G. Thomas Cooper, Jr., Circuit Court Judge

NOV 19 2015

SC Court of Appeals

Civil Action No. 13-CP-40-0301

Basil W. Akbar, #065498

Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, et al.

Respondents.

APPELLANT'S RESPONSE TO RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO STRIKE

Pursuant to Rule 12(f), SCRCP, upon motion pointing out defects complained of, and made by a party before responding to pleading . . . at any time the court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or redundant, immaterial, impertinent or scandalous matter. Response to Respondent's Motion to Strike is thereto required.

The Appellant object to the Respondent's Motion to Strike, "Appellant's Objection to Respondent's Final Brief in its Entirety", and "Appellant's Affidavit in Support of [Brief and] Objections to Respondent's Final Brief". The Court must not construe said documents as an additional "Reply Brief", or "Supplemental Record", something that they are not subscribed to be. The Appellant has not supplied something additional or new. Appellant's object were to point out to the Court Respondent's falsities/falsifying the record of Appellant's pleadings,

* Respondent's Refer to minor inadvertent/mistake words in affidavit caption ["Brief and"] . . . the court may strike word(s) on its own initiative to conform the evidence that should read "appellant's Affidavit in Support of Objections to Respondent's Final Brief".

and put forward as an objection, via specific objection accompanied by a statement on grounds in support of the objection opposing Respondent's mis-statements in their pleadings that the Court may rule on the points, and stated the basis of the objection to preserve the right to appeal an adverse ruling, pursuant to Rule 46, SCRCP.
