v
State of S.C
County of Georgetown

Motion to appoint Counsel, and Postpone dismissal

In response to your letter dated September 28, 2015.

In your letter you informed me that I had 10 days to correct deficiencies or deficiency that have been noted under the S.C Appellate Court Rules are my appeal would be dismissed.

I would respectfully request that this matter be Postponed.

1. I am asking court to appoint Counsel.
In your letter you acknowledged that I have sent 4 different letter to the Chief Justice starting in February 2015. I have all so sent multiple letters to this court.
And in more than one or two of them I have ask for Counsel

2. you all so stated that the trial Judge relieved my attorney. My attorney was never relieved. She abandoned me and would not help me. I told the S.C. Supreme Court that I am Par, SC by force but need a lawyer badly. S.C. Code Ann. § 24-21-430 The United States Supreme Court has held that the ~~5th~~ Sixth and Fourteenth amendments forbid sentencing of an indigent defendant.

3. I am indigent, and all so incompetent and don't have the resource to defend myself. I must have counsel to help with this complex case. This is a case that needs to be heard not dismissed.

Thanks for your Time

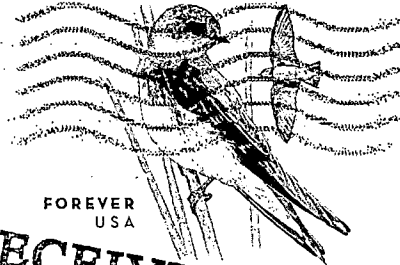

Jerry Cline
