DLJ Mortgage Capital,
LLC.....Respondent,

v.

Ameer Akeem Amin.....Defendants,

Of whom Ameer Akeem Amin is the appellant.

MOTION TO ALLOW THE LATE FILING OF THE MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Respondent, DLJ Mortgage Capital, Inc., through undersigned counsel, moves for a motion to allow the late filing of the motion for extension of time. As evidence by the attached tracking history, the original Motion for Extension of time was timely mailed via overnight delivery on October 7, 2015. Per carrier notification, FedEx was unable to deliver the package because the business was closed on Thursday October, 8, 2015. I believe that this may have been due to the historic flooding that our state received during that time period. As you can see, FedEx attempted to deliver the package on Thursday October 8, which would have resulted in a timely filing. Due to circumstances beyond our control, the package was not delivered until Monday October 12. Please allow the motion for extension of time.

WHEREFORE, Respondent, DLJ Mortgage Capital, Inc., respectfully requests a motion to allow the late filing of the motion for extension of time to be filed.
