S.C. SUPREME COURT

RE: The State of South Carolina v. Justin McBride
Case No. 2013-002391

I have an emergency situation going on in my direct appeal case. My attorney of record is having an oral argument that is on my behalf but she has failed to communicate with me about the most essential part of my case and because of that I need her removed off my case immediately, and I must have time to correct my case and go with eyes wide open. I will be procedurally defaulted if my situation is not fixed and I will be also denied immediately with an unpublished opinion if things are not corrected.

See → (per curiam: Affirmed pursuant to Rule 220(b), SCACR, and the following Authorities: State v. Laney, 367 S.C. 639, 643, 627 S.E.2d 726, 729 (2006)) "in all criminal cases, this [c]ourt sits to review errors of law only and is bound by factually findings of the trial court unless an abuse of discretion is shown.) Elizabeth Tisdale has abandoned me and my issues of abuse of discretion and false imprisonment, mis carriage of justice and actual innocence, Brady violation etc!

Please send me a copy of this and date it, get my attorney to remove from my case and stop the proceedings immediately in the interest of justice. My attorney refuses to reach me!
