RE: State of South Carolina v. Damyon M. Cotton
Appellate Case No. 2014-000395

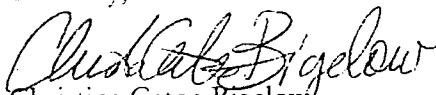

Dear Ms. Firestone and Mr. Dudek:

I am writing to let you know that the Record on Appeal has not been redacted to comply with the Order of the South Carolina Supreme Court, dated April 15, 2014, entitled RE: Revised Order Concerning Personal Identifying Information and Other Sensitive Information in Appellate Court Filings. Specifically, the Record on Appeal contains personal data identifiers in the form of the full name of a minor sexual assault victim. (See ROA: Index; p. 20-35; p. 170-83; p. 420-22; p. 436; p. 438-39; p. 447; p. 481).

Please be advised that the Record on Appeal, and all other filings including the Final and Reply Briefs, must be redacted in a manner consistent with the Supreme Court's Order.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and please do not hesitate to contact me at (803) 734-3713 should you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Christina Catoe Bigelow
Assistant Attorney General
