loan's
2 structured. It could be going against collateral,
3 it could be going against a guarantor --

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. -- or getting additional collateral or
6 restructuring the loan.

7 Q. Okay. Well, I guess my question is,
8 Mr. Barksdale, is the bank solely looking to the 9 success of the project as a means of repayment
10 when it's considering whether to approve a loan?

11 A. No.

12 Q. What other source of repayment?

13 A. They would be looking at other --
14 secondary sources of repayment which could be the 15 sale of collateral. They could be looking to the 16 guarantor and the wherewithal of the guarantor and 17 further assets that the guarantor may own or 18 possess that could be liquidated or turned into 19 cash to repay. That's the overall -- the overall
20 evaluation of the repayment of the loan.

21 Q. When the bank is looking to determine
22 if it thinks the project's going to be a success,
23 now, for whose benefit is the bank acting in that
24 situation?

25 A. Obviously, for the benefit of the

1 bank.

2 Q. Well, what about the borrower?

3 A. Well, the borrower has come to borrow
4 the money and they feel that it's going to be 5 successful by virtue of their expertise and their 6 handling of the entity that's going to generate
7 the income.

8 Q. If a bank approves a commercial loan
9 request, does that mean the bank thinks that the 10 project is a good deal?

11 A. Well, they think that there's a very
12 high probability they're going to be repaid.

13 Q. Would a bank typically in your 14 experience ever approve a loan that it thought was 15 not a good deal or whether the project was going
16 to fail?

17 A. The answer to that would be obvious.
18 No, they wouldn't, because they're not in the 19 business of making loans to projects they think
20 are going to fail.

21 Q. Well, if the bank determines that it
22 thinks the project is a good deal and it approves
23 the loan, what risk is the bank taking at that
24 point?

25 A. Change in circumstances or the loan --

1 I mean, the source of repayment does not
2 materialize.

3 Q. Is the bank -- in approving a loan
4 request, is the bank guaranteeing that the
5 assumptions made by the borrower are going to come
6 true?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Is the bank guaranteeing that all of 9 the information provided by the borrower is 10 accurate and correct?

11 A. Well, you would hope it would be.

12 Q. But is the bank guaranteeing that?

13 A. It's not guaranteeing it at all, no.

14 Q. Is the bank guaranteeing that the 15 project's going to perform in the way the borrower
16 thinks the project is going to --

17 A. No.

18 Q. Now, if a bank approves a commercial
19 loan request, what is the borrower's risk? Does
20 that mean the borrower has no risk at that point
21 if the bank approves the loan?

22 A. The borrower has invested their equity
23 and they are at risk if the project is going to 24 fail.

25 Q. And how might the project fail?

1 A. Projects can fail in many ways. It
2 could be because of mismanagement. It could be
3 because markets don't develop. It could be an 4 apartment complex they don't get the rent rolls or 5 a contractor goes broke. I mean, any number of 6 things that are unanticipated could happen.

7 Q. And if those unanticipated things come
8 to pass, does that mean the bank's not entitled to 9 get repaid?

10 A. The bank is entitled to be repaid on 11 the note, yes.

12 Q. Okay. And are those risks that the 13 borrower has taken in undertaking the project?

14 A. They have.

15 Q. Look at, in the big notebook, Exhibit
16 34, if you would, please.

17 A. Promissory note?

18 Q. Yes. Now, that's the note that 19 Heritage Seven signed in the present case; is that
20 correct?

21 A. It appears to be.

22 Q. Now, you've read that before, haven't
23 you?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Take a look at it if you need to.

1 You've reviewed that?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Is -- well, let's get real -- so let's
4 get real basic. What is a promissory note?

5 A. It's a promise to pay a sum certain at 6 a certain point in time given the terms of the 7 note.

8 Q. Is the promise to pay in Exhibit 34
9 conditioned upon the success of the project?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Is it conditioned upon any of the 12 assumptions that were made during the time the 13 loan was being underwritten?

14 A. No; it's a promissory note. It's a
15 no-closed note. They got the money. They got to 16 pay it back no matter what happens after that.

17 Q. Okay. Well, if the borrower signs a
18 promissory note, something happens and the 19 project's not a success, what is the borrower
20 supposed to do?

21 A. Repay the money.

22 Q. Well, how can you do that if the 23 project's not successful?

24 A. From another source of cash.

25 Q. I think I asked you this, but do banks

1 make loans for projects they think are not going
2 to succeed?

3 A. They shouldn't. But, no, typically,
4 they don't.

5 Q. Well, why not?

6 A. Because they would not get repaid or
7 they'd have to foreclose. They would have to go
8 against the guarantors. They'd have to get into 9 some sort of collection process that they wouldn't 10 -- they certainly would want to avoid.

11 Q. Well, what about, you know, we hear
12 banks charge fees for making loans. Don't banks
13 just make any old loan so they can get a fee?

14 A. Absolutely not.

15 Q. Well, why not?

16 A. That's not -- fees -- fees don't drive
17 it. Fees are part of it. I mean, you make a loan
18 to get to interest in -- let's put it this way.
19 Interest income is the largest single source of 20 income for any bank.

21 Q. Okay. Well, what about to get to 22 collateral? If the borrower -- if there's a
23 guarantor that's got a lot of other collateral, do
24 banks make loans so they can get to the 25 guarantor's other collateral?

1 A. They don't want to.

2 Q. Well, why not?

3 A. Well, the transaction should stand on 4 its own. But if you get into a situation where 5 they're in default, they have not paid the loan in 6 accordance with the terms of the note, and then
7 you may be looking to other collateral to see if
8 they can shore it up, make additional investment
9 of whatever is a part of the workout process.

10 Q. Does it cost the bank more to try to 11 pursue these other remedies than it does just to 12 get repaid if the project's a success?

13 A. Oh, absolutely.

14 Q. Does it take more time?

15 A. Absolutely.

16 Q. Do the banks generally come out ahead
17 if one is going to default?

18 A. They do not.

19 Q. Is that why banks try to not make 20 loans they think won't succeed?

21 A. That is exactly correct.

22 Q. Now, let's talk a little bit about the 23 underwriting process and the borrower's due
24 diligence. What -- when a loan request comes to 25 the bank, does the bank expect that the borrower

1 will have thoroughly investigated whatever the
2 transaction is that the bank's being asked to 3 finance?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And is that a reasonable assumption
6 and belief?

7 A. Yes. They're making an independent
8 investment decision that they are going to need to 9 -- based on their analysis, they're going to need
10 to leverage with borrowed funds.

11 Q. Well, is it the bank's job to do the 12 same due diligence as the borrower would do?

13 A. No. They would review the due
14 diligence that the borrower had done.

15 Q. Is the bank capable of doing the same
16 due diligence that the borrower would do?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Why not?

19 A. Well, I mean, they're not in the real
20 estate investment business. They may know
21 something about real estate transactions and they 22 can analyze the information that's brought to 23 them, but they're not experts in lots of different
24 things. You're not experts in widget
25 manufacturing. If you find somebody that has had

1 a track record as a widget manufacturer and they
2 want to expand their widget manufacturing company,
3 then you will rely on the expertise of the widget
4 manufacturer.

5 Q. Okay. Are banks contractors?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Do they understand as well as a
8 contractor would what it would cost to build or 9 rehabilitate a property?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Are they real estate brokers or 12 agents?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Are they appraisers?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Are they property managers?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Are they apartment owners?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Well, how does the bank then look to 21 the borrower, the borrower's due diligence, to 22 help the bank make its decision whether to make
23 the loan?

24 A. Well, that's an important part of the 25 decision-making process.

1 Q. What is?

2 A. The due diligence that's done by the
3 prospective borrower.

4 Q. And, in fact, does the bank rely on
5 that borrower's due diligence in making a decision
6 whether to approve a loan?

7 A. It does.

8 Q. Now, does the bank have some duty to 9 keep the borrower from making a bad deal?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Why not?

12 A. Because the bank is making a loan to 13 make interest income in the anticipation it is 14 going to be paid back. If the bank decides that 15 there's too much risk involved with there's not 16 enough collateral or enough cash flow, conditions
17 aren't right, whatever, they can just turn it
18 down --

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. -- to avoid risk.

21 Q. And if they don't turn it down, what
22 does that mean?

23 A. That means that they think it's an
24 acceptable and bankable risk.

25 Q. And if they think it's an acceptable

1 and bankable risk, is there any problem in your
2 experience with telling that to the borrower?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Is that a guarantee of a project?

5 A. No.

6 But if you give them a commitment
7 letter, you've affirmed that you think it's an 8 acceptable risk to the bank.

9 Q. Okay. And is a commitment letter a
10 guarantee that the project's going to be a
11 success?

12 A. Absolutely not. It's an offer to lend
13 them the money, and then if the project's not a
14 success, that's happened after the decision has 15 been made.

16 Q. Let's talk about appraisals a little
17 bit. As a part of a real estate connected loan,
18 at least, would an appraisal be sort of a standard
19 part of the underwriting that a bank does?

20 A. It would be.

21 Q. The bank doesn't do its own appraisal,
22 does it?

23 A. No. They will review them when they 24 come in.

25 Q. Okay. Well, I mean, why does a bank

1 get an appraisal from a third party?

2 A. You want an independent evaluation of 3 the property. And it's an opinion based on
4 assumptions.

5 Q. Right. Is the bank qualified to make
6 its own appraisal?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Is it reasonable for a bank to rely on 9 the -- an appraisal supplied by a third party
10 appraiser?

11 A. No. I mean, it is reasonable. That's 12 not prohibited.

13 Q. Yeah. Okay. And if the appraiser is 14 reputable and approved by the bank, is there any 15 reason that the bank should not be able to rely on 16 what that appraisal says?

17 A. No. That was stated in their loan
18 policy, that appraisals from third parties could
19 be an accepted --

20 Q. Now, as a part of a borrower doing due
21 diligence for a project, can a borrower go out and 22 get his or her own appraisal?

23 A. Of course.

24 Q. Any prohibition against that?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Now, if the borrower has not done
2 adequate due diligence with respect to a project
3 and the project fails because the borrower has 4 misjudged the risk and the bank misjudged the 5 risk, is that the bank's fault?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Does it mean the loan doesn't have to
8 get repaid?

9 A. No. The loan -- the note needs to be 10 repaid. It's the evidence of debt. It's the 11 promise to pay.

12 Q. Let's talk about this particular loan.
13 In your deposition, you talked about the five Cs
14 of credit. Are you familiar with that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And can you tell Judge Watson what the 17 five Cs of credit are, please?

18 A. Your Honor, they are character,
19 capacity, conditions, capital and collateral,
20 although Ameris's loan policy said cash flow
21 rather than capital. But those are the standard
22 five Cs that I just recited.

23 Q. All right. Well, let's talk about 24 those with respect to this project based upon the 25 information that you've seen. Okay?

1 What about the character of the
2 borrower: Heritage Seven, LLC, and Mrs. Gibson?

3 A. Well, the character is established by
4 how well an entity has performed in its business
5 dealings and its financial obligations. How have 6 they paid their bills in the past? Have they been 7 able to perform in the economic pursuits that 8 they've been involved with? Do they -- can they 9 do that?

10 Q. Okay. And in this case, with respect
11 to the information you've reviewed, was there
12 anything about the character of Heritage Seven,
13 LLC, or Mrs. Gibson that was a negative factor at 14 all?

15 A. Not that I saw.

16 Q. And, in fact, Mrs. Gibson had done
17 prior commercial investments in a shopping center,
18 correct?

19 A. She had. She had done 1031
20 tax-oriented transactions, owned a substantial
21 amount of real estate, some of which was income
22 properties, including resort properties, shopping
23 center, et cetera.

24 Q. All right. Is there anything then
25 about the character of the borrowers that would

1 suggest to you that this loan should not have been
2 made?

3 A. No.

4 Q. All right. Let's talk about capacity.
5 That's the second C, right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Tell me what capacity means.

8 A. Well, capacity obviously is the 9 ability to make widgets professionally or the 10 ability to repay.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. And based on character, you look at 13 their capacity to retire debt and you evaluate the 14 things that they have been involved with and how 15 well they performed and they had the capacity to 16 repay it after she demonstrated that she did.

17 Q. Well, let's talk about that. Look in 18 your defendant's notebook at Exhibit 11, please.

19 A. All right, sir.

20 Q. And you see the financial statement of 21 Linda Avigner Gibson, correct?

22 A. I do.

23 MR. STEPP: I believe this is already
24 in evidence. It's in evidence, Your Honor.

25 BY MR. STEPP:

1 Q. Now, you've looked at this previously,
2 right, Mr. Barksdale?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And this shows a substantial amount of 5 real estate assets; is that correct?

6 A. It does.

7 Q. And does this financial statement
8 suggest to you that Mrs. Gibson had the capacity
9 to perform with respect to the loan that she 10 received?

11 A. She certainly had the purported assets
12 that she could leverage, if need be, and she shows
13 that the -- she shows the wherewithal to have a
14 lot of equity.

15 Q. Well, what about the notes of these 16 real estate assets; are they diverse or are they 17 all the same?

18 A. I'd say they were pretty much diverse.
19 A lot of it is land reportedly on Daniel Island.
20 I have not gone out and investigated it, but the 21 -- she had other income properties, had a TV tower
22 -- or a cell tower of some sort that was up for 23 lease. She had the shopping center. She had --
24 she had some land lease of substantial purport.

25 Q. Okay. Well, looking at this financial

1 statement, is there anything here that would tell
2 you that Mrs. Gibson and, by extension, Heritage
3 Seven did not have the capacity to perform if this
4 loan were approved?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Is there anything, any information
7 that you were aware of, based on everything you've
8 looked at that tells you that there's anything
9 about the capacity to perform that was a negative
10 factor?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Was there any reason based on capacity
13 that this loan should have been rejected?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay. Let's talk about conditions.
16 That's your third C. Tell me what that means,
17 please.

18 A. Well, what are the conditions
19 surrounding the project in the general market for 20 a typical project such as this? And at that point
21 in time -- it's a real estate transaction. In 22 2007, real estate was brisk to say the least.
23 There was a lot of activity in the real estate
24 market. Those are the general economic
25 conditions.

1 Q. The economic conditions -- how would
2 you describe the economic conditions in 2007 in 3 general?

4 A. I'd say they were very favorable.
5 Real estate was appreciating in value. The 6 economy was moving along very nicely.

7 Q. A lot of residential sales?

8 A. A lot of residential sales.

9 Q. All right. Anything about market
10 conditions in 2007 that tells you now, based on 11 everything you know, that this loan should not
12 have been made?

13 A. When this loan was applied for and 14 approved, no.

15 Q. Okay. Now, the market is different
16 today, isn't it?

17 A. Well, at the time in 2007, this was a
18 prospective analysis and not a retrospective
19 analysis. If we could all -- if we could all 20 project the future, it would be wonderful and we 21 wouldn't be sitting here. We would be in New York
22 making a lot of money.

23 Q. All right. Well, anything about
24 conditions, market conditions or any other
25 conditions in 2007 that tells you in your

1 professional opinion that this loan should not
2 have been made?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. All right. The fourth C that you've
5 mentioned is capital. Tell me what that is,
6 please. Or I think you said the bank said cash
7 flow; is that right?

8 A. Well, the bank did. They said cash
9 flow. I guess that's another way of saying
10 capital, because you get income, you're going to 11 increase your capital because of that work -- I
12 mean, because of retained earnings. Capital is 13 how much skin you got in the game. Because you 14 don't generally do 100 percent financing on 15 anything.

16 So, yes, she contributed capital by
17 investing $700,000 as part of the purchase price,
18 and then a requisite on the loan was to take the 19 cell phone tower piece of property that had cash
20 flow coming from it as a buffer or protection for 21 -- it's going to be a lease-up period. If you
22 start to rehab something, you're going to have 23 downtime in the units.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. So that was definitely capital that

1 was brought to the game, and I think it had an
2 appraised value or carrying value of somewhere in
3 the neighborhood of a half million dollars.

4 Q. Okay. The $700,000 -- we're going to
5 come back to this, but did you understand there
6 was a $700,000 equity requirement in this loan?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Is that standard?

9 A. I think that was a good equity
10 investment.

11 Q. Okay. Plus the cell tower, right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. So was there anything about the 14 capital component of credit underwriting in this 15 loan that tells you this loan shouldn't have been 16 made?

17 A. No.

18 Q. And based upon Exhibit 11,
19 Mrs. Gibson's financial statement, do you see
20 anything there that suggests that she generally
21 didn't have the capital to perform -- to repay
22 this loan?

23 A. She certainly had capital assets that
24 she could leverage or sell.

25 Q. All right. The final C that you

1 mentioned is collateral?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Let's talk about this collateral. How
4 would you evaluate that factor for this loan?

5 A. Well, collateral is anything that
6 arises out of the transaction. You finance a car,
7 you take a lien on it. If you finance a real
8 estate property, you take a mortgage on it, or the 9 mortgage on additional collateral, if that's part
10 of the transaction, also.

11 But collateral is a secondary source
12 of repayment, with emphasis on secondary. You
13 don't want to get into the primary source of 14 repaying the collateral. That means that you had 15 foreclosed and now you own it and now you have to 16 get rid of it.

17 Q. All right. Well, in this -- in this 18 loan, the collateral was the apartment project
19 itself, correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. As well as the cell tower site,
22 correct?

23 A. Yes. And the guaranty.

24 Q. And the guaranty. So was that 25 adequate collateral?

1 A. In my opinion, it was.

2 Q. All right. And did Mrs. Gibson have
3 the capacity to put up even more collateral had
4 the bank required it?

5 A. It appeared that she would be able to.

6 Q. All right. Is there anything then,
7 Mr. Barksdale, about the collateral that was 8 available that was used to secure this loan that 9 tells you today that this loan shouldn't have been 10 made?

11 A. At the time?

12 Q. Yes, sir, at the time.

13 A. No, at the time, it fit all -- it fit
14 all the underwriting standards of the bank and 15 they made the decision to make it.

16 Q. Well, we've heard in this case some 17 testimony that Mrs. Gibson was inexperienced, that 18 she never had done an apartment conversion or 19 never done a project exactly like this. What 20 difference does that make?

21 A. Well, apparently, she had the --
22 Mr. Villavicencio as her managing agent on the 23 apartment complex. She had experience with him
24 and he was the person that was advising her about 25 the conversion and the form that it would take and

1 he was working with contractors and architects;
2 so, in essence, she had the experience via her
3 apparently proven advisor.

4 Q. Is there anything unusual about the
5 borrower having some -- relying on somebody else,
6 some third party, to provide expertise in
7 connection with the project?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Does that mean the bank shouldn't make
10 the loan if the borrower, his or herself, has not
11 done exactly the kind of project before?

12 A. No. By virtue of signing a commitment
13 letter and executing the note, she obligated
14 herself for the transaction.

15 Q. Are you aware that there was a written
16 management agreement between Rolando and Heritage
17 Seven with respect to this project?

18 A. I've seen that.

19 Q. And you are aware that was part of the 20 closing documents, correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And was it reasonable to -- for Ameris
23 to rely on Mr. Villavicencio to perform his duties
24 under that management agreement?

25 A. Yes. He was managing other

1 properties.

2 Q. Right. Okay. Well, based on all the
3 these factors then, was there any reason of which 4 you are aware, any factor that would tell you that 5 in November of 2007, this loan should not have
6 been made?

7 A. Not that I could determine after my
8 review of the materials.

9 Q. All right. Have you seen anything
10 that suggests to you based upon the information
11 that was available and presented to the bank that 12 this project was going to fail?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. All right. Let's talk about the 15 approval process for this loan a little bit.
16 We've had some testimony about that.

17 Have you reviewed the sort of loan
18 approval process as reflected in the documents
19 that Ameris has produced in this case?

20 A. Yes, sir, I have.

21 Q. Anything out of the ordinary about it,
22 anything unusual?

23 A. Not that I could determine. They 24 followed their procedures.

25 Q. In this case, there was a loan package

1 presented, correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And an application that was presented
4 and signed?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Is that all standard?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Was the loan request written up by a
9 loan officer and sent up to the loan committee?

10 A. It was, by the loan -- the credit
11 analyst of the loan office -- the appropriate
12 steps were taken to get it up to the appropriate
13 approval level. Let's put it that way.

14 Q. Okay. Anything unusual about the way
15 that was handled?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Now, are you aware that some of the 18 hierarchs at Ameris raised some questions about 19 Mrs. Gibson's financial statement?

20 A. Yes, they did.

21 Q. Is that normal?

22 A. Sure.

23 Q. What does that tell you?

24 A. Well, that tells you that they're 25 doing their analysis and want to make sure that

1 it's underwritten correctly and they've structured
2 the loan in a way that they feel comfortable with.

3 Q. And is it your understanding that they
4 got answers to the questions that they asked?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Was it reasonable for them to rely on
7 the responses that they received in making a
8 decision about whether to approve the loan?

9 A. In my opinion, yes.

10 Q. Okay. Now, you know, we've heard that 11 this was mighty quick. Do you think this loan
12 approval process was quick?

13 A. It may have been faster than some.
14 There had been a lot of groundwork done on this 15 package that came over from First Reliance, but 16 the information was there. Once the information
17 is there, then you just go through the steps and 18 move it on up the chain of command.

19 Q. Well, in an ordinary commercial loan
20 application and underwriting process, what usually 21 takes the most time?

22 A. Gathering the information and then
23 doing the necessary analysis, doing the write-up,
24 moving it -- moving it through the process.

25 Q. Is getting an appraisal part of that?

1 A. Getting an appraisal would be part of
2 it, of course. The appraisal's a big part of it.
3 It could be 30 to 60 days before you get an
4 appraisal.

5 Q. Well, if you've got all the
6 information necessary to make the decision, then
7 how long does it generally take for a loan
8 committee or anybody else with approval authority
9 to actually decide yes or no on a loan
10 application?

11 A. Fast. You can do it in a matter of 12 days. It just depends on if you have -- if 13 everything's complete and in accordance with your 14 underwriting procedures, you can move it up the 15 track pretty rapidly.

16 Q. Is there any reason for a bank not to 17 make a quick decision on a loan request if it has 18 the information it needs?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Is the borrower prejudiced in any way
21 by a quick decision on a loan request?

22 A. No. If the borrower wants to borrow
23 the money, they want to close.

24 Q. All right. Is there any information
25 -- you've looked at what Ameris saw. Was there

1 anything that you think that they should have
2 looked at that they didn't look at?

3 A. No.

4 THE COURT: Why don't we take a
5 ten-minute break. Let's take five. That will be 6 good.

7 You may step down, Mr. Barksdale.
8 Just don't talk about your testimony.

9 THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.

10 (A recess transpired.)

11 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

12 MR. STEPP: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 BY MR. STEPP:

14 Q. Mr. Barksdale, we were talking about
15 the underwriting of this loan before we took a 16 break, and let me just conclude by asking you, is 17 there anything that you have seen about the loan
18 approval process for this loan, either the 19 information or the process or the procedures, that 20 tells you that this loan should not have been
21 approved?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. All right. I want to talk a little
24 bit about the equity requirement. We mentioned
25 this. I want to come back to it. We talk about

1 equity. Banks talk about equity. What does that
2 term mean?

3 A. It's assets less liability equals net
4 worth. The net worth is your equity; how much of 5 your money do you have that's financing your 6 assets.

7 Q. And if we talk about an equity
8 requirement as a part of a loan commitment, what
9 does that mean?

10 A. That means the investment of the 11 investor.

12 Q. Okay. Why does it matter? Why is it
13 important? Why do banks require it?

14 A. Well, the obvious reason. If a bank,
15 heaven forbid, has to foreclose against 16 collateral, they're not going to get 100 cents on 17 the dollar. I assure you that.

18 Q. Okay. Well, what about as an
19 incentive to the borrower; is that a --

20 A. It's also an incentive to the 21 borrower. If the borrower's got no equity in the 22 game (indicating) or no guaranty without recourse,
23 there's not much incentive for them to make it
24 work.

25 Q. Okay. Well, what was the equity

1 requirement in this loan to your understanding?

2 A. Well, $700,000 was put in as part of
3 the purchase price. Now, that was going to be 4 advanced as for the upfit. Then you have an
5 appraisal as built of like 3 million 7, plus the 6 additional pledge of the TV tower -- or the cell
7 phone tower and its stream of income.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. Then you had -- once you got to the 3
10 million 7 appraised value, when you got a 2
11 million 8 -- well, excuse me -- yeah, 2 million 8
12 loan outstanding, you got a 3 million 7 value and 13 you got $500,000 in a cell phone tower.

14 Q. All right. So what would the total
15 equity in this deal have been?

16 A. The total equity as built, if
17 everything worked out fine, would be 700,000 plus
18 500,000; it would be a million 2 on a 2 million 8
19 project.

20 Q. Okay. Is that adequate equity?

21 A. I would say so.

22 Q. Well, was this loan 100 percent
23 financed?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Was this project 100 percent financed,

1 I should say?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Well, we know that Mrs. Gibson
4 borrowed the $700,000 against her beach house.
5 Doesn't that make this 100 percent financed?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Why not?

8 A. That was her option. She exercised
9 that option to generate the $700,000 in cash. For 10 best reasons best known to her, she decided to 11 leverage that asset. It was by another lending
12 institution. That was her choice. Another
13 lending institution and they had to underwrite it
14 on the basis that that beach house, plus other
15 collateral, if she gave it -- I don't know the 16 structure of that loan -- would have been adequate
17 to retire that loan. That was an entirely
18 different transaction.

