

South Carolina Court of Appeals

Case No. 2015-001770

[Lower Court Case No. 2012CP2201132]

RECEIVED

NOV 20 2015

S.C. Supreme Court

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Respondent.

Vs.

Dameon Myers.

In Propria Persona, Sui Juris.

NOTICE TO COURT/STAY

I, Dameon Myers, am now giving notice to this Court that I have in no way waived my Right to the Rule 59(e) motion that was served. I would like it Judicially Noted that I served a copy of that motion to the Court of Common Pleas in Georgetown, South Carolina; and this court has failed in its duties to immediately stamp and file the documents that it receives.

I have had someone to contact the Clerk of Court's Office in Georgetown, South Carolina, and she was told that my motion was sent to the wrong place, and that it was being forwarded to Joshua L. Thomas in Columbia, South Carolina.

It was my intent to have this motion heard. As certified in the certificate of service, a copy was in fact sent to the Court of Common Pleas in Georgetown, South Carolina; and the Clerk's Office did not properly record it. I cannot be prejudiced due to the failure of the Clerk's Office to perform its duties.

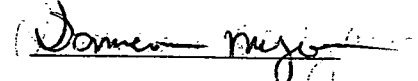

It is my understanding pursuant to SCRCF Rule 59(f), "The time for appeal for all parties shall be stayed by a timely motion under this Rule."

I am now respectfully demanding that this proceeding be stayed until I can be heard in regards to my motion to alter and/or amend judgment.
