APPELLANTS RULE 224(f) SCACR REPLY TO
RESPONDANTS RETURN TO APPELLANTS NOV. 9, 2015 filing
MOTION FOR AN ORDER CONSISTENT WITH THE LOWER COURTS DISMISSAL OF CASE

See hereto as if fully re-written, Appellants Motion For An Order Consistent With The Lower Courts Dismissal Of Case.

On Nov. 24, 2015 Appellant Received Respondan State of South Carolina, Senior Assistant Deputy Attorney General, Deborah R.J. Shupe "Respondnat Return to toMotion", where Respondnats cleverly explan away without documental evidentyary support that Appellants assertion the underlying case has been dismissed, not once but twice, is misleading.

With Respondnat claiming #1. the case is not dismissed because all SCC Ann 44-48-110 denials of Annual Reviews are called dismissals and #2. the Oct. 31, 2002 Order OF Dismissal of case was on NOV. 12, 2002 Ordered Withdrawn.

In Respondants #1. assertion, produced an Exhibit (B) entitled "Order Denying Trial After Annual Review Hearing Pursuant To Sexual Violent Predator Act, dated Feb. 19, 2015.

Appellant argues he filed as documented a timely Rule 59(a,b) SCRCR Motion For Rehearing" on 3/9/15 and Addium on 3/30/15 in accordance with Rule 59(g). See Appellants Exhibit (C), at page 1 of 10 entry dated 03/09/15 09:04 and at 03/30/2015-11:08.

On page 1 of Appellants Exhibit (C), see the Respondant made a Return to Appellants Rule 59 Motion and Addium on 04/06/2015-15:35. The Respondant fails to expaln why (she) filed a Retrun if in fact Annual Review had been denied with out consideration for Appellants Rule 59 Motion.

As of this date Nov. 27, 2015 the Court has not issued a denial of Appellants Rule 59 Motion, for the court dismissed the case based upon Appellants Motion To Dismiss the case.

And #2. see Respondants Exhibit (A), Respondant claims the case had been re-instated with the defacto filing of Nov. 12, 2002 Order of With Drawal of Oct. 31, Order of Dismissal.

Appellant argues the lower Court Judge Stilwell in May 2015 after the fact of denying SCC Ann. 44-48-110 Annual Review, invoked the only jurisdictional discretion left to him by correcting the error of Nov. 12, 2002 by closing the case, barring the parties from ever using case no: 2002-CP-040-3343 again.

See hereto, Appellants Rule 224(c(2) Memorandum in Support of this Reply.

REPLY

Wherefore, Appellant moves this Court to deny Respondants Nov. 19, 2015 Return and,

1. Issue an order Consistent with Judge Stilwell's May 2015 Order Closing and Dismissing this case forever.
2. Or in the alternative / require Judge Stilwell to clarify his order and have Clerk of Court Mr. Shiley to clarify his understanding of the case being closed.

Respectfully submitted by,

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF APPELLANTS RULE 224 (f), SCACR
REPLY TO RESPONDANTS NOV. 19, 2015 RETURN

By reference to Appellants Reply at #1, see Respondants Exhibit (B), the Respondant claims the lower court did not dismiss this case in its entirety, but only calling the denial of 44-48-110 Annual Review as dismissed, the Respondants Exhibit (B) is dated as filed on Feb. 19, 2015, then not received by Appellant until the following week. See hereto Appellants Exhibit (G), ""Appellants (civil commitment respondent) Rule 59, SCRC Motion For Rehearing of denied annual review, as timely served on Mar. 4, 2015 and filed on Mar. 9, 2015. And, by reference see Appellants Exhibit (C) page 1, showing Appellant also filed an Addendum in Support of Appellants Rule 59 Motion, ie: filed 3/30/15.

Respondant did not mention Appellants Rule 59 filing nor can Respondant explain how or where Judge Stilwell disposed of Appellants Rule 59 (a,b) Motion For Rehearing. Without an Order directly addressing the Rule 59 Motion, the case then reasonably was dismissed based upon Appellants Motion To Dismiss, with included an exhibit of the referenced Oct. 31, 2002 Dismissal, pursuant to Buxton v Thompson Dental 415 SE2d 844, and Ness v Eckerd Corp. 350 SC 399 at 402 / 566 SE2d 193 at 195 (SC App 2002), Exparte Beard 597 SE2d 835, 838 (SC App 2004) , Pitman v Republic Leasing 570 SE2d 187, 189 (SC App 2002)

"trial judge retain jurisdiction to alter judgment on their own initiative for 10 days if motion to alter or amend judgment is filed, however after 10 days jurisdiction is lost."