19 Q. Well, we looked at -- and I think you
20 may still have your exhibit notebook open to 21 Exhibit 11 -- Mrs. Gibson's financial statements
22 showing a net worth of something in excess of $50
23 million. Under those circumstances, would it be a
24 problem for her to leverage an asset instead of --

25 A. Apparently, it would not have been.

1 Q. When we say leverage an asset, let's
2 just be clear. What do we mean by that?

3 A. That means you borrow rather than
4 sell. You would do that on the basis of I don't
5 want to pay capital gains tax, I don't want to
6 sell this stock because I've got too much capital
7 gains in it, if you use that as collateral.

8 Q. Well, if you don't want to leverage an 9 asset and you got to come up with $700,000, what
10 is your other choice?

11 A. Well, you could sell an asset.

12 Q. Okay. And is that generally up to 13 borrower to decide?

14 A. That would be up to the borrower to 15 decide.

16 Q. Now, in this instance, when
17 Mrs. Gibson refinanced her beach house to put the 18 $700,000 in, did that satisfy or does that meet
19 the reasons that banks require equity in 20 commercial loans?

21 A. Repeat the question.

22 Q. Yes, sir. That's a bad question.

23 We talked about there are two reasons
24 to require equity; do you remember that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And does the fact that Mrs. Gibson's
2 $700,000 was borrowed against her beach house,
3 does that -- are the reasons to require equity
4 still satisfied in this field?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Well, tell me why. What skin does she
7 have in the game if she borrowed the money?

8 A. Because they are entirely two
9 different transactions.

10 Q. If this loan didn't perform, did she 11 put her beach house at risk?

12 A. No. The beach house is not pledged to 13 this.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. They're two entirely different
16 transactions.

17 Q. All right. Does the equity in this
18 deal provide a sufficient cushion to the bank
19 between the loan amount and the collateral?

20 A. As structured, it appeared it would.

21 Q. Okay. In 2007, was there any
22 regulation that would limit the -- or any minimum
23 amount of equity that a bank had to require as a
24 condition of a commercial loan approval?

25 A. Not to my knowledge.

1 Q. If a borrower wanted to borrow 100
2 percent of the cost of a project and the bank was
3 willing to do it, was there any regulatory reason
4 why the bank could not do that?

5 A. Not to my knowledge. I mean, that
6 would be -- the bank's policy would govern that,
7 what percentage they advanced.

8 Q. Well, if in this instance there's a
9 $700,000 equity requirement and the borrower
10 doesn't want to leverage anything or doesn't want
11 to sell anything, it doesn't have $700,000 in 12 cash, then what is the borrower supposed to do?

13 A. Say I don't want to do it.

14 Q. Now, we're talking about equity. Is 15 that somehow related to loan-to-value ratio, that 16 term? Do you know that term?

17 A. Well, loan-to-value ratio is the loan
18 amount vis-a-vis the value of the underlying 19 property or the underlying collateral.

20 Q. All right. Give me an example of
21 that.

22 A. Well, if you have a $2 million asset
23 and you want to borrow -- if you want to borrow
24 800 -- if you want to borrow a million dollars,
25 that would be a 50 percent loan-to-value ratio.

1 Q. Okay. Was there some minimum
2 loan-to-value ratio that banks generally required
3 in 2007?

4 A. Banks varied all over the place as far
5 as loan-to-value ratio. I would look at it as a
6 percentage advance against value and I would say
7 somewhere in the 80 to 90 percent.

8 Q. Okay. Let's look at this loan on the 9 day it closed. Okay?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. At that point, the purported value of 12 the property was $2.8 million according to the 13 appraisal?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And the amount advanced to closing was 16 how much?

17 A. 2 million 1 approximately.

18 Q. All right. Well, what is the 19 loan-to-value ratio if the value is 2.8 and the 20 loan amount's 2 million 1?

21 A. 60 percent.

22 Q. Well, wouldn't that be more like 75?

23 A. Well, I'm sorry. 75.

24 Q. Now, I want you to add in the cell
25 tower value, 500; assume it's worth 500.

1 A. Then you moved on up the ladder.

2 Q. Well, is there anything unusual or out
3 of the ordinary about a 75 percent loan-to-value
4 ratio as structured in this deal?

5 A. No. As a matter of fact, their
6 policy, I think, said 80 percent.

7 Q. Okay. If there is any limit -- if
8 there were any limit in a bank's internal
9 policies, can they be waived?

10 A. Yes, they can.

11 Q. Okay. In underwriting a loan in which 12 the equity was provided as it was in this case, by 13 leveraging another asset, does Ameris have to take 14 into account whether this project is going to 15 generate enough money to service the other debt?

16 A. No. Two mutually exclusive events.

17 Q. Well, why not?

18 A. Because that loan was underwritten on 19 its own bottom by another financial institution
20 and they're looking to that source of cash for 21 repayment, not -- maybe her guaranty. But, no,
22 they're two entirely different transactions.

23 Q. Well, what if the beach house loan
24 gets in trouble and the borrower there,
25 Mrs. Gibson or whoever that was, has trouble

1 making the payments, what's she supposed to do?

2 A. Well, she's got to come up with the
3 cash from somewhere and she would rely on her
4 other sources of cash or leveraging another asset
5 or selling something.

6 Q. Like the beach house, right?

7 A. Like selling the beach house.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. Or acreage or whatever is purportedly
10 on her financial statement.

11 Q. All right. Talk to me a little bit
12 about something called debt service coverage
13 ratio. Do you know what that is?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Tell me what it is.

16 A. Well, debt service coverage ratio of 17 more than one. You want it to be in the 1.25, 18 1.3, wherever.

19 Q. And what is the ratio of?

20 A. It's the ratio of, if you got $1.30
21 coming in, free cash, for every dollar that you
22 owe in debt obligation.

23 Q. All right. Did Ameris do a debt
24 service coverage ratio for this transaction?

25 A. They did. It was on a prospective

1 basis, based on the upfit and prospective rents in
2 the future.

3 Q. Assuming the conversion is done,
4 correct?

5 A. Conversion is done. Everything is
6 successful.

7 Q. And assuming that the units are leased
8 thereafter, correct?

9 A. That's correct. Based on their
10 business plan.

11 Q. Right. Based upon the model that the 12 borrower presented?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And what was that debt service
15 coverage ratio?

16 A. If I recall, it was 1.37.

17 Q. Now, we've heard some testimony that,
18 of course, during the conversion process, the 19 rents are not going to come in as regularly,
20 correct?

21 A. That's the reason why they took the 22 cell phone tower and got an assignment of leases
23 and rents.

24 Q. And what were the repayment terms of 25 this loan?

1 A. Interest only for 12 months, and then
2 you begin a term-out with 20-year amortization,
3 but you have a balloon at the end of an additional
4 four years.

5 Q. All right. And that 12-months'
6 interest only was designed to do what?

7 A. To not require the cash flow of a
8 complete amortization, to allow them a
9 construction period, which is pretty typical of 10 when you're doing -- when you're doing an upfit or 11 construction.

12 Q. And was that a reasonable way to 13 structure the loan terms in light of the 14 anticipated cash flow?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. Is the debt service coverage
17 ratio of 1.37 normal and reasonable?

18 A. I'd say it would be normal and 19 reasonable. In fact, as their policy said, they 20 wanted 1.3 on this kind, more than one to four 21 family --

22 Q. Would there be any reason --

23 A. -- parts.

24 Q. I'm sorry. Would there be any reason
25 in underwriting a loan with an anticipated debt

1 service coverage ratio of 1.37 not to approve the
2 loan?

3 A. It met that underwriting criteria.
4 Let's put it that way.

5 Q. Okay. You've looked at the loan
6 documents that -- connected with this loan?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Anything unusual or out of the 9 ordinary in those loan documents?

10 A. Not that I saw.

11 Q. Anything unusually onerous?

12 A. No, sir. Pretty much standard.

13 Q. Standard loan terms and conditions?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Under any of the loan documents, was 16 the borrower's obligation to repay the debt
17 conditioned upon the success of the project?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Okay. Under any of the loan
20 documents, did Ameris guarantee the success of the 21 project?

22 A. No.

23 Q. We've talked about the repayment
24 terms. Anything unusual or inappropriate about
25 that?

1 A. No, sir.

2 Q. Were those repayment terms appropriate
3 for the transaction as proposed to the bank by the 4 borrower?

5 A. I would say it would be typical for an
6 upfit of an apartment complex and some sort of 7 permanent relationship after that with a balloon
8 through five years.

9 Q. Well, if the borrower doesn't like the 10 repayment terms in the commitment letter, what's 11 the borrower supposed to do?

12 A. Well, the option is renegotiate
13 something else and bring something, I guess, to 14 the table or just say I'm not going to do it.

15 Q. Okay. We've mentioned bank internal 16 policies and procedures. I want to go back to 17 that a little bit.

18 You said all banks are required by 19 regulation to have internal policies and 20 procedures?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. In whose interest do those policies
23 and procedures serve?

24 A. They serve the bank's interests.

25 Q. Are they made available to the public?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Are they shared with borrowers?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Are they regarded as proprietary?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Are they waivable by the bank?

7 A. You can have exceptions to policy.

8 Q. Okay. So is a bank free to depart
9 from its own policies if it chooses to do so?

10 A. It is.

11 Q. Okay. And if it does depart from 12 those policies, does that have any effect upon the 13 enforceability of the loan documents?

14 A. No. There are exceptions to policies
15 all the time.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. But it's not the normal course of 18 events.

19 Q. Are those policies put in place for 20 the benefit of the borrowers or the bank?

21 A. The benefit of the bank.

22 Q. I want to talk about financial 23 statements. You mentioned these in your 24 deposition briefly.

25 A bank's always going to require a

1 financial statement in connection with a
2 commercial loan application, correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Whose responsibility is it to see that
5 the information on the financial statement is 6 accurate?

7 A. The presenter of the financial
8 statement.

9 Q. The borrower, in other words?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And is it prudent for a bank to sort
12 of do some investigation behind that statement?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Did that happen in this case?

15 A. I would say that it did, yes.

16 Q. Okay. Does the bank owe any duty to 17 the borrower to make sure that the borrower's
18 financial statement is accurate?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Well, what's the risk if the statement
21 is inaccurate? Who's taking what risk? The bank
22 or the borrower?

23 A. Well, the bank is taking the risk if 24 it's inaccurate.

25 Q. Okay. And if the bank doesn't check

1 something out and it turns out to be wrong, does
2 that mean that the bank's not entitled to get
3 repaid?

4 A. No; the bank's entitled to get repaid
5 on the note. None of that -- none of that
6 modifies the note in any way.

7 Q. All right. You said in your
8 deposition -- I was interested -- you said the 9 banks should never trust a personal financial
10 statement.

11 A. Well, I have to qualify that. They're 12 all estimates. They're not prepared in the course
13 of generally accepted accounting principles. They 14 don't show tax liabilities. They're estimates.

15 Q. Does that mean they're irrelevant?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Does that mean that a borrower's free
18 to submit any information that he or she chooses
19 to submit?

20 A. Yes, they can do that.

21 Q. And is the bank entitled to rely on 22 that information in making a credit decision?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. I want to talk a little bit about the 25 bank's relationship with its borrowers and

1 customers.

2 You said in your deposition that a
3 loan officer should be honest. Is that your 4 opinion?

5 A. In all business transactions, people
6 should be honest.

7 Q. All right. Well, does that mean that
8 a loan officer or anybody else at a bank is 9 required to put aside the interests of the bank
10 and act only in the interest of the borrower?

11 A. They should not do that.

12 Q. Well, can they even do that? Is that 13 even possible?

14 A. They shouldn't do that.

15 Q. Well, if they do that, then they can't 16 enforce the loan, can they?

17 A. That's probably correct.

18 Q. Okay. If a bank officer expresses an 19 opinion about a deal, does that make the bank a
20 guarantor of the deal in your view?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Do banks in your experience generally
23 offer a service to prospective borrowers to advise 24 them about the feasibility or advisability of the 25 projects that they're undertaking?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Well, why not?

3 A. Because they're -- you don't want to 4 get into this is how you have to do it or how to
5 do it another way. Banks don't hold themselves
6 out in that fiduciary capacity of taking control
7 over or advising and telling them how they need to 8 do things.

9 Q. Now, assume that a loan package comes
10 to a bank and there's a request for a certain 11 amount of money and certain repayment terms and 12 the bank ultimately makes a commitment on 13 different terms, different loan amount, different
14 repayment terms, different equity requirements --

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. -- let's assume that; does that mean
17 that the bank is structuring the underlying 18 project for the borrower?

19 A. No. It's a counterproposal.

20 Q. Well, and for what? Counterproposal
21 for what?

22 A. Counterproposal to benefit the bank in 23 the way the loan is structured with additional 24 collateral or different terms or different
25 conditions.

1 Q. Is there anything unusual about that?

2 Isn't that what banks do all the time?

3 A. All the time.

4 Q. They specify the conditions under

5 which they're willing to make the loan?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Does that mean they're structuring the

8 deal for the borrower?

9 A. No.

10 Q. I want to talk a little bit about the 11 disbursements in this case. You've looked at the 12 documents relating to the disbursements of the 13 construction portion of the loan, correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Do you have an opinion about how that

16 was handled?

17 A. Yes, sir. I think it was handled

18 appropriately.

19 Q. Well, Mr. Lanier got written up. Why

20 was that?

21 A. I'm not quite sure, because at the

22 beginning when Mrs. Gibson was not available for a

23 period of three or four months, Mr. Villavicencio

24 was her agent and he was handling the construction

25 and he was making draws, draw requests, by

1 submitting invoices, and the checks that were 2 paying those invoices were made payable to the 3 vendor.

4 Q. Is the bank entitled to disburse a
5 loan in accordance with the request of the 6 borrower?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Or what about the borrower's agent?

9 A. Or the borrower's agent, whoever has 10 the authority to make the draw requests.

11 Q. Okay. Whose job is it to see that the 12 project is done properly and on time?

13 A. The borrower.

14 Q. Are loan officers architects?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Are they trained to be appraisers or
17 contractors?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Are they developers?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Is a loan officer capable generally of 22 determining the value of work in place on a
23 construction project?

24 A. Most probably not.

25 Q. What about percentage of completion?

1 A. In an upfit like this, I would say
2 probably no, but they may be -- they can probably
3 do it on the basis of, say, a single family
4 residence. Those kinds of things can be internal,
5 inspections and draw approvals.

6 Q. Well, is the --

7 A. But in larger construction projects,
8 no, or in an upfit like this, no.

9 Q. Okay. Well, is the bank undertaking
10 the role -- in dispersing construction loans, is 11 the bank undertaking the role of construction
12 supervisor?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Is the bank guaranteeing the work done
15 by the contractor?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Or that the work is done timely or the 18 value of the work?

19 A. No.

20 Q. What about whether the right materials
21 are in place or not?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Or whether the work is done
24 competently or not?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Well, who does guarantee that?

2 A. Well, the borrower.

3 Q. All right. Mr. Barksdale, I want to 4 return to your opinions to make sure that we've
5 got them all covered.

6 Do you have an opinion about the
7 manner in which the loan to Heritage Seven, LLC,
8 and Linda Gibson was underwritten and structured?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And what is that opinion?

11 A. It was done properly.

12 Q. Do you have an opinion about whether
13 the loan to Heritage Seven and Linda Gibson was a
14 loan that should not have been made in 2007?

15 A. At the time, it appeared to be normal
16 course of business.

17 Q. All right. Do you have an opinion
18 about whether there was any reason for Ameris Bank
19 to believe in November of 2007 that this project
20 would not succeed or the loan not be repaid?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Do you have an opinion about whether
23 Ameris Bank stepped out of its role as lender and 24 assumed fiduciary duties to Heritage Seven and 25 Linda Gibson?

1 A. I saw no evidence of that.

2 Q. Do you have an opinion about whether
3 the disbursements were properly handled?

4 A. I think they were.

5 Q. And, in general, Mr. Barksdale, has
6 Ameris done anything or omitted to do anything
7 that in your opinion has caused this project to 8 fail or caused any other injury to Heritage Seven
9 or Linda Gibson?

10 A. Not to my knowledge.

11 MR. STEPP: Beg the Court's pardon
12 just a moment.

13 That's all I've got. Please answer
14 any questions Mr. Kefalos may have.

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. KEFALOS:

17 Q. Hello, Mr. Barksdale.

18 A. Hello, Mr. Kefalos.

19 Q. How are you?

20 A. I'm fine, thanks.

21 Q. You've told us about your
22 qualifications, and you've taught banking for many 23 years, haven't you?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. You teach upcoming bankers about the

1 way they should act, the way they should behave
2 and the way they should deal with their customers?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And is it true that you tell your
5 students that they should not advise their
6 customers about the wisdom of an investment?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. And you believe and you
9 teach your students that bank officers should not 10 act as financial advisors?

11 A. They are not financial advisors.

12 Q. That's correct. And you believe that 13 bank officers should not be in the business of 14 telling their customers how to run their affairs?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. But you do agree that if a bank
17 officer undertakes to give advice to a customer,
18 he should be honest?

19 A. A bank officer should always be honest
20 with their customer.

21 Q. And if a bank officer undertakes to
22 give advice to a customer --

23 A. If he chooses to take advice, but then 24 you only slip your slope about what advice you're 25 giving.

1 Q. Sure. But if the bank officer
2 undertakes to give advice to a customer, that
3 advice ought to be accurate?

4 A. Any advice should be accurate.

5 Q. And if a bank officer --

6 A. If -- if it is accurate.

7 Q. And if a bank officer undertakes to
8 give advice to a customer, he should be thorough?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And certainly, a bank officer should 11 never lie to its customer?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And there's a good reason why bank
14 officers should not be advising customers how to 15 run their affairs?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. It might create liability on the part
18 of the bank?

19 A. Possible.

20 MR. STEPP: Objection. Your Honor,
21 that would call for a conclusion.

22 THE COURT: I will allow it.

23 BY MR. KEFALOS:

24 Q. It might create liability on the part
25 of the bank if the advice is wrong?

1 A. It's possible.

2 Q. And, in fact, I think you testified
3 earlier, it might make the loan unenforceable?

4 MR. STEPP: Same objection.

5 THE WITNESS: I don't recall that. If
6 you can show it to me, I'll be glad to ...

7 BY MR. KEFALOS:

8 Q. I wrote it down on direct, but I might
9 have written it down --

10 A. I don't think I testified that it
11 would be unenforceable.

12 Q. Okay. Would you agree that a loan
13 officer who learns that one of his customers is 14 being taken advantage of by one of the customer's 15 employees, that loan officer has the 16 responsibility to alert the customer of the 17 problem?

18 A. If, in fact, that is correct.

19 Q. If, in fact, during the course of the 20 relationship, the loan officer comes to have 21 reason to believe that one of the customer's
22 employees is taking advantage of them, then you
23 believe that the loan officer ought to alert the 24 customer of that problem?

25 A. You might mention it, yes.

1 Q. Okay. Good. Would you -- and you've
2 reviewed this entire file and you learned about
3 Rolando Villavicencio's involvement in the case?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And you concluded that
6 Mr. Villavicencio was a con artist?

7 A. I would say that he probably was in 8 the final analysis in a respective examination of 9 the situation.

10 Q. Good. Would you look at Exhibit
11 Number 39? I think --

12 A. In the big book?

13 Q. In the big book. And it's the third
14 page. Well, wait a minute. I'm sorry. 39 is not 15 in the big book. 31.

16 31 is an E-mail from Don Snipes to 17 John Edwards dated --

18 A. In my book, it's ...

19 Q. I'm sorry. It is Plaintiffs' 31. I
20 think we had the big book.

21 A. All right. I got it.

22 Q. Thank you. Plaintiffs' Exhibit 31 is 23 the E-mail from Don Snipes to John Edwards?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. You saw that when you were reviewing

1 this file?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. Now, this E-mail in the 4 second paragraph says: As you may remember, we 5 have some culpability in her problems -- her is 6 Linda Gibson, right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. -- as we did not manage the 9 construction loan as we should and have 10 potentially aided in her former property manager
11 at Re/Max may have siphoned off some of the loan
12 proceeds. You saw that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Now, did your investigation reveal
15 when it was that Ameris first had reason to 16 believe that the property manager may have 17 siphoned off some of these loan proceeds?

18 A. I did not see any documentation that
19 said this is what, if any, was siphoned off, but I
20 believe when Ms. Gibson came in and took over the 21 project, that's when she started questioning
22 things that were going on.

23 Q. Good. Now, do you have -- was there
24 anything in the file that you found where Ameris
25 ever gave Miss Gibson notice that they had reason

1 to believe that the former property manager at
2 Re/Max may have siphoned off some of the loan
3 proceeds?

4 A. I don't recall seeing anything.

5 MR. KEFALOS: That's all the questions
6 I have.

7 MR. STEPP: Redirect or would Your
8 Honor like to ask --

9 THE COURT: You can redirect.

10 MR. STEPP: All right. Thank you,
11 Your Honor.

12 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. STEPP:

14 Q. Mr. Barksdale, are you aware of any
15 investment advice that anybody at Ameris Bank gave 16 to Mrs. Gibson in this transaction?

17 A. No, sir.

18 Q. Are you aware of any investment advice
19 that Karl Zerbst gave Mrs. Gibson in this 20 transaction?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. Well, what about this statement, gosh,
23 I think it's a good deal; is that investment
24 advice?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Okay. Have you seen any evidence --

2 A. I think he was saying we have reviewed
3 it, we've underwritten it, it looks like a
4 bankable transaction.

5 MR. KEFALOS: Objection, Your Honor.
6 This is speculation.

7 THE COURT: Hold on. Ask your
8 question again, sir.

9 BY MR. STEPP:

10 Q. Is what he said, it's a good deal, is 11 that investment advice?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Have you seen any evidence that
14 Mr. Villavicencio absconded with any money?

15 A. Not to my knowledge.

16 Q. Have you looked at the disbursement
17 checks in this case?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. To whom were they made?

20 A. They were made payable to the vendors.

21 Q. Every one of them?

22 A. The ones that I saw, the checks that 23 were made payable to the vendors, yes.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. And as far as I know, there were never

1 any liens placed on the property.

2 Q. So do you have any other information
3 that Mr. Villavicencio stole any money or did
4 anything else wrong?

5 A. No.

6 MR. STEPP: That's all I have.

7 MR. KEFALOS: Nothing from the 8 plaintiff, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. Just give me a
10 moment, please.

11 Mr. Barksdale, does the bank officer
12 ever have responsibility to tell a potential
13 borrower that the project that they are borrowing
14 money on would not support the loan?

15 THE WITNESS: They may very well do
16 that when they feel that it would not support the 17 loan.

18 THE COURT: I'm asking you, should
19 they tell someone who is borrowing money on a
20 project their opinion that the project would not 21 support the loan; should they tell the borrower
22 that?

23 THE WITNESS: Yes, they should tell
24 the borrower that; that as a follow-on on that,
25 they may suggest a different type of restructuring

1 of the transaction, we could do it another way.

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 I don't have any further questions.

4 Anything?

5 MR. STEPP: Nothing further.

6 MR. KEFALOS: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Thank you. You may step
8 down.

9 MR. STEPP: May Mr. Barksdale be
10 excused, Your Honor?

11 MR. KEFALOS: No objection, Your
12 Honor.

13 MR. STEPP: Thank you, Mr. Barksdale.

14 Your Honor, at this time, we have 15 submitted some deposition designations from 16 Mr. Villavicencio's deposition and from the 17 deposition of another former Ameris employee named
18 Marc Bogan, and so I think we have filed with the 19 Court designations and the plaintiffs'
20 counter-designations. So we're not going to 21 publish all of that. I'm sure Your Honor will 22 read it.

23 There are just a few excerpts, though,
24 just as the plaintiffs did, that we'd like to 25 publish, if Your Honor would permit us to do that

1 at this time.

2 THE COURT: That would be fine.

3 MR. STEPP: Thank you.

4 MR. JORDAN: Your Honor, I'm going to
5 hand to the court reporter the defendant's
6 deposition designations for Marc Bogan as well as 7 the original transcripts which I believe we've 8 been using as -- or marking as Court exhibits, and 9 I believe we're on Number 8.

10 (COURT EX. 8, Defendant's Deposition
11 Designations of Marc Bogan, with 12 attached transcript, was marked for 13 identification.)

14 MR. JORDAN: This is the deposition of 15 Marc Bogan from August 7th, 2012.

16 Question: And the lawsuit that we're
17 here about today relates back to the end --

18 MR. STEPP: I'm sorry. Give the page
19 and line.

20 MR. JORDAN: I'm sorry. We're
21 beginning on Page 5 at Line Number 18: Question:
22 And the lawsuit that we're here about today
23 relates back to the end of 2007 and period -- 2008
24 period. What was your position with Ameris in the 25 fall of 2007 and into 2008?

1 Answer: I was a market executive for
2 the eastern half of South Carolina and also the
3 sales executive retail banking manager, marketing
4 director and several other titles.

5 Question: How long did you work for
6 Ameris?

7 Answer: From September 2006 until
8 June 2011.

9 Question: Mr. Bogan, when you were
10 employed at Ameris, did you have the opportunity
11 to interview Karl Zerbst for employment with 12 Ameris?

13 Answer: Yes.

14 Skipping over to Page 7, beginning at
15 line 17: Question: I'm going to show you a
16 document that has previously been marked as 17 Defendant's Trial Exhibit Number 40. First thing
18 I'm going to ask you is, do you recognize this
19 document as a letter that you sent to Mr. Zerbst
20 in January of 2008?

