(No Exhibits.)

1 THE COURT: I think we had a hearing, a
2 violation hearing, and -- did I revoke him and give
3 him an opportunity to do right?

4 AGENT FINCH: We continued the hearing until
5 the August term of court. He was to be released
6 from the detention center, reside with his parents,
7 have no contact with Randy Currie.

8 THE COURT: Randy Currie is the --

9 AGENT FINCH: That's the brother.

10 THE COURT: The brother. That's right.

11 AGENT FINCH: Correct.

12 THE COURT: Couldn't have any firearms, must
13 report, must do his public service, and I retained
14 jurisdiction over the court.

15 MS. ALVES: Judge, you found no willful
16 violation in that instance.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 We continued him, but with absolutely no
19 contact with Randy Currie. Isn't that correct?

20 AGENT FINCH: That's correct.

21 THE COURT: That was a new condition.

22 AGENT FINCH: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Now, that was back in August
24 or late fall or -- late summer, early fall of 2014.

25 AGENT FINCH: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Now, details of the present
2 violation say that Mr. Currie has failed to follow
3 your advice and instructions, failed to report in 4 October of 2014, October 28th. Is that correct?

5 AGENT FINCH: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Again in November of 2014?

7 AGENT FINCH: Well, he reported -- last
8 reported on October 28th, but he failed to report as 9 instructed on November 5th.

10 THE COURT: Missed one time?

11 AGENT FINCH: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: And then he has changed his 13 residence without notifying the agents. And where 14 is he living now; with Randy Currie?

15 AGENT FINCH: That's what was reported to us.
16 We went and conducted a home check to find out why
17 he hadn't reported and to get him back in the 18 office. He was no longer living at the 19 Street address. And we went to his old address and 20 we found out that he was residing at that address.

21 THE COURT: At that residence with whom?

22 AGENT FINCH: With Randy.

23 THE COURT: Well, didn't I give him a
24 no-contact with Randy Currie?

25 AGENT FINCH: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: And that was ordered in June of
2 2014; isn't that correct?

3 AGENT FINCH: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: So by November of 2014, he has,
5 once again, violated the terms of the -- my
6 probationary order.

7 AGENT FINCH: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: In addition to that, he's failed to 9 pay his fees and he's only done 7 of the 400 public
10 service hours.

11 AGENT FINCH: We found out he did three more
12 hours, which is a total of --

13 THE COURT: Ten of the 400?

14 AGENT FINCH: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And that's been ever since -- I
16 sentenced him a year and four months ago, three 17 months ago, 9/10/13, and he's only done ten hours?

18 AGENT FINCH: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Agent is recommending revocation.
20 Your justification is that he's willfully violated
21 the terms and conditions as ordered by the Court in 22 the facts that I just gave.

23 Ms. Alves, I remember, vividly, this case; the 24 opposition by the victim's family as to my sentence
25 at that time, my concern about the firearms and the

1 earlier alleged violations, and my strict order for
2 him not to have any -- for him to have no contact
3 with Randy Currie. And now, within two or three 4 months after that, he's basically saying, Judge, to 5 heck with you.

6 MS. ALVES: No, sir, that's -- Mr. Currie
7 denies that he moved from his brother Victor's house
8 on Street. I did talk with his brother and 9 his brother's common-law wife, Vicky Williams, who 10 are both present here in the courtroom today. They 11 tell me that they never asked William to leave the 12 Street address.

13 What happened is, from what Ms. Williams tells 14 me, is that they went to a family funeral -- William
15 did not attend that funeral -- and when they came 16 back from the funeral, he was not at the home.
17 About a week later is when he was arrested.
18 Mr. Currie did not -- he tells -- his possessions
19 are still on Street and he tells me he did
20 not change his residence.

21 THE COURT: Well, where has he -- has he been 22 having contact with Randy Currie, been in his home,
23 living there?

24 MS. ALVES: Your Honor, he -- Randy Currie
25 lives with the parents on Road.

1 When -- back in August when they came to court, the 2 parents were living -- they were all living with his
3 brother Victor who was the younger brother in the 4 family. And the parents moved back in with -- into 5 their own home. At some point between August and 6 November, the parents moved into their own home on 7 Road. That's where Randy was living.

