I thought I would receive before now a response to my Motion to Reconsider (filed two weeks ago) and or at least a reply to, or acknowledgement of, my email sent to you on 11/12/15. This matter (request for approval of supersedeas to stay a foreclosure sale) started out as an emergency matter, and it remains an emergency matter, as the foreclosure sale is scheduled for December 7th. Your prompt attention will be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Diane, I would greatly appreciate receiving prompt feedback from the Court on the Appellant's Motion to Reconsider and to Alter or Amend Order Denying Petition for Supersedeas and Request for Hearing, which I served/filed last week (Wednesday, November 4th).

I hesitate to request a special treatment of this Motion, but the circumstances necessitate that this matter be treated on a priority or emergency basis.

The Plaintiff/Respondent has indicated an intention to advertise the foreclosure sale of the subject real property (the Appellant's residence) on December 7th, and the primary purpose of the Motion is to obtain a stay of the foreclosure sale of the said property (preferably without incurring additional costs). The Motion also seeks to delay the deadline for the Appellant to file his initial Brief and the Designation.

Thank you in advance for pushing this Motion up the line for a prompt resolution.