21 Answer: Yes.

22 Question: Will you kind of explain to
23 the Court what this letter is?

24 On Page 8, Line 4: Answer: This is
25 an offer of employment.

1 Question: If you flip to the last
2 page of this letter, Mr. Bogan, does it appear
3 that Mr. Zerbst signed it on the 11th day of 4 January in 2008?

5 Answer: Yes.

6 Question: Okay. And does it appear
7 that that signature indicates his acceptance of 8 Ameris's offer of employment?

9 Answer: Yes.

10 Question: And did you also sign the 11 document at that time indicating your approval of 12 his hire as an employee of Ameris Bank?

13 Answer: Signed as acceptance on
14 behalf of Ameris Bank.

15 Question: As we've seen, this letter
16 is dated January the 10th of 2008. Did Ameris
17 Bank ever authorize Karl Zerbst to do anything on 18 its behalf prior to January the 10th of 2008?

19 Answer: No.

20 Over to Page 9, beginning at Line 5:
21 Did Ameris Bank ever encourage Karl Zerbst to 22 refer customers to Ameris Bank before he accepted
23 this formal offer of employment?

24 Answer: No.

25 Question: Did you or anyone else at

1 Ameris Bank have any ability or right to control
2 what Mr. Zerbst was doing prior to the time that
3 he formally accepted his offer of employment with 4 Ameris Bank?

5 Answer: No.

6 Question: Mr. Bogan, do you know
7 whether, in fact, Mr. Zerbst ever referred any 8 business to Ameris Bank before he became an
9 employee of Ameris?

10 Answer: Not to my knowledge.

11 Page 10, beginning at Line 15:

12 Mr. Bogan, did you specifically instruct
13 Mr. Zerbst that he should be careful to avoid any 14 activities that would potentially violate his 15 noncompete with First Reliance?

16 Answer: Yes.

17 Question: To your knowledge, did
18 Mr. Zerbst voluntarily do anything on Ameris's
19 behalf prior to his acceptance of formal
20 employment with Ameris Bank in January of 2008?

21 Answer: Not to my knowledge.

22 Pick up on Page 20 at Line 17:

23 Question: Okay. Mr. Bogan, ultimately,
24 obviously, this loan was approved and funded. To 25 your knowledge, was there anything unusual or out

1 of the ordinary about the approval of this loan?

2 Answer: No.

3 Question: If a loan by a bank is
4 approved in a quick fashion, is there anything
5 detrimental to the borrower about that?

6 Answer: No. Shouldn't be.

7 Question: In fact, most borrowers
8 want a fast decision on a loan request, don't 9 they?

10 Answer: Yes.

11 Question: Are you aware of any 12 complaint by the borrowers in this case, at the 13 time of the loan, that the approval was too fast?

14 Answer: No, no complaints I would --
15 no, I don't recall that at all.

16 Question: Okay. Mr. Bogan, to your
17 knowledge, was this loan request treated just like
18 every other loan request that Ameris Bank
19 receives?

20 Answer: Yes, to my knowledge, it was.

21 Question: Okay. To your knowledge,
22 did this loan request go through all the normal
23 channels for approval for a loan request of this
24 size?

25 Answer: Yes, to my knowledge.

1 We've made additional designations
2 that we filed with the Court and that's the extent
3 of what we wish to publish at trial, sir.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 MR. KEFALOS: Your Honor, we've made
6 designations in the deposition. I don't see any 7 need to read them at this point.

8 THE COURT: Do I have those?

9 MR. KEFALOS: Yes. We passed them up
10 in response to the defendant's designations.

11 Did we send them -- did you receive
12 them?

13 MR. JORDAN: We received them
14 yesterday.

15 THE COURT: Yeah, I don't know that I
16 received those. Now, I may have missed them on 17 the computer.

18 MR. STEPP: Well, we -- they can
19 supplement the record, Judge, by giving them to 20 you at their convenience.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MR. STEPP: On that subject -- and
23 maybe this is the way to do it. When I handed up
24 at the close of the plaintiffs' case that motion
25 for directed verdict, we hadn't actually filed

1 that. I want to make sure it is somewhere. Can I
2 ask that that be made a Court's exhibit as well so
3 it will be part of the record here?

4 THE COURT: Yes, you can do that.

5 MR. STEPP: Thank you. So the motion
6 for directed -- directed verdict at the close of 7 the plaintiffs' case would be Court Exhibit Number
8 9. This is a copy.

9 Thank you.

10 (COURT EX. 9, Motion for Directed
11 Verdict at the Close of Plaintiffs'
12 Case, Linda A. Gibson v. Ameris Bank,
13 was marked for identification.)

14 MR. KEFALOS: For the record, Your
15 Honor, the plaintiffs' designations for Mr. Bogan
16 on the deposition -- and we're E-mailing these to 17 you -- begin at Page 23, Line 15, and conclude on 18 Page 41, Line 12.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 So Mr. Bogan, he doesn't work for 21 Ameris anymore?

22 MR. STEPP: No; he's in Charlotte. He
23 works for a bank in Charlotte, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 MR. JORDAN: Your Honor, I would now

1 hand up to the court reporter the deposition
2 designations for Rolando Villavicencio as well as
3 a copy of his deposition. This will be Court's
4 Exhibit Number 10.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Are you going to
6 publish any of that?

7 MR. JORDAN: We're going to publish a
8 few portions of it, Your Honor.

9 (COURT EX. 10, Defendant's Deposition
10 Designations of Rolando Villavicencio,
11 with attached transcript, was marked
12 for identification.)

13 MR. JORDAN: Okay. This is beginning
14 on Page 14 at Line 1: Question: Tell me about 15 how you first met Linda Gibson.

16 Answer: It was in 2005, I believe,
17 that we first met. I had seen her -- we go to the 18 same church, Northwoods Church. I have seen her
19 many times and I have seen the husband as well
20 many times and I believe that she was one of the 21 original members of the church and I did see her,
22 but I didn't personally or officially with meet
23 her until sometime 2005.

24 Question: Could you tell me how your 25 relationship developed? You first met her in

1 2005. Did you socialize with her?

2 Answer: Only through church at that
3 time. Every Sunday we would meet and say hello to 4 each other.

5 Question: So there came a time when
6 her husband passed away?

7 Answer: Yes. It must have been about
8 that same time that we met that we found out that
9 the husband had passed away.

10 Question: Did you socialize with her
11 outside the church after her husband passed away?

12 Answer: I do not recall.

13 Question: Did you like her?

14 Answer: She was a churchgoer that --
15 we would always see her all by herself walking
16 around the church. I think she must have been one
17 of the greeters or -- and she had a -- you know, a
18 nice demeanor.

19 Question: Did you become her personal
20 friend?

21 Answer: Yes, through time, we
22 started, you know, getting to know each other.
23 And when I say we, my wife and myself and the 24 family and her family, we got to know each other
25 more.

1 Question: And did you socialize
2 outside the church after you became friends?

3 Answer: Yes.

4 Question: And did you come to like
5 her as an individual?

6 Answer: Yes.

7 Question: Do you think she liked you?

8 Answer: Yes.

9 Question: Did you eventually come to
10 provide real estate service for her?

11 Answer: At some point in time.

12 Question: And did you give her advice
13 on real estate matters?

14 Answer: We discussed about real
15 estate matters.

16 Question: Does that mean that you
17 gave her advice?

18 Answer: I would give my opinion.

19 Question: Do you think she trusted
20 you?

21 Answer: I believe so.

22 Question: Do you think she was
23 justified in trusting you?

24 Answer: I believe so.

25 Question: Do you think she relied

1 upon you?

2 Answer: In some manner, yes.

3 Question: And do you think she was
4 justified in relying on you?

5 Answer: I believe so.

6 Page 25, beginning at Line 8: Now,
7 the contract contains a 2.8 million dollar offer.
8 Did you tell Miss Gibson that the seller wanted
9 2.8 million dollars for the property?

10 Answer: I -- I had put on the 11 purchase agreement specifically 2.8 million.

12 Question: Did you tell Linda Gibson
13 that that is what ABESPRO was demanding for the 14 property?

15 Answer: This was what we had -- Linda
16 Gibson had agreed to make the purchase of 2.8
17 million dollars.

18 Question: Where did that figure come
19 from?

20 Answer: That would have been
21 generated from analysis, comparables. That would 22 have come from the market valuation, what the --

23 Question: Who obtained that figure?

24 Answer: We collect those information
25 from sources we deem reliable.

1 Question: When you say we, who are
2 you referring to?

3 Answer: I would say I would have
4 collected that information from sources I would
5 deem reliable such as multiple listing
6 information, asking around with other property
7 owners, asking around with other property
8 managers.

9 Question: So you came up with that 10 figure?

11 Answer: Yes, sir.

12 Question: Linda Gibson did not?

13 Answer: Oh, I believe through time we 14 were in discussion about the -- the value, but she 15 ultimately had the final decision to agree to 16 purchase the property based on information I
17 provided to her.

18 Question: Certainly. You told her
19 that you think that this property is worth 2.8
20 million dollars, you ought to buy it?

21 Answer: Based on analysis, yes, sir.

22 Beginning on Page 38 at Line 5: Now
23 -- Question: Now, sometimes you research the 24 property for a prospective buyer before you make 25 an offer?

1 Answer: Yes, sir.

2 Question. And that's part of what
3 being a good realtor is?

4 Answer: Yes, sir.

5 Question: And sometimes you research
6 the property in order to help the buyer make an
7 intelligent decision about what to offer?

8 Answer: Yes, sir.

9 Question: Sometimes you find out what
10 the seller paid for the property?

11 Answer: Yes, sir.

12 Question: In this case, you knew what
13 the seller paid for the property?

14 Answer: Yes, sir.

15 Question: Did you tell Miss Gibson
16 what the seller had paid for the property?

17 Answer: I do not recall.

18 Question: Did you tell Linda Gibson
19 that you thought this purchase was a good
20 investment?

21 Answer: I believe so.

22 Question: Did you talk to her about
23 whether this was a wise investment for her?

24 Answer: Yes, sir.

25 Question: And did you tell her you

1 thought it was a wise investment for her?

2 Answer: Yes, sir.

3 Now, beginning on Page 115 at Line 12:

4 Question: Would you look at Plaintiffs' Exhibit

5 Number 7. Do you recognize this?

6 Answer: Yes, sir.

7 Question: Is this a copy of your
8 residential management agreement with Miss Gibson?

9 Answer: Yes, sir.

10 Question: Would you look at Page 2,
11 Number 5F. Were you being paid 10 percent of the 12 cost of all new construction to supervise the 13 restoration and improvement?

14 There's an objection.

15 Question: It's a Re/Max form. Were 16 you being paid 10 percent?

17 Answer: It's an agreement made by and 18 between Re/Max Professional, Heritage Seven,
19 Re/Max.

20 Question: Okay. And who was the 21 person that was supposed to supervise the 22 restoration on behalf of Re/Max?

23 Answer: That would be me, sir.

24 Question: So you were supposed to 25 supervise construction?

1 Answer: I have my signature on it.

2 Beginning on Page 180, Line 10:

3 Question: Okay. If you will pull out what's been
4 marked as Exhibit Number 11.

5 Question: And if you'll flip to the 6 fifth page.

7 And down to Line 20: Question:
8 It should be the page where her personal financial
9 statement begins.

10 Answer: Yes, sir. Oh.

11 Question: Do you see that? Okay.

12 Answer: Yes, sir.

13 Question: And I believe you testified
14 earlier that -- that you prepared this document,
15 correct?

16 Answer: Yes, sir.

17 Question: Okay. And you testified a
18 few minutes ago that you were -- I think you
19 described it as the -- the go-between between 20 Linda and the bank; is that correct?

21 Answer: That's correct, sir.

22 Beginning on Page 187 at Line 21: I
23 want to ask you a little bit about 35. The -- if 24 you look at the page that's marked 1216, should be
25 the fifth page in your stack.

1 Answer -- if you skip over to Page
2 188, Line 2: at the top of the page, it says,
3 total of items. Do you see that?

4 Answer: Yes, sir.

5 And what figure does it provide there?

6 Total of items, $688,814.18.

7 Question: And is that an estimate of
8 what it would -- what it would cost to complete
9 the project, the renovation project?

10 Answer: It says, total of items. I
11 -- I would suppose so.

12 Question: If you flip back to the 13 first page, the second item says, licensed
14 contractor/structural engineer/architecture fees,
15 allowance up to blank percent of total project
16 costs or cost-plus basis or consultation fee or 17 as-used basis, and it provides -- there's a bank
18 there and it says TBD.

19 Answer: Yes, sir.

20 Question: At the time that you
21 created this estimate, why was that left blank?

22 Answer: We did not have the licensed
23 contractor identified yet, structural engineer,
24 architectural fees.

25 Question: Do you know -- at that

1 time, did you know whether you would need a
2 licensed contractor?

3 Answer: I had put on this
4 specification cost estimates if we did have a bid
5 that that line item would be there.

6 Question: Did you know whether you would
7 need an architect for the project at the point you
8 -- when you created this?

9 Answer: At some point in time, I
10 found out we needed an architect.

11 Question: And if you look at the page
12 where it provides the 688,000-and-some-odd-dollar
13 estimate, would you agree that that number could
14 substantially change if you added in an item for a
15 licensed contractor or engineer or architecture
16 fees?

17 Answer: I'm sorry, could you repeat
18 that?

19 Question: Sure. The estimate that is 20 provided, the 688,000 --

21 Answer: Yes.

22 Question: -- roughly number, does not
23 include a fee for a contractor or an architect or 24 an engineer, correct?

25 Answer: I believe so, sir.

1 Question: So would you agree with me
2 that the number -- the estimate to complete the
3 project could change drastically if you added in 4 fees for those professionals?

5 Answer: It would change, sir. I
6 don't know if it's drastic or not.

7 Question: Okay. And do you recall
8 what the construction fund amount was to complete
9 this project?

10 Answer: The -- you're asking me about
11 the -- recalling the construction amount?

12 Question: How much did Heritage Seven
13 or Linda Gibson have in a construction loan to 14 complete this project?

15 Answer: I believe it was 700,000.

16 Question: Okay. And the estimate of 17 688,000-some-odd dollars does not include
18 potential fees for an architect or a licensed
19 contractor, correct?

20 Answer: Based on this exhibit, yes,
21 sir.

22 That's all, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?

24 MR. KEFALOS: We have designated
25 counter-portions of Mr. Villavicencio's deposition

1 and they're in the trial brief in the Court's
2 exhibits.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 MR. STEPP: Your Honor, at this time,
5 the defense would call Richard Sturm to the stand,
6 please.

7 THE COURT: Come forward, please.

8 Good afternoon, sir. Please give your
9 full name.

10 MR. STURM: Richard Sturm.

11 RICHARD STURM

12 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

13 THE COURT: Please be seated.

14 DIRECT EXAMINATION

15 BY MR. STEPP:

16 Q. Mr. Sturm, tell us -- tell us where 17 you live, please.

18 A. I live at 1711 Bannockburn Drive,
19 Columbia, South Carolina.

20 Q. Speak up just a little bit, if you
21 would. You sound a little froggy this morning.

22 A. Sorry about that. Bannockburn,
23 B-A-N-N-O-C-K-B-U-R-N.

24 Q. And that's in Columbia?

25 A. Columbia, South Carolina.

1 Q. All right. Are you married,
2 Mr. Sturm?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Do you have children?

5 A. Two.

6 Q. Okay. Do they live with you or have
7 they flown the coupe?

8 A. No; they're with me.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. So on the payroll.

11 Q. Tell us where you are employed.

12 A. I'm employed with Ameris Bank.

13 Q. And what is your position with Ameris
14 Bank?

15 A. President of Ameris Bank, South
16 Carolina.

17 Q. And you're currently employed by
18 Ameris?

19 A. Still employed.

20 Q. And were you employed by Ameris Bank
21 in 2007?

22 A. I was.

23 Q. How long have you been with Ameris?

24 A. Six years.

25 Q. And how long have you been the

1 president in South Carolina?

2 A. Roughly four years.

3 Q. As president of South Carolina Ameris,
4 tell the Court a little bit about your duties and
5 responsibilities, please.

6 A. Responsible for any operations that go
7 on in the State of South Carolina, including
8 problem loans, unfortunately, the loan approvals,
9 hiring, firing, any kind of HR thing we might
10 have, deposit operations.

11 Q. All right. Tell me a little bit about
12 Ameris. What kind of bank is Ameris?

13 A. Ameris Bank is a 41-year-old bank. It
14 is a community bank, definitely run on a community
15 bank model.

16 Q. Let me just stop you. When you say
17 community bank, tell us what you mean by that.

18 A. The exact opposite of what a Bank of 19 America or Wells Fargo or one of the giants are.
20 We focus in on -- on smaller commercial loans,
21 taking deposits, consumer transactions, those type
22 things.

23 Q. Where are the headquarters of Ameris?

24 A. Moultrie, Georgia.

25 Q. How many states does it operate in?

1 A. Four states.

2 Q. Okay. Tell me what they are.

3 A. We're in the State of Florida, we're
4 in the State of Alabama, Georgia and then South
5 Carolina.

6 Q. How long has Ameris been in South
7 Carolina?

8 A. For six years.

9 Q. Okay. Now, I want to talk a little
10 bit about what kind of services Ameris offers.
11 Okay? Are you familiar with that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Well, what -- you give me a
14 description of the kind of banking services that 15 Ameris provides.

16 A. Description of what we --

17 Q. The services.

18 A. What we -- the services?

19 Q. Yeah.

20 A. You can make deposits with us. We
21 will lend you money on your home, on a car, equity
22 line on your house, commercial transactions, very 23 similar to what we're talking about today, lines
24 of credit for your business.

25 Q. Residential mortgages?

1 A. Residential mortgages. Just the
2 boiler plate kind of thing. Depository services,
3 your business operating accounts, those type
4 things.

5 Q. Okay. Does Ameris have a trust
6 department?

7 A. We do not.

8 Q. Okay. Does it offer investment
9 advice?

10 A. No. No.

11 Q. Does it have a brokerage department
12 for stocks and bonds?

13 A. We do. If you wanted to sell some 14 stock or buy a specific stock or something along
15 that line, we can facilitate that.

16 Q. Where are those people located?

17 A. In Georgia and Florida.

18 Q. Okay. Do you got any of those people
19 in South Carolina?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Does Ameris offer investment advice
22 through its loan officers?

23 A. No.

24 Q. All right. Does it offer to provide
25 investment advice for a fee with regard to real

1 estate transactions?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Does the bank act as a real estate
4 broker for properties owned by other people?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Does it ever list properties for sale?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Does it ever advise owners how much to 9 pay for property or how much to sell property for?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Do you do appraisals? Does the bank
12 do appraisals?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Does it have any appraisal department
15 whatsoever?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Does it do any real estate
18 development?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Does it buy properties or hold them in 21 hope to resell them at a profit?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Has the bank to your knowledge ever
24 bought any apartments and converted them to 25 condominiums?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Has the bank owned and operated any
3 apartment projects?

4 A. No.

5 Q. It doesn't own any apartments that it
6 rents out as far as you know?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Okay. Does it offer rental management
9 services?

10 A. It does not.

11 Q. Does it manage construction projects?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Does it act as a contractor?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Does it own and operate any shopping
16 centers?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Does it manage shopping centers for 19 third parties?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Well, how's the bank make money,
22 Mr. Sturm?

23 A. Very simply, we -- we take a
24 depositor's money and we lend it to someone else.

25 Q. Okay. Now, when a bank makes a loan

1 -- you said that you -- you described a variety of
2 loans that the bank would make. Whose money is 3 the bank lending?

4 A. Depositor's.

5 Q. And when a bank makes a loan, what is
6 the bank's goal?

7 A. Number 1, to get the principal back,
8 and then if we're successful at that, then it's to 9 get a fair return.

10 Q. Well, what about making a loan to get 11 fees; is this something that the bank does?

12 A. It's not, no.

13 Q. Why not?

14 A. It is not a profitable margin just to 15 make fees.

16 Q. What about to try to get to a
17 borrower's assets; is that a reason that the bank
18 makes a loan?

19 A. Never.

20 Q. Okay. Does Ameris ever want to make a
21 loan that it thinks is going to go into default?

22 A. Never.

23 Q. Why not?

24 A. I tell you, I've been in banking 24
25 years and I've run through a few recessions and

1 had some problem loans in my career. I cannot
2 give you a single instance when we have actually
3 broken even on a loan that has gone bad, much less
4 make a profit; so it -- it's just not going to do
5 us a favor.

6 Q. Okay. Does the bank try to only make
7 loans that it thinks are going to get repaid?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Does it try to only make loans for 10 projects it thinks are going to succeed?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. Now, where a bank makes a loan in 13 connection with a piece of real estate where the 14 value is important, how does the bank determine 15 what the value of the property is?

16 A. We rely on an appraisal.

17 Q. You don't do the appraisal yourself?

18 A. We do not.

19 Q. Are the appraisals that you rely on 20 always accurate?

21 A. We hope they are, but -- but they make 22 errors.

23 Q. Okay. Does the bank ever guarantee
24 the success of a project?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Okay. Now, if the bank thinks that a
2 project was not going to support the debt service
3 on the loan, what would the bank do?

4 A. Decline the loan.

5 Q. Okay. Would the bank knowingly make a
6 loan that it thinks the debt service won't support
7 -- that the project won't support the debt
8 service?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Now, if a bank does agree -- if not a
11 bank, I'm talking about Ameris. If Ameris agrees
12 to provide a loan, makes a commercial loan
13 commitment, does that mean that Ameris thinks the 14 project is a good deal?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Is there any reason why Ameris
17 wouldn't tell that to the borrower?

18 A. No.

19 Q. When you provide a loan commitment, is 20 that what you're telling the borrower?

21 A. That is.

22 Q. Now, in your experience, who knows
23 more about a project that's being financed by a
24 commercial loan; the bank or the borrower?

25 A. Always the borrower.

1 Q. Well, why is it that the borrower
2 knows more than the bank?

3 A. Well, hopefully, they've done the due
4 diligence that they should have done especially
5 for a loan of this size, looking into it, checking
6 the values, done the contract. Usually they put 7 in months of research in deciding whether they 8 want to do it. By the time it gets to us, they've 9 decided they want to do it, have the terms they 10 want, and it's just up to us to see if we think 11 it's reasonable or not.

12 Q. Does the bank --

13 A. If it's reasonable, we do the loan.

14 Q. All right. In making that decision,
15 does Ameris rely on the borrower to have done the 16 basic due diligence on the project?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Well, what is the impact on 19 Ameris if a loan goes into default?

20 A. We typically lose a lot of money.

21 Q. What about time?

22 A. We lose time and money, resources.

23 Q. Have to hire fellows like me?

24 A. Yeah. Attorneys.

25 Q. God bless you.

1 So am I correct to say that banks are
2 not looking for loans that are going to go into
3 default; Ameris is not?

4 A. That is accurate.

5 Q. All right. Well, when there is a
6 default -- sometimes happens, right?

7 A. That is true.

8 Q. Some percentage of loans go into 9 default, correct?

10 A. That is true.

11 Q. Well, is Ameris concerned about the 12 borrower if a loan goes into default?

13 A. Oh, sure we are.

14 Q. Well, why?

15 A. You know, just general principle. No
16 one wants anything bad to happen to anyone. If 17 something bad is happening to a borrower, it's 18 going to reverberate to us. It's just a losing
19 proposition all the way around.

20 Q. Well, if Ameris is confronted with a
21 defaulted loan, does it try to help the borrower
22 generally?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Tell me how it might try to help.

25 A. Well, let's talk about this case in

1 particular. We -- we worked with this case
2 roughly two years, if memory serves, from November
3 of '08 to August of 2010 before we had to proceed
4 with foreclosure. We extended the maturity dates.
5 We reduced the interest rates. We even proposed
6 writing down $200,000 on the loan. We offered to 7 restructure the loan, take the debt off of this
8 particular project.

9 You know, once we realized it wasn't
10 going to work at the level it was, we suggested,
11 you know, let's reduce the debt on this one, put 12 this debt on another project that can support that 13 debt and then, you know, this project should 14 support the remaining debt.

15 Unfortunately, Heritage Seven decided
16 not to -- not to take any of those options and we 17 were forced to start foreclosure procedures.

18 Q. When did this loan go into default?

19 A. August 2010.

20 Q. I think that's when the foreclosure
21 was filed.

22 A. Yeah, that's when the foreclosure was 23 filed.

24 Q. When was the default, though?

25 A. November 2008. I'd have to look at

1 the notes to see specifically.

2 Q. Well, in November 2008, if that was
3 the date of default, why didn't you foreclose
4 right then?

5 A. Well, it's always best if we can work
6 it out. I mean, always best.

7 Q. Is foreclosure a good option for
8 Ameris?

9 A. It is not a good option.

10 Q. For the reasons you've already just 11 talked about?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. Now, were you with the bank in
14 October 2007?

15 A. I was.

16 Q. Did you have anything to do with this
17 loan application, processing this loan
18 application?

19 A. I did not.

20 Q. Okay. During the time -- and I guess
21 this is clear, but let me just say this. During 22 the -- from November 2008 until this foreclosure
23 in August of 2010, did the conversion work on the 24 project get finished?

25 A. You know, to the best of my knowledge,

1 it did. I -- my understanding is all the work was
2 done. I hadn't heard anything to the contrary.

