In re: Patrick Booker vs. SCDSS, et al.; 2012-CP-35-00020

In response to your letter of July 10, 2015, which I received on July 15, 2015, I have estimated the hearing in your case to be approximately 24 pages in length. At our rate of $3.25 per page, the cost of the transcript would be $78.00

As soon as I receive a money order in the amount of $78.00, I will proceed with the transcription.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Re: Patrick L. Booker vs. SCDSS
Appellate Case No. 2015-002125

Dear Ms. Allen:

Greetings, madam, I trust all is well. Enclosed please find my Amended Notice of Appeal, and my Motion to Proceed Informa Pauperis regarding the above-referenced case. Also, please find copies of my correspondence regarding the transcript. Although it is undoubtedly a strain upon my mother, she recently mailed a U.S. Postal money order in the amount of $78.00 made payable to the court reporter. My mother makes these financial sacrifices for me because she knows I've been wronged by so many government employees and she wishes to help me in my pursuits of justice. If you will, please place ~~me~~ my Motion before Associate Judge Jasper Curreton. Perhaps he'll grant me leave to proceed without prepayment (as he recently did in appellate case no. 2015-001837). Be sure he has the exhibits attached to the motion.

Thanks,
Patrick Behr
