RE: Goldie Grier Reeves v. Dr. Rogers C. Reeves, et. al.
Appellate Case No. 2012 -2002082

[Motion To Compel]

Dear Ms Abbott Kitchings:

As the appellant in the above styled matter, I am responsible for producing the record on appeal.

I read in a response about the case from Judge Verdin, there were several components or sections of the decisions and I don't believe I have received all sections. I recall reading pages into the number of the twenties, however I only have pages in the low teens. I have requested these from his Legal Assistant Laura as well as a helper named Paige.

Additionally I have requested a document from Mr. Chasteen the Mr. Devlin requested from him called a Post- arbitration brief. Mr. Daniels has said both sides were asked to supply Mr. Devlin their positions on certain points. Mr. Chasteen also provided a Procedural History for Judge Robin still well and Mr. Chasteen has not provided that either.

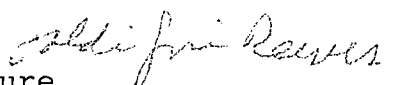

Inasmuch I am in Greenville, and time is of the essence, I would be happy to pick these up from the offices.

This is important, particularly as there was no transcription of that hearing.

I was advised to enclose a $25.00 check by Mrs. Monica Amick Cassidy.

I'd appreciate your consideration in these matters

Goldie Grier Reeves

Enclosure