3 Q. Okay. Was the property sold? The 4 property wasn't sold?

5 A. In 2008, it had not been.

6 Q. What about at the time the foreclosure
7 was brought, the property had not been sold?

8 A. The property had not been sold.

9 Q. Okay. Obviously, the debt had not 10 been refinanced; is that correct?

11 A. That is true.

12 Q. Okay. What was the total amount of 13 money that Ameris advanced for this project?

14 A. Round numbers, $2.8 million.

15 Q. Was any of that principal -- that's 16 the principal amount?

17 A. That is the principal amount.

18 Q. Did any of that principal ever get
19 repaid?

20 A. Not by the borrower.

21 Q. Okay. Well, I'm going to come to what
22 happened, but did Heritage Seven or Mrs. Gibson
23 ever repay any of that principal?

24 A. No.

25 Q. And was that money actually disbursed

1 by Ameris?

2 A. That was hard cash that Ameris put
3 out, yeah.

4 Q. Okay. At any time prior to the
5 foreclosure being filed, did Mrs. Gibson ever tell
6 the bank to your knowledge that she didn't think
7 she ought to have to repay the loan?

8 A. Never.

9 Q. What ultimately happened to the loan?
10 Ameris doesn't own it today. We've heard about 11 Galt Valley. What happened?

12 A. We had the opportunity to sell the 13 loan to Galt Valley, so we sold it for $975,000.

14 Q. And why?

15 A. You know, there's been a lot of 16 regulatory pressure on banks lately, and one of 17 the pressures is, is you move your problem loans
18 out of the bank so you don't have to deal with 19 them, almost -- it doesn't matter what the cost
20 is, and this was a pretty significant cost.

21 Q. In -- you've reviewed -- and in your
22 capacity as president of the bank, you've reviewed
23 the underwriting on this loan --

24 A. Yes, I have.

25 Q. -- correct?

1 Is there any reason based upon what
2 was known in November of 2007, in your view, that
3 this loan should not have been made?

4 A. No. It was -- it is a loan that
5 should have been made based on the circumstances
6 at the time.

7 Q. Well, knowing what you know sitting
8 here today, do you wish it had not been made?

9 A. God, I wish it had not been made.

10 Q. All right. Are you aware, Mr. Sturm,
11 of any information at any point along the line
12 that Ameris Bank was privy to that Heritage Seven 13 or Mrs. Gibson was not privy to?

14 A. I am not aware of any.

15 Q. Was the bank in any respect in a
16 superior position to evaluate this project than 17 the borrower was at any time?

18 A. No.

19 Q. As we sit here today in 2012, what
20 kind of loss has Ameris taken on this loan?

21 A. Strictly in terms of just principal,
22 round numbers is, let's say, $1.8 million.

23 Q. Okay. You loaned 2.8, you got 975
24 back?

25 A. Right.

1 Q. Is that it?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. Any other source of recovery at this
4 point?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Mrs. Gibson's been released by the 7 bank?

8 A. Yes.

9 MR. STEPP: Okay. Just a moment, Your
10 Honor.

11 That's all the questions I have.
12 Please answer any questions that Mr. Kefalos has.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Kefalos.

14 MR. KEFALOS: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. KEFALOS:

17 Q. Mr. Sturm, did you know that Ameris
18 was going to contact Karl Zerbst about coming to 19 work for Ameris before the contact was made?

20 A. I'm not sure I understand that 21 question. I mean, obviously, I was told that they 22 were considering hiring him, but other than that 23 -- is that what you mean?

24 Q. That's what I mean.

25 A. Okay. So yes.

1 Q. So you knew that somebody was
2 considering hiring Mr. Zerbst. Did you know that
3 Marc Bogan was the one who made the contact with 4 Mr. Zerbst initially?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And were you aware at the time that
7 Mr. Bogan made contact with Mr. Zerbst while
8 Mr. Zerbst was still employed by First Reliance?

9 A. No, I didn't know that.

10 Q. All right. Did you know that 11 Mr. Bogan talked with Mr. Zerbst about coming to 12 work for Ameris a couple of times during the 13 summer of 2007 while he was still at First
14 Reliance?

15 A. No, I did not, although it wouldn't
16 surprise me. I mean, that doesn't sound abnormal.

17 Q. Now, you did learn that Mr. Zerbst
18 left First Reliance in October of 2007?

19 A. I knew that he left First Reliance. I
20 couldn't tell you the time.

21 Q. In the time he left First Reliance,
22 you knew that Mr. Zerbst was talking with Ameris
23 about his efforts to get out of the covenant not
24 to compete that he had with First Reliance?

25 A. I wasn't aware that he was trying to

1 get out of that covenant, no.

2 Q. Were you aware that Mr. Zerbst was
3 talking with Ameris, your bank --

4 A. I was.

5 Q. -- in October of 2007 about trying to 6 get out of the covenant not to compete with
7 Reliance so that he could come to work for Ameris?

8 A. I did not know that Mr. Zerbst was
9 trying to get out of any covenant that he had. I
10 knew that he had a covenant to not compete, but I
11 didn't know he was trying to get out of one.

12 Q. Would you take a look at Exhibit 39 in 13 the plaintiffs' exhibits? I think it's the small
14 one there.

15 Exhibit 39 consists of a couple of 16 E-mails, a letter from The Richter Law Firm. Do
17 you see that?

18 A. I must be looking at the wrong one
19 now.

20 Q. Plaintiffs' Exhibit 39. At the 21 bottom, it says Plaintiffs' Exhibit 39.

22 A. Oh, there we go. My apologies.
23 Response to Art Justice's letter?

24 Q. Yeah. Well, the first -- let me ask
25 you first, have you seen these E-mails before?

1 A. I have not.

2 Q. You have not. So you weren't aware in 3 October of 2007 that Mr. Zerbst was sending
4 correspondence from his lawyer, Larry Richter, to 5 your bank to share with your bank's lawyers about
6 the covenant not to compete?

7 A. At that time, I had no idea it was
8 Larry Richter's, but none of this surprises me.

9 Q. Did you have any input into the 10 decision of hiring Mr. Zerbst?

11 A. Just input as relative to opinion on 12 whether I thought it was a good idea or not, but 13 the ultimate decision was Marc's.

14 Q. And did you think it was a good idea?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. You knew that Mr. Zerbst had been in 17 the banking business in the Charleston area for 18 quite a long time?

19 A. I think it was about ten years.

20 Q. And yet did you think that he had a
21 lot of contacts in the banking business in 22 Charleston?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And did you think that Ameris could
25 benefit from the banking contacts that Mr. Zerbst

1 had if he joined Ameris?

2 A. Yeah. Just like everyone we hire,
3 hopefully.

4 Q. Yeah. And is it true that Mr. Zerbst
5 brought a lot of customers from First Reliance to 6 Ameris when he came over to Ameris?

7 A. I don't know of -- I don't know where
8 all the customers came from. He didn't do bad.
9 There are others that did better, but he did okay.

10 Q. Yeah. And Linda Gibson wasn't the 11 only customer Mr. Zerbst brought from First 12 Reliance over to Ameris, was she?

13 A. You know, I hate to disagree with you,
14 but I don't think Karl brought Linda over. If I'm 15 not mistaken, it was Benjie Lanier.

16 Q. Okay. Is it true that Mr. Zerbst
17 brought so many customers from First Reliance to 18 Ameris, that First Reliance actually sued Ameris
19 for collaborating with Mr. Zerbst to take 20 customers from First Reliance?

21 A. No, I would say that is a false
22 statement.

23 Q. Well, take a look at Exhibit 68.

24 68 in the plaintiffs' book, the one
25 that you have on the table.

1 A. The one that I just sat down? I see
2 66.

3 Q. There's not a tab for 68, so you'll
4 just have to page through it.

5 THE COURT: 68 is the one you just
6 gave this morning?

7 MR. KEFALOS: Yes.

8 BY MR. KEFALOS:

9 Q. You've seen this complaint before,
10 haven't you?

11 A. Yes. Yes.

12 Q. So you --

13 A. It's been a while since I've read it,
14 but yes.

15 Q. So it is true that First Reliance sued
16 Ameris for collaborating with Mr. Zerbst in taking 17 Ameris -- taking First Reliance's customers?

18 A. I don't know that -- I'm not sure of 19 the technical part of it, but they thought he was 20 taking their customers, yeah. Yeah. I don't 21 agree with what they thought, but nevertheless.

22 Q. Now, you know today in this litigation
23 that Linda Gibson has alleged that Mr. Zerbst
24 arranged this loan before he formally joined
25 Ameris?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And I understand today that you claim
3 that Mr. Zerbst had nothing to do with arranging
4 this loan between Linda Gibson and Ameris Bank?

5 A. That would be a true statement, yes.

6 Q. All right. But that's not always been
7 Ameris's position, has it?

8 A. I don't know what you're talking about 9 on there, but --

10 Q. Well, take a look at Exhibit Number --
11 I'm sorry. I didn't mean to interrupt you.

12 A. That's okay.

13 Q. Take a look at Exhibit 71.

14 MR. STEPP: Your Honor, let me renew
15 my objection at this point. That's the 16 interrogatory answer that was supplemented and 17 amended.

18 THE COURT: All right. Your objection
19 is?

20 MR. STEPP: Well, my objection is that
21 it's not probative of the position of the bank
22 when it was clearly corrected as an error, and I
23 don't know that this witness would have -- I don't 24 think he signed it. I don't have it in front of 25 me, but I doubt that he did. So if it was a

1 position, it was a position of counsel that was
2 subsequently corrected, and so it's not -- it's 3 not an admission and, therefore, it's not
4 relevant.

5 THE COURT: I will allow it to come in
6 on cross-examination and you can give me the 7 updated, corrected --

8 BY MR. KEFALOS:

9 Q. Look at Page 7 of Plaintiffs' Exhibit
10 71 at the bottom, Number 11. Now, these are 11 interrogatories that Linda Gibson sent to Ameris
12 Bank, and read along with me.

13 Item 11 says: Identify all documents
14 and information defendant considered in processing
15 all applications for loans for Linda Gibson or 16 Heritage Seven, including, but not limited to,
17 correspondence, notes, memos, requests for 18 appraisals and any other information defendant
19 obtained from any source.

20 Now, read the answer that Ameris filed
21 at that time to that question.

22 A. Karl Zerbst handled the processing of 23 the loan applications relevant to this case.
24 Mr. Zerbst is no longer an employee of Ameris
25 Bank, and Ameris therefore cannot ascertain what

1 documents he may have reviewed. Additionally,
2 Ameris transferred the relevant loans to Galt
3 Valley. Thus, Ameris Bank does not know what
4 documents were considered in processing the loan
5 applications for Gibson or Heritage Seven.

6 Q. I'm interested in the first part of
7 that answer that says Ameris -- or it says: Karl
8 Zerbst handled the processing of the loan
9 applications relevant to this case. Do you know
10 who at Ameris provided that information for your 11 lawyers to file?

12 A. No, I don't, but it's -- I -- I'm
13 embarrassed to say that's inaccurate.

14 Q. All right. Now, there was a change
15 made in that interrogatory, wasn't there?

16 MR. KEFALOS: And, Bobby, you've
17 designated this one?

18 MR. STEPP: Yes. But I certainly 19 don't object if you want to put it --

20 MR. KEFALOS: Well, I don't have it
21 numbered, but did you number it?

22 THE COURT: I don't think so.

23 MR. KEFALOS: We'll number this 72.

24

25 (PLF. EX. 72, Defendant Ameris Bank's

1 Amended Answers to Plaintiffs'
2 Interrogatories, Galt Valley, LLC, v.
3 Linda Gibson, et al., was marked for
4 identification.)

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 THE COURT REPORTER: You're welcome.

7 BY MR. KEFALOS:

8 Q. Now, on 72 -- I'm sorry. You don't
9 have a copy of 72?

10 A. That's right.

11 THE COURT: Here, you can look at this
12 (tendering).

13 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

14 BY MR. KEFALOS:

15 Q. 72, the answer changes. Do you see
16 that on Page Number 2 in the answer to Number 11?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. Who provided this changed -- this new
19 information?

20 A. I'm sorry. I don't know who provided
21 that information. It doesn't surprise me how it
22 happened, but -- but I don't know who provided the 23 information. Karl was Benjie's superior when all
24 this took place. I'm sure they just got confused
25 as to who was actually handling the money.

1 Q. Now, it's interesting. This answer
2 says that the reason the first answer was
3 incorrect is because Mr. Zerbst did not begin
4 working for Ameris until more than two months
5 after the purchase.

6 A. Yeah, that -- you know, that's an
7 accurate statement as it is in itself. The 8 reality is, is Karl was in Myrtle Beach working
9 for a year when he first started working for us;
10 so, I mean, I guess I could see what you're trying 11 to get at.

12 Now, you know, I wasn't intricately
13 involved with this case. This is just a travesty
14 that this even happened to Karl, why this was 15 here. It was so out of bounds that what they 16 accused him of. They just should be embarrassed
17 they even brought that case. I'm sorry, but Karl 18 had absolutely nothing to do with what was going
19 on with First Reliance Bank. I'm 100 percent
20 confident of that.

21 Q. Did you read the testimony of 22 Mr. Lanier?

23 A. In this particular case?

24 Q. In this case.

25 A. I did not read it. I listened to his

1 testimony.

2 Q. You listened to it. Did you listen to
3 the part where he described how Mr. Zerbst brought
4 the package from First Reliance over to Rolando
5 and him, Mr. Lanier?

6 A. I did.

7 Q. And you heard about the charade that
8 went on, that Mr. --

9 MR. STEPP: Objection, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: What's the objection?

11 MR. STEPP: To the term charade. It's 12 a prejourative term and inconsistent with the 13 evidence.

14 THE COURT: Do you want to change
15 that?

16 BY MR. KEFALOS:

17 Q. It was the theater where Mr. Zerbst --

18 MR. STEPP: Same objection.

19 BY MR. KEFALOS:

20 Q. -- made a production about saying I am
21 now giving this to Rolando?

22 A. Who knows why he did that. I have no
23 idea.

24 Q. Yeah. Okay. So you read that and you
25 still claim that Mr. Zerbst had nothing to do with

1 bringing the loan over?

2 A. I don't think he had anything to do
3 with anything about moving those over. I mean, I
4 have -- I think Benjie did an excellent job. I
5 mean, Kim Racine did an excellent job of moving
6 all those loans over. Heritage Seven was just one
7 of many that those two brought over.

8 We're talking about millions of 9 dollars of loans before Karl even came to the 10 bank. Once he was in Myrtle Beach, yeah, those 11 things kind of happen. When you bring good
12 employees over from other banks, they have a
13 tendency to bring those loans with them.

14 Q. Oh. So your testimony is that they
15 brought Benjie and Mr. Zerbst brought millions of 16 dollars of loans from First Reliance?

17 A. No; my testimony was that Kim Racine
18 and Benjie Lanier did an excellent job of bringing 19 millions of dollars of loans from First Reliance.

20 MR. KEFALOS: That's all the questions
21 I have. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Redirect?

23 MR. STEPP: A few on redirect, if I
24 may, Your Honor.

25 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

1 BY MR. STEPP:

2 Q. Mr. Sturm, I want to be real clear
3 about this, if I can. Did Ameris Bank control the 4 activities of Karl Zerbst at any time prior to 5 January of 2008?

6 A. Never.

7 Q. Did Ameris Bank every instruct Karl
8 Zerbst to act for the benefit of Ameris Bank at
9 any time prior to January of 2008?

10 A. Absolutely never.

11 Q. Did Ameris Bank at any time ever tell
12 Linda Gibson that Karl Zerbst was acting for 13 Ameris Bank prior to January of 2008?

14 A. Never.

15 Q. Now, Mr. Kefalos asked you about some 16 contact between Mr. Zerbst and Ameris while he was 17 still employed at First Reliance. Do you think 18 there's anything wrong with that?

19 A. It's normal.

20 Q. So if you're going to hire somebody,
21 typically, they might already be employed, right?

22 A. Usually the better ones are employed
23 when you hire them.

24 Q. Now -- and if you're going to hire
25 somebody that has a noncompetite, that would be an

1 issue, wouldn't it?

2 A. It is.

3 Q. And if you were going to think about
4 hiring somebody with a noncompete, you would need
5 to consider the noncompete, would you not?

6 A. Absolutely.

7 Q. Okay. Now, Mr. Kefalos showed you the
8 complaint that First Reliance filed. Did Ameris
9 Bank defend that suit?

10 A. Yes. Yes.

11 Q. And can you identify that as a copy
12 (tendering) of the answer that was filed on behalf
13 of Ameris Bank in that suit?

14 A. That is.

15 Q. And did Ameris Bank deny any
16 wrongdoing in connection with the allegations made
17 by First Reliance?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And did any of this to your knowledge
20 have anything to do with anything that Karl Zerbst
21 did prior to January of 2008?

22 A. Nothing.

23 MR. STEPP: I'd offer this as 24 Defendant's Exhibit 126, Your Honor. It's the 25 answer of Ameris in that case.

1 THE COURT: It's admitted.

2 MR. STEPP: Thank you.

3 (DFT. EX. 126, Answer, First Reliance
4 Bank v. Karl H. Zerbst, Jr., and
5 Ameris Bank, was marked for
6 identification.)

7 (DFT. EX. 126 was admitted into
8 evidence.)

9 MR. STEPP: No further questions of 10 this witness, Your Honor.

11 MR. KEFALOS: No other questions, Your
12 Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Just give me a
14 moment, please.

15 Mr. Sturm, in 2007, towards the end of 16 2007, Amy Bigham worked with Ameris. Is she still 17 employed with Ameris?

18 THE WITNESS: She is.

19 THE COURT: What was her capacity in 20 2007 -- end of 2007, November 2007 and January of 21 2008?

22 THE WITNESS: I'm going to apologize,
23 but I don't know when her job change actually took 24 place. At one point, she was administrative 25 assistant to John Hipp who was the president of

1 the bank at that time. Subsequent to that, she
2 took on a role of human resources in the State of
3 South Carolina, and I just don't know when the 4 change took place.

5 THE COURT: I see. So in the end of
6 2007, early 2008, Mr. Hipp was the president of 7 Ameris Bank; is that correct?

8 THE WITNESS: Yes, president of Ameris
9 Bank, the corporation --

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 THE WITNESS: -- versus mine which is
12 the state.

13 THE COURT: Yours is the state?

14 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir. There are 15 four folks that operate our bank and I'm one of 16 those four folks, and we report to the president
17 of the corporation.

18 THE COURT: I'm just trying, you know
19 -- all these folks have been fighting this case
20 for a long time and I'm trying to understand all
21 of the issues that are involved, and a lot of the 22 issues surround Mr. Zerbst, as you know.

23 THE WITNESS: Yes.

24 THE COURT: And if Joe Jones would
25 have come to Ameris Bank in October of 2007, how

1 would he have applied for a job at that time?

2 THE WITNESS: In October of 2 -- if he
3 just came in and wanted to apply for a job?

4 THE COURT: Um-hum.

5 THE WITNESS: He would have filled out
6 a loan application.

7 MR. STEPP: Loan application?

8 THE COURT: Employment?

9 THE WITNESS: Excuse me. Employment
10 application. My apologies. We don't force them
11 to borrow money from us.

12 THE COURT: Let me say that -- go
13 ahead.

14 THE WITNESS: I think what you're
15 asking me is, is it normal for us to recruit 16 someone; is that what you're getting at or --

17 THE COURT: No.

18 THE WITNESS: Okay. I apologize.

19 THE COURT: How about if someone would
20 have come in in January, wanted a job on January 21 the 9th of 2008 and filled out an application; how 22 would that have been processed normally in a bank?

23 THE WITNESS: In a bank?

24 THE COURT: In your bank.

25 THE WITNESS: In our bank?

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 THE WITNESS: The interviewee would go
3 through a series of interviews with various folks.
4 If the determination was that we wanted to hire
5 them, then we would have them fill out an 6 employment application, at which time we would
7 pull their credit report, we'd do drug screening
8 and we'd do a law investigation, make sure there's 9 no criminal activities. Once that's done, then we 10 would issue a formal letter asking them to join
11 us.

12 The interview process is obviously the 13 longest of the --

14 THE COURT: So did Mr. Zerbst ever
15 come in to Ameris Bank and interview for a job?

16 THE WITNESS: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Do you know when that 18 happened?

19 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

20 THE COURT: Do you know who that would 21 have been with?

22 THE WITNESS: It would have been with
23 Marc Bogan. I would have been surprised if John
24 Hipp didn't speak to him at that point.

25 THE COURT: So in the normal course of

1 business in your bank of hiring employees, they
2 would fill out an application and then you would
3 have had interviews; is that correct?

4 THE WITNESS: No, sir. Usually the 5 interviews come first.

6 THE COURT: The interviews come before
7 the application?

8 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir. The
9 application and the drug screening and those type
10 of things, that could take hours or it could take
11 a day. That part of it's not long and drawn out.
12 Once we go to hire somebody, we move rapidly once
13 the decision has been made.

14 THE COURT: So what you're telling me
15 now is, the decision is normally made at Ameris
16 Bank that someone would be hired before they fill
17 out an application?

18 THE WITNESS: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Then do you have any
20 information or is anybody at Ameris Bank -- would 21 they have any information that they could share
22 with me as to when Karl Zerbst interviewed with 23 Marc Bogan?

24 THE WITNESS: The first time?

25 THE COURT: First or subsequently,

1 whenever.

2 THE WITNESS: I would have to rely on
3 Marc for that. I apologize.

4 MR. STEPP: Your Honor, some of that
5 -- I don't know about that specific date, but some
6 of that is covered in Mr. Bogan's deposition.

7 THE COURT: Oh, it is?

8 MR. STEPP: The process is addressed,
9 and although it's probably not -- perhaps not as 10 specific as you're asking, but it is at least 11 addressed.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Good. Well, that's 13 what I didn't have.

14 MR. STEPP: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Because what I have in
16 front of me in the notes so far is that Amy Bigham
17 on Wednesday, January the 9th, 2008, at 3:07 p.m.
18 E-mailed Marc Bogan and said: Karl is good to go.
19 I'm working on the benefits summary sheet and I'll 20 send the offer, and I can include when I send the 21 offer letter some of the benefits outlined.

22 And then Bogan responds at 3:25 p.m.:
23 Will you please prepare an offer immediately? And 24 then he applies on 1/9/08.

25 So there's obviously something going

1 on before all of this; would that be accurate?

2 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir. Very normal.

3 THE COURT: All right. And then maybe
4 I'll find that out in Mr. Bogan's deposition.

5 All right. Any questions as a result
6 of mine?

7 MR. KEFALOS: Nothing from plaintiff.

8 MR. STEPP: Nothing for the defendant,
9 Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
11 And you may step down.

12 MR. STEPP: Your Honor, at this time,
13 we would proffer a few additional exhibits. They 14 are exhibits to the deposition of 15 Mr. Villavicencio. And just so we'll have them in 16 this record, they're referred to in the 17 deposition, but we want to give them exhibit
18 numbers for this case so they wouldn't be
19 confusing; so we would proffer Exhibits 114
20 through 125, all of which are -- I'm sorry. The 21 first -- wait. Let me do this again. I'm sorry.

22 We offer Exhibit 114 which is an
23 E-mail from Benjie Lanier to Rolando dated October 24 23rd, 2007, and apparently has not previously been 25 put into evidence.

1 Jackson and Hill in Mt. Pleasant, did he do any work on
2 this case for you?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Has any accountant done any work on this case
5 for you? That could be a bookkeeper, an accountant or a
6 CPA.

7 A. Well, I also had retained Larry Richter's
8 firm. I believe he had a forensic accountant, I cannot
9 remember his name, take a look at some of the papers. I
10 don't even know what all he took a look at, and gave his 11 opinion on some things.

12 Q. Okay. And that opinion was it put into 13 writing?

14 A. I believe it was. They gave it to 15 Mr. Richter.

16 Q. Okay. And have you seen that document which 17 was produced apparently to Mr. Richter's firm?

18 A. I believe I did read over it, yes.

19 Q. Do you remember, generally speaking, what it
20 said? Or specifically, obviously.

21 A. Well, sort of like --

22 MR. EPTING: Let me make an observation,
23 Max? Can we continue with the questioning about this was 24 an informally consulted expert which this is the first
25 I've heard of him if he's an informal.

1 Q. That was my next question. Did he ever give
2 you any advice?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Okay. Have you sued the Verdi Company based 5 upon this contract and their failure, in your opinion, or 6 somebody else's, to comply with the contract which was 7 signed between you and them?

8 A. No. No, I haven't. I don't know why we 9 needed an architect. I don't know why. I don't know why
10 he ... No.

11 Q. At some point was there, I don't know whether 12 to call it a ground breaking, ribbon cutting, or 13 something, was there something that you attended at the 14 apartments to kind of do a PR push and say here's what 15 we're doing?

16 A. No.

17 MR. MAHAFFEE: Okay. Why don't I get that
18 marked No. 4.

19 (Defendants' Exhibit No. 4, letter dated
20 9/12/07, was marked for identification.)

21 Q. What's been marked as Exhibit 4, have you ever
22 seen that document before?

23 A. No. No, I've never seen this.

24 Q. Okay. And in the third paragraph it says, and 25 I'll just read it, "We intend to help you spend the money

1 you've got in the most cost-effective way possible to
2 meet your goals. First, we've assumed an approximate 600
3 K, $600,000 budget ceiling." Was there ever a budget
4 ceiling that you know of that the architect either had
5 or -- let me talk about that. Were you aware that there
6 was a budget ceiling?

7 A. No. I wasn't aware of any of this. The only
8 thing I know about the Verdi Group was that they were
9 going to get information on how to do a green building.
10 That's all. I really don't even know what the Verdi
11 Group does. I mean all I knew is that they helped 12 you, you know, about the green building. And that's all 13 that Rolando ever told me. I never met this guy until 14 the following year.

