

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Isiah James, Jr. and George Lee Tomlin, Plaintiffs,

Of whom George Lee Tomlin is the Appellant,

v.

The South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2015-002057

ORDER

First, Appellant's motion for consolidation is denied.

Second, Appellant's motion to proceed in forma pauperis is granted. See Wicker v. S.C. Dep't of Corrs., 360 S.C. 421, 424, 602 S.E.2d 56, 58 (2004) (recognizing a state-created property interest in the payment of a prevailing wage such that this interest may not be denied without minimal due process).

Third, Appellant has requested "prisoner pro-se status." This Court construes the request as a motion to relax the appellate court filing requirements and grants the motion. Appellant is permitted to file only one copy of the record on appeal and final brief with this court. Appellant, however, is still required to serve Respondent with the copies of all filings, including the record on appeal and final brief, as well as all mailings to this court. The covers may be of any material and in any color, and must contain only the caption. See Rules 208, 210, 211, 240, SCACR.