8 Mr. William Currie tells me that he and his
9 family were trying to get the rest of his belongings
10 from the Road house to take them to 11 the Street house. At some point during that,
12 William was trying to get his stuff. They tell me
13 that they contacted Probation to try to get some 14 assistance with going there, and that they were not 15 able to get any assistance. So he did go to get his 16 property out of the home.

17 I can't say where he was living because he 18 tells me he was not living in the -- he was not 19 living on Road is what my --

20 THE COURT: Well, where was he living?

21 MS. ALVES: He says he --

22 THE DEFENDANT: I was at Street, sir.

23 THE COURT: Where?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Street with my brother
25 and Vicky. I had went to a magistrate court that

1 day.

2 THE COURT: Who is your brother?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Victor.

4 THE COURT: All right. What else does he have 5 that he's living -- he's violated the terms of my 6 order, Mr. Probation Officer?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Not been no address change at 8 the post office or --

9 THE COURT: I'll talk to you in a minute. I've 10 just about had it up to here with you, sir. I mean,
11 I have given you every opportunity to comply with 12 your probation, and it's just one thing after the 13 other.

14 What evidence do you have of his --

15 AGENT FINCH: The father came in and advised us
16 that he was back at that address at 17 Road, the whole family was back living out there.

18 THE COURT: And that's where the brother who he 19 says he's had no contact --

20 AGENT FINCH: Yes, sir. That's where Randy is 21 living, Road. The father came in and 22 reported that William was living out there, they had 23 some issues, he was gone for a couple days but was 24 back, he seemed to be doing better, but he was 25 living out at the residence. We went out and

1 conducted a home visit, asked to speak to him there.
2 Mother said, hold on, I'll go check to see if he's
3 still here. She goes in and checks the residence,
4 he's not here right now. We asked if he was staying
5 there, she confirmed that he was living there --

6 THE COURT: And that's where the brother lives?

7 AGENT FINCH: Yes, sir, at Road.

8 We left from that residence and went down to 9 Street and spoke with Victor's wife,
10 common-law, and asked about William living there.
11 They had said they'd been out of town, he had not --
12 they had some issues prior to them leaving to go out
13 of town. When they came back from town, he wasn't 14 there and he had not been back since.

15 THE COURT: Anything else, Ms. Alves?

16 MS. ALVES: Yes, sir. Judge, as to the
17 community service, I did speak with the probation
18 officer who handles that, Lisa Kenner. He did start
19 to do his community service at the Salvation Army in 20 Clearwater. I don't know who exactly complained --
21 Ms. Kenner thought it might have been a victim --
22 might have been someone -- I mean, who knew the 23 victim might have been somewhat involved with the 24 Salvation Army or shopped there or, for some reason,
25 they were there. They saw him, they were upset that

1 he would be present there, they complained. They
2 said that Mr. Curry could not work at that location.

3 They did find him another location which he did
4 start to work at. He worked three hours for the 5 Cumbee Center Thrift Store, however, right after he 6 started, they moved to the opposite side of town.
7 And it's my understanding that the probationers who 8 worked there -- excuse me, who were doing their 9 community service there, they were all given the 10 opportunity to find a new location because that one
11 had moved to a substantially different part of town.
12 So that's where he is right now. So he did start
13 the community service, but those are the two reasons
14 why he hasn't been able to get very many hours in.
15 I don't know exactly when they moved.

16 But then I would just note that his money -- he 17 was paying up until October. He was arrested on 18 these charges in November. So it's not been willful
19 that he hasn't paid or didn't do the community
20 service, but that's what happened with those two 21 situations.

22 Judge, as to the other situation with his
23 brother, like I said, Mr. Currie tells me he didn't 24 change his residence. And I will say that -- and I
25 told you what the sister-in-law said.

1 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to find that
2 he is not in willful violation as to financial
3 aspects of the order. I find that he is in willful
4 violation of the failing to only do 10 hours out of 5 400 hours since September 2013. I find his 6 testimony and his story that he -- where he's 7 residing to be not credible. I find that he --
8 obviously the agent's testimony to be credible. I
9 find that he has completely violated my no-contact
10 order with Randy Currie. And I'm going to revoke
11 his probation in full.

12 Good luck to you.

13 AGENT FINCH: Thank you, Your Honor. Civil 14 judgments for financial obligations?

15 THE COURT: That's correct.