15 MR. WILKES: This guy who?

16 MR. MAHAFFEE: Mr. Hill.

17 Q. David Anthony Hill?

18 A. Mr. Hill, yeah.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. And then the only reason I met him at that 21 time is that they were having problems with the 22 contractor Mark.

23 Q. Okay. What sort of problems, at least to your 24 knowledge, were they having with the contractor?

25 A. Well, he and Rolando had some problems. I

1 wasn't aware of that either. And so I just discovered a
2 lot of things when I went, initially went down there that
3 day. As I started to ask questions one thing kind of 4 unfolded to another problem to another problem. I mean
5 the very first day that I went down there the guys that 6 Rolando had hired, the Honey Do It team, to renovate, the 7 guy there told me that because I asked where the 8 contractor was, and he said I don't know. He said he
9 rarely comes by and he and Mark -- I mean he and Rolando
10 don't usually like to be in the same area together. And 11 so I wasn't quite sure what was going on there. But I
12 mean that's when I discovered there was a problem between 13 him and Mark.

14 Q. And do you recall when it was that you went by 15 and the Honey Do It guy was in?

16 A. It was the latter part of March.

17 Q. Okay. And did you speak with Rolando sometime
18 after late March of 2008 about what sort of problems he 19 was having with the contractor on your property?

20 A. I didn't really confront Rolando directly
21 about any of this, because I wasn't sure what was going
22 on. My friend John Holt, you know, he says Linda, I
23 think you need to go down and check on things, and I will 24 go with you. And we discovered, like I said, as we
25 talked to these individuals, they talked -- I would ask a

1 A. Well, he lived in Laurens and he would come
2 down from Laurens. He would stay at the apartments, once
3 I got started -- took over, you know, he stayed at the 4 apartments.

5 Q. And did Mr. Holt have any construction
6 background to your knowledge?

7 A. No. I think he had a general idea of some 8 things but, no, he never told me that he was in
9 construction.

10 Q. What kind of work did he do up there in 11 Laurens?

12 A. Well, he was retired at the time. But he had 13 done -- I think he had some real estate himself and some 14 horses. He kind of dealt with horses, bought and sold
15 horses. So I'm not quite sure of what all his background
16 was.

17 Q. I'm assuming, with a name like Horse Trail
18 Road, that you own some horses.

19 A. Yes, I do.

20 Q. And do the horses stay there on the property
21 or are they elsewhere?

22 A. No, they stay there.

23 Q. Okay. Have you built a horse barn there?

24 A. My husband had one constructed on it.

25 Q. How many horses do you have currently?

1 A. I have, let's see, I think I have like six.
2 My husband had several of them when he died. I've been
3 trying to sell them. The horse market is as bad as the 4 real estate market.

5 Q. Yes, ma'am. And I was thinking about asking
6 this so I hope it's not a repeat. Did you ever pay
7 Mr. Holt for doing any work for you?

8 A. No.

9 Q. When he would come down and stay at the 10 apartments was he overseeing the construction, assisting
11 you on that side of it?

12 A. No. He wasn't overseeing it. I mean he was 13 there mainly just -- he saw that I was under a lot of 14 stress. And he was there to encourage me so that I could 15 get through this and whatever help he could be he was 16 glad to do it. But he was in his sixties. I mean he 17 couldn't do a lot of manual labor or anything, so ... He 18 would give me his opinion on things, like if he thought
19 that this might be a good idea or this might not. I
20 tried to talk with several people that could give me some 21 advice.

22 Q. And in what general areas did you seek or get
23 advice from Mr. Holt and these other people?

24 A. Well, from Mr. Holt I got -- tried to figure
25 out, you know, who to hire to do some of this work. And

1 what questions I should ask. I talked to some different
2 realtors at the time because I wanted to find out what
3 their perspective was on this property and how I could
4 sell it.

5 Q. And when you say this property you're speaking
6 still about the apartments.

7 A. The apartments yes.

8 Q. And who are the different realtors that you
9 spoke with?

10 A. Let's see. I spoke with Dexter Rumsey with 11 the Vanguard who is here in Charleston.

12 Q. You said Rumsey?

13 A. Rumsey.

14 Q. R-u-m-s-e-y, I guess?

15 A. Uh-huh, Rumsey.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. And I spoke with Christina Ellis. I think
18 she's with Carolina One.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. And Geoff, that's with a G, G-e-o-f-f, Geoff
21 Southard. I beleive he was with Carolina One at the same
22 time as Christina. And there was another realtor, I
23 cannot -- I don't recall his name. But he was with a
24 commercial group here in Charleston.

25 Q. Okay. Did you ever enter into an agreement

1 with Dexter Rumsey, Christina Ellis, or Geoff Southard or
2 with their companies?

3 A. I've had Geoff in the past year list the 4 property for sale.

5 Q. And have you gotten any offers on those
6 apartments?

7 A. Yes. I had several offers.

8 Q. What's the highest offer you received?

9 A. 1.2 million.

10 Q. And you say the real estate market is kind of 11 tough right now. Did you ever have the apartments
12 appraised to see what they were worth?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Do you know what they're worth in the current 15 market?

16 A. Not really. I mean I've heard other realtors
17 give me their opinions, but I don't know what it's really 18 worth.

19 Q. Okay. It's my understanding that you're in 20 litigation with Ameris right now.

21 A. Uh-huh.

22 Q. Is that a yes?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. As part of that have they done an appraisal on 25 the apartments?

1 A. I believe they did do an appraisal.

2 Q. Okay. Do you know the amount of that
3 appraisal?

4 A. I knew you were going to ask me that. I was 5 trying to think what the appraisal was. I think -- I
6 believe it was 1.8 million. I think that's what they 7 told me, Ellis, or somebody, told me the appraisal was.

8 Q. When you listed it through Mr. Southard and 9 Carolina One what amount did he say would be a good
10 amount to put it or list it for out there on the market?

11 A. Well, Mr. Southard said that he thought it was 12 worth maybe about $750,000. But he said -- I told him, I
13 said we had an offer of 1.2. These people really wanted
14 it. But I was trying to sell it for as much as I could,
15 and I asked him to list it for 1.5.

16 Q. And the offer of 1.2 million was something you
17 got before Mr. Southard?

18 A. Uh-huh.

19 Q. And was it listed with someone or someone just 20 called you up and said hey, I'll buy it from you for 21 X number of dollars?

22 A. No. Ameris, the bank officer there at Ameris,
23 I don't know whether he knew the people that wanted it,
24 or they had done business before with Ameris Bank, but he 25 knew they had a partner. So he asked them, and they were

1 familiar with the apartments, and they came over and
2 talked with me and gave me that offer. Well, they gave
3 me an offer of 1.1. But I asked for a little higher than 4 that. So they said they would be willing to do 1.2. And
5 that ...

6 Q. You paid how much for the apartments?

7 A. 2.8.

8 Q. And when you purchased them in November of 9 2007, of course that was before the real estate market
10 essentially crashed, correct?

11 A. If you say. I don't remember when it -- yes,
12 I think so. I'm not sure when it all went kind of south.

13 Q. And let me ask you about this. These are some 14 documents which were obtained from Ameris Bank. What 15 I'll do is when we take a break I'll make copies for 16 everybody.

17 (Off-the-record conference.)

18 MR. KEFALOS: What's the date of that, Max?

19 MR. MAHAFFEE: The date of the appraisal is 20 March 9, 2010. Just for the record these are Ameris
21 00024, I'll leave off the zeros, 25, 36, 79, 80, 83 and 22 116. I'm going to get those all marked as Exhibit 5.

23 (Defendants' Exhibit No. 5, executive summary,
24 was marked for identification.)

25 MR. MAHAFFEE: We've been going for an hour

1 and a half. Why don't we take five minutes so I can make
2 a copy of these.

3 (Recess taken.)

4 MR. MAHAFFEE: Back on the record.

5 Q. Take your time and look at that document.

6 A. (Witness complies.) Okay.

7 MR. KEFALOS: Linda, there's no reason to read
8 every line.

9 THE WITNESS: I haven't seen this before.

10 Q. The Exhibit 5, which you have got in front of 11 you, you said to your knowledge you've never seen this?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Okay. On the second page, which is Ameris
14 00025.

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Did Ameris ever inform you that the market
17 value "as is" of the property at the time of this March
18 2010 appraisal was worth $1,850,000?

19 A. Ameris didn't. I believe my attorney told me.

20 Q. Were you ever informed that the prospective
21 value of the property, as they say, "stabilized" was 22 $2,250,000?

23 A. No.

24 Q. When Mr. Southard said it was worth 700, and 25 you said that you had already got an offer for 1.2, did

1 he suggest at that time that it might be a good thing to
2 do to get the apartments appraised? Since his valuation
3 was at least $500,000 off.

4 A. No. Yeah. I don't recall him suggesting
5 that, no.

6 Q. And did Mr. Southard tell you why he thought
7 that it was worth $700,000?

8 A. He asked me about the rent rolls, the 9 condition of the apartments. Of course he came over and 10 looked at them. And what my expenses were. And then he 11 could see what needed to be done to bring that one
12 building, the third building, to completion. And the 13 condition of the other buildings, and what it was going 14 to take to do that. And the rents as they currently 15 were. And the area, I guess, the area. I'm not quite 16 sure what all he took into consideration but that's some 17 of the things we talked about.

18 Q. When he was talking about what it would take 19 to complete the third building did he also talk about 20 buildings four, five, and six?

21 A. Yes. Well, I had already started the 22 building. So we both concluded that if I had the money
23 or whoever would take over would probably not -- would 24 either try to just cosmetically fix them up, try to use
25 whatever was usable in there, like some of the bathtubs,

1 if they were still good, the bathroom with the tile. It
2 was an older, I think from the '70s, just try to use
3 whatever was in there. You know he was just trying to
4 get a figure of what, I guess, the cost would be to a
5 potential buyer, going forward, what they would have to 6 spend based on what I had already spent.

7 Q. And how much had you already spent at that
8 point?

9 A. Well, I mean, I borrowed -- had that line of 10 credit of $700,000, and Rolando had already spent about 11 half of that, a little less than half of that.

12 Q. So roughly 300- to $350,000?

13 A. Well, I think it was 200-and-some-thousand,
14 close to 300. So it took the rest of, when I got down
15 there and went forward to fill in those two buildings,
16 plus half of the third, it took the rest of the money to 17 do that.

18 Q. Okay. So it was close to $300,000 and it took 19 $400,000 to complete just the third building.

20 A. No, no. I'm not sure what all, you know, he 21 did. But 200 to pretty close to 300,000 was already 22 gone.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. So what I had left, I hired a new crew of 25 people to go in and finish. Some of the stuff they had

1 there with the apartments?

2 A. Well, they never admitted it to me. I don't
3 know if they admitted it to anybody else.

4 MR. MAHAFFEE: Let's mark that as No. 9,
5 please, sir.

6 (Defendants' Exhibit No. 9, e-mail dated
7 7/3/09, was marked for identification.)

8 Q. Have you ever seen that particular document
9 dated July 3, 2009, apparently an internal e-mail of 10 Ameris Bank from Don Snipes, the regional credit office?

11 A. Let me see.

12 MR. KEFALOS: May I look on?

13 THE WITNESS: Uh-huh. No, I've never seen
14 this.

15 Q. Okay. It talks about in the first paragraph 16 of having the possibility of interest rate reduction from 17 6 percent to 4.25. Did that ever happen?

18 A. They had me on interest only for the first 19 year. And I think I talked with the bank officer, at the 20 time, when that year was up, and told them what my rent
21 rolls were and I couldn't do principal and interest. So
22 I asked them would they be able to help me, you know, to 23 extend this interest only? And they did. I can't
24 remember what the rate, you know, whether it went from 6
25 to 4.5. I don't remember that. I just remember they

1 kept me on the interest only for several more months.

2 Q. They reduced your interest rate at least
3 partially.

4 A. I believe Carl told me they were going to try
5 to do that. Whatever it was it was, you know, it helped 6 me to be able to continue to make those payments, because
7 I was getting in about the same amount of rents that I
8 had been, nothing had changed. I had to sometimes put in 9 personal money, though, to make those payments, because 10 the rents -- sometimes I couldn't collect all the rents
11 due me.

12 Q. And what was the problem with collection of 13 the rent?

14 A. People just wouldn't pay me.

15 Q. Were tenants living in the apartments and just 16 not paying you?

17 A. Yes. Some of them had lost their jobs. Some 18 their hours had been cut back. So they were struggling,
19 you know, and I was trying to work with them to see if
20 they could pay something, because I didn't have another
21 tenant to put in there at the time. I thought some rent
22 was better than nothing, because I had to make these
23 payments. I mean I was trying to work with them and, you
24 know, wasn't really getting any new tenants in there at 25 the time.

3 Q. Murrells Inlet. Did Karl Zerbst, once
4 he started working at Ameris, have an office that
5 he sometimes used in Charleston?

6 A. Before the Murrells Inlet office was

8 floor that was away from everyone else, but it was 9 brief. It was to come in, check E-mails, that 10 kind of thing, and then back out.

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Do they still live in Greenville?

3 A. Dr. Sarmiento moved to another suburb
4 outside of Greenville, I don't know exactly the 5 name, but I believe Dr. Bruce lives -- still
6 resides in Greenville.

7 Q. What sort of practice do they have?

8 A. I'm sorry?

9 Q. What sort of practice do they have?

10 A. They have allergy and asthma practice.

11 Q. Were you a member at all of ABESPRO?

12 A. Was I a member?

13 Q. Yes.

14 A. No. Never.

15 Q. Now, you represented ABESPRO in the 16 sale of the Otranto apartments to Linda Gibson?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And you also represented Linda Gibson
19 in that sale?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And of course that made you a dual
22 agent?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And you understand that a dual agent
25 represents both sides of the transaction?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. And a dual agent exists because there
3 is a conflict of interest?

4 MR. MAHAFFEE: Objection.

5 MR. WILKES: Join.

6 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry?

7 MR. WILKES: Go ahead and answer the 8 question if you can.

9 THE WITNESS: When you say conflict of 10 interest, can you expound or be more specific?

11 BY MR. KEFALOS:

12 Q. Well, do you understand that a dual 13 agency exists because there is a conflict in the 14 interests of the seller and the buyer?

15 THE WITNESS: We --

16 MR. MAHAFFEE: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry?

18 MR. MAHAFFEE: Go ahead.

19 THE WITNESS: Oh. We try to draw the 20 line to avoid conflict of interest.

21 BY MR. KEFALOS:

22 Q. Well, do you understand that a dual
23 agent cannot tell the buyer why the seller wants to 24 sell?

25 A. I understand.

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. And would you agree that that's part of
3 what being a good realtor is?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Now, sometimes you research the
6 property for a prospective buyer before you make an 7 offer?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. And that's part of what being a good
10 realtor is?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. And sometimes you research the property
13 in order to help the buyer make an intelligent
14 decision about what to offer?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Sometimes you find out what the seller
17 paid for the property?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. In this case you knew what the seller
20 paid for the property?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Did you tell Miss Gibson what the 23 seller had paid for the property?

24 A. I do not recall.

25 Q. Did you tell Linda Gibson that you

1 thought this purchase was a good investment?

2 A. I believe so.

3 Q. Did you talk to her about whether this
4 was a wise investment for her?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And did you tell her you thought it was
7 a wise investment for her?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Do you think that it was a suitable
10 investment for a 60-year-old widow?

11 A. It would have been suitable investment
12 for anyone that had information -- rightful
13 information to make an ultimate final decision
14 regardless of age.

15 Q. Do you know what ABESPRO paid for the 16 property?

17 A. I do not recall the specific. I have 18 an idea.

19 Q. About 1.4 million dollars?

20 A. 1.4, 1.6 I believe.

21 Q. And did you disclose that to Linda
22 Gibson?

23 A. If I didn't and she wanted to get that
24 information, she would have just gone into public
25 records.

1 you --

2 A. I don't --

3 Q. -- about Linda changing to Ameris Bank?

4 A. I don't recall, sir.

5 Q. Did Benji Lanier tell you he could make

6 the loan through Ameris?

7 A. I don't recall, sir.

8 Q. Did you talk with Linda about changing

9 the loan?

10 A. I don't recall, sir.

11 Q. Do you know whether you helped assemble

12 the documents necessary for the loan at Ameris?

13 A. When you say assemble the documents,

14 what documents are you referring to, sir?

15 Q. Well, their financial statements, for 16 example.

17 A. Financial statements of who, sir?

18 Q. Linda Gibson.

19 A. Yes, I -- I helped in that.

20 Q. Did you help Linda Gibson prepare the 21 financial statement?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. You had helped her prepare the 24 financial statement when she purchased the --

25 A. I'm sorry, sir. It was Linda Gibson

1 that helped me to prepare the financial statements.
2 She, you know, discussed with me and informed me
3 which properties were what, yes.

4 Q. And she told you what properties she 5 owned --

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. -- and you told her what value the 8 properties had?

9 A. I -- after research, yes, sir --

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. -- and listening to her and what she 12 had to say about what she felt the value was?

13 Q. Well, you didn't rely on her opinion --

14 A. I did, sir.

15 Q. -- of the value?

16 A. I did rely to her to an extent, yes,
17 sir.

18 Q. In '05 you had helped her assemble a 19 financial statement for the purchase of the 20 shopping center?

21 A. You're referring to a document, sir?

22 Q. No, I'm asking you.

23 MR. WILKES: Could you restate the 24 question, please?

25 BY MR. KEFALOS:

1 Q. So your job was to identify
2 subcontractors?

3 MR. WILKES: Objection. Go ahead.

4 THE WITNESS: No, sir.

5 BY MR. KEFALOS:

6 Q. Have you ever managed construction
7 before?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. This was the first project you were 10 managing?

11 MR. WILKES: Objection.

12 BY MR. KEFALOS:

13 Q. Was this the first project that you
14 were managing the construction for?

15 MR. WILKES: Objection. Go ahead and
16 answer the question even after anybody objects.

17 THE WITNESS: Yes. Not really.

18 BY MR. KEFALOS:

19 Q. All right, not really. What --

20 A. What I would say is I was also involved
21 in construction management on a limited scale with 22 another complex. It's a townhouse complex in North
23 Charleston.

24 Q. When was that?

25 A. 2002, 2003.

1 Q. And what were your responsibilities
2 there?

3 A. My primary responsibility was to be the 4 broker on sales -- on-site sales but at the same
5 time the owner/developer had involved me in certain
6 aspects of the construction management.

7 Q. And you said that that was a limited
8 construction --

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. -- management?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. So this was the first time you took on 13 a full construction management project?

14 A. I would say that --

15 MR. WILKES: Objection. Go ahead.

16 THE WITNESS: -- this is not a
17 full-fledged construction management.

18 BY MR. KEFALOS:

19 Q. Did you charge a full fee for 20 construction management?

21 A. I only charged what was agreed upon,
22 sir.

23 Q. You also paid for a licensed
24 contractor, didn't you?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Who was that?

2 A. The contractor at that time was Triton.

3 Q. Why did you need a contractor if you
4 were doing the construction management?

5 A. I --

6 MR. WILKES: Objection. Go ahead.

7 THE WITNESS: I -- when we consulted
8 with the City of North Charleston, they required
9 that a contractor be identified as well as an 10 architect because of the -- the size of the 11 project.

12 BY MR. KEFALOS:

13 Q. The scope of the project? The scope of 14 the project?

15 A. The scope of the project, yes, sir.

16 Q. Um-hum. So you needed to have somebody
17 who was a licensed contractor to supervise?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. Well, what role did you have then if 20 there was a licensed contractor supervising?

21 A. Yes, there was many roles that I had 22 put into play prior to finding out the City of 23 North Charleston and that was mainly to try to do a
24 certain type of due diligence or costing,
25 identifying best resources, best suppliers, far and

1 beyond what a typical agent would be doing. But I
2 never claimed to be a construction -- licensed
3 construction manager or anything of that sort.

4 Q. Nevertheless you did charge a fee for
5 managing the construction?

6 MR. MAHAFFEE: Objection.

7 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry?

8 BY MR. KEFALOS:

9 Q. Nevertheless you did charge a fee for
10 managing the construction?

11 MR. MAHAFFEE: Same objection.

12 THE WITNESS: I need to see how the --
13 the description of that fee was put into place.
14 Are you referring to a contract or some sort of 15 provision or clause?

16 BY MR. KEFALOS:

17 Q. Did you charge a fee for construction
18 management?

19 A. I charged a fee. I don't know
20 specifically if it was for the construction
21 management.

22 (PLF. EXH. 15, E-mail chain dated

25 BY MR. KEFALOS:

1 percent. So you see if there was anything that we
2 overlooked and there's a likely chance we may have
3 overlooked that, any issue such as a 30,000 bill
4 from Triton that we still had an allowance of an
5 estimate of 10 percent.

6 Q. But you would agree with me that going
7 from estimating the project with no architect and 8 no general contractor to adding in those fees would 9 drastically change the amount of the project?

10 A. It would change. I don't know the --
11 you know, the level or, you know...

12 Q. All right. If you'll flip back to 13 Exhibit 7 that Mr. Kefalos introduced. Exhibit 7.

14 A. Oh.

15 Q. If you'll flip back to Page 2 of 4.
16 Page 2 of 4.

17 A. Exhibit 7?

18 Q. Exhibit 7, Page 2.

19 A. Page 2, oh. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And we -- we've talked already about
21 Paragraph 5, Provision F which talks about 22 supervision of restoration and improvements at the 23 Otranto properties. Do you recall that?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. And you would agree that based on this

1 document, you had some obligation to supervise the
2 work that was going on out there, is that correct?

3 A. Based --

4 MR. WILKES: Objection. Go ahead.

5 THE WITNESS: Based on the supervision
6 of restoration and improvements paragraph.

7 BY MR. JORDAN:

8 Q. And when I say you, of course I
9 understand that it was entered into on behalf of 10 Re/Max Professional Realty with you as the 11 individual who was going to perform that work,
12 correct?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 (Off-the-record conference.)

15 (PLF. EXH. 37, Verdi Agreement Between 16 Architect and Owner, was marked for 18 (PLF. EXH. 38, Letter dated 9/12/07 to

21 BY MR. JORDAN:

22 Q. Do you have Exhibit 37 in front of you?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Do you recognize that document?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 BY MR. JORDAN:

2 Q. Okay. They were -- but your testimony
3 is that to your knowledge they didn't do any of the 4 work themselves?

5 A. You mean like physically?

6 Q. Like an employee of Triton Construction
7 doing any of the actual work on the project.

8 A. I don't recall that I would see --
9 maybe, you know, for -- just to initiate how it
10 should be done, maybe Mark had shown -- picked a
11 hammer and let's knock this part of the Sheetrock
12 and see what's inside and when they discover, you
13 know, whatever they needed to discover, then that's 14 the -- the physical action that I would see. Other
15 than that I don't recall.

16 Q. When you were at the job site, was a
17 representative of Triton Construction --
18 Construction typically there?

19 A. I don't recall if you're referring to a
20 frequency. I was there almost every day because 21 that's where I, you know, go by to get to my office
22 so I -- you know, I don't recall the frequency of 23 Triton presence at the site.

24 Q. I might have asked you this but I don't
25 remember. Whose decision was it to hire Triton?

) FORBEARANCE AGREEMENT

COUNTY OF CHARLESTON)

THIS FORBEARANCE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), dated as of November 17, 2010, is made and entered into by and among 3205 Palm Boulevard, LLC, a South Carolina limited liability company ("Borrower"), Linda A. Gibson a/k/a Linda Ann Avinger Gibson ("Guarantor"), and First Citizens Bank and Trust Company, Inc., a South Carolina banking corporation, together with its successors, endorseees and assigns ("Lender"). Borrower, Guarantor and Lender are sometimes collectively referred to as the "parties" or singularly as a "party."

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Lender and Borrower entered into a certain financing transaction ("Loan") evidenced by a Commercial Note dated August 28, 2007 from Borrower to Lender in the original principal amount of One Million Five Hundred Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($1,500,000.00) ("Note") and each of the other instruments and agreements executed and/or delivered by Borrower and Guarantor to Lender in connection with the Loan including, but not limited to, the below referenced Mortgage and Guaranty (individually and collectively, including the Note, the "Loan Documents"); and

WHEREAS, the Note is secured by a Mortgage of Real Estate ("Mortgage") dated August 28, 2007 and recorded August 31, 2007 in the RMC Office for Charleston County, SC, in Book L-637, Page 687 encumbering the property located at 3205 Palm Boulevard, Isle of Palms, South Carolina and more particularly described in the Mortgage (the "Property"), and

WHEREAS, payment of all indebtedness and performance of all obligations of Borrower has been unconditionally guaranteed by Guarantor pursuant to an Unlimited Guaranty Agreement executed and delivered by Guarantor to Lender on August 28, 2007 (the "Guaranty"), and

WHEREAS, Borrower has defaulted in the fulfillment of its obligations pursuant to the Loan Documents and is currently unable to make payments as required by the Note, and

WHEREAS, Lender has the right under the Loan Documents to proceed with any or all of its remedies under the Loan Documents, including, without limitation, (i) foreclosure of the Mortgage, (ii) obtaining an order appointing a receiver, an order sequestering the rents (if applicable), and/or a temporary restraining order and/or temporary and permanent injunction depending upon applicable law, and (iii) exercising any and all other rights and remedies available to Lender under the Loan Documents or under applicable law (all of the foregoing being hereinafter referred to as "Lender's Remedies"), and

WHEREAS, Lender filed in Charleston County and served upon Borrower and Guarantor a foreclosure action (Case Number 2009-CP-10-7702) ("Charleston Foreclosure Action") seeking, inter alia, public sale of the Property with the application of proceeds to the debt owed pursuant to the Note, and

WHEREAS, Judge Mikell R. Scarborough, by Master's Report and Order for Foreclosure and Sale filed August 25, 2010, found the outstanding indebtedness due Lender pursuant to the Note to be $1,579,181.26 as of August 25, 2010 and ordered a public sale of the Property, with application of the proceeds to the indebtedness owed Lender and provision for a deficiency judgment against Borrower and Guarantor for the remaining balance, and

WHEREAS, Lender placed the high bid of $950,000 for the Property at the opening of the public sale on October 19, 2010 and the public sale of the property is scheduled to close on November 18, 2010, and

PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT 2

WHEREAS, notwithstanding the fact that the Loan is currently in default, Borrower and Guarantor have requested that Lender temporarily forestall or postpone the public sale of the Property while Borrower completes a private sale of the Property and Lender is willing to do so upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement. Lender is therefore entering into this agreement as an accommodation to Borrower and Guarantor, and Borrower and Guarantor remain bound to perform their obligations under the Loan Documents

1 Recitals The foregoing recitals are true and correct, and are hereby incorporated into and made a part of this Agreement.