Judge Stilwell could not alter or amend the Oct. 31, 2002 Dismissal nor modify it by ordering Appellants release, but only as mandated by the SCRC, specifically Rule 12 (h)(2), SCRC

"...Where it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the Court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the Court shall dismiss the action".

This goes hand and hand with Appellants argument #2 against Respondants Exhibit (A), Respondants reliance on this document is misplaced for upon closer inspection, Res Exhibit (A) at 1. "The Order of this Court signed Nov. 1, 2002 finding no probable cause in the above-captioned matter is hereby withdrawn".

See Appellants Exhibit (C) at page 10, entry's #17-19, dated 10/31/2002 and see Appellants hereto complimentary copy of the Oct 31, 2002 "Order Of Dismissal" clearly shows the reference to Nov. 1, 2002 is date of a true copy only.

One minute never alone 2 days makes the difference between a document being in or out of a given statute of limitations, but in this case, the defacto order with drawing the order to dismiss was not even provided to the parties until approximately 95 days later, and then at the SCC Ann. 44-48-80 Probable Cause Hearing, Judge Nicholson did not allow defense attorney Cox to question the with drawal order in violation of Appellant right to be heard, pursuant to Rule 59 (d), which mandates "..... (2nd line) "after giving the parties notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter". And see ⁽¹⁾ Rule 77 (d), and Rule 84. ~~SECRET~~

The Respondant through the magic of arguing Res-judicata has re-gained subject matter / personal jurisdiction based upon this the defacto Nov. 12, 2002 Order of With-drawal.

This provokes the question ? How can for the last 12 years has the courts maintained jurisdiction over Appellant after the date of Oct. 31, 2002 ?

The truth of the matter is more likely then not was a inempt assistant clerk of court made the Nov. 12, 2002 filing and the Clerk of Court (Cathy Phillips) not even knowing of the filing for she would no more had allowed it's filing then the present Clerk Of Court, (Richard Shirley) allowed Appellants request for a subpoena be processed after the case had been closed, see Appellants Exhibit (A).

Appellant asserts Judge Stilwell invoked the doctrine of Collateral Estoppel / Issue Preclusion as the controlling authority in this matter as shown in Buxton, Ness, Exparte Beard, Pitman, to avoid making his own abuse of discretion or allowing the past abuse to continue.

See Stokes Crawen Holding Corp v Robinson --SE3d--, WL 5247124 Sept. 9, 2015, No: 27572

note: (1) Rule 77(d) "Immediately upon the entry of an order or judgment the clerk shall serve a notice of entry by first class mail upon every party affected."

"Abuse of discretion occurs when Judges ruling has no evidentiary support or judge makes error of law" quoting Sundown Operating Co. v Intedge Indus. 383 SC 601 / 681 SE2d 885.

The most telling documentary evidence against the Respondant is Respondants own Exhibit (A), where the date of filing was Nov. 12, 2002, 12 days past the Oct. 31, 2002 order of dismissal, making it 2 full days past the statute of limitations. Respondant is now 13 years later trying to re-litigate their offices legal blunder of not having filed a Rule 59 Motion for a re-hearing of the Oct. 31, 2002 Order of Dismissal, with in ten days of the order.

This may be arguably different if it were not for the fact the Respondant is using this as their evidence in chief as authority to maintain holding Appellant civilly committed.

See Respondants Return To Motion at page 1, paragraph one, Respondant states at line 4, " Respondant submits the basis for Appellants motion is false, and Appellant is attempting to mislead the Court by attaching irrelevant documents".

(Appellant has already made the foregoing Reply to Respondants paragraph 2.

At Respondants Return paragraph 3 states "Appellant then cites Clerk of Court records and correspondence for the proposition the underlining SVPA case has been dismissed. As evidenced by the Order attached hereto as Exhibit B, however, the circuit court did not "dismiss" the case in February 2015. Rather, after an annual review hearing, the court found (page 2) cause to believe Appellant was safe to be at large, and the Order specifically provides Appellant "continues under the jurisdiction of this Court". And, Respondant Return page 2 at paragraph 2, "When a SVPA annual review is decided, the Clerk's Office apparently changes the case status to "dismissed", not closed". This status simply removes it from the active case roster until a new annual review or some other properly served pleading, is submitted. The civil action number remains the same and the case remains open".

Then as normal, claimed attorney Shupe attacks Appellant on a personal level.