2 Forbearance by Lender Lender agrees to request the Master-in-Equity postpone the public sale of the Property and to forbear from seeking public sale of the Property and deficiency judgment against Borrower and Guarantor, if warranted based upon the amount of proceeds from the public sale, for a period of forty five (45) days from the date of this Agreement ("Forbearance Period"), provided Borrower and Guarantor fully comply with all of the requirements set forth in this Agreement. If at any time Borrower or Guarantor or any one of them fails to comply with any of the requirements set forth herein, Lender may immediately commence, proceed or otherwise continue with any or all of Lender's Remedies without demand or notice to Borrower, Guarantor or any other third party

In the event of any failure by Borrower or Guarantor to fulfill any of their obligations hereunder, Lender shall be entitled to immediately pursue any and all Lender Remedies, including the public sale of the Property and deficiency judgment for any and all remaining indebtedness or Borrower and Guarantor to Lender.

5 Bankruptcy Borrower and Guarantor hereby acknowledge, agree and represent that the filing of any voluntary petition for bankruptcy under the United States Bankruptcy Code by Borrower or Guarantor would be in bad faith and solely for the purpose of delaying, inhibiting or otherwise impeding the exercise by Lender of Lender's Remedies. The invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of any provision hereof shall not render invalid, illegal or unenforceable any other provision hereof. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, the parties hereto and their heirs, successors and assigns.

Benjamin Lanier
Business Banker
Mt. Pleasant - 973

Friday - May 22, 2009

Discussion took place between Benjie and Karl Zerbst, supervisor in the Mt. Pleasant office about several decisions by Benjie that have put the bank at jeopardy and more importantly his ability to continue as a Business Banker. Therefore, this is a counseling statement and Benjie will be placed on probation for 90 days and at that time his file will be updated. Benjie has the ability to be a fine Business Banker, however certain actions have fallen short of giving the customer an exceptional experience while banking at Ameris.

LACK IN JUDGEMENT

The loan in the name of Heritage Seven, LLC was closed on November 2, 2007 for $2,800,000. by Benjie Lanier. The construction phase and amount for construction was $700,000. Although disbursements were made from invoices presented to Benjie in the amount of $378,000 the owner was never made aware of the advances. The project manager requested the advances however this individual had no ownership in the project/property. The owner, Linda Gibson, should have agreed to the advances by signing off on the request or Benjie requesting her approval before each advance was made.

When owner took project over from project manager in March 2008, advances were then made by Linda Gibson calling into office and requesting deposits be placed into her account. Although a personal banker made the advances Benjie failed to inspect project to ensure improvements were consistent with project costs. To date, there is $290,000 of advances that are not supported by invoices, AIA document or any other information in support of work being completed. Benjie has knowledge that he must inspect the property when an advance is made and request support by invoice or other information that work has been performed. It becomes very difficult to know how much work is left to complete when there is no Progress Report indicating balance to complete project. To date, 3 buildings still must have the interior completed and all funds have been advanced.

Currently, owner is questioning where the funds have been used prior to her taking over the project. Furthermore, no one knows of the amount that is needed to complete the project and thus the bank is over exposed on the collateral and subject to a large loss.

Benjie has the knowledge to know what must be done in circumstances like these or at a minimum he knows to ask a more experienced banker. It is obvious that Benjie has not taken ownership for this construction project to ensure the bank's interest is protected.

Other weaknesses observed is there is no signed contract, assignment of contract or due diligence by the loan officer to verify the validity of the contractor.

MATERIAL REDACTED

GOING FORWARD

Supervisor believes Benjie has the ability to be a Business Banker. However, Benjie must remember not to risk the bank during construction projects certainly when there is someone he can seek for advice.

It is recommended that Benjie learn to communicate better with customers/prospects so he can always deliver an exceptional experience while speaking on behalf of the bank. Furthermore, Benjie should do a much better job of keeping supervisor informed on his customer development efforts as well as internal processes. Furthermore, he should take a more active role in cross selling existing customers.

In efies is a brief LCA package we need to look at to reduce the interest rate on the $2,796M loan from 6 0% to 4 25% for payment relief until she can finish the renovation of Building 3. A March 2009 rent roll indicates over $15M in monthly rental income, which would be more than enough to service the debt at the revised rate, but anecdotal evidence indicates the rental stream has slowed as she is having more collection problems. She is past due on her 2 other large real estate properties so things are not going so well for her. We have made a couple of suggestions to her but she has not responded as yet, to include carving a piece of this debt off and securing it with another piece of income producing property she has.

As you may remember, we have some culpability in her problems as we did not manage the construction loan as we should and have potentially aided in her former property manager at REMAX may have siphoned off some of the loan proceeds. She is currently in litigation with REMAX over this as the agent was representing them when this occurred, but we are a long way from any settlement.

I support this short term action until we can perform a complete analysis of her situation. Let me know if you need anything else.

Credit Memo

Date: 11/29/2005

Loan Officer: Karl H. Zerbst Jr.

Analyst: Benjie Lanier

Borrower Name: Linda A. Gibson

Current Borrower Exposure: $0

Amount Requested: 1) $1,280,000- Commercial Loan
2) $ 400,000- 2nd mortgage on Beach House

Total Exposure: $1,680,000
(including new requests)

Loan Background/ Purpose:

The borrower has requested FRB to provide financing for the purchase of a retail strip center in Moncks Corner, SC. The retail strip center consists of the following tenants: Advanced Auto, Blockbuster Video, Check Into Cash, Papa Johns Pizza, Phone Smart. The purchase price for the property is $2,425,000.00. There will be a cash injection of $775,000. These funds are from a previous sale and is a 1031 exchange.

The structure of this financing is to allow a certain portion of debt be placed on the center and the remaining be placed on another asset and in this case we have recommended a 2nd mortgage on an investment home in Isle of Palms and the borrower has agreed. Therefore, the center will have a loan balance of $1,280,000 and the 2nd mortgage is recommended at $400,000. The money used on the 2nd mortgage is $370,000 which is the balance on the purchase and $30,000 which pays off an existing equity line and a small secured loan with First Citizens. The terms of both facilities is outlined below:

Loan 1- Commercial Loan

- Loan amount- $1,280,000
- Term- 15 year amortization/ 5 year call
- Rate- Prime +1/4%
- Fee- $6000

- Collateral- 1st mortgage on the land and improvements known as 109-111 South Hwy 52 Moncks Corner, SC.

* The payment shall be fixed at a rate of 8.25% to avoid negative amortization.
 An appraisal has been ordered. The loan amount shall be $1.280 cost or 80% of appraised value, whichever is less.

Loan 2- 2nd mortgage on Isle of Palms Investment Property

- Loan amount- $400,000
- Term- 12 months I/O
- Rate- Prime +0%
- Collateral- 2nd mortgage on the land and improvements known as 3205 Palm Blvd Loan to value should be approximately 58% based on tax value.

*A tax value shall be used in determining the value of the property.

Borrower's Background:

Linda A. Gibson has recently sold a property on the Isle of Palms and realized a capital gain of $800,000 (per the HUD). This $800,000 has been placed in a Q.I. account for the purposes of a 1031 Exchange. The personal statement reflects many parcels of land with very little debt. She inherited a large portion of this land from her parents and has some rental income coming in from different sources. One source, is Joe Bartone as he rents from her as she will not sell land on Daniel Island. Joe actually referred her to our bank

Collateral Analysis:

The following collateral analysis was conducted on the investment property. The data used was from the recap sheet provided by the listing agent (Lauren Scott of Clement, Crawford and Thornhill). The following rent roll shows the tenants in the center as well as their monthly rental rates and the square footage they consume.

The property is centrally located on a major highway in Moncks Corner. The closest intersection is considered center of town and is adjacent to Berkeley County Administrative and Library Buildings. The center was built in 1994 and actually consists of two buildings as Advance Auto Parts is there separate building

Inputs (Per Po.)
Tenant Description / Lease Term	Number of Units	Rent per Unit	Total Monthly Rent	Total Sq. Ft.
Advanced Auto	1	$ 4,958	$ 4,958	7000
Bryant Security- To Be Vacated in early 2006	1	$ 2,000	$ 2,000	2000
Blockbuster	1	$ 4,666	$ 4,666	4800
Check Into Cash	1	$ 1,600	$ 1,600	1200
Papa Johns	1	$ 1,400	$ 1,400	1200
Phone Smart	1	$ 1,350	$ 1,350	1200
Total Rental Income from All Properties			$ 15,974	17400

Cash flow analysis was conducted using the following assumptions:

Assumptions
Loan Amount		$ 1,280,000
Amortization Period (In Years)		15
Interest Rate		8.25%

The sources of repayment/vacancies/expenses are illustrated below:

Financial Statement Data
Total Rental Income (Monthly)		$ 15,974
Annualized + Add'l CAM Charge		$ 230,477
Vacancy (%)	10.41%	$ 24,000
Income (Net of Vacancy)		$ 206,477
Expenses (%)	16.83%	$ 38,789
Net Operating Income		$ 167,688

The vacancy rate of 10.41% consists of the void that shall exist once Bryant Risk Management vacates the space. The 16.83% expense consists of the CAM charges paid by the tenants but it then netted out to pay Management, Taxes, Insurance, etc. Thus the property is triple net (NNN) for the most part.

Debt Payments (Current)	$ 11,590
Annualized	$ 139,078
Debt Coverage(Current)	1.21
Excess Cash Flow	$ 28,610

The Cash Flow/Debt ratio above represents a 1.21 to 1 CF based on an 15 year amortization at an 8 25% interest rate. This is based on a pure cash injection of $1.075MM and the financing of $1.280MM.

The tenants and their lease terms are listed below. The lease terms are per the leases submitted and from listing agent information.

Tenant	Lease Begins	Lease Ends
Advanced Auto	12/1/2003	12/31/2008
Blockbuster	9/1/2004	8/31/2009

Guarantor One Comments:

The following highlights should be noted about Linda Gibson:

- Net Worth of $15,519,175- The majority of Linda's net worth consists of RE holdings on Daniel Island/Clements Ferry Rd as well as a rental home on the Isle of Palms. Many of these land holdings are owned free and clear by Linda. The rental home in IOP is currently on the market for $2.2MM with a mortgage balance of $467M.
- CBI of 729- After paying off several debts with the IOP 2nd mortgage proceeds the only remaining personal debt Linda shall have is her primary residence ($195M) and two credit cards with small balances.
- Personal debt percentage of 34% and excess personal cash flow of over $100M per 2004 Tax Returns.
- Current customer with the following accounts Mature Living, Money Market and 6 month certificate of deposit.

According to the personal financial statement submitted; Linda derives the majority of her income from the following sources:

Running Track for Race Horses (14 horses @ $150 per month per horse)	$25,200
Cell Tower Lease (@1300 per month)	$15,600
Hidden Cove Boat and Yacht Sales Lease	$84,375
BARGIG 669 Marina Lease	$90,000

This equates to a total of $215,175 per year.

The IOP rental home income was not calculated in due to the fact that it is on the market to be sold

Linda A. Gibson Credit Memo 2

PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT 32

Strengths of the Credit:

- Strong cash injection into the property (over $1MM). This shows a true desire that the borrower wants the property and is committed to it
- Solid net worth of over $15MM consisting of RE in the highly desirable location of Clements Ferry Rd and Daniel Island
- The house on Isle of Palms is on the market for $2.2MM with a mortgage balance of approximately $467M. Thus Linda shall realize a gain of over $1.7MM once that property is sold. That excess cash can be used to reduce the proposed debt or be invested into another cash flowing property.
- Personal Debt to Income of 34% which includes the proposed $400,000 2nd mortgage on the IOP property.

Weaknesses of the Credit:

- Cash flow of the property is 1.21 to 1 after major cash injections ($1MM+). This ratio shall eventually be increased once the vacant space is rented to a new tenant. Bryant Risk Management is vacating the space due to the fact that they are building a new facility.
- The center has experience quite a bit of tenant turnover since its 1994 inception. Past tenants have included Hollywood Video, Jackson Davenport, Subway and American General Finance. This shall be negated by the fact that the center is close to a Walmart and Bi-Lo. The proximity to these major anchors provides exposure to the tenants of this retail center.

Credit Summary/Recommendations:

Linda Gibson is seeking financing for a retail strip center located in Moncks Corner. As discussed earlier, Gibson is injecting $775M of 1031 exchange money into this $2.425MM investment property. First Reliance shall provide 2 (two) loans to assist with this request.

- The first loan shall be a commercial loan in the amount of $1,280,000 priced at Prime +1/4% with a term of 15 year amortization with a 5 year call. An origination fee of $6000 shall be collected on this transaction.
- The second loan shall be a 2nd mortgage on the 3205 Palm Blvd. in the amount of $400,000 priced at Prime +0% with a term of 12 months of interest only.

It shall be noted that the lender and the analyst acknowledge that the center is priced at a premium. This acknowledgement is based on the sales price vs. the current rental income analysis conducted during the underwriting process. The borrower is aware of this fact but has the cash injection and is willing to inject a total of $1.075MM in the center which indicates her commitment to the transaction. It is suggested that the use of the 2nd mortgage on the IOP Beach

House by which limits the amount of debt on the strip center and thus spreads exposure over two properties

The borrower shall have a personal Debt to Income of 34% including the $400M HELOC The investment property shall have a CF/DS ratio of 1.21 to 1 with excess cash of $28M This excess cash can serve funds to make any necessary repairs or any miscellaneous costs that may be incurred with the center.

An appraisal has been ordered on the commercial property. FRB will finance $1.280MM or 80% appraised value, whichever is less. A tax assessed value shall be used to derive the LTV on the Palm Blvd beach house for the purposes of financing the 2nd mortgage. FRB will have an LTV of approximately 58% on the property per tax value.

The center has the cash flow ratio of 1.21 to 1 given the current tenants and the proposed financing. A new tenant in the soon to be vacated space will increase this ratio even further. Rolando Villavicencio of REMAX Commercial will represent the Borrower in the transaction. Villavicencio will also manage the property for the borrower and will have task of acquiring a tenant for the vacant space. Rolando's resume is included in the package for review

Given the net worth, credit score, personal debt percentage and cash injections made by Linda Gibson I recommend this loan be approved as presented at a credit grade of 3. The commitment shown by Gibson displays her desire to acquire this center for investment/tax purposes.

I met with Linda and her new attorney, Robert Papa last Monday. He was to get back with me last week but did not although I did receive this email today. Larry Richter confirmed today that his firm no longer represents Linda. I wish he did for our benefit but I understand why he no longer does. With respect to the below email, I'm not sure what Robert is asking for in the way of more help from Ameris. It seems they need to offer something that works for both of us. Linda did call me today and asked for a little more time. I do and will remain hopeful that we can resolve the issues we face but I don't think we can or should wait for 1st Citizens. I have selected two parcels of land that is income producing to Linda that would be used on the residual loan if Linda and Robert want to work for a win-win. David - I got your voice mail and can meet with you at 4:30 tomorrow and I will know more then.

Hi Karl,

I have been spending quite a bit of time with Linda trying to sort out things to be able to advise her on what is in her best interest. As you know, Linda has no earned income from a 9-5 job. Her subsistence is based on the real estate income. What Ameris is offering re the deferment of the $300K is appreciated. The numbers for Linda are close but we need more help from Ameris. The attorney for First Citizens is in NYC and returns this Thursday or Friday so I do not have a concession package with them yet. I have court tomorrow in Chas in the morning and Walterboro in the afternoon but will check emails early and mid-day.

Will,

I'm sorry for the delay. It seems incredible that Linda paid twice as much as the people she bought the property from. They paid $1.4million and she $2.8million. I'm certain that the rents didn't double. I am also certain that it was represented that if she did the rehab she could sell the units as condos. That is truly ridiculous. Seasoned real estate people do more market studies and due diligence than I'm sure Linda did as a "seasoned" rookie.

Again, there is NO WAY that this property, in this location, in it's condition at the time was worth anything near the price paid. A look at the income/expense statements will reveal this.

I think the closest condo sales of like property are Otranto Club Villas and they are much nicer in a better location and well, just better. I am sending you a following email of all the Otranto Club Villas sold since June, 2006. There are not many. Call me when I'm at my office and we can discuss this more.

Will:

Just looked at the rent numbers Elizabeth sent to me in September, 2008. I ran them assuming that the MAX rents were obtained ($750 for 2bd and $650 for 1bd as shown on the September spread sheet) for ALL units. I took a 10% vacancy factor and 35% for expenses yielding a 9.3% cap rate if at $2,800,000. In other words, no renovations which would prohibit the high rents projected.

The second scenario provides for the same rents but, adds the $800,000 for renovations or a $3,500,000 price tag. All other assumptions are the same. This yields a 7.5% cap rate, TOTALLY unrealistic for this property. At that time, this would have been a 10-11% cap property RENOVATED. In other words, I would have valued it $2,617,750-$2,379,772, RENOVATED.

So, I am adding the $800,000 for renovations to the values here meaning, a purchase price in the $1,500,000-$1,800,000 would seem to me to be inline. That is based solely on income. Also, note that I do not have the benefit of seeing the income and expenses from the two years (three years is better) prior to the purchase. Nor, do I have the benefit of the current income and expenses. I am thumb nailing this for our purposes now. I don't see that knowing details will help improve the purchase price. I expect unrenovated the expenses would be higher thus lowering the expected value.

My opinion, a 100% BAD BUY! At the price paid. No recovery would help this property. The only thing that would sustain it is throwing more equity at it and giving it value over time/years.

Let me know if I may help you further.

Rick,

At your request I am detailing some of the pertinent points discussed yesterday of which I respect our time. My desire was to share with you in person why I have to leave the bank. More importantly, for us to handle the departure as gentlemen and for a win-win to occur. As I stated yesterday, the bank's interest would be the current portfolio that I maintain. I would be in favor of a new agreement that states I will not solicit existing customers from the bank. That will allow lenders in Charleston to call on these customers and provide the same level of service that First Reliance Bank offers. In return, the current agreement that was signed in April of this year is null and void. This will allow me to provide a livelihood for my family and do what I do best as a banker in Charleston. I know you understand this. I must also re-establish my credibility with customers and banking peers. As it stands now, I have lost all credibility with the banking community by what was done to me. Therefore, my dignity is at an all-time low. I have to re-establish myself in banking outside of First Reliance as I can not do this while I'm here. I am in an unhealthy state.

I am hopeful that we can resolve this issue for the benefit of the bank and me. I have the deepest respect for First Reliance. I am suggesting the new agreement be signed no later than Wednesday and my last day be Friday, 12th. This will allow time for me to close several loans on behalf of First Reliance. This would also be healthy for our customers, in my opinion.

I look forward to a genuine interest in response from the bank and we both move forward.

In Re Karl Zerbst/First Reliance Bank

Dear Art:

I am in receipt of your letter dated October 25, 2007 concerning the above referenced matter. I am sorry to say that, having searched for a conciliatory tone therein, I found none. Still, I thought it appropriate that I write you to make sure that we have exhausted all possibilities before either side undertakes litigation.

Art, I am not certain that your client has given you all of the facts. Please accept my representation that we have looked into this matter in some factual detail. I am confident that we can establish that representations were made to Mr. Zerbst, by your client, which were untrue. Not only did these representations fraudulently induce Mr. Zerbst into the contractual arrangement you reference in your letter, but he was also fraudulently retained in that relationship. These, along with several other acts by the bank, can be shown by independent testimony, and this corroborates the factual account Mr. Zerbst has given me.

I tell you this in all good faith and urge you to please explore with your principals the representations they made. Also, let me know whether you think it makes any sense to try to have some sort of pre-litigation mediation and hopefully thereby avoid the necessity of the involvement of the court. If we do that, we need to do it very soon and to use a strong and experienced mediator. Please let me hear back from you at your earliest possible opportunity.

With best personal regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Lawrence E. Richter, Jr.

According to Ameris' 2011 10K, " We are a financial holding company whose business is conducted primarily through our wholly-owned banking subsidiary, Ameris Bank ("the Bank"), which provides a full range of banking services to its retail and commercial customers who are primarily concentrated in select markets in Georgia, Alabama, Florida and South Carolina. Ameris was incorporated on December 18, 1980 as a Georgia Corporation . . . We operated 62 domestic banking offices with no foreign activities . . . Our primary business as a bank holding company is to manage the business and affairs of the Bank. Status Memo

Date: 06/02/2009

Borrower's Name: Heritage Seven, LLC

Loan Officer: Benjie Lamer

Customer Meeting 6/2/2009

On 6/2/2009, Karl and I met with the guarantor Linda Gibson at the Seven Oaks apartment complex. During the meeting several discussions were had to include the current rent rolls, collection of rents, status of contingent debts and the bringing the loan payments due to Ameris Bank current.

According to Linda the property is currently 56% occupied. The vacant units include the 8 units in building 3 that are to come on line shortly and be available for rent. Linda has had many challenges as of late due to the fact that several of her tenants have either lost their income or have not had the money to pay their rents as agreed. This has forced her hand on several occasions to evict tenant and then go on the hunt for new tenants that will pay as agreed.

Linda is emotionally drained from the financial strains she has experienced on three of her properties. These properties include the subject apartment complex, a retail strip mall in Moncks Corner and the family beach house on Isle of Palms. The beach house is currently for sale and has been for the past year. She has not rented the property for this would hurt the potential sale of the property. Linda feels she was put in this financial predicament due to the misuse of funds by her ex property manager/real estate agent. Linda has stated that his misuse of funds has put her a month behind on her shopping center loan, behind on her beach house payment and due to the lack of tenants from this project being complete she is behind on the apartment loan.

Linda is currently suing her former property/project manager who was also her real estate agent. The case is being handled by the Richter Law Firm and is in the discovery phase of the process.

We presented a solution to extend her a loan roughly in the amount of $28,000 to catch her payments that are due on the apartments up to date at a rate of 4.5%. At the time of the memo she had not responded that she is interested in this idea. We also move to decrease her interest rate to 4.5% to allow her have breathing room while the occupancy level increases and the remaining units in building 3 are completed.

Action Plan

It is the opinion of the loan officer that several plans of action take place. The plan of action is as follows:

- Change the risk rating from 25 to a 30 since this project is still not 100% completed.
- This loan was price at Prime +1/4% with no floor (3.25%) but when the loan was modified/renewed in December due to the fact that it was to begin amortizing the rate had to be increased to 6% due to the bank wide mandate on 6% floors. The Lender requests that the interest rate be lowered to 4.5% in order to assist with the Cash Flow issues that are being experienced during the completion/lease up term. This will not only assist the borrower while the repairs are undergoing it will also provide additional cash flow for the repairs to be paid for. This will also show good faith on our part to help Linda get through this difficult phase and to get this project completed faster. Getting the project completed is paramount to the success of this loan performing. Linda has been working with a contractor that will perform the necessary work at a very reasonable price.

Binderink #CLEX

- It is Linda's intention to remain dedicated to this project until it is completely finished. Linda is fully involved in the project and has stayed on site to make sure the project is completed. Once this complex is finished she wishes to sell the complex and move forward.
- Loss prevention- It has been suggested we finance another piece of property in her portfolio to provide payment relief for this project and others that are creating a major financial strain on Linda to avoid late payments and past due carries. As of the time of this memo Linda is considering this proposal and the alternatives.

I met with her and her lawyer, Robert Papa, today. He is helping her to work out her issue with the banks, particularly with First Citizens but he came with her today to get an understanding of where we are. Meeting went well and they plan to visit with First Citizens tomorrow. They will get back to me very soon with a plan to resolve the current status. I'll let you know.

I can not stress the importance of that structure being put in place. I will be available Monday afternoon if that makes sense with you and Linda. Thank you

Good afternoon Karl,

I just finished meeting with Linda. I was out yesterday all day and into the evening on a mediation so I essentially lost a day this week. I was unable to speak to Larry Richter this week by phone but I wrote to him. He wrote back and indicated that he did in fact have a conflict of interest as to Ameris Bank. He did not elaborate in his response other than to say he had such a conflict. You tell me he has no conflict. Is there any light you can shed on that? Did he or is he representing you personally or in some venture?

In any event, I also just got a response yesterday from Richter about First Citizens. I am trying to meet with not First Citizens but their attorney. I am waiting at this time to see if that can happen on Monday. Please get back to me re the above. I look forward to moving this forward on a positive note next week.

Thank you

Rob - I appreciate your email. It appears you have a lot on your calendar. The problem is we don't have time as I shared with you we have attempted on many occasions to offer to Linda something that works for both. We certainly are not going to wait for 1st Citizens to arrange their schedule. Our offer is good and stays the same. If Linda can not or will not agree to what at least we offer Ameris will move forward to protect their interest. Surely you understand. It would be in the interest of all to move forward. Having said that, if Linda does not want to sell the apartments then she should seek financing for the loan amount in our offer and then simply close on the residual balance with the 2 parcels. Look forward to hearing from you tomorrow morning. You can call or email, thanks.

Hi Karl,

I have been spending quite a bit of time with Linda trying to sort out things to be able to advise her on what is in her best interest. As you know, Linda has no earned income from a 9-5 job. Her subsistence is based on the real estate income. What Ameris is offering re the deferment of the $300K is appreciated. The numbers for Linda are close but we need more help from Ameris. The attorney for First Citizens is in NYC and returns this Thursday or Friday so I do not have a concession package with them yet. I have court tomorrow in Chas in the morning and Walterboro in the afternoon but will check emails early and mid-day.

Subject: Several Proposals

I have several proposals and before I spend more time on them I would like your opinion on the deal(s)

- 1) Guy Tarrant would like a $250,000 unsecured line instead of a $75,000 line. He is in the mountains now and will probably make an offer for a home in North Carolina. He wants to act on it quick thus the line. The house he and Teresa looked at 2 weeks ago was for sale for $500,000. He plans to put the difference in as cash and will ultimately get a normal mortgage of around $250,000 and thus pay off the line.
- 2) Linda Gibson has paid off her beach house loan with us ($400,000). Refinanced with First Citizens Bank. She also cashed out $667,000. This money will be used to purchase an apartment complex that she wants us to do. Loan amount of $2,800,000, $2,100,000 at closing but then we advance back up to $2,800,000 based on A/V of $3,500,000.
- 3) Larry Brooks and Dan Hoffler, I'll send personal statement. Essentially, purchasing 2 business. Will be guarantor support.

Waiver of Appraisal Rights: The laws of South Carolina provide that in any real estate foreclosure proceeding a defendant against whom a personal judgment is taken or asked may within thirty days after the sale of the mortgaged property apply to the court for an order of appraisal. The statutory appraisal value as approved by the court would be substituted for the high bid and may decrease the amount of any deficiency owing in connection with the transaction. BORROWER

AND ANY GUARANTOR WILL BE REQUIRED TO WAIVE THEIR APPRAISAL RIGHTS UNDER THE LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA IN THIS TRANSACTION.

Conditions
Precedent:

The provisions of this Commitment are subject to and conditioned upon Bank's receipt of the following, in each instance in form and substance satisfactory to Bank:

- (a) Appraisal Bank will require an independent appraisal be performed showing the market value of the property to be not less than $1,710,000.00. The appraisal will be ordered by Bank from an appraiser acceptable to Bank. Appraisal quote from Jody Bishop has been confirmed of $3,500.00
- (b) Title Insurance A title commitment issued by a title insurance Company ("Title Insurer") reasonably acceptable to Bank, together with copies of all documents identified therein, and pursuant to which the Title Insurer agrees to issue to Bank an ALTA form of Loan Policy acceptable to Bank insuring the Bank's mortgage as a valid first lien for the full amount of the Loan, free and clear of all liens (including mechanics' liens) and encumbrances, and subject only to such exclusions from coverage and such exceptions to title as may be approved by Bank, and containing such endorsements as Bank may require (and, if required by Bank, with co-insurance or reinsurance with direct access agreements issued by such title insurance companies as are acceptable to Bank). The title commitment shall name Bank, its successors and/or assigns, as the insured under the Loan Policy. Title to the Property shall be good and marketable.
- (c) Environmental Assessment A "Regulatory Database Report" environmental assessment of the Property, ordered by Bank at Borrower's expense, assessing the environmental condition of the Property. Bank shall have the right to require additional environmental investigations, including a "Phase I" assessment if further work shall warrant. Bank shall have the right to withdraw the Commitment Letter in the event that the environmental assessment discloses significant environmental concerns associated with the Property, as determined by Bank in its sole discretion. No environmental assessment will be ordered at this time.
- (d) Survey A current survey of the Properties prepared for Bank, certified to Title Insurer and Bank, its successors and assigns, and insurable by Title Insurer, by a land surveyor licensed in the state where the Property is located and acceptable to Bank. The survey shall comply with Bank's minimum standards for surveys and shall include, without limitation: (i) the boundaries of the Property by courses and distances (ii) location of all improvements (iii) location and width of all easements, utility lines, rights-of-way and building set-back lines (iv) location of all encroachments and restrictions, if any, affecting the Property, and (v) such other matters as reasonably requested by Bank or its counsel.

The flood search shall be ordered by Bank at Borrower's expense.
- (g) Organizational Documents. Copies of the organizational documents of Borrower, as amended to the Loan closing date, including, without limitation, the articles of organization, the operating agreement, and, if applicable, good standing certificates.
- (h) Opinion of Counsel. An opinion of Borrower's and any Guarantor's independent counsel, who shall be reasonably satisfactory to Bank, as to such matters as Bank may reasonably request.
- (i) Other Documents. Such other documents, instruments and Loan Documents: This Commitment is subject to the execution of Bank's standard Loan documents containing such representations, warranties, affirmative and negative covenants, indemnities, waivers, closing conditions, defaults, events of default and remedies as are typically required by Bank and/or are customary in this type of transaction, including without limitations, waivers of jury trial. Borrower acknowledges that not every provision imposing duties, burdens or limitations on Borrower has been set forth in this Commitment Letter. The failure of the Borrower and Bank to reach agreement on such provisions shall not be deemed a breach by Bank of this Commitment.

Closing: The closing of the Loan will take place at the offices of Borrower's attorney on a date, which shall be on or before December 23, 2005. If the Loan is not closed by such date (unless extended in writing by Bank), Bank shall have no further obligations under this Commitment.

Thank you for allowing First Reliance Bank to be of service and if I can be of further assistance please do not hesitate to call me at (843) 789-1414.

Company As a disclosed dual agent, the Company and its associated licensees cannot advocate on behalf of one client over the other, and cannot disclose confidential client information concerning the price negotiations, terms, or factors motivating the buyer/client to buy or the seller/client to sell. Each Dual Agency Agreement contains the names of both the seller client(s) and the buyer client(s) and identifies the property

Designated Agency

In designated agency, a broker-in-charge may designate individual associated licensees to act solely on behalf of each client. Designated agents are not limited by the Company's agency relationship with the other client, but instead have a duty to promote the best interest of their clients, including negotiating a price. The broker-in-charge remains a disclosed dual agent for both clients, and ensures the assigned agents fulfill their duties to their respective clients.

At the time you sign an agency agreement, you may be asked to acknowledge whether you would consider giving written consent allowing the Company to designate a representative for you and one for the other client in a designated agency.

Each Designated Agency Agreement contains the names of both the seller client(s) and the buyer client(s) and identifies the property.

What to Look For in Any Agreement

When you choose client-level service, your written Agency Agreement or your agent should answer these questions

- Can I work with other Companies during the time of the Agreement?
- What will happen if I buy or sell on my own without the agent?
- When will this agreement expire?
- How will the Company be paid for its services?

- Does this Company represent both buyers and sellers as clients?
- If so, what are the choices if two clients become involved in one transaction?
- What duties will the Company continue to provide me after the transaction is completed?

If you plan to become a client of a Company, the licensee will explain the agreement to you fully and will answer questions you may have about the agreement. Remember, however, that until you enter into a representation agreement with the Company, you are considered a customer and the Company cannot be your advocate, cannot advise you on price or terms, and cannot keep your confidences.

It's Your Choice

As a real estate consumer in South Carolina, it is your choice as to the type and nature of services you receive

- You can choose to remain a customer and represent yourself while the Company represents the other party
- You can choose to hire the Company for representation through a written agreement
- If represented by the Company, you can decide whether to go forward under the shared services of dual agency or designated agency or to remain in single agency

The choice of services belongs to you—the South Carolina real estate consumer

Agency Relationships in South Carolina

The SC Real Estate License Law, in Section 40-57-139 (A) (1) and (2), requires a real estate licensee to provide you this brochure and a meaningful explanation of agency relationships offered by the licensee's Company. This must be done at the first practical opportunity when you and the licensee have substantive contact.

Before you begin to work with a real estate licensee, it is important for you to know the difference between a broker-in-charge and associated licensees. The broker-in-charge is the person in charge of a real estate Company. Associated licensees may work only through a broker-in-charge. In other words, when you choose to work with any real estate licensee, your business relationship is legally with the Company and not with the associated licensee.

A real estate Company and its associated licensees can provide buyers and sellers valuable real estate services, whether in the form of basic customer services, or through client-level agency representation. The services you can expect will depend upon the legal relationship you establish with the Company. It is important for you to discuss the following information with the real estate licensee and agree on whether in your business relationship you will be a customer or a client.

Now You Are a Customer of the Company

South Carolina license law defines customers as buyers or sellers who choose NOT to establish an agency relationship. The law requires real estate licensees to perform the following basic duties when dealing with any real estate buyer or seller as customers:

- Present all offers in a timely manner
- Account for money or other property received on your behalf
- Provide an explanation of the scope of services to be provided
- Be fair and honest and provide accurate information
- Disclose "adverse material facts" about the property or the transaction which are within the licensee's knowledge

Unless or until you enter into a written agreement with the Company for agency representation, you are considered a "Customer" of the Company, and the Company will not act as your agent. As a Customer, you should not expect the Company or its licensees to promote your best interest, or to keep your bargaining information confidential.

Customer service does not require a written agreement; therefore, you are not committed to the Company in any way.

You Can Become a Client

Clients receive more services than customers. If client status is offered by the real estate Company, you can become a client by entering into a written agency agreement requiring the Company and its associated licensees to act as an agent on your behalf and promote your best interests. If you choose to become a client, you will be asked to confirm in your written representation agreement that you received this brochure in a timely manner.

A seller becomes a client of a real estate company by signing a formal listing agreement with the Company. For a seller to become a client, this agreement must be in writing and must clearly establish the terms of the agreement and the obligations of both the seller and the Company which becomes the agent for the seller.

A buyer becomes a client of a real estate Company by signing a formal buyer agency agreement with the Company. For a buyer to become a client, the agreement must be in writing and must clearly establish the terms of the agreement and the obligations of both the buyer and the Company which becomes the agent for the buyer.

If you enter into a written agency agreement, as Client, you can expect the real estate Company to provide the following client-level services:

- Obedience
- Loyalty
- Disclosure
- Confidentiality
- Accounting
- Reasonable care and skill

Client-level services also include advice, counsel and assistance in negotiations.

Single Agency

When the Company represents only one client in the same transaction (the seller or the buyer), it is called single agency.

Dual Agency

Dual Agency exists when the real estate Company has two clients in one transaction – a seller client and a buyer client.

At the time you sign an agency agreement, you may be asked to acknowledge whether you would consider giving written consent allowing the Company to represent both you and the other client in a disclosed dual agency relationship.

Disclosed Dual Agency

In a disclosed dual agency, the Company's representation duties are limited because a buyer and seller have recognized conflicts of interest. Both clients' interests are represented by the Company. As a disclosed dual agent, the Company and its associated licensees cannot advocate on behalf of one client over the other, and cannot disclose confidential client information concerning the price negotiations, terms, or factors motivating the buyer/client to buy or the seller/client to sell. Each Dual Agency Agreement contains the names of both the seller client(s) and the buyer client(s) and identifies the property.

Designated Agency

In designated agency, a broker-in-charge may designate individual associated licensees to act solely on behalf of each client. Designated agents are not limited by the Company's agency relationship with the other client, but instead have a duty to promote the best interest of their clients, including negotiating a price. The broker-in-charge remains a disclosed dual agent for both clients, and ensures the assigned agents fulfill their duties to their respective clients.

At the time you sign an agency agreement, you may be asked to acknowledge whether you would consider giving written consent allowing the Company to designate a representative for you and one for the other client in a designated agency.

Each Designated Agency Agreement contains the names of both the seller client(s) and the buyer client(s) and identifies the property.

What to Look For in Any Agreement

When you choose client-level service, your written Agency Agreement or your agent should answer these questions:

- Can I work with other Companies during the time of the Agreement?

- When will this agreement expire?
- How will the Company be paid for its services?

- Does this Company represent both buyers and sellers as clients?
- If so, what are the choices if two clients become involved in one transaction?
- What duties will the Company continue to provide me after the transaction is completed?

If you plan to become a client of a Company, the licensee will explain the agreement to you fully and will answer questions you may have about the agreement. Remember, however, that until you enter into a representation agreement with the Company, you are considered a customer and the Company cannot be your advocate, cannot advise you on price or terms, and cannot keep your confidences.

DUAL AGENCY AGREEMENT

THIS DOCUMENT IS A MODIFICATION TO THE SELLER'S LISTING AGREEMENT AND THE BUYER'S AGENCY REPRESENTATION AGREEMENT.

This Dual Agency Agreement is entered into between Linda Avinger Gibson, and/or A, Buyer, and RE/MAX Professional Realty Real Estate Company
abes PRO, LLC, Seller, and RE/MAX Professional Realty Real Estate Company
 for Property located at 2625 Otranto Road, North Charleston, 29406

The term "Broker" includes the real estate firm, broker-in-charge and associated licensees.

1. DUAL AGENCY: Seller and Buyer agree that Broker shall serve as both Seller's agent and Buyer's agent in the sale of Seller's property to Buyer in accordance with Section 40-57-137(M)(1) of the South Carolina Code of Laws, which provides in part that "In acting as a dual agent, a licensee represents clients whose interest may be adverse and that agency duties are limited." The parties agree that without permission from the party about whom the information pertains, Broker shall not disclose to the other party the following information:

- That a party may agree to a price, terms, or any conditions of sale other than those offered;
- The motivation of a party for engaging in the transaction, unless disclosure is otherwise provided by state law or regulation; and
- Any information about a party which that party has identified as confidential unless disclosure is otherwise required by state law or regulation.

2. BROKER'S DUAL AGENCY ROLE: Because Broker is serving as Agent for both Seller and Buyer in this transaction, Broker shall make every reasonable effort to represent Seller and Buyer in a balanced and fair manner. Broker shall also make every reasonable effort to encourage and effect communication and negotiation between Seller and Buyer. Seller and Buyer understand and acknowledge that:

- Prior to the time this agreement was entered into, Broker acted as the exclusive Agent of Seller and acted as exclusive Agent of Buyer.
- In those separate roles Broker may have obtained information which, if disclosed, could harm the bargaining position of the party providing such information to Broker.
- Broker is required by law to disclose to Seller and Buyer any known material facts concerning the property or the transaction. Seller and Buyer agree that Broker shall not be liable to either party for (1) disclosing known material facts concerning the property required by law to be disclosed and (2) refusing or failing to disclose other information the law does not require to be disclosed which could harm or compromise one party's bargaining position but could benefit the other party.

3. SELLER'S AND BUYER'S ROLES: Because of Broker's Dual Agency relationship, Seller and Buyer understand and acknowledge that:

- Seller and Buyer have determined that the advantages of entering into this Dual Agency Agreement, with Broker acting as Agent for both, outweigh the disadvantages.
- Seller and Buyer each have the responsibility of making their own decisions as to what terms are to be included in any agreement to buy and sell between the Seller and Buyer.
- Seller and Buyer are fully aware of, and understand, the implications and consequences of Broker's Dual Agency role as expressed herein to provide balanced and fair representation of Seller and Buyer and to encourage communication between Seller and Buyer rather than acting as an advocate or exclusive agent.
- Seller and Buyer agree to indemnify and hold Broker harmless against all claims, damages, losses, expenses, or liabilities, other than violations of the South Carolina Real Estate License Law and intentional wrongful acts, arising from Broker's role as a Dual Agent.
- Seller and Buyer may seek independent legal counsel to assist them with the negotiation and preparation of a buy and sell agreement or with any matter relating to the transaction which is the subject matter of a buy and sell agreement.

4. PREVIOUS AGENCY AGREEMENTS: The parties agree that this Agreement shall modify any agency agreements previously entered into by Seller and Broker or between Buyer and Broker. If those previous agency agreements contain expiration or termination dates prior to the termination date for this Agreement as set forth below, the expiration or termination dates of the previous agency agreements are hereby extended until the termination of this Agreement. If this Agreement terminates prior to the termination date of any previous agency agreement, the previous agency agreement shall remain in force and effect in accordance with its terms. In any areas where this Agreement contradicts or conflicts with those agency agreements, this Dual Agency Agreement shall control.

5. DURATION OF DUAL AGENCY: The term of this Agreement shall commence when this document is executed by Seller, Buyer and Broker, and unless extended by written agreement of all parties, shall terminate upon the closing of the sale of the property.

6. FAIR HOUSING: The Broker shall conduct all brokerage activities in regard to this Agreement without regard to race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin and shall conduct business in full compliance with local, state, and federal fair housing laws.

7. FACSIMILE AND OTHER ELECTRONIC MEANS: The parties agree that the execution of this dual agency agreement or acceptance of any offer or counteroffer may be communicated by use of a fax or other secure electronic means, including but not limited to electronic mail and Internet, and the signatures, initials and handwritten or typewritten modifications to any of the foregoing shall be deemed to be valid and binding upon the parties as if the original signatures, initials and handwritten or typewritten modifications were present on the documents in the handwriting of each party.

8. COUNTERPARTS: This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument, and in pleading or proving any provision of this Agreement it shall not be necessary to produce more than one such counterpart.

Subject: Several Proposals

I have several proposals and before I spend more time on them I would like your opinion on the deal(s).

- 1.) Guy Tarrant would like a $250,000 unsecured line instead of a $75,000 line. He is in the mountains now and will probably make an offer for a home in North Carolina. He wants to act on it quick thus the line. The house he and Teresa looked at 2 weeks ago was for sale for $500,000. He plans to put the difference in as cash and will ultimately get a normal mortgage of around $250,000 and thus pay off the line.
- 2.) Linda Gibson has paid off her beach house loan with us ($400,000). Refinanced with First Citizens Bank. She also cashed out $667,000. Re: An Appraisal of the Northwood Garden Apartments
2625 Otranto Road
North Charleston, South Carolina 29406

Dear Mr. Zerbst:

Pursuant to your request, I have inspected the above referenced property as of my date of inspection of September 12, 2007. The property is located at 2625 Otranto Road, North Charleston, South Carolina. The property consists of 48 total units on a 2.25-acre site. This is a summary appraisal report as per Standards Rule 2-2(b). This appraisal is prepared in conformance with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (2006 Edition) as amended by the Appraisal Standards Board of the Appraisal Foundation. This appraisal is prepared for the intended client, the First Reliance Bank.

The appraiser has significant experience in appraising similar properties within the subject market. My experience and knowledge of current market trends supports my competence to appraise the subject.

I believe that a marketing period of one year or less would be reasonable in order to sell the property.

The property is currently under contract of sale. The buyers intend to purchase the subject property and significantly renovate it before releasing it. We have appraised the subject property under two different scenarios. First, we appraised the property as is as of the date of inspection, September 12, 2007. Next, we appraised the property as if all renovations are complete. This is expected to take 9-12 months from the date of closing. The "as complete" value has an effective date of September 12, 2008.

The property is appraised as of the date of the inspection of September 12, 2007. The subject property is leased as apartments and these are generally one-year leases. Therefore, based on my inspection of the current rent roll and expenses, I have estimated the market value of the property in the Fee Simple Estate, in the As Is condition, as of September 12, 2007 to be:

TWO MILLION EIGHT HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS
$2,800,000

I have estimated the market value of the property in the Fee Simple Estate, in the As Complete condition, as of September 12, 2008 to be:

THREE MILLION SEVEN HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS
$3,700,000

The compensation for this report is not contingent upon the reporting of a predetermined value or direction in value that favors the cause of the client, the amount of the value estimate, the attainment of a stipulated result or the occurrence of a subsequent event. The appraisal assignment is not based on a requested minimum valuation, a specific valuation, or the approval of a loan.

My analyses, opinions and conclusions were developed, and this report has been prepared, in accordance with the final rule by Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (12 CFR Part 34) dated June 7, 1994, as amended, the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice and in conformity with the requirements of the Code of Professional Ethics and the Standards of Professional Practice of the Appraisal Institute.

I hereby certify that I have no interest in the subject property. I further certify that this appraisal was made in conformity with the Rules of Professional Ethics of the Appraisal Institute.

Paul K. Moore & Associates, Inc. has prepared this appraisal for the exclusive use of the stated client. The information and opinions contained in this appraisal set forth the appraiser's best judgement in light of the information available at the time of the preparation of this report. Any use of this appraisal by any other person or entity, or any reliance or decisions based on this appraisal, are the sole responsibility and at the sole risk of the third party. Neither Paul K. Moore & Associates, Inc. nor the appraiser(s) accept any responsibility for damages suffered by a third party as a result of reliance on, decisions made or actions taken based on this report.

We have completed this report for use by the client and intended users in arranging financing for the prospective buyer of the subject property.

INTEREST VALUED

The property rights appraised are those of full, complete, and unencumbered ownership, subject only to the governmental rights of taxation, police power, eminent domain, and escheat. This is the greatest right and title which an individual can hold in real property. It is known as "Fee Simple Interest". abesPRO, LLC. currently owns the subject property in fee simple estate

PURPOSE OF THE ASSIGNMENT

To develop an opinion of market value of the above-stated interest in the subject property. Market value is defined as follows:

The most probable price which a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller each acting prudently and knowledgeably, and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. Implicit in this definition is the consummation of a sale as of a specified date and the passing of title from seller to buyer under conditions whereby:

- 1) buyer and seller are typically motivated;
- 2) both parties are well informed or well advised, and acting in what they consider their own best interests;
- 3) a reasonable time is allowed for exposure in the open market;
- 4) payment is made in terms of cash in United States dollars or in terms of financial arrangements comparable thereto; and
- 5) the price represents the normal consideration for the property sold unaffected by special or creative financing or sales concessions granted by anyone associated with the sale.

(The Dictionary of Real Estate Appraisal, 4th edition, Appraisal Institute, 2002.)

EXTRAORDINARY ASSUMPTIONS

Extraordinary assumptions presume uncertain information to be factual. If found to be false these assumptions could alter the appraiser's opinions or conclusions.

(The Appraisal of Real Estate, 12th edition, Appraisal Institute, 2001.)

There are no extraordinary assumptions in this appraisal.

HYPOTHETICAL CONDITIONS

That which is contrary to what exists but is supposed for the purpose of analysis. Hypothetical conditions assume conditions contrary to known facts about physical, legal, or economic characteristics of the subject property; or about conditions external to the property, such as market conditions or trends; or about the integrity of data used in an analysis.

(The Dictionary of Real Estate Appraisal, 4th edition, Appraisal Institute, 2002.)

The purchaser intends to fully renovate the entire apartment complex. We have been provided with plans, specs and cost estimates for this project. We have appraised the property "As Is" and "As Complete" based on the material provided to us. We assume that this information is correct and all work will be completed in a timely and workmanlike manner.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF VALUE OPINION

The effective date of value is the date on which the opinion of value is relevant. The property is appraised as is and as complete. The as is value is as of the date of inspection, September 12, 2007. The as complete value is as of the date of completion, September 12, 2008.

DATE OF THE REPORT

The date of the report is the date on which the report is prepared. This report was completed on September 20, 2007. This is the date of the report.

MOORE 141

SCOPE OF WORK

In preparing this appraisal, the appraiser

- Inspected the subject site by walking on and around the site and inspecting improvements
- Gathered information on comparable land sales and apartment sales
- Confirmed all comparable sales with at least one of the parties to the transaction
- Analyzed the data and applied the sales comparison approach and the income capitalization approach. The cost approach is not used as it is difficult to estimate depreciation in buildings of this age. Additionally, a significant amount of deferred maintenance was noted making it even more difficult to estimate physical depreciation.

TYPE OF APPRAISAL

The subject appraisal is a complete appraisal of a self-contained report as per Standards Rule 2-2(a), USPAP, 2002 edition. All three approaches to value are included in the report, as they are deemed pertinent to the final opinion of value and per the requirements of the above-referenced appraisal classification.

ZONING

The subject property is zoned R-2, Multifamily residential, by the City of North Charleston. This zoning does allow for multi-family development at the subject location and the subject is a legal and conforming use. A copy of the zoning ordinance for North Charleston is attached.

R-2, Multi-family residential district is the current zoning for the Northwood Gardens Apartments.

The purpose of these zoning regulations is to encourage the formation and continuance of a stable, healthy environment for single and multi-family dwellings and to discourage any encroachment of commercial, industrial or other uses capable of adversely affecting the residential character of the district.

TAX AND ASSESSMENT ANALYSIS

ENVIRONMENTAL CONDITIONS

In this appraisal assignment, we did not observe the existence of potentially hazardous material present at the site or at adjoining or immediate properties, which may or may not have been present, nor do we have knowledge of the existence of such materials on or near the property being appraised. The appraisers are not professionally qualified to detect such substances. We suggest that, as determined by the client's environmental policy, an expert in this field be retained.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

The Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") became effective January 26, 1992. We have not made a specific compliance survey and analysis of this property to determine whether or not it will be in conformity with the various detailed requirements of the ADA. It is possible that a compliance survey of the property, together with a detailed analysis of the ADA, could reveal that the property will not be in compliance with one or more of the requirements of the act. If so, this fact could have a negative effect on the value of the property. Since we have no direct evidence relating to this issue, we did not consider possible non-compliance with the requirements of the ADA in estimating the value of the property. The extent of investigation and methodology conforms to our interpretation of USPAP requirements.