It is overly obvious the Respondant can not comprehend what is written by both a Honored Clerk Of Court and a experienced Judge. Maddox.

See Appellants Exhibit A, letter by Clerk Of Court Richard A. Shirley states "I am returning your paperwork on the above referenced case. It is my understanding that the judge has ruled on this matter and the case is closed. No subpoenas or other legal documents can be issued or processed on a closed case. If you wish to pursue further legal action, a new case will have to be filed."

Please, do not send any more documents to my office in regards to this case. Under state law, I cannot process anything sent".

And, see Appellants Exhibit f, at line 2-3....."as this case has been dismissed".....

Respondant says a case must be listed as closed to be closed, ie: see the above excerpt from Appellants Exhibit (A), Clerk of Court says "closed" twice. And, a "new case will have to be filed".

This by all inferences means case No: 2002-CP-040-3343 is dead. But yet the Respondant continues to perpetrate a malicious prosecution. Which again is Collaterly Estopped from filing a "new case" for the Respondant recieved notice of the closure earlier in approximately July 2015 when the States attempted to file documents through it's Intervening Joined party SCDMH and was refused by the same Clerk Of Court, Mr. Shirley. And, again the Respondant was given fair notice of the closure when served Appellants Exhibit A, B, C, E, F on Nov. 4, 2015 allowing 2 days mailing puts the Respondant receiving the Notice no later then the following Monday the 9th of Nov. The Respondant had 10 days from the serve of the Notice inwhich to have filed a Rule 59 SCRCp, to alter or Amend the order closing the case.

The only issue before this court in this matter is first to ascertain whether the lower court (Judge Stilwell) dismissed and closed this case and secondly, whether the clerk of Court (Richard Shirley) been ordered to not file any more pleadings under case no: 2002-CP-040-3343 ?

The forgoing Oct. 31, 2002 dismissal is not at issue before the court, Appellant provided a copy of the order for the convenience of the court to compare what Respondants Exhibit (A) is in reference to.

Feasibly speaking, it is a very real possibility that come this February 2016, Appellant could have separate appeals going at one time, being the present, one challenging the Feb. 14, 2015 denial by (Judge Stilwell) and 3d, a pending SCC. Ann. 44-48-110 Annual Review is coming up again for 2016.

Appellant would move this Court to require Judge Stilwell to speak on the purpose and scope of his ordering the clerk Of Court to dismiss this case.

And, secondly, to inquire of Clerk Of Court, Richard Shirley, as to what his understanding is involving case no: 2002-CP-040-3343.

3d=ly, ask both as to why they are not invoking the rules as mandated by this Court and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure which had mandated the case not to have proceeded past the date of Oct. 31, 2002 ?

12 years of Res-judicata made in error is just what it is, another error.

Nov. 27, 2015

DISMISSAL

Bob

This matter comes before me on petition of the State of South Carolina for an order finding that sufficient probable cause exists that the Respondent is a sexually violent predator as defined by South Carolina Code Section 44-48-30, and scheduling a hearing to contest probable cause.

I have reviewed the petition in this case and considered the showing made in respect to this matter and am of the opinion that the State has failed to demonstrate that probable cause exists to find that the Respondent is a sexually violent predator. I find that the State has failed to present sufficient evidence that the Respondent suffers from a mental abnormality or personality disorder that makes him likely to engage in acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility for long-term control, care, and treatment as required by South Carolina Code Section 44-48-30(b). THEREFORE the State's petition in this matter is denied.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

RE: State v. Deans
2002-CP-04-3343

Dear Mr. Deans:

I am in receipt of your July 2, 2015, correspondence. I agree with you that there are interesting constitutional questions regarding the several SVP acts enacted across the nation. Should the US District Court's ruling in Minnesota make its way through the judicial system and result, ultimately, in a Supreme Court ruling invalidating the same, that ruling will have repercussions throughout the country. As such, your interest would be affected and the time would be ripe for your filing motions with the Court. As it currently stands, however, the ruling of the US District Court in Minnesota is not binding on the courts in South Carolina. Therefore, I am bound by the law to deny your request. Furthermore, please know that I cannot consider granting a Motion which has not been appropriately filed on the opposing party.

I am sorry that my response is not more favorable. However, I do wish you luck and extend to you best wishes for release.

With kindest regards,

Columbia, SC 29203

Dear Mr. Deans:

Our office received your Proposed Order. Unfortunately, the Proposed Order is not a proper filing and is not sufficient under the Rules of Civil Procedure, as this case has been dismissed. Please bring these matters to your attorney's attention in order to have them properly filed in the Clerk of Court's office.