FUNCTION AND PURPOSE OF THE APPRAISAL

The purpose of the appraisal is to estimate the market value of the subject property.

Market value is defined as:

The most probable price which a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller each acting prudently and knowledgeably, and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus.

Implicit in its definition is the consummation of a sale as a specified date and the passing of title from seller to buyer under conditions whereby:

1. Buyer and Seller are typically motivated.
2. Both parties are well informed or sell advised, and acting in what they consider their own best interests.
3. A reasonable time is allowed for exposure in the open market.
4. Payment is made in terms of cash in U.S. dollars or in terms of financial arrangements comparable thereto.
5. The price represents the normal consideration for the property sold unaffected by special or creative financing or sales concessions granted by anyone associated with the sale.

MARKET AREA ANALYSIS

The subject property is located on Otranto Road West of US 78 in the City of North Charleston. The area is between the upper sections of Charleston County and the lower sections of Dorchester and Berkeley Counties. The immediate subject neighborhood contains mostly older single family homes priced in the low to mid $100,000's. Beasley has recently constructed a small neighborhood off of Otranto Road in which homes are selling in the upper $100,000's. DR Horton is currently constructing a residential neighborhood across Otranto Road from the subject. This will consist of multi-family and single family homes. There are a few neighborhood commercial developments such as a daycare and convenience store along Otranto Road.

The Berkeley, Charleston, Dorchester Council of Governments published the "Planning for Change" in the Spring of 1995. The subject area is from Ladson Road in the north to CSX Railroad on the east and the Mark Clark Expressway on the south. The economic base is broad with shopping malls, a hospital, industrial parks, professional and financial services, and small businesses.

In the 2000 Census more than 66,000 people lived in the North Charleston Planning area. This is projected to be one of the prime growth areas in coming years with more than 34,000 new residents by 2015. Most of the new growth is in the City of North Charleston.

Two of the large institutions in the immediate area are the Charleston Southern University and Trident Medical Center Hospital on Hwy 78. The Charleston Southern University was established as the Baptist College of South Carolina in the mid 1960's and the hospital was built in 1975. Both these facilities have prospered over the years and continue to serve the community.

Trident Medical Center Hospital is located at 9330 Medical Plaza Drive, North Charleston. This is located at the southeast corner of Highway 78 and I-26 1/2 mile west of the subject property. The facility is licensed for 296 beds with 50 of those being Psychiatric beds. The facility has a campus of 46.25 acres and opened as a 225-bed hospital in July, 1975. The building was added on to with 56 rooms in the mid 1980's. In 1996, there were 15,384 admissions to the hospital with 152,684 out patient visits. The hospital had 2,285 births and 3,880 in house operations. Total revenue figures were $270,204,286 with $15,332,732 in charitable care. There are 2,053 employees with an annual payroll of $48,859,000.

The hospital changed its name to Columbia Trident Medical Center in February 1996. It joined the Columbia Summerville Medical Center and Columbia Colleton Medical Center. The hospital was originally designed to serve the upper Charleston County, and lower Dorchester and Berkeley Counties. The facility has been successful in serving the communities of Summerville, North Charleston and Moncks Corner. There are 398 physicians on staff. The overall bed occupancy is 68% with average length of stay 5.3 days.

Immediately around the hospital is a medical office park to serve the hospital. This has over 200,000 S.F. of medical office space and includes a nursing home, a day care center and pharmacy. This is a complete medical hospital office facility.

Charleston Southern University is an independent comprehensive university affiliated with the South Carolina Baptist Convention. This is a suburban co-educational institution with liberal arts and professional curricular degrees. The South Carolina Baptist Convention founded the school in 1964 as the Baptist College of Charleston.

The campus is located on 300 acres of land that was purchased at the northeast intersection of Interstate 26 and Highway 78. The school has grown from 588 to 2800 students. There are now 19 major campus buildings, plus auxiliary buildings to provide for maintenance of the complex.

The North Charleston Wannamaker County Park consists of 1015 acres of beautiful woodlands (576 acres) and wetlands (439 acres). The park is mostly wooded, and although some areas show damage from Hurricane Hugo in 1989, rejuvenation of the forest is evident. The Goose Creek Reservoir, a pristine swamp with mature cypress trees and a variety of wildlife, flows through the park, and bisects the land into almost equal parts. The vast majority of the park will remain natural.

Future plans call for the development of a Programs Center, Nature Center, Large Water Feature, additional open shelter, enclosed shelters, in-house catering services, the extension of the trail system which will include boardwalks into the swamps, additional lakes and lagoons and meadows.

The site has good access from Highway 78 and is relatively close to the interstate highway. The South Carolina Department of Public Transportation is planning to expand Highways 52 and 78 starting late 1999. The Rivers Avenue from Otranto Road will be widened from 4 lanes to 6 lanes. Highway 78 will be widened from Rivers Avenue west over I-26 to Ladson. This will be a 5-lane expansion. There are no more off ramps planned along I-26 in the metro-Charleston area. Thus the highway will be widened in front of the subject property. This will increase the traffic flow and access to the immediate area. This area is becoming increasingly more traveled. There is an increased number of doctor's office in the immediate area to the subject. This has increased the amount of cars and people in the area.

The subject neighborhood is considered to be that area bounding Rivers Avenue on the east, Otranto Road to the south, to the I-26 on the west and Hwy 78 on the north. The subject area continues to be in the growth stage of its life cycle. This area has remained one of the strongest in Charleston County. Highway 78 has recently been widened as a four-lane highway with an additional turning lane. There is an extensive amount of residential development surrounding the subject property. This is considered to be a positive influence on the subject. A new interchange highway loop was constructed at US Highway 52 and Highway 78 just north of the subject area.

The subject neighborhood has all necessary utilities available to it with power available from South Carolina Electric and Gas Company and telephone service from the Bell South. Water is available from the Commissioners of Public Works for the City of North Charleston. Sewer service is available from the North Charleston Public Service District. The impact and tap-in fees for utilities in this area are comparable to other areas in the Trident Region. The rates for utilities are comparable.

In summary, the subject neighborhood appears to be in the growth stage of its life cycle. The subject neighborhood is centrally located and should experience growth and appreciating property values in the long run. The immediate area has good access from I-26 and Highway #52 (Rivers Avenue) and Hwy 78 (University Boulevard).

SITE ANALYSIS

The subject site is the Northwood Garden Apartments located at 2526 Otranto Road, North Charleston, South Carolina. The apartments are situated on approximately 2.25 acres of land, which equates to about 21.33 units per acre. The property has 198 feet on frontage on Dorchester Road. The land is zoned R-2, or multifamily residential. The land area was obtained by a plat by Ashley Surveying, Inc. dated February 21, 2003. The site is identified by the Charleston County Assessor's Office as having TMS #485-03-00-114.

The 2.25-acre site is somewhat irregular, but is in no way hindered by the boundary designation, which comprises the total area of the apartment site. The inspection of the site shows that the topography is flat and level near road grade and drainage appears to be adequate. The site has 198 feet facing Otranto Road. The site has access from the entrance to the apartments along Otranto Road.

The property is located in Flood Zone "X" which is not a hazard area. Official flood information is illustrated on the enclosed FEMA Panel Flood Map, which is referenced with Community Panel Number 45019C 0285J.

The site is cleared of mostly all trees and has little else besides the apartments and parking.

The site has all the necessary utilities including power from SCE&G, telephone service from BellSouth, water from CPW and sewer service from the North Charleston Public Sewer District.

IMPROVEMENT ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of a 48-unit apartment complex located in 6 two-story apartment buildings. Additionally, there is a one-story office/clubhouse building. The improvements are located on a 2.25-acre site.

The units are two story buildings with the apartments being one-floor flats with center walkup metal steps. These units are mostly 2-bedroom, 1-bath (42 units), with an additional six units (one per building) that consist of 1 bedroom and 1 bath. Each building has 8 apartments with seven 2-bedroom, 1-bath units and one 1-bedroom, 1-bath unit.

Approx. SQFT:

42 Units @ 2 bedrooms + 1 bath, 832 sqft.

6 units @ 1 bedroom + 1 bath, 660 sqft.

The basic construction of the units is concrete slab foundation with concrete floors on the second floor. The frame is wood with wood roof trusses. The exterior is brick veneer on the first and second floors, and the buildings have pitched roofs with composition shingles. The windows are metal frame with single panes, and the parking lot is paved with asphalt and is in average overall condition. There are a total of 65 parking spaces which provides adequate parking for the complex.

All of the trim work is painted wood. The interior has carpeting in the living room and bedrooms and the bathrooms have either ceramic tile or vinyl floors. The kitchens have sheet vinyl flooring. The bathtubs are constructed of fiberglass, and the kitchens have refrigerators, oven/range/hood fan, garbage disposals, and dishwashers. All appliances are in need of replacement.

The heat and air conditioning system is characterized by individual electric and heating units, which were also in average (-) condition. The overall condition of the property is below average.

This is due to a substantial amount of deferred maintenance. Structurally, the buildings appear to be sound. There are no cracks in the exterior siding or any settlement issues as far as we could tell by visual inspection. However, the interiors of the units are in need of repair. Several of the units contain mold or mildew, especially in the bathrooms. Flooring, appliances, doors, etc. are in need of replacement. All of the units inspected need to be painted. There are plans to fully renovate these units in the future.

There is plenty of land and parking area. The density of the apartments is 21.33 units per acre, which is not abnormal for this type of development.

There is an office/workshop/laundry area with a 1,312 S.F. building. The laundry facilities are located in this building and consist of 6-gas powered washers and 6 dryers. Additionally, there is space for a small office and/or maintenance storage. Next to this building is a green area that will serve as a picnic area in the future.

Overall, the buildings appear to be in below average condition and contain a considerable amount of deferred maintenance. However, the property is under contract and the buyers have plans to renovate the entire complex.

RENOVATION SPECS AND COST ESTIMATES

The buyers of the complex have plans to totally renovate the subject property upon closing on the property. Details of this renovation are included in the addenda of this report. In summary, all appliances, carpet and doors will be replaced. Additionally, any deferred maintenance including paint, damaged walls, etc will be fixed. Most importantly, the buildings will be renovated according to LEED standards using EarthCraft specifications. This has to do with the new "Green Building" concept.

Green building is the practice of increasing the efficiency of buildings and their use of energy, water, and materials, and reducing building impacts on human health and the environment, through better siting, design, construction, operation, maintenance, and removal — the complete building life cycle.

The related concepts of sustainable development and sustainability are integral to green building. Effective green building can lead to 1) reduced operating costs by increasing productivity and using less energy and water, 2) improved public and occupant health due to improved indoor air quality, and 3) reduced environmental impacts by, for example, lessening storm water runoff and the heat island effect. Practitioners of green building often seek to achieve not only ecological but aesthetic harmony between a structure and its surrounding natural and built environment. The appearance and style of sustainable homes and buildings can be nearly indistinguishable from their less sustainable counterparts.

Green buildings are scored by rating systems, such as the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) rating system developed by the [[United States Green Building Council|U.S. Green Building Council], Green Globes from GBI and other locally developed rating systems].

Implementing the Green Building concept into building design typically increases construction costs 4-6%. However, long term cost savings outweighs initial cost expenditures.

The total cost of renovations is estimated to be $688,814. This is a cost of $14,350/unit. After the renovations are complete, the buyer will have approximately $3,500,000 invested in the property.

This includes the initial purchase of the complex.

HIGHEST AND BEST USE DEFINITION

Highest and Best Use is:

The reasonably probable and legal use of vacant land or an improved property, which is physically possible, appropriately supported, financially feasible, and that results in the highest value. The four criteria the highest and best use must meet are legal permissibility, physical possibility, financial feasibility, and maximum profitability.

Highest and Best Use of Land or a Site as Though Vacant is:

Among all reasonable, alternative uses, the use that yields the highest present land value, after payments are made for labor, capital, and coordination. The use of a property based on the assumption that the parcel of land is vacant or can be made vacant by demolishing any improvements.

Highest and Best Use of Property as Improved is:

The use that should be made of a property, as it exists. An existing property should be renovated or retained as is so long as it continues to contribute to the total market value of the property, or until the return from a new improvement would more than offset the cost of demolishing the existing building and constructing a new one.¹

HIGHEST AND BEST USE

The Highest and Best Use is that use which will bring the return to the site and to the improvements under the legal possible and probable uses. There are four criteria for highest and best use. These are as follows.

Legally Permissible:

The subject property is zoned R-2, multifamily by the City of North Charleston. This zoning allows for multi-family use either for townhouse condominiums or for apartments, and therefore the existing apartment complex is considered a legal and conforming use. The subject site has 48 units in total. Thus, this site would be legally permissible to develop as a multi-family property under the current zoning ordinance, and is allowed to continue to operate as apartments.

Physically Possible:

The subject site has all of the necessary utilities for multi-family development. It has access from a public street, SCE&G power, City of North Charleston water and sewer, and BellSouth telephone service. Thus, the site is physically possible to be developed. The site is almost flat and has not unusual soil or drainage problems.

Financially Feasible:

The property has 48 apartment units situated on 2.25 acres of land. At the present time there is 33% vacancy in the entire project. However, this is due to the fact that several of the tenants have been moved out in anticipation for upcoming renovations. Typically, the complex operates with little or no vacancy (<5%). These units have been in existence for 33 years and have had excellent occupancy. The property is located along Otranto Road, which is a major thoroughfare in North Charleston and is convenient both to US-26 and is in close proximity to the U.S. Air Force Base. There is a significant amount of new growth in the area. For example, University Park, located across Otranto Road from the subject, is a new residential development underway by D.R. Horton. This development will consist of 130 single family homes and over 300 multi-family homes. Currently, construction of Phase I has been completed and Phase II of four phases is underway. The site is financially feasible.

Maximally Productive:

The maximally productive use is that use which will bring the greatest return to the site and to the improvements. It appears that most residents in this part of North Charleston prefer to rent apartments rather than own condominiums, which has been undertaken in the past by other competing properties in the same marketplace. Market rents are quite reasonable and the make up of the tenants is such that they appear to be more motivated to rent apartment units.

Therefore, the highest and best use of the subject property is to continue the operation of the Northwood Garden Apartment complex as rental units rather than individual condominium sales.

MOORE 190

DEFINITION OF MARKET VALUE

The most probable price that a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller each acting prudently and knowledgeably, and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus.

Implicit in this definition is the consummation of a sale as of a specified date and the passing of title from seller to buyer under conditions whereby:

1. Buyer and Seller are typically motivated.
2. Both parties are well informed or well advised, and acting in what they consider their own best interests.
3. A reasonable time is allowed for exposure in the open market.
4. Payment is made in terms of cash in U.S. dollars or in terms of financial arrangements comparable thereto.
5. The price represents the normal consideration for the property sold unaffected by special or creative financing or sales concessions granted by anyone associated with the sale.

VALUATION METHODOLOGY

The valuation process begins when an appraiser identifies the appraisal problem and ends when he or she reports a conclusion to the client. Each parcel of real property is unique and many different types of value can be estimated for a single property. The most common appraisal assignment is performed to estimate market value and the valuation process contains all the steps appropriate to this type of assignment. The model also provides the framework for estimating any other defined value. Consulting assignments often call for value estimates, which are derived through modification of the valuation process.

The valuation process is accomplished through specific steps. The number of steps followed depends on the nature of the appraisal assignment and the data available. The model indicates a pattern that can be used in any appraisal assignment to perform market research and data analysis, to apply appraisal techniques, and to integrate the results of these activities into an estimate of defined value.

Research begins after the appraisal problem has been defined. The analysis of data relevant to the problem starts with an investigation of trends observed at all market levels - international, national, regional, community, and neighborhood. This examination will help the appraiser understand the interrelationships among the principles, forces, and factors that affect real property value in the specific area. It also provides raw data from which to extract quantitative information and other evidence of market trends such as positive or negative percentage changes in property value over a number of years, the population movement into an area, and the number of employment opportunities available and their effect on the purchasing power of potential property users. These data can be analyzed and employed to estimate a defined value.

Traditionally, appraisal techniques are the specific procedures within the three approaches that are applied to derive indications of real property value. Other procedures such as the use of inferential statistics and economic models also contribute to appraisals. One or more approaches to value may be used depending on their applicability to the particular appraisal assignment.

MOORE 192

In assignments to estimate market value, the ultimate goal of the valuation process is a well-supported value conclusion that reflects all the factors that influence the market value of the property being appraised. To achieve this goal, an appraiser typically studies a property from three different viewpoints, which correspond to the three traditional approaches to value.

1. The value indicated by recent sales of comparable properties in the market -the sales comparison approach.
2. The current cost of reproducing or replacing improvements, minus the loss in value from depreciation, plus site value - the cost approach.
3. The value of a property's earning power based on the capitalization of its income - the income capitalization approach.

The three approaches are interrelated; each requires the gathering and analysis of cost, sales, and income data that pertain to the property being appraised.

From the approaches applied, the appraiser derives separate indications of value for the property being appraised. One or more of the approaches may not be applicable to a specific assignment or may be less reliable due to the nature of the property, the needs of the client, or the data available.

To complete the valuation process, the appraiser integrates the information drawn from market research and data analysis and from the application of approaches to form a value conclusion. This conclusion may be presented as a single point estimate of value or as a range within which the value may fall. An effective integration of all the elements in the process depends on the appraiser's skill, experience, and judgment.²

LAND VALUATION

The most universally accepted method of land valuation is by comparing properties that have recently sold in the competing market place. This approach is based on the theory that a buyer will not pay more for a site than he would pay for a comparable substitute. We have researched sales in the subject market with emphasis being placed on the commercial zoning use of the property, its shape, frontage, visibility and access.

"Acres" was chosen as the appropriate unit of comparison. Appropriate adjustments were made to each item of the sales on an individual basis. Time adjustments of 7% per year have been used when necessary.

In making a determination of land value, it is assumed that the entire site can be used for development. The appraiser is not aware of any wetlands or unusable land within the subject parcel. The site is easily accessible from Hwy 17 or Brickyard Parkway.

The reader is referred to the following transaction sheets for information on each of the sales used. A location map precedes these sales.

Transaction Number	1	2	3	4	5

Time Adjusted Price/Acre	$69,412	$73,331	$97,153	$73,146	$74,438

The five sales are listed above along with their TMS numbers, dates of sale, sales price and size. The sales price is then divided by the size to indicate a sales price per acre. A time adjustment of 7% per year is given to sales over one year old. This results in a time-adjusted price per acre.

Size

Economies of Scale is defined as a "reduction in cost of production per unit due to a large number of items produced." This same principle can be applied to real estate in that a buyer would pay a lesser price per unit (square foot) for a larger property than he/she would for a similar but smaller property. In other words, as the size of the property increases, the value per unit decreases.

The subject property measures 2.25 acres. Sale #2 measures 20.57 acres. Therefore it is adjusted upward for size.

Location

The subject is located along Otranto Road in North Charleston. This is a two landed road developed almost exclusively with residential development. Sale #3 is located off of Dorchester Road. This is a major thoroughfare in the area with an abundance of residential and commercial development. This is considered to be a superior location when compared to the subject and this sale is adjusted downward for Location.

Corner/Access

The subject is accessed from Otranto Road. Otranto Road is a two laned road accessed off of Hwy 52 in North Charleston. The area is mostly developed with residential homesites. It is easily assessable from Otranto Road and Hwy 52. Sale #1 is located off of Hwy 78 at the rear of Elms Plantation, a residential community. It does not have any frontage along a major thoroughfare. This sale is considered to have inferior access when compared to the subject and this sale is adjusted upward for Access.

After adjustments to the transactions, the indicated value range is $73,146/Acre to $84,331/Acre. The median value is $76,352/Acre. The mean value is $78,169/Acre. We believe that the value of the subject property falls within this range. Based upon these sales, we believe that the subject property, as is, has a market value of $78,000/Acre. This would indicate a value for the subject property to have a value of $78,000 acre x 2.25-Acres equals $175,500, or:

INCOME APPROACH

"AS IS"

The Income Approach is based on estimating the gross potential rents less vacant/credit loss. To this is added other income to arrive at the effective gross income. From this is deducted the expenses of operation and fixed expenses. This results in the net operating income. This is then divided by an overall rate to arrive at a present value for the property. The subject property has been operating as a rented apartment complex for 30+ years. We have been provided with the property's current rental rates. This is detailed as follows:

Type	# of Units		$ per month		Gross Income per month
2 BR/1 Ba	42	@	$600.00	=	$25,200.00
2 BR/1 Ba	6	@	$490.00	=	$2,940.00
Totals	48	@	$1,090.00	=	$52,320.00

To verify that the subject is currently leased at market rents we have conducted a rent survey. To do so, we have analyzed the rental rates of comparable properties in the North Charleston market.

Please refer to the following study showing five comparable rents.

Vacancy and Credit Loss

The vacancy rate in North Charleston has improved slightly from 7.5% in August 2006 to 7.4% in February 2007. The current (02/07) rate for the overall market is 9.6%. For the purpose of this appraisal, we have assumed a 7.4% vacancy rate.

Effective Gross Income

Subtracting the estimated vacancy and collection loss ($26,906) from the Potential Gross Income ($363,600) indicates the Effective Gross Income, which is estimated to be $336,693.

ExpensesManagement

Apartment complexes of this type are usually managed by a professional property manager who includes the property within their company brochures and pamphlets and is able to offer the property to multiple tenants who contact their offices. In addition, many types of newer apartment complexes have waiting lists within the subject market. A management fee of 6%, or $20,201, is allocated and is consistent with the existing management cost of other units within the immediate area.

Taxes

The total taxes for the subject property for the 2006 tax year were $28,246.80.

Insurance

According to the operating statements provided to us, insurance expenses totaled $19,977 for 2006.

Utilities

According to estimates provided by the agent overseeing the property, annual utilities are estimated at $16,800.

Capitalization Rates

Our capitalization rate is supported by two methods.

- 1) By comparison, the sale of the Clement Arms Apartments sold on August 30, 2005 with an indicated overall rate of 8.5%.
- 2) The Califf Arms Apartments at 5465 Califf Road in North Charleston sold on November 15, 2005 with a cap rate of 7.9%.
- 3) The Wildwood townhouse apartments at 507 Stinson Drive sold on November 9, 2001 with an indicated overall rate of 8.00%.
- 4) The Northwoods Villas apartments at 8056 Thelen Avenue, North Charleston sold on May 12, 2006 with an indicated overall rate of 7.42%.
- 5) The Florida Avenue Apartments located at 3335 Florida Avenue in North Charleston sold on November 3, 2005 with an indicated overall rate of 8.5%.
- 6) The Driftwood Apartments located at 7360 Stall Road in North Charleston sold on June 30, 2006 with an indicated overall rate of 7.55%.
- 7) Waverly Place apartments in North Charleston sold on April 15, 2005 with an overall rate of 8.5%.

Therefore, based upon the two methods of analysis and other information within our files, we believe that a capitalization rate of 8.25% is reasonable for the subject property in today's favorable apartment rents.

Therefore, when the Net Operating Income of $225,401 is capitalized or divided by .0825, there is an indicated value by the Income Approach of $2,732,133, rounded to:

TWO MILLION SEVEN HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS

$2,700,000

DIRECT SALES COMPARISON APPROACH

"AS IS"

The Direct Sales Comparison Approach is based on finding sales of similar property, which can be used to compare to the subject property to estimate the market value for the subject. The appraiser has found several sales that we have used to estimate the market value of the subject property. The sales prices are then converted to a sales price per unit for comparison to the subject.

Each of the four sales is listed above along with the name of the complex, the tax map number, the date of sale and the number of units. The sales price is then divided by the number of units to derive a sales price per unit. For sales over one year old, an upward time adjustment of 10% per year is made. This results in a time-adjusted price per unit.

Adjustments are then made for individual factors such as size, location, access, quality and condition. This is as follows.

Size

Economies of Scale is defined as a "reduction in cost of production per unit due to a large number of items produced." This same principle can be applied to real estate in that a buyer would pay a lesser price per unit (square foot) for a larger property than he/she would for a similar but smaller property. In other words, as the size of the property increases, the value per unit decreases.

The subject consists of a 48 unit apartment complex. The first three sales contain more than 48 units. Therefore, they are adjusted upward. The fourth sale contains less than 48 units. This sale is adjusted downward for size.

Location

The subject enjoys a convenient location along Otranto Road proximate to both Hwy 78 and Hwy 52. This is less than one mile east of I-26. Sale #4 is located off of Sumner Avenue in North Charleston. This is south of N. Rhett Ave and North of I-526. This is considered to be an inferior location when compared to the subject and this sale is adjusted upward for Location.

Quality/Condition

The subject is in average (-) condition with deferred maintenance. Sale #2 is in superior condition and is adjusted downward. Sale #3 was in poor condition at the time of sale and is adjusted upward.

Net Adjustment	15%	5%	25%	10%
Adjusted Price/Acre	$49,809	$63,007	$45,213	$50,336

This results in final adjusted sales prices ranging from $45,213 per unit to $63,007 per unit. Based on the locational characteristics as well as these comparable sales, we believe that the subject apartment complex could command a sales price of $60,000 per unit. The subject contains 48-units. Therefore, we believe that the overall value of the subject property as of the date of inspection is ($60,000 x 48-units) $2,880,000.