Sincerely,

Law Clerk to the Honorable J. Cordell Maddox, Jr.

In The Matter Of Care and Treatment of

WILLIAM DEANS
RESPONDENT

RESPONDANTS SCRCPP RULE 59
MOTION FOR REHEARING OF
2015, SCC ANN. 44-48-110
ANNUAL REVIEW and
Notice Of Motion

To: Plaintiff State of SC, Take Notice of this the following motion, Respondant will move within 10 plus 2 days of service for the requested relief.

Come Now, William Deans, Respondant Pro-se, to move this court pursuant to South Carolina Rules Of Civil Procedure, Rule 59 for With-drawal of the Courts Feb. 19, 2015 "Order Denying Trial After Annual Review Pursuant To The Sexually Violent Predator Act" signed The Honorable Robin B. Stilwell, based on the State failed to present a burden for which Respondant is required to have over come showing he has so changed pursuant to Billy Ray Tucker SC Supreme Court, Op: 25608 (2003), and allow for a second opinion due to the Courts complete reliance on a single experts dubious opinion, and this compounded by the courts lack of the discipline of understanding what constitutes a medical certainty as required in this case.

note: this is understood as a SCC Ann. 44-48-110 cause of action subject to any pending SCACR R 225 Supersedes, totally seperate from Respondants Motion For Dismissal of Case pursuant to SCRCPP, R 12 (b)(6).

The Court is in error by claiming Respondant has not shown any evidence emplifying he has so changed, when 2/3ds of the reason for civil commitment no longer exist, being Respondant has seccessfully attented over 155 therapuic SVP group sessions, is no longer required to admit guilt to an out of state dismissed charge nor SC due to an admission in SC would trigger a charge in NC and victim impact medical reports showing the degree of violence claimed was in fact not present for the determination for coninued civil commitment.

-This is understood as a consideration for the purpose of continued civil commitment and not that as a challenge against the underlying conviction. SCC Ann. 44-48-30 only requires a conviction, whether it was a lawfull or consitutional conviction is / was irrelivent for the purpose of civil commitment.

(A) The SCDMH and Dr. Schwarts-Watts both state the civil commitment of Respondant has reached it's logical / legal conclusive stale-mate when no further testing can be conducted nor SVP treatment provided that would change future assessments with out violating Respondants rights to due-process especially when no present or future degree of dangerousness was found or reported by Dr. Schwarts-Watts.

(B) This factor was attested to by His Honor Judge Stilwell who advised Respondant to file civil action against any person who has interrogated and denied Respondant SVP treatment for refusing to cooperate in the continued interrogation.

1 of 2 / Appellant Exhibit G

The same cause of action named above by Judge Stilwell is exactly the same reasons why this case should be dismissed (A) is (B), (B) is (A) it's saying the same thing across two separate legal principles. One is remedy the other is recourse, one is against the individual and one is against the State for prosecutorial misconduct.

You can't have treatment or SCC 44-48-110 examination / report without unconstitutional interrogation, and you can't hold Respondant any longer under the jest of treatment for interrogation.

South Carolina does not have the jurisdictional authority to grant Respondant absolute immunity from North Carolina prosecution and nor does NC have the jurisdictional authority to grant Respondant absolute immunity from prosecution on information gained for treatment purposes in a SC civil commitment.

see hereto Respondants Memorandum in Support of RESPONDANTS SCRCR RULE 59 MOTION FOR REHEARING OF 2015, SCC ANN. 44-48-110 ANNUAL REVIEW. and, Exhibit transcript and (A) Petition.

Wherefore, Respondant moves this Court as follows,

- 1) Order case to be dismissed
- 2) Respondant does not agree to this alternative / Withdraw its Order Denying Relief On Annual Review.
- 3) allow reasonable time to obtain superior Psychiatric Expert testimony as to the validity of Dr. Schwarts-Watts report and testimony to the Court.
- 4) Order further Actuarial testing of Respondant, to include PPG and Lie-detector testing.
- a) that said testing is to be conducted by independent analogy, being that the examiner is not to have access to Respondants records until after said test are administered and results provided to the Court and party's.

note: The name Dr. Greg Quire has been presented to the Court.

b) at that point the court can decide whether appointment of an independent examiner for Respondant or release is warranted based on either a legal or mental consideration.

Respectfully submitted by,

3/4/15
